Statement by Samdech Norodom Sihanouk, President of Democratic Kampuchea

1 July 1984

For some time now the Vientiane régime, a satellite of the Socialist Republic of Viet Nam, has been trying to provoke armed incidents in the Lao-Thai frontier areas and is going so far as to contest the fact that certain (Thai) frontier villages belong to the Kingdom of Thailand.

As President of Democratic Kampuchea, I strongly condemn the warmongering and expansionist policy being pursued by the Hanoi and Vientiane régimes towards the Kingdom of Thailand.

Democratic Kampuchea supports and will continue to support the legitimate efforts being made by Thailand to defend and safeguard its territorial integrity.
