The Special Committee on the Situation with regard to the Implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples was established by the General Assembly pursuant to its resolution 1654 (XVI) of 27 November 1961. The Committee was requested to examine the application of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples, contained in Assembly resolution 1514 (XV) of 14 December 1960, and to make suggestions and recommendations on the progress and extent of the implementation of the Declaration.

2. At its seventeenth session, after considering the report of the Special Committee, 1/ the General Assembly adopted resolution 1810 (XVII) of 17 December 1962, by which it enlarged the Special Committee with the addition of seven new members. It invited the Committee "to continue to seek the most suitable ways and means for the speedy and total application of the Declaration to all Territories which have not yet attained independence".

3. At the same session, by resolution 1805 (XVII) of 14 December 1962, on the question of South West Africa, the General Assembly requested the Special Committee to discharge, mutatis mutandis, the tasks assigned to the Special Committee for South West Africa by resolution 1702 (XVI) of 19 December 1961. By resolution 1806 (XVII) of 14 December 1962, the Assembly decided to dissolve the Special Committee for South West Africa.

It also requested the Committee to take that information fully into account in examining the situation with regard to the implementation of the Declaration in each of the Non-Self-Governing Territories and to undertake any special study and prepare any special report it might consider necessary.

5. At the same session and at each subsequent session, the General Assembly, after considering the report of the Special Committee, 2/ has adopted a resolution renewing the mandate of the Committee.

44. At its 1377th meeting, on 21 February 1991, by adopting the suggestions put forward by the Chairman relating to the organization of its work (A/AC.109/L.1755), the Special Committee decided, inter alia, to take up as appropriate the question of the list of Territories to which the Declaration is applicable and to refer it to its Working Group for consideration and recommendations. In taking that decision, the Committee recalled that, in its report to the General Assembly at its forty-fifth session, 8/ it had stated that, subject to any directives that the Assembly might wish to give in that connection, it would continue, as part of its programme of work for 1991, to review the list of Territories to which the Declaration applied. The Committee further recalled that, by paragraph 5 of resolution 45/34, the Assembly had approved the report of the Committee, including the programme of work envisaged by the Committee for 1991.

"The Special Committee,

"Recalling the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples contained in General Assembly resolution 1514 (XV) of 14 December 1960 and the resolutions and decisions of the Special Committee concerning Puerto Rico,

"Having examined the report of the Rapporteur of the Special Committee on the implementation of the resolutions concerning Puerto Rico, 10/

"Having heard statements and testimony representative of various viewpoints among the people of Puerto Rico and their social institutions,

"Bearing in mind the agreement of the Puerto Rican political leadership to request the President of the United States of America and the United States Congress to adopt legislation with a view to consulting the people of Puerto Rico so that they may express themselves freely, voluntarily, democratically and without interference on their political future,

"Aware of the appeal made by the President of the United States of America, Mr. George Bush, to the Congress that it should take the necessary steps to allow the people of Puerto Rico to reach a decision through a referendum,

"Deploring the delay in the legislative process for the approval of the holding of a referendum to determine the political status of Puerto Rico, which has caused postponement of the referendum beyond the expected date,

"1. Reaffirms the inalienable right of the people of Puerto Rico to self-determination and independence, in conformity with General Assembly resolution 1514 (XV) of 14 December 1960, and the application of the fundamental principles of that resolution with respect to Puerto Rico;

"2. Trusts that the United States Congress will continue the legislative process to enable the people of Puerto Rico to exercise their right to self-determination, through popular consultations, in accordance with the principles and practice of the United Nations;

"3. Requests the Rapporteur to report to the Special Committee on the implementation of its resolutions concerning Puerto Rico;

"4. Decides to keep the question of Puerto Rico under continuing review."

52. At the same meeting, the representative of Iraq made a statement (ibid.).

53. On 13 August, draft resolution A/AC.109/L.1769/Rev.1 was issued, incorporating the following changes:

(a) The fifth and sixth preambular paragraphs were revised to read:

"Aware of the appeal made by the President of the United States of America, Mr. George Bush, to the Congress that it should take the necessary steps to allow the people of Puerto Rico to exercise as soon as possible their right to self-determination,

"Deploing the fact that the United States Congress has not yet adopted the legal framework for the holding of a referendum to enable the people of Puerto Rico to determine their political future through the exercise of their right to self-determination,";

(b) The following two paragraphs were added as the seventh and eighth preambular paragraphs:

"Recognizing that the Legislative Assembly and the Governor of Puerto Rico, in the exercise of their powers, have approved legislation declaring Spanish to be the official language, thereby reaffirming the Latin American identity of Puerto Rico,

"Hoping that the international community will continue to afford Puerto Rico the opportunity to participate in those international activities which correspond to its political status,";

(c) Operative paragraph 2 was revised to read:

"2. Urges the United States Congress to adopt as soon as possible the legal framework to enable the people of Puerto Rico to exercise their right to self-determination, through popular consultations, in accordance with the principles and practice of the United Nations;".

54. At the 1395th meeting, on 15 August, the representative of Venezuela introduced oral revisions to draft resolution A/AC.109/L.1769/Rev.1 (see A/AC.109/PV.1395), by which, in the seventh preambular paragraph, the words "thereby reaffirming the Latin American identity of Puerto Rico" would be deleted and in operative paragraph 2 of the English text, the word "Urges" would be replaced by "Trusts that", while in the Spanish text, the words "Exhorta al Congreso" would be replaced by "Confía que el Congreso".

55. At the same meeting, following statements by the representatives of Norway, Czechoslovakia and Papua New Guinea (ibid.), the Special Committee adopted draft resolution A/AC.109/L.1769/Rev.1, as further orally revised, by 9 votes to 1, with 10 abstentions (see para. 56). The voting was as follows:

In favour: Chile, Cuba, Iran (Islamic Republic of), Iraq, Syrian Arab Republic, Trinidad and Tobago, Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, United Republic of Tanzania, Venezuela.

Against: Norway.

Abstaining: Afghanistan, Bulgaria, Côte d'Ivoire, Czechoslovakia, Fiji, India, Indonesia, Mali, Tunisia, Yugoslavia.

Further statements were made by the representatives of Chile and Cuba (ibid.).

56. The text of the resolution (A/AC.109/1088) adopted by the Special Committee at its 1395th meeting, to which reference is made in paragraph 55, is reproduced below:

The Special Committee,

Recalling the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples contained in General Assembly resolution 1514 (XV) of 14 December 1960 and the resolutions and decisions of the Special Committee concerning Puerto Rico,

Having examined the report of the Rapporteur of the Special Committee on the implementation of the resolutions concerning Puerto Rico, 10/

Having heard statements and testimony representative of various viewpoints among the people of Puerto Rico and their social institutions,

Bearing in mind the agreement of the Puerto Rican political leadership to request the President of the United States of America and the United States Congress to adopt legislation with a view to consulting the people of Puerto Rico so that they may express themselves freely, voluntarily, democratically and without interference on their political future,

Aware of the appeal made by the President of the United States of America, Mr. George Bush, to the Congress that it should take the necessary steps to allow the people of Puerto Rico to exercise as soon as possible their right to self-determination,

Deploring the fact that the United States Congress has not yet adopted the legal framework for the holding of a referendum to enable the people of Puerto Rico to determine their political future through the exercise of their right to self-determination,

Recognizing that the Legislative Assembly and the Governor of Puerto Rico, in the exercise of their powers, have approved legislation declaring Spanish to be the official language,

Hoping that the international community will continue to afford Puerto Rico the opportunity to participate in those international activities which correspond to its political status,

1. Reaffirms the inalienable right of the people of Puerto Rico to self-determination and independence, in conformity with General Assembly resolution 1514 (XV) of 14 December 1960, and the application of the fundamental principles of that resolution with respect to Puerto Rico;

2. Trusts that the United States Congress will adopt as soon as possible the legal framework to enable the people of Puerto Rico to exercise their right to self-determination, through popular consultations, in accordance with the principles and practice of the United Nations;

3. Requests the Rapporteur to report to the Special Committee on the implementation of its resolutions concerning Puerto Rico;

4. Decides to keep the question of Puerto Rico under continuing review.

57. On 22 August, the text of the resolution was transmitted to the Permanent Representative of the United States of America to the United Nations for the attention of his Government.

F. Consideration of other matters

1. Matters relating to the small Territories

58. At its 1377th meeting, on 21 February 1991, by adopting the suggestions put forward by the Chairman relating to the organization of its work (A/AC.109/L.1755), the Special Committee decided, inter alia, to include in the agenda of its 1991 session an item entitled "Matters relating to the small Territories" and to consider it at its plenary meetings and at meetings of the Subcommittee on Small Territories in the examination of specific Territories.

59. In taking these decisions, the Special Committee took into account the provisions of the relevant General Assembly resolutions, including resolution 45/34, by paragraph 12 (d) of which the Assembly requested the Committee "to continue to pay special attention to the small Territories, in particular through the dispatch of visiting missions to those Territories whenever the Special Committee deems it appropriate, and to recommend to the General Assembly the most suitable steps to be taken to enable the populations of those Territories to exercise their right to self-determination and independence".

60. During the year, the Special Committee and its Subcommittee on Small Territories gave extensive consideration to all phases of the situation obtaining in the small Territories (see chaps. VIII-X of the present report).

2. Compliance of Member States with the Declaration and other relevant resolutions on decolonization

61. At its 1377th meeting, on 21 February, by adopting the suggestions put forward by the Chairman relating to the organization of its work (A/AC.109/L.1755), the Special Committee decided, inter alia, to request the bodies concerned to take the above item into consideration in the discharge of the tasks entrusted to them by the Committee.

62. The subsidiary bodies accordingly took that decision into account in examining the items referred to them for consideration. The Special Committee also took that decision into account in its consideration of specific items in plenary meetings.

3. Question of holding a series of meetings away from Headquarters

63. At its 1377th meeting, on 21 February, by adopting the suggestions put forward by the Chairman relating to the organization of its work (ibid.), the Special Committee decided, inter alia, to take up as appropriate the question of holding a series of meetings away from Headquarters and to refer it to its Working Group for consideration and recommendations.

64. Having regard to its programme of work for 1992, the Special Committee, at its 1397th meeting, on 23 August, considered the question of holding meetings away from Headquarters, taking into account the provisions of paragraph 6 of General Assembly resolution 1654 (XVI) of 27 November 1961 and paragraph 3 (9) of resolution 2621 (XXV) of 12 October 1970, by which the Assembly authorized the Committee to meet elsewhere than at United Nations Headquarters whenever and wherever such meetings might be required for the effective discharge of its functions. Also at its 1397th meeting, by approving the recommendations contained in the 98th report of its Working Group (A/AC.109/L.1770), the Committee decided, inter alia, to include in the appropriate section of its report to the Assembly a statement to the effect that it might consider accepting one or more invitations that might be extended in 1992 and that, if it decided to accept a given invitation, the Committee would request the Secretary-General to seek to allocate the necessary funds.

4. Pattern of conferences

65. At its 1377th meeting, on 21 February, by adopting the suggestions put forward by the Chairman relating to the organization of its work (A/AC.109/L.1755), the Special Committee decided, inter alia, to take up as appropriate an item entitled "Pattern of conferences" and to refer it to its Working Group for consideration and recommendations. In so doing, the Committee was conscious of the fact that it had initiated some important measures in rationalizing its work methods, many of which were subsequently incorporated in a number of resolutions and decisions of the General Assembly. Further recalling the measures it had taken heretofore in that connection, the Committee decided to continue to exercise its initiatives in the effective utilization of the limited conference resources and the further reduction of its documentation requirements.

66. During the year, the Committee also continued the practice of circulating communications and information material, as far as possible, in the form of informal notes and aides-mémoire in the original language of submission, thus curtailing documentation requirements by some 4,000 pages and accruing considerable savings for the Organization. A list of the official documents issued by the Committee during 1991 is contained in the annex to the present chapter.

67. At its 1397th meeting, on 23 August, the Special Committee considered the item on the basis of the recommendations contained in the 98th report of the Working Group (A/AC.109/L.1770). The relevant paragraphs of that report read as follows:

"5. The Working Group noted that during the year the Special Committee had closely followed the guidelines set forth in the resolutions of the General Assembly on the pattern of conferences, in particular resolution 45/238 of 21 December 1990. By organizing its programme of work effectively and by holding extensive consultations and working in informal session, the Committee had been able to curtail considerably the number of its formal meetings. The Working Group recommended that the Special Committee should continue to pursue its efforts to limit its demands on the conference-servicing resources and to avoid as far as possible last-minute cancellation of scheduled meetings.

"6. The Working Group decided to recommend that, taking into account the probable workload of the Special Committee for 1992, the Committee should consider holding its meetings according to the following schedule:

(a) Plenary

February/June	As required
July/August	20 meetings (5 meetings a week)

(b) Subsidiary body

March/June	30 meetings (3 to 5 meetings a week)
July	As required

"7. It was understood that this programme would not preclude the holding of any ad hoc meetings that might be warranted and that the Special Committee might, in early 1992, review the scheduled meetings on the basis of new developments that might arise. The Working Group recommended that, subject to any directives given by the General Assembly, the Special Committee should strive to keep its meetings to a minimum."

68. At the same meeting, the Special Committee approved the above recommendations.

5. Control and limitation of documentation

69. At its 1397th meeting, on 23 August, the Special Committee considered the question of control and limitation of documentation on the basis of recommendations contained in the 98th report of the Working Group (ibid.). The relevant paragraph of that report reads as follows:

"8. The Working Group noted that, during the year, the Special Committee had taken further measures to control and limit its documentation in compliance with the relevant resolutions of the General Assembly, in particular resolutions 34/50 of 23 November 1979 and 39/68 of 13 December 1984. Those measures included the circulation of its documents in provisional or unofficial form whenever appropriate. The Working Group recommended that, consistent with the goal of limiting documentation, the Special Committee should streamline its report to the General Assembly."

70. At the same meeting, the Special Committee approved the above recommendation.

6. Cooperation and participation of the administering Powers in the work of the Special Committee

71. In compliance with the provisions of the relevant resolutions of the General Assembly, the delegations of New Zealand, Portugal and the United States, as representatives of the administering Powers concerned, continued to participate, in accordance with established procedure, in the related work of the Special Committee, as reflected in chapters VIII and IX of the present report.

72. The delegations of France and the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland did not participate in the work of the Committee. 11/

73. In its reports on the Territories under United Kingdom administration, the Subcommittee on Small Territories reiterated its regret at the non-participation of the United Kingdom. In view of the efforts deployed by the Special Committee to streamline and rationalize its work, the Subcommittee reiterated its appeal to the administering Power to reconsider its decision and to resume its participation in the work of the Special Committee.

74. In a related context, the Special Committee, at its 1387th meeting, on 9 August, adopted draft resolution A/AC.109/L.1758, on the question of sending visiting missions to Territories. By that resolution (A/AC.109/1085), the Committee called upon the administering Powers to cooperate or continue to cooperate with the United Nations by receiving United Nations visiting missions in the Territories under their administration, and continued to call upon those administering Powers that were not participating in the work of the Special Committee to reconsider their decisions and to take an active part in the work of the Committee (see chap. III, para. 15, of the present report).

7. Participation of representatives of Non-Self-Governing Territories in the work of the Special Committee

75. The Special Committee, at its 1397th meeting, on 23 August, considered the following recommendation of the Working Group, contained in its report (A/AC.109/L.1770):

"11. Taking into account the views expressed by the representatives of the remaining Non-Self-Governing Territories at the seminars organized by the Committee in Vanuatu and Barbados in observance of the thirtieth anniversary of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples, the Working Group decided to recommend that the Special Committee should consider, in cooperation with administering Powers, means of increasing the participation of those Territories in its work, particularly in the meetings of its Subcommittee. The Special Committee would be expected to maintain, in its budget proposals, its traditional estimates regarding this issue."

76. At the same meeting, the Special Committee adopted the above recommendation.

8. Week of Solidarity with the Peoples of All Colonial Territories, as well as Those in South Africa, Fighting for Freedom, Independence and Human Rights

77. Under the terms of General Assembly resolution 2911 (XXVII) of 2 November 1972, by paragraph 2 of which the Assembly recommended that, "on the occasion of the Week, meetings should be held, appropriate materials should be published in the press and broadcast on radio and television and public campaigns should be conducted with a view to obtaining contributions to the Assistance Fund for the Struggle against Colonialism and Apartheid established by the Organization of African Unity", and as reflected in the 285th report of the Subcommittee on Petitions, Information and Assistance (A/AC.109/L.1760), a series of activities was undertaken in observance of the Week with the cooperation of the Department of Public Information of the Secretariat, assisted by United Nations information centres throughout the world.

78. On 23 May, the Acting Chairman of the Special Committee issued a statement in commemoration of the Week, in which he reviewed developments in the field of decolonization, particularly in southern Africa. He stated that the international community stood in solidarity with all the colonized peoples throughout the world that had yet to exercise their inalienable right to self-determination and independence. It was its fervent hope, and a goal towards which it was striving every day, that as changes of a positive nature occurred in the area of international relations, they would augur favourably for the colonized peoples. (See also chap. II, paras. 8 and 9, of the present report.)

9. Representation at seminars, meetings and conferences of intergovernmental and other organizations

79. At its 1397th meeting, on 23 August, the Special Committee considered the following recommendation of the Working Group, contained in its report (A/AC.109/L.1770):

"4. The Working Group proposed that the Special Committee recommend to the General Assembly that the Committee should continue to be represented at seminars, meetings and conferences organized by United Nations bodies and other intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations active in the field of decolonization and also recommend that the Assembly should make appropriate budgetary provisions to cover such activities in 1992."

80. At the same meeting, the Special Committee approved the above recommendation.

10. International Decade for the Eradication of Colonialism

81. At its 1377th meeting, on 21 February, the Special Committee, mindful of the mandate entrusted to it by the General Assembly in the implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples, and by approving the recommendations of its Chairman on the organization of its work for the year (A/AC.109/L.1755), decided, inter alia, to take up the item entitled "International Decade for the Eradication of Colonialism", as appropriate, and to allocate it for consideration by its Working Group and at its plenary meetings.

82. At its 1397th meeting, on 23 August, the Special Committee considered the item on the basis of the recommendation contained in the 98th report of the Working Group (A/AC.109/L.1770), paragraph 10 of which reads as follows:

"10. With regard to the International Decade for the Eradication of Colonialism, the Working Group decided to recommend that the Committee should authorize the Chairman to consult with and assist the Secretary-General in the preparation and implementation of the draft plan of action to be submitted to the General Assembly in accordance with its resolution 43/47 of 22 November 1988."

83. At the same meeting, the Special Committee approved the above recommendation.

11. Seminar at United Nations Headquarters

84. At its 1397th meeting, on 23 August, the Special Committee considered the following recommendation contained in the report of the Working Group (ibid.):

"12. In 1990, the Special Committee decided to postpone to 1991 the seminar at Headquarters provided for in General Assembly resolution 44/100 of 11 December 1989 on the Programme of Activities in Observance of the Thirtieth Anniversary of the Declaration. The postponement would enable the Committee to study a proposal by some non-governmental organizations that participants in the seminar include representatives of the Non-Self-Governing Territories themselves, especially young people.

"13. The proposed seminar received further consideration at a meeting of the expanded Bureau held on 6 August 1991 when the view was expressed that, since little was known about the non-governmental organizations involved, more information would be needed before a decision could be made.

"14. In the light of the foregoing, the Working Group decided to recommend to the Special Committee that the holding of a seminar should be further postponed. In the meantime, the Secretariat should be requested to obtain more information regarding the non-governmental organizations involved and alternative proposals for a seminar should be formulated."

85. At the same meeting, the Special Committee approved the above recommendation.

12. Follow-up to the seminars organized in 1990 by the Special Committee in observance of the thirtieth anniversary of the Declaration

86. At its 1397th meeting, on 23 August, the Special Committee considered the following recommendation contained in the report of the Working Group (ibid.):

"15. The seminars held in Vanuatu and Barbados in 1990 emphasized, inter alia, the need for the Special Committee to reassess its approach and methodology with regard to the implementation of its mandate. As a consequence, in 1991 the Committee decided to recommend the streamlining of its procedures by merging its two subcommittees into one body in order to deal with the problems of individual Territories in a more focused way.

"16. Recognizing that reform is an ongoing process, the Working Group decided to recommend to the Special Committee that it should continue to consider new ways to make its work more effective, including giving consideration to all recommendations made by the seminars held in 1990, particularly those focusing on opening new channels for disseminating and acquiring information and, in this context, that it should consider ways and means of improving regional collection and dissemination of information on decolonization."

87. At the same meeting, the Special Committee approved the above recommendation.

13. Report of the Special Committee to the General Assembly

88. At its 1377th meeting, on 21 February, by adopting the suggestions of its Chairman relating to the organization of its work (A/AC.109/L.1755) and in accordance with paragraph 31 of General Assembly decision 34/401, relating to rationalization of the procedures and organization of the Assembly, the Special Committee decided to follow the procedure adopted at its 1990 session 12/ in connection with the formulation of its recommendations to the Assembly at its forty-fifth session.

89. At its 1393rd meeting, on 14 August, the Special Committee decided to authorize its Rapporteur to prepare and submit directly to the General Assembly the various chapters of the report of the Committee in accordance with established practice and procedure.

14. Other questions

90. At its 1377th meeting, on 21 February, by adopting the suggestions put forward by the Chairman relating to the organization of its work (ibid.), the Special Committee decided to request the bodies concerned, in their examination of specific Territories, to take into account the relevant provisions of General Assembly resolutions and decisions listed in the note by the Secretary-General on the organization of work of the Special Committee (A/AC.109/L.1754, para. 16).

91. This decision was taken into account during the consideration of specific Territories and other items at both subcommittee and plenary meetings.

G. Relations with United Nations bodies and intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations

1. Security Council

92. In paragraph 12 (b) of its resolution 45/34 of 20 November 1990, the General Assembly requested the Special Committee "to make concrete suggestions which could assist the Security Council in considering appropriate measures under the Charter with regard to developments in colonial Territories that are likely to threaten international peace and security".

93. The Special Committee, on 12 September 1991, transmitted to the Security Council the text of a resolution adopted at its 1393rd meeting, on 14 August (A/AC.109/1095), concerning the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands. An account of the Committee's consideration of the question of the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands is set out in chapter IX of the present report.

94. The Special Committee, on 4 September, also drew the attention of the Security Council to the relevant paragraph of a decision adopted at its 1397th meeting, on 23 August (A/AC.109/1090), concerning military activities and arrangements by colonial Powers in Territories under their administration which might be impeding the implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples. An account of the Committee's consideration of the question is set out in chapter V of the present report.

2. Trusteeship Council

95. During the year, the Special Committee continued to follow closely the work of the Trusteeship Council relating to the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands.

96. On 12 September, the Special Committee transmitted to the Trusteeship Council the text of a resolution adopted at its 1393rd meeting, on 14 August (A/AC.109/1095) concerning the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands. (See also chap. IX, para. 21, of the present report.)

3. Economic and Social Council

97. In connection with the Special Committee's consideration of the implementation of the Declaration by the specialized agencies and the international institutions associated with the United Nations, and in accordance with paragraph 20 of General Assembly resolution 45/18 of 20 November 1990, relating to that question, consultations were held during the year between the President of the Economic and Social Council and the Chairman of the Special Committee to consider "appropriate measures for coordination of the policies and activities of the specialized agencies ... in implementing the relevant resolutions of the General Assembly". Further, the representative of Papua New Guinea participated on behalf of the Committee in the Council's consideration of the related question. An account of the foregoing, and of the Committee's consideration of the question, is set out in chapter VI of the present report.

4. Commission on Human Rights

98. During the year, the Special Committee followed closely the work of the Commission on Human Rights in regard to the question of the right of peoples to self-determination and its application to peoples under colonial or alien domination or foreign occupation, and to the question of the violation of human rights and fundamental freedoms in any part of the world, with particular reference to colonial and other dependent countries and Territories.

99. In its consideration of the Territories concerned, the Special Committee took into account the relevant resolutions adopted by the Commission on Human Rights, including resolutions 1991/5 of 15 February 1991, 1991/7, 1991/8, 1991/10 to 1991/12 and 1991/14 to 1991/16 of 22 February 1991, 1991/17 and 1991/18 of 1 March 1991, 1991/30 of 5 March 1991 and 1991/57 of 6 March 1991, and those of its Subcommission on Prevention of Discrimination and Protection of Minorities, including resolution 1990/23 of 30 August 1990. The Committee also took into account the relevant resolution of the Economic and Social Council, resolution 1990/49 of 25 May 1990, as well as those of the General Assembly, including resolutions 45/84, 45/87 to 45/91, 45/96, 45/97, 45/103, 45/105, 45/129 to 45/132, 45/135, 45/137 and 45/144 of 14 December 1990, 45/148 to 45/151, 45/155, 45/171 and 45/175 of 18 December 1990, and 45/176 A-H of 19 December 1990.

5. Special Committee against Apartheid

100. Bearing in mind the repercussions of the policies of apartheid on the situation in southern Africa, the Special Committee also continued to pay close attention during the year to the work of the Special Committee against Apartheid, and the officers of the two committees remained in close communication as regards matters of common interest.

101. The Chairman made a statement on behalf of the Special Committee on 21 March at a solemn meeting in New York organized by the Special Committee against Apartheid in observance of the International Day for the Elimination of Racial Discrimination (see A/AC.115/PV.647).

6. Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination

102. During the year, having regard to the relevant provisions of the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination, the Special Committee continued to follow the work of the Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination. (See also para. 110.)

7. Specialized agencies and international institutions associated with the United Nations

103. In accordance with the requests contained in the relevant General Assembly resolutions, the Special Committee continued its consideration of the question of the implementation of the Declaration by the specialized agencies and the international institutions associated with the United Nations. In the same context, the Committee, through its Subcommittee on Petitions, Information and Assistance, again held consultations during the year with officials of several organizations. An account of these consultations and of the Committee's consideration of the question is set out in chapter VI of the present report.

104. During the year, the Special Committee adopted decisions relating to the extension of assistance to the peoples of Non-Self-Governing Territories. These decisions are reflected in chapters VI and IX of the present report.

8. Movement of Non-Aligned Countries

105. The representative of Papua New Guinea represented the Special Committee at the Tenth Conference of Ministers for Foreign Affairs of Non-Aligned Countries, held at Accra from 2 to 7 September 1991.

9. Organization of African Unity

106. Bearing in mind its earlier decision to maintain contact with the Organization of African Unity (OAU) on a regular basis in order to assist in the effective discharge of its mandate, the Special Committee, as in previous years, followed closely the work of the OAU during the year and maintained close liaison with its General Secretariat on matters of common interest.

107. The Chairman represented the Special Committee at the fifty-third ordinary session of the Council of Ministers of OAU, held at Addis Ababa from 25 February to 1 March. The representative of Papua New Guinea represented the Special Committee at the fifty-fourth ordinary session of the Council of Ministers of OAU and at the twenty-seventh ordinary session of the Assembly of Heads of State and Government of OAU, held at Abuja from 27 May to 1 June and 3 to 5 June 1991, respectively.

108. In response to an invitation for the Special Committee to be represented at the fifty-fifth ordinary session of the OAU Coordinating Committee for the Liberation of Africa, held at Arusha on 20 and 21 February, the Chairman sent a message on behalf of the Committee.

10. Non-governmental organizations

109. Having regard to the relevant provisions of General Assembly resolutions 45/34 and 45/35 of 30 November 1990, the Special Committee continued to follow closely the activities of non-governmental organizations having a special interest in the field of decolonization. The related decisions of the Committee are reflected in chapter II of the present report.

H. Action relating to international conventions/studies/programmes

1. International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination

110. At its 1377th meeting, on 21 February 1991, by adopting the suggestions put forward by the Chairman relating to the organization of the Committee's work (A/AC.109/L.1755), the Special Committee decided, inter alia, to include in the agenda of its 1991 session an item entitled "International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination" and to consider it at its plenary meetings and at meetings of the Subcommittee on Small Territories, as appropriate.

111. The Special Committee continued during the year to monitor related developments in Territories, having regard to the relevant provisions of article 15 of the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination (see General Assembly resolution 2106 A (XX) of 21 December 1965).

2. Status of the International Convention on the Suppression and Punishment of the Crime of Apartheid

112. The Special Committee continued during the year to take into account the provisions of relevant General Assembly resolutions, in particular resolution 45/90 of 14 December 1990, in connection with its consideration of the related items, and invited its Chairman to continue to extend all possible assistance to, and cooperate closely with, the Secretary-General in the discharge of the mandate entrusted to him by the Assembly in relation to the item entitled

"Status of the International Convention on the Suppression and Punishment of the Crime of Apartheid".

113. The Special Committee, in a related context, took into account Commission on Human Rights resolution 1991/10 of 22 February 1991, concerning the implementation of the Convention.

3. Second Decade to Combat Racism and Racial Discrimination

114. The Special Committee continued to take into account the provisions of the relevant resolutions of the United Nations bodies concerned relating to the Second Decade to Combat Racism and Racial Discrimination, including in particular General Assembly resolution 45/105 of 14 December 1990 and Economic and Social Council resolution 1991/2 of 29 May 1991, on implementation of the Programme of Action for the Second Decade, as well as the relevant report of the Secretary-General. 13/

115. During the year, the Special Committee, in a related context, took into account the relevant provisions of Commission on Human Rights resolution 1991/11 of 22 February 1991, concerning the implementation of the Programme of Action for the Second Decade to Combat Racism and Racial Discrimination.

I. Review of work

116. As noted elsewhere in the present report, the Special Committee, in response to concerns expressed during the course of the debates in the Fourth Committee and the General Assembly during the forty-fifth session, took several important decisions during 1991 regarding the approach, methods and procedures of the Special Committee. Principal among these was the establishment of an open-ended Working Group to conduct an in-depth study of the issues involved and to make recommendations. The Committee adopted the report of the Working Group (A/AC.109/L.1756) and endorsed the recommendations contained therein, which included (a) the merger of the Committee's two subcommittees (the Subcommittee on Petitions, Information and Assistance and the Subcommittee on Small Territories) with effect from 1 January 1992; (b) streamlining and consolidation of resolutions, resulting in adoption of an omnibus resolution on 10 Territories; and (c) cooperation of administering Powers regarding the dispatch of visiting missions to Non-Self-Governing and other Territories under the purview of the Committee, the provision of timely and up-to-date information under Article 73 e of the Charter of the United Nations, and the participation of representatives of the Non-Self-Governing and other Territories in the work of the Committee. The Committee also accepted the recommendations of the Working Group on the question of apartheid in the deliberations of the Special Committee and on the question of the language used in the Committee's resolutions and decisions, including "name-calling".

117. Accordingly, the Special Committee also recorded a reduction in the number of resolutions it adopted during the session. The most significant development in this connection was the adoption of a single omnibus resolution on 10 Territories, instead of the usual resolution on each Territory. However, individual resolutions were adopted on items of particular concern to the Special Committee, including: implementation of the Declaration by the specialized agencies and the international institutions associated with the United Nations (A/AC.109/1089), military activities and arrangements by colonial Powers in Territories under their administration which might be impeding the implementation of the Declaration (A/AC.109/1090) and activities of foreign economic and other interests which are impeding the implementation of the Declaration (A/AC.109/1091).

118. On the question of the publicity to be given to the work of the United Nations in the field of decolonization, the Special Committee again stressed the need to mobilize world public opinion in support of the peoples of colonial Territories and their national liberation movements in their efforts to achieve self-determination, freedom and independence. Bearing in mind the important role being played by an increasing number of non-governmental organizations active in the field of decolonization, and in particular the full participation of non-governmental organizations from the Latin American, Caribbean and Pacific regions in the two regional seminars held by the Committee in 1990 in observance of the thirtieth anniversary of the Declaration, the Committee reiterated its invitation to those organizations to continue and intensify their campaign against the evils and dangers of colonialism, as well as their support for all colonial peoples. The Committee considered it essential that concrete measures be taken to intensify the dissemination of information on decolonization issues - publicizing the activities of United Nations organs in the field of decolonization and providing wider dissemination of information on all colonial Territories. The Committee requested the Department of Public Information of the Secretariat to intensify its information activities on decolonization, both at United Nations Headquarters and through the effective deployment of the United Nations information centres, and to report thereon to the Committee.

119. During the year, the Special Committee also continued its review of the list of Territories to which the Declaration is applicable. As regards its decision of 15 August 1990 concerning Puerto Rico, the Committee heard a number of representatives of organizations concerned and adopted a further resolution on the matter (A/AC.109/1088), which is set out in paragraph 56 of the present chapter.

120. In accordance with the guidelines established by the General Assembly, the Special Committee was able during the year to reduce to a minimum the number of its formal meetings and to minimize the wastage resulting from cancellation of scheduled meetings.

J. Future work

121. In accordance with the mandate entrusted to it in the relevant General Assembly resolutions, and subject to any further directives which it may receive from the Assembly during the Assembly's forty-sixth session, the Special Committee intends during 1992 to pursue its efforts in seeking the best ways and means for the immediate and full implementation of the Declaration in all Territories that have not yet attained independence. In particular, the Committee will keep under scrutiny developments concerning each Territory, as well as the compliance by all States, in particular the administering Powers, with the relevant decisions and resolutions of the United Nations. On the basis of that review, the Committee will continue to submit conclusions and recommendations on the specific measures necessary to achieve the objectives set out in the Declaration and the relevant provisions of the Charter of the United Nations.

122. The Special Committee will continue to make concrete suggestions which could assist the Security Council in considering appropriate measures under the Charter with regard to developments in colonial Territories that are likely to threaten international peace and security.

123. The Special Committee will continue to pay special attention to the small Territories, whenever possible by dispatching visiting missions to those Territories, and to recommend to the General Assembly the most suitable steps to be taken to enable the populations of those Territories to exercise their right to self-determination and independence. In making those recommendations, the Committee will take into consideration the summaries of discussions contained in the reports of the two regional seminars, held in Vanuatu and Barbados in 1990, 14/ which might serve as a basis in formulating programmes appropriate for follow-up action. The Committee also intends to continue its review of the list of Territories to which the Declaration is applicable.

124. The Special Committee intends to continue its consideration of further measures to bring to an end the activities of foreign economic and other interests which are impeding the implementation of the Declaration in Territories under colonial domination and efforts to eliminate colonialism, apartheid and racial discrimination in southern Africa. Further, the Committee intends to continue its study of military activities and arrangements by colonial Powers in Territories under their administration which might be impeding the implementation of the Declaration.

125. The Special Committee plans to continue its consideration of the implementation of the Declaration by the specialized agencies and the international institutions associated with the United Nations. In so doing, the Committee will once again review the action taken or envisaged by international organizations in the implementation of the relevant resolutions of the General Assembly. The Committee will hold further consultations and contacts with those organizations, as appropriate. The Committee will also be guided by the results of further consultations, to be held in 1992, between its Chairman and the President of the Economic and Social Council within the context of the relevant decisions of the Assembly, the Council and the Committee itself. Further, the Committee will maintain close contact on a regular basis with the Secretary-General of the Organization of African Unity and senior members of the organization, as well as with other relevant organizations, such as the Organization of American States, the Caribbean Community (CARICOM) and the South Pacific Forum, with a view to facilitating the effective implementation of the decisions of the various United Nations bodies by the specialized agencies and other organizations concerned.

126. In its resolutions relating to specific Territories, the General Assembly has repeatedly called upon the administering Powers to cooperate or continue to cooperate with the Special Committee by permitting access of visiting missions to the Territories under their administration. Having regard to the constructive role played by previous United Nations visiting missions to colonial Territories, the Committee continues to attach vital importance to the dispatching of such missions as a means of collecting adequate and firsthand information on conditions in the Territories and on the wishes and aspirations of the people concerning their future status. Accordingly, the Committee will continue to seek the full cooperation of the administering Powers in order to obtain such information through the sending, as appropriate, of visiting missions to Territories.

127. In regard to the question of Western Sahara, the Special Committee decided, in accordance with past practice and in order to discharge its responsibilities and fulfil its mandate, to dispatch a mission to the Territory during the holding of the referendum.

128. Conscious of the importance which the General Assembly attaches to the need for a continuous world-wide campaign of publicity in the field of decolonization, the Special Committee will give its continuous attention to the question of dissemination of information on decolonization. In particular, the Committee expects to continue its review of the relevant programmes of publications and other information activities envisaged by the Department of Public Information and the Department for Special Political Questions, Regional Cooperation, Decolonization and Trusteeship of the Secretariat. The Committee will again make appropriate recommendations, for consideration by the Assembly, on ways and means of ensuring the widest possible dissemination of the relevant information. The Assembly will no doubt wish to urge the administering Powers to cooperate with the Secretary-General in promoting large-scale dissemination of information in the Territories concerned.

129. In view of the importance that it attaches to the role of non-governmental organizations active in the field of decolonization in support of the peoples of the dependent Territories, the Special Committee will continue to seek the close collaboration of those organizations with a view, inter alia, to enlisting their support in the dissemination of the relevant information and in the mobilization of world public opinion in the cause of decolonization. To that end, it is the Committee's intention also to continue to participate in conferences, seminars and other special meetings dealing with decolonization arranged by non-governmental organizations, as well as such meetings as may be organized by the United Nations bodies concerned and other intergovernmental organizations.

130. Taking into account the views expressed by the representatives of the remaining Non-Self-Governing Territories at the seminars organized by the Special Committee in Vanuatu and Barbados in 1990 in observance of the thirtieth anniversary of the Declaration, 14/ as well as the recommendations of the Working Group, the Committee will continue to consider, in cooperation with the administering Powers, how to intensify and improve the participation of the representatives of those Territories in the work of the Committee within the existing resources.

131. In the light of the provisions of the General Assembly resolutions concerning the pattern of conferences, and taking into consideration its experience in previous years, as well as its probable workload for next year, the Special Committee has approved a tentative programme of meetings for 1992-1993, which it commends for approval by the Assembly. In that connection, as authorized by the Assembly, the Committee intends to meet elsewhere than at United Nations Headquarters whenever and wherever such meetings might be required for the effective discharge of its functions. Subject to the availability of the requisite conference services and facilities, the Committee will consider accepting such invitations as might be received in that connection in 1992 and, when details concerning such meetings become known, it would request the Secretary-General to seek the necessary budgetary provision, in accordance with established procedure.

132. The Special Committee suggests that, when the General Assembly examines the question of the implementation of the Declaration at its forty-sixth session, it may wish to take into account the various recommendations of the Committee which are reflected in the relevant chapters of the present report and, in particular, to endorse the proposals outlined in the present section in order to enable the Committee to carry out the tasks it envisages for 1992. In addition, the Committee recommends that the Assembly should renew its appeal to the administering Powers to take all necessary steps for the implementation of the Declaration and the relevant United Nations resolutions, in accordance with the freely expressed wishes of the peoples of the Territories concerned. In this connection, the Committee recommends that the Assembly should again request the administering Powers to cooperate or continue to cooperate with the Committee in the discharge of its mandate and, in particular, to participate actively in the work relating to the Territories under their respective administrations. Bearing in mind the affirmation by the Assembly that direct association of the Non-Self-Governing Territories in the work of the United Nations and the specialized agencies is an effective means of promoting the progress of the peoples of those Territories towards a position of equality with States Members of the United Nations, the Committee also recommends that the Assembly should continue to invite the administering Powers to allow representatives of the Territories concerned to participate in the discussions in the Fourth Committee and the Special Committee of the items relating to their respective Territories. Further, the Assembly might also wish to renew its appeal to all States and to the specialized agencies and other organizations of the United Nations system to comply with the various requests addressed to them by the Assembly and the Security Council in their relevant resolutions.

133. The Special Committee recommends that, in approving the programme of work outlined above, the General Assembly should make adequate provision to cover the activities the Committee envisages for 1992. In this regard, the Special Committee recalls that, in his proposed programme budget for the biennium 1992-1993, the Secretary-General has included estimates in respect of the regular programme of work of the Special Committee for 1992 and 1993 based on the level of activities approved for the year 1991, without prejudice to the decisions to be taken by the General Assembly at its forty-sixth and forty-seventh sessions. On that basis, the Special Committee understands that adequate provisions would be approved by the General Assembly. Should the Committee decide to hold a series of meetings away from Headquarters (see para. 131) within the context of paragraph 6 of General Assembly resolution 1654 (XVI) and paragraph 3 (9) of Assembly resolution 2621 (XXV) and when details concerning such meetings become available, it is understood that the Secretary-General will, subject to the availability of the requisite conference services and facilities, seek the necessary budgetary provision in accordance with established procedure. Finally, the Committee expresses the hope that the Secretary-General will continue to provide it with all the facilities and personnel necessary for the discharge of its mandate, taking into account the various tasks assigned to it by the Assembly, as well as those arising from decisions taken by it during the current year.

K. Conclusion of the 1991 session

134. At its 1393rd meeting, on 14 August, the Special Committee decided to request the Rapporteur to prepare and submit the present report directly to the General Assembly, in accordance with established practice.

135. At the 1397th meeting, on 23 August, the Chairman made a statement on the occasion of the closing of the Special Committee's 1991 session (see A/AC.109/PV.1397).

DISSEMINATION OF INFORMATION ON DECOLONIZATION

A. Consideration by the Special Committee

1. At its 1377th meeting, on 21 February 1991, by adopting the suggestions relating to the organization of its work put forward by the Chairman (A/AC.109/L.1755), the Special Committee decided, inter alia, to maintain its Subcommittee on Petitions, Information and Assistance and allocated to it certain specific items for its consideration. The Committee further decided to consider the question of the dissemination of information on decolonization, as appropriate, at its plenary and subcommittee meetings.
2. The Special Committee considered the question at its 1383rd and 1387th meetings, on 7 and 9 August 1991, respectively.
3. In its consideration of the question, the Special Committee took into account the provisions of the relevant General Assembly resolutions, including, in particular, resolution 45/35 of 20 November 1990, concerning the dissemination of information on decolonization, and resolution 45/34 of the same date, on the implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples. The Committee also considered Assembly resolutions 35/118 of 11 December 1980, 40/56 of 2 December 1985 and 45/33 of 20 November 1990, relating, respectively, to the twentieth, twenty-fifth and thirtieth anniversaries of the Declaration. In addition, the Committee paid due regard to the relevant information furnished to it by the representatives of the Organization of African Unity, the African National Congress of South Africa and the Pan Africanist Congress of Azania, as well as by non-governmental organizations.
4. In connection with the annual observance of the Week of Solidarity with the Peoples of All Colonial Territories, as well as Those in South Africa, Fighting for Freedom, Independence and Human Rights, the Department of Public Information of the Secretariat undertook a number of activities during the week of 20-24 May 1991, as set out in the 285th report of the Subcommittee on Petitions, Information and Assistance (A/AC.109/L.1760), which the Special Committee approved on 9 August 1991 (see para. 8).
5. On the basis of the recommendation of the Subcommittee on Petitions, Information and Assistance at its 484th meeting on 2 May, Mr. J. A. González-González made a statement at the 488th meeting, on 1 August (Press release GA/COL/2806).
6. At the 1383rd meeting, on 7 August, the Chairman of the Subcommittee on Petitions, Information and Assistance, in a statement to the Special Committee (see A/AC.109/PV.1383), introduced the 285th report of the Subcommittee (A/AC.109/L.1760). The report related to the organization of work of the Subcommittee; Week of Solidarity with the Peoples of All Colonial Territories, as well as Those in South Africa, Fighting for Freedom, Independence and Human Rights (20-24 May 1991); implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples by the specialized agencies and the international institutions associated with the United Nations; question of dissemination of information on decolonization; rationalization of work; examination of petitions; consultations with the Organization of African Unity and other intergovernmental organizations regarding questions of information and assistance, and with non-governmental organizations on questions relating to the implementation of the Declaration; and consultations with the specialized agencies and international institutions associated with the United Nations.

7. At its 1387th meeting, on 9 August, the Special Committee adopted the 285th report of the Subcommittee (A/AC.109/L.1760) and endorsed the conclusions and recommendations contained therein (see paras. 8 and 10).

B. Decision of the Special Committee

Week of Solidarity with the Peoples of All Colonial Territories, as well as Those in South Africa, Fighting for Freedom, Independence and Human Rights

8. The 285th report of the Subcommittee on Petitions, Information and Assistance (A/AC.109/L.1760), adopted by the Special Committee at its 1387th meeting, on 9 August (see para. 7), contained the following programme of activities to be undertaken during and in the framework of the Week of Solidarity, as approved by the Subcommittee at its 486th meeting, on 23 May:

(a) A public screening of films produced in English, French and Spanish should be held;

(b) Articles in the UN Chronicle and Objective: Justice (1991 edition), published by the Department of Public Information of the Secretariat, should feature the activities of the Week;

(c) The Department of Public Information, in addition to short items in news and current affairs magazines, should produce special feature radio programmes on the Week;

(d) The United Nations information centres and information services worldwide should undertake activities which would reflect the current situation and expectations with regard to the remaining Non-Self-Governing Territories;

(e) The statement of the Chairman of the Special Committee on the activities of the Week should be issued as a press release;

(f) Information packages containing United Nations publications on decolonization issues should be distributed to the media and the non-governmental organizations.

9. In accordance with the decision in paragraph 8 (e) above, the Acting Chairman of the Special Committee issued the following statement on 23 May, in observance of the Week of Solidarity:

Statement issued by the Acting Chairman of the Special Committee on 23 May 1991 in observance of the Week of Solidarity

"The Special Committee, pursuant to General Assembly resolution 2911 (XXVII) of 2 November 1972, first observed a week of solidarity with colonial peoples fighting for freedom and against oppression in 1973. Over the almost 20 years that have elapsed since that time, massive changes have occurred in the field of decolonization through the implementation of Assembly resolution 1514 (XV) of 14 December 1960. Some 26 former colonial Territories, scattered throughout the world, irrespective of their size, geographical location and richness in natural resources, have acceded to independence, and millions of men and women, finally enfranchised, have been enabled to pursue their own destinies.

"Despite the giant strides towards the eradication of colonialism, which collectively constitute one of the most monumental feats of the United Nations, much has yet to be accomplished. Hence, the Special Committee, which has always been in the forefront of the battle against colonialism, remains committed to the cause of peoples everywhere struggling against colonialism in whatever forms it may manifest itself.

"The Special Committee is deeply committed to the goal of eradicating colonialism before the end of this century, in accordance with the pertinent resolutions of the General Assembly, which clearly state the goals to be pursued by the United Nations in the field of decolonization up to the year 2000, and to ushering in a new millennium free from the scourges of colonialism and racism in all their manifestations.

"The Special Committee has also been concerned with the persistence of the evil of colonialism in hybrid forms. The most widespread and common of these stem from racism and other similar violations of the rights of peoples. The ongoing struggle against the practice and institution of racism is equally as vital as the battle waged against colonial Powers that had disenfranchised entire populations.

"One of the clearest examples of the above is the persistence of the policy of apartheid practised in South Africa. In recognition of this, the General Assembly once again spelled out the inextricable link between apartheid and colonialism in its resolution 45/33 of 20 November 1990, on the thirtieth anniversary of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples. In that resolution, the Assembly unequivocally declared that the continuation of colonialism in all its forms and manifestations, including racism and apartheid, is incompatible with the Charter of the United Nations, the Declaration and the principles of international law. The Assembly also called upon Member States to take effective steps with a view towards the complete, unconditional and speedy eradication of colonialism in all its forms and manifestations and to the faithful and strict observance of the relevant provisions of the Charter, the Declaration and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, as well as other relevant resolutions and decisions of the General Assembly and the Security Council.

"We stand in solidarity with all the colonized peoples throughout the world that have yet to exercise their inalienable right to self-determination and independence. It is our fervent hope, and a goal towards which we are striving every day, that as changes of a positive nature occur in the area of international relations, they will augur favourably for the colonized peoples.

"Finally, I wish to appeal to all Member States and to specialized agencies and other organizations of the United Nations system, as well as to non-governmental organizations and individuals of good will, to increase their assistance and support to the oppressed peoples of South Africa and to the peoples of all colonial Territories in order to enable them to exercise their inalienable rights to self-determination and independence without further delay."

C. Other decisions of the Special Committee

10. The 285th report of the Subcommittee on Petitions, Information and Assistance (ibid.), adopted by the Special Committee at its 1387th meeting, on 9 August 1991 (see para. 7), contained the following conclusions and recommendations:

(1) The Special Committee reiterates the importance of effecting the widest possible dissemination of accurate information on decolonization to further the purposes and principles of the Charter of the United Nations and the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples (General Assembly resolution 1514 (XV) of 14 December 1960) and to mobilize world public opinion in support of the peoples of colonial Territories in their efforts to achieve self-determination, freedom and independence.

(2) The Special Committee reiterates the great importance it attaches to the work of the Department for Special Political Questions, Regional Cooperation, Decolonization and Trusteeship of the Secretariat. The Committee urges the Department to continue to discharge its mandate, taking into account all the Territories under the consideration of the Committee.

(3) While noting the active participation of the Department of Public Information of the Secretariat in the work of the Committee and its efforts to produce and disseminate information on decolonization, to monitor the responses received from the United Nations information centres and to report thereon, the Special Committee requests the Department:

(a) To continue to intensify, through all the means at its disposal, its work of publicity in the field of decolonization, basing its activities in this regard on the Charter; the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples; the Plan of Action for the Full Implementation of the Declaration, contained in the annex to General Assembly resolution 35/118 of 11 December 1980; the items on the agenda of the Special Committee; and all relevant resolutions and decisions of the General Assembly and of other organs of the United Nations active in the field of decolonization;

(b) To underline in all its activities that, despite major achievements in the process of decolonization, colonialism has not been completely eradicated and that the activities of the United Nations in this field should be given high priority until all the goals of the Declaration have been achieved;

(c) To continue to disseminate information on all remaining colonial Territories under the consideration of the Special Committee, including information on military bases or facilities in any of those Territories;

(d) To disseminate more widely, particularly through parliamentary bodies, non-governmental organizations, mass media and universities, basic decolonization resolutions and decisions of the United Nations, including those adopted by the Special Committee, as well as other basic materials concerning decolonization, and to distribute them, especially through United Nations information centres, in local languages when appropriate, in particular in those regions where there are still Non-Self-Governing Territories, and in countries that are administering Powers;

(e) To pursue its cooperation with the Pool of Non-Aligned News Agencies and to provide it on a regular basis with varied publicity material and information concerning United Nations activities in the field of decolonization;

(f) To continue to disseminate materials prepared by the Movement of Non-Aligned Countries concerning decolonization;

(g) To adopt measures aimed at providing full coverage of all activities of relevant United Nations bodies in the field of decolonization in press releases in both English and French;

(h) To continue to provide information material on decolonization through, inter alia, exhibitions to be shown outside United Nations Headquarters, to all United Nations information centres and to increase assistance to them in all related activities;

(i) To produce new visual material on problems of decolonization, in cooperation with the Special Committee;

(j) To utilize materials pertaining to the participation of specialized agencies and other organizations of the United Nations system in the decolonization process, and to distribute those materials, as appropriate, through the United Nations information centres.

(4) The Special Committee requests the Department of Public Information to provide it with feedback reports from the United Nations information centres regarding their dissemination of information on decolonization and, in particular, on the activities undertaken in 1991 in observance of the Week of Solidarity with the Peoples of All Colonial Territories, as well as Those in South Africa, Fighting for Freedom, Independence and Human Rights.

(5) The Special Committee requests the Department of Public Information to continue its efforts to ensure that information bodies provide better coverage of decolonization in all regions.

(6) The Special Committee requests the Department for Special Political Questions, Regional Cooperation, Decolonization and Trusteeship, in cooperation with the Department of Public Information, to increase its speaking engagements at university campuses across North America, and, if requested, in other regions, on the subject of decolonization and to inform the Subcommittee of the experience and the results achieved.

(7) The Special Committee requests the Department of Public Information and the Department for Special Political Questions, Regional Cooperation, Decolonization and Trusteeship to continue to take into consideration the important role being played by non-governmental organizations in the decolonization process and in the dissemination of information on the situation in all the remaining colonial Territories under consideration of the Committee. The Committee requests the two Departments to continue to intensify their cooperation with non-governmental organizations in the dissemination of information on decolonization, particularly through briefings and the provision of relevant printed materials.

(8) The Special Committee appeals to the mass media to regard it as their task to contribute to the elimination of the remaining manifestations of colonialism by disseminating information on the decolonization issues and to provide support to the peoples of the colonial countries.

(9) The Special Committee expresses the view that the mass media could provide broader coverage of events and activities relating to the decolonization process through conferences, seminars and round tables, as well as the publication and wide distribution of pertinent resolutions and decisions of such bodies.

(10) The Special Committee should continue to consider new ways and means of increasing the effectiveness of the dissemination of information relating to decolonization.

11. The Special Committee also took decisions during the year relating to publicity in connection with other items on its agenda, as follows.

(a) In a resolution concerning foreign economic activities in colonial countries, adopted at its 1397th meeting, on 23 August (see A/AC.109/1091 and chap. IV of the present report), the Special Committee, inter alia, requested the Secretary-General to continue, through the Department of Public Information, to inform world public opinion of those activities of foreign economic and other interests which are impeding the implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples. The Committee also appealed to mass media, trade unions and non-governmental organizations, as well as individuals, to coordinate and intensify their efforts to mobilize international public opinion against the policy of the apartheid regime of South Africa and to work towards the non-relaxation of existing measures against that regime in order to accelerate the process of constitutional change.

(b) In a decision on military activities in colonial Territories, adopted at its 1397th meeting, on 23 August 1991 (see A/AC.109/1090 and chap. V of the present report), the Special Committee requested the Secretary-General to continue, through the Department of Public Information, to inform world public opinion of the facts concerning the military activities and arrangements in colonial Territories which are impeding the implementation of the Declaration.

QUESTION OF SENDING VISITING MISSIONS TO TERRITORIES

A. Consideration by the Special Committee

1. At its 1377th meeting, on 21 February 1991, by adopting the suggestions relating to the organization of its work put forward by the Chairman (A/AC.109/L.1755), the Special Committee decided, inter alia, to take up the question of sending visiting missions to Territories and to consider it at its plenary meetings and in its Subcommittee on Small Territories, as appropriate.

2. The Special Committee considered the question at its 1381st, 1383rd, 1387th and 1393rd meetings, between 1 and 14 August 1991.

3. In its consideration of the question, the Special Committee took into account the provisions of the relevant General Assembly resolutions including, in particular, those provisions relating to the question contained in resolution 45/34 of 20 November 1990, on the implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples, and resolutions 45/23 to 45/32, all of 20 November 1990, and Assembly decision 45/409 of the same date, relating to specific Territories. The Committee also considered Assembly resolutions 35/118 of 11 December 1980, 40/56 of 2 December 1985 and 45/33 of 20 November 1990 relating, respectively, to the twentieth, twenty-fifth and thirtieth anniversaries of the Declaration.

4. During its consideration of the question, the Special Committee had before it the report of the Acting Chairman (A/AC.109/L.1757) on his consultations with representatives of the administering Powers, undertaken in accordance with paragraph 4 of the resolution adopted by the Committee at its 1365th meeting, on 6 August 1990. 1/ In his report, the Acting Chairman stated, inter alia, that he had informed the representatives of the administering Powers that the Special Committee continued to attach the utmost importance to the dispatch of United Nations visiting missions to the Non-Self-Governing Territories as a means of securing firsthand information on those Territories and that it was the understanding of the Committee that a number of territorial Governments had expressed their willingness to receive such missions.

5. The Acting Chairman reported that the administering Powers consulted had reiterated their willingness to continue to provide all necessary information on the Territories under their respective administration, in accordance with Article 73 e of the Charter of the United Nations. Those already participating in the work of the Special Committee had further assured the Acting Chairman that they would in principle continue to do so. As regards the dispatch of United Nations visiting missions, however, the same willingness had not been displayed, and it appeared that, in most cases, further consultations with the administering Powers concerned would be necessary.

6. The Acting Chairman had been gratified to learn from one administering Power that the United Nations could be invited in 1992 to send another visiting mission to the Territory it administers, as soon as some technical problems had been solved. Other administering Powers, however, had pointed out that while they might be willing to examine the possibility of receiving United Nations visiting missions in the Territories under their administration, they considered it essential to first ascertain that the peoples of those Territories really wanted such missions and, if so, to determine the objectives of those missions on a case-by-case basis. Furthermore, in their view, a clear demonstration by the Special Committee of its determination to concentrate its efforts exclusively on the well-being of the peoples of the remaining small Territories might facilitate the acceptance of such missions by all concerned.

7. The Acting Chairman reported that he had drawn attention to the series of reforms undertaken by the Special Committee in recent months which were aimed at improving the Committee's efficiency and method of work in fulfilling its mandate. He had stressed that the full cooperation of the administering Powers would be an important complement to those efforts.

8. The Acting Chairman noted that the administering Powers consulted had indicated that they had followed with great interest and appreciation the efforts of the Special Committee to streamline and rationalize its work. They had expressed the hope that the conclusions and recommendations of the Committee to the General Assembly would reflect those efforts, thereby paving the way for renewed and closer cooperation of the administering Powers.

9. The Acting Chairman reported that he had reiterated the Special Committee's conviction of the importance of the participation of all administering Powers in the work of the Committee and their readiness to receive United Nations visiting missions in the Territories under their respective administration. With regard to visiting missions in particular, he had expressed the hope that the Committee would receive in the near future invitations from all administering Powers to send visiting missions to the Territories under their administration. It was agreed that the question should be kept under review and that further consultations should take place.

10. At the 1381st meeting, on 1 August, the Acting Chairman drew attention to his report on the item (ibid.), as well as a related draft resolution prepared by him (A/AC.109/L.1758). Statements were made by the representatives of Papua New Guinea and Trinidad and Tobago at the 1381st meeting, by the representative of the United States of America at the 1383rd meeting, on 7 August, and by the representative of Norway at the 1393rd meeting, on 14 August (see A/AC.109/PV.1381, 1383 and 1393).

11. At the 1387th meeting, on 9 August, the Special Committee adopted draft resolution A/AC.109/L.1758 (see para. 15).

12. On 15 August, the text of the resolution (A/AC.109/1085) was transmitted to the representatives of the administering Powers concerned for the attention of their respective Governments.

13. In addition to the consideration of the question at the plenary meetings of the Special Committee, as described below, the Subcommittee on Small Territories, in considering the specific Territories referred to it, took into account the relevant provisions of the General Assembly resolutions and decisions mentioned in paragraph 3, as well as previous decisions of the Committee relating to the item.

14. By approving the relevant reports of the Subcommittee on Small Territories, the Special Committee endorsed a number of conclusions and recommendations concerning the sending of visiting missions to Territories, as reflected in chapter IX of the present report.

B. Decision of the Special Committee

15. The text of the resolution (A/AC.109/1085) adopted by the Special Committee at its 1387th meeting, on 9 August, to which reference is made in paragraph 11, is reproduced below:

The Special Committee,

Having considered the question of sending visiting missions to Territories,

Having examined the report of the Acting Chairman on the question, 2/

Recalling the relevant resolutions and decisions of the General Assembly and the Special Committee requesting the administering Powers to cooperate fully with the United Nations by receiving visiting missions in the Territories under their administration,

Mindful that United Nations visiting missions provide an effective means of assessing the situation in those Territories and of ascertaining the wishes and aspirations of the peoples thereof regarding their future status,

Conscious that United Nations visiting missions enhance the capacity of the United Nations to assist the peoples of colonial Territories in attaining the objectives set forth in the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples, contained in General Assembly resolution 1514 (XV) of 14 December 1960, and in other relevant resolutions of the Assembly,

Noting with regret that some administering Powers do not participate in the work of the Special Committee,

1. Stresses the need to dispatch periodic visiting missions to colonial Territories in order to facilitate the full, speedy and effective implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples with respect to those Territories;

2. Calls upon the administering Powers to cooperate or continue to cooperate with the United Nations by receiving United Nations visiting missions in the Territories under their administration;

3. Continues to call upon those administering Powers that are not participating in the work of the Special Committee to reconsider their decisions and to take an active part in the work of the Committee;

4. Requests its Acting Chairman to continue consultations with the administering Powers concerned on the implementation of paragraph 2 of the present resolution and to report thereon to the Special Committee as appropriate.

ACTIVITIES OF FOREIGN ECONOMIC AND OTHER INTERESTS WHICH ARE IMPEDING THE IMPLEMENTATION OF THE DECLARATION ON THE GRANTING OF INDEPENDENCE TO COLONIAL COUNTRIES AND PEOPLES IN TERRITORIES UNDER COLONIAL DOMINATION AND EFFORTS TO ELIMINATE COLONIALISM, APARTHEID AND RACIAL DISCRIMINATION IN SOUTHERN AFRICA

A. Consideration by the Special Committee

1. At its 1377th meeting, on 21 February 1991, by adopting the suggestions relating to the organization of its work put forward by the Chairman (A/AC.109/L.1755), the Special Committee decided, inter alia, to take up the question of activities of foreign economic and other interests which are impeding the implementation of the Declaration in Territories under colonial domination and efforts to eliminate colonialism, apartheid and racial discrimination in southern Africa. The Committee further decided that the question should be considered at its plenary meetings and meetings of its Subcommittee on Small Territories, as appropriate.
2. The Special Committee considered the question at its 1382nd, 1383rd, 1386th, 1393rd and 1397th meetings, between 5 and 23 August 1991.
3. In its consideration of the question, the Special Committee took into account the provisions of the relevant resolutions of the General Assembly, including, in particular, resolution 45/17 of 20 November 1990, relating to foreign economic activities in colonial Territories. The Committee also took into account the relevant provisions of Assembly resolution 35/118 of 11 December 1980, which contains the Plan of Action for the Full Implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples; resolutions 40/56 of 2 December 1985 and 45/33 of 20 November 1990, relating to the twenty-fifth and thirtieth anniversaries, respectively, of the Declaration; and resolution 45/34 of 20 November 1990 on the implementation of the Declaration. The Committee also took into consideration the relevant documents of other intergovernmental bodies concerned, to which reference is made in the seventh preambular paragraph of the resolution it adopted on 23 August (see para. 11).
4. During its consideration of the question, the Special Committee had before it working papers prepared by the Secretariat containing information on economic conditions, with particular reference to foreign economic activities, in the following Territories: Anguilla (A/AC.109/1073), the Cayman Islands (A/AC.109/1075), the United States Virgin Islands (A/AC.109/1076), Montserrat (A/AC.109/1077) and Bermuda (A/AC.109/1078).
5. At its 1383rd meeting, on 7 August, the Committee granted a request for hearing to Mr. J. A. González-González. Mr. González-González made a statement at the 1386th meeting, on 8 August. At the same meeting, the Acting Chairman, speaking in his capacity as the representative of Czechoslovakia, made a statement (see A/AC.109/PV.1386).

* Previously issued as part of A/46/23 (Part III).

6. The general debate on the item took place at the 1382nd, 1383rd, 1386th and 1393rd meetings, on 5, 7, 8 and 14 August, respectively. (c) The draft resolution, as a whole, was adopted by 20 votes to none, with 4 abstentions.

Statements were made by the representatives of Norway, the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, Bulgaria, the Congo, Ethiopia and Czechoslovakia.

10. On 4 September, the text of the resolution (A/AC.109/1091) was transmitted to all States, to the specialized agencies and other organizations of the United Nations system, and to the Organization of African Unity.

B. Decision of the Special Committee

11. The text of the resolution (ibid.), adopted by the Special Committee at its 1397th meeting, on 23 August (see para. 9), appears in section C below, in the form of a recommendation of the Special Committee to the General Assembly.

C. Recommendation of the Special Committee

12. In accordance with decisions taken at its 1377th and 1393rd meetings, on 21 February and 14 August 1991, respectively, the Special Committee recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of the following draft resolution:

Activities of foreign economic and other interests which are impeding the implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples in Territories under colonial domination and efforts to eliminate colonialism, apartheid and racial discrimination in southern Africa

The General Assembly,

Having considered the item entitled "Activities of foreign economic and other interests which are impeding the implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples in Territories under colonial domination and efforts to eliminate colonialism, apartheid and racial discrimination in southern Africa",

Having examined the chapter of the report of the Special Committee on the Situation with regard to the Implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples relating to the item, 1/

Recalling its resolution 1514 (XV) of 14 December 1960, containing the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples, as well as all other resolutions on this subject, including, in particular, resolution 43/47 of 22 November 1988, declaring the period 1990-2000 as the International Decade for the Eradication of Colonialism,

Reaffirming the solemn obligation of the administering Powers under the Charter of the United Nations to promote the political, economic, social and educational advancement of the inhabitants of the Territories under their administration and to protect the human and natural resources of those Territories against abuses,

Reaffirming also that those economic and other activities which impede the implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples and obstruct efforts aimed at the elimination of colonialism, apartheid and racial discrimination in South Africa and in colonial Territories are in direct violation of the rights of the inhabitants and of the principles of the Charter and all relevant resolutions of the United Nations,

Seriously concerned about the activities of those foreign economic, financial and other interests which continue to exploit the natural resources that are the heritage of the indigenous populations of the colonial and Non-Self-Governing Territories in the Caribbean, the Pacific and other regions, as well as their human resources, to the detriment of their interests, thus depriving them of their right to control the resources of their Territories and impeding the realization by those peoples of their legitimate aspirations for self-determination and independence,

Bearing in mind the relevant provisions of the final documents of the successive Conferences of Heads of State or Government of Non-Aligned Countries and of the resolutions adopted by the Assembly of Heads of State and Government of the Organization of African Unity,

Strongly condemning the collaboration by certain countries with the racist minority regime of South Africa in the nuclear field, which, by providing that regime with nuclear equipment and technology, enables it to develop nuclear and military capabilities and to become a nuclear Power, thereby strengthening its abhorrent system of apartheid,

Conscious of the continuing need to mobilize world public opinion against the involvement of foreign economic, financial and other interests that obstruct efforts to eliminate colonialism and racism, particularly in South Africa, thereby violating the right of the peoples of colonial and Non-Self-Governing Territories to self-determination and independence, to apply pressure on transnational corporations to refrain from any investment or activity in South Africa, to encourage a policy of systematic divestment of any financial or other interest in corporations doing business with South Africa and to counteract all forms of collaboration with the apartheid regime,

1. Approves the chapter of the report of the Special Committee on the Situation with regard to the Implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples relating to the item; 1/

2. Reaffirms the inalienable right of the peoples of colonial and Non-Self-Governing Territories to self-determination and independence and to the enjoyment of the natural resources of their Territories, as well as their right to dispose of those resources in their best interests;

3. Reiterates that any administering or occupying Power that deprives the colonial peoples of the exercise of their legitimate rights over their natural resources or subordinates the rights and interests of those peoples to foreign economic and financial interests violates the solemn obligations it has assumed under the Charter of the United Nations;

4. Reaffirms its concern over the activities of those foreign economic, financial and other interests which continue to exploit the natural resources that are the heritage of the indigenous populations of the colonial and Non-Self-Governing Territories in the Caribbean, the Pacific and other regions, as well as their human resources, to the detriment of their interests, thus depriving them of their right to control the resources of their Territories and impeding the realization by those peoples of their legitimate aspirations for self-determination and independence;

5. Condemns those activities of foreign economic and other interests in the colonial Territories that are impeding the implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples, contained in General Assembly resolution 1514 (XV), and the efforts to eliminate colonialism, apartheid and racial discrimination;

6. Strongly condemns the collaboration of certain countries, in particular Israel, with the racist minority regime of South Africa in the nuclear field and calls upon those Governments concerned to refrain from supplying that regime, directly or indirectly, with installations, equipment or material that might enable it to produce uranium, plutonium and other nuclear materials, reactors or military equipment;

7. Also strongly condemns the collaboration with the racist minority regime of South Africa of certain countries as well as transnational corporations that continue to make new investments in South Africa and supply the regime with armaments, nuclear technology and all other materials that are likely to buttress it and thus aggravate the threat to world peace;

8. Calls upon all States to take urgent, effective measures to terminate all collaboration with the racist regime of South Africa, in particular in the military and nuclear fields, and to refrain from entering into other relations which run counter to the maintenance of existing sanctions against the regime in violation of the relevant resolutions of the United Nations and of the Organization of African Unity;

9. Calls once again upon all Governments that have not yet done so to take, in accordance with the relevant provisions of General Assembly resolution 2621 (XXV) of 12 October 1970, legislative, administrative or other measures in respect of their nationals and the bodies corporate under their jurisdiction that own and operate enterprises in colonial Territories that are detrimental to the interests of the inhabitants of those Territories, in order to put an end to such enterprises and to prevent new investments that run counter to the interests of the inhabitants of those Territories;

10. Calls upon those oil-producing and oil-exporting countries that have not yet done so to take effective measures against the oil companies concerned so as to terminate the supply of oil and petroleum products to the racist regime of South Africa;

11. Reiterates that the exploitation and plundering of the marine and other natural resources of colonial and Non-Self-Governing Territories by foreign economic interests, in violation of the relevant resolutions of the United Nations, is a grave threat to the integrity and prosperity of those Territories;

12. Invites all Governments and organizations of the United Nations system to take all possible measures to ensure that the permanent sovereignty of the peoples of colonial and Non-Self-Governing Territories over their natural resources is fully respected and safeguarded;

13. Urges the administering Powers concerned to take effective measures to safeguard and guarantee the inalienable right of the peoples of the colonial and Non-Self-Governing Territories to their natural resources and to establish and maintain control over the future development of those resources, and requests the administering Powers to take all necessary steps to protect the property rights of the peoples of those Territories;

14. Calls upon the administering Powers concerned to ensure that no discriminatory and unjust wage systems or working conditions prevail in the Territories under their administration and to apply in each Territory a uniform system of wages to all the inhabitants without any discrimination;

15. Requests the Secretary-General to continue, through the Department of Public Information of the Secretariat, to inform world public opinion of those activities of foreign economic and other interests which are impeding the implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples;

16. Appeals to mass media, trade unions and non-governmental organizations, as well as individuals, to coordinate and intensify their efforts to mobilize international public opinion against the policy of the apartheid regime of South Africa and to work towards the non-relaxation of existing measures against that regime in order to accelerate the process of constitutional change;

17. Decides to continue to monitor closely the situation in the colonial and Non-Self-Governing Territories so as to ensure that all economic activities in those Territories are aimed at strengthening and diversifying their economies in the interest of the indigenous peoples and at promoting the economic and financial viability of those Territories, in order to facilitate and accelerate the exercise by the people of those Territories of their right to self-determination and independence;

18. Requests the Special Committee on the Situation with regard to the Implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples to continue to examine this question and to report thereon to the General Assembly at its forty-seventh session.

CHAPTER V*

MILITARY ACTIVITIES AND ARRANGEMENTS BY COLONIAL POWERS IN TERRITORIES UNDER THEIR ADMINISTRATION WHICH MIGHT BE IMPEDING THE IMPLEMENTATION OF THE DECLARATION ON THE GRANTING OF INDEPENDENCE TO COLONIAL COUNTRIES AND PEOPLES

A. Consideration by the Special Committee

1. At its 1377th meeting, on 21 February 1991, by adopting the suggestions relating to the organization of its work put forward by the Chairman (A/AC.109/L.1755) the Special Committee decided, inter alia, to take up the question of military activities and arrangements by colonial Powers in Territories under their administration which might be impeding the implementation of the Declaration and to consider it at its plenary meetings and meetings of its Subcommittee on Small Territories, as appropriate.
2. The Special Committee considered the question at its 1382nd, 1383rd, 1386th, 1393rd and 1397th meetings, between 5 and 23 August 1991.
3. In its consideration of the question, the Special Committee took into account the provisions of the relevant General Assembly resolutions, including, in particular, resolution 45/34 of 20 November 1990. By paragraph 10 of that resolution, the Assembly called upon the colonial Powers "to withdraw immediately and unconditionally their military bases and installations from colonial Territories, to refrain from establishing new ones and not to involve those Territories in any offensive acts or interference against other States". The Committee also took into account Assembly decision 45/406 of 20 November 1990, by paragraph 12 of which the Assembly requested the Committee "to continue to examine this question and to report thereon to the Assembly at its forty-sixth session". Further, the Committee took into account the relevant provisions of Assembly resolution 35/118 of 11 December 1980, which contains the Plan of Action for the Full Implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples, as well as resolutions 40/56 of 2 December 1985 and 45/33 of 20 November 1990, relating to the twenty-fifth and thirtieth anniversaries, respectively, of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples.
4. During its consideration of the question, the Special Committee had before it working papers prepared by the Secretariat containing information on military activities and arrangements in the following Territories: Bermuda (A/AC.109/1065), the United States Virgin Islands (A/AC.109/1066) and Guam (A/AC.109/1070).
5. The general debate on the item took place at the 1382nd, 1383rd, 1386th and 1393rd meetings, on 5, 7, 8 and 14 August, respectively. The following Member States took part in the debate: China and Indonesia at the 1382nd meeting, Fiji, Cuba and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics at the 1383rd meeting, the United Republic of Tanzania at the 1386th meeting, and Papua New Guinea at the 1393rd meeting (see A/AC.109/PV.1382, 1383, 1386 and 1393). At the 1386th meeting, the representative of the United Republic of Tanzania replied to a question put to him by the representative of Norway.

* Previously issued as part of A/46/23 (Part III).

6. Also at the 1386th meeting, statements were made by the representatives of Papua New Guinea, the Syrian Arab Republic and Norway (see A/AC.109/PV.1386).

7. At the 1397th meeting, on 23 August, the Acting Chairman drew attention to draft decision A/AC.109/L.1772, submitted by him on the basis of consultations with members of the Special Committee.

8. At the same meeting, the Acting Chairman informed the Committee that a separate vote had been requested on paragraph 7 of draft decision A/AC.109/L.1772. The Special Committee took the following action:

(a) A separate vote was taken on paragraph 7 of the draft decision. The paragraph was retained by 17 votes to 3, with 3 abstentions;

(b) The draft decision, as a whole, was adopted by 20 votes to none, with 4 abstentions (see para. 10).

The representative of Norway made a statement (see A/AC.109/PV.1397).

9. On 4 September, the text of the decision (A/AC.109/1090) was transmitted to all States, the specialized agencies and other organizations of the United Nations system, and to the Organization of African Unity.

B. Decision of the Special Committee

10. The text of the decision (ibid.) adopted by the Special Committee at its 1397th meeting, on 23 August (see para. 8), appears in section C below, in the form of a recommendation of the Special Committee to the General Assembly.

C. Recommendation of the Special Committee

11. In accordance with decisions taken at its 1377th and 1393rd meetings, on 21 February and 14 August 1991, respectively, the Special Committee recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of the following draft decision:

Military activities and arrangements by colonial Powers in Territories under their administration which might be impeding the implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples

1. The General Assembly, having considered the chapter of the report of the Special Committee on the Situation with regard to the Implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples relating to an item on the agenda of the Special Committee entitled "Military activities and arrangements by colonial Powers in Territories under their administration which might be impeding the implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples" ^{1/} and recalling its resolution 1514 (XV) of 14 December 1960 and all other resolutions and decisions of the United Nations relating to military activities in colonial and Non-Self-Governing Territories, reaffirms its strong conviction that military bases and installations in the Territories concerned could constitute an obstacle to the exercise by the people of those Territories of their right to self-determination and reiterates its strong views that existing bases and installations, which are impeding the implementation of the Declaration, should be withdrawn and that no further entrenchment should be condoned.

2. The General Assembly reaffirms that it is the responsibility of the administering Powers to ensure that the existence of military bases and installations does not hinder the population of the Territories from exercising their right to self-determination and independence in conformity with the purposes and principles of the Charter of the United Nations and the Declaration. Furthermore, aware of the presence of such bases and installations in some of those Territories, the Assembly urges the administering Powers concerned to continue to take all necessary measures not to involve those Territories in any offensive acts or interference against other States, and to comply fully with the purposes and principles of the Charter.

3. The General Assembly reiterates its condemnation of all military activities and arrangements by colonial Powers in Territories under their administration which might run counter to the rights and interests of the colonial peoples concerned, especially their right to self-determination and independence. The Assembly once again calls upon the colonial Powers concerned to terminate such activities and to eliminate such military bases in compliance with the relevant resolutions of the Assembly.

4. The General Assembly reiterates that the colonial Territories and areas adjacent thereto should not be used for nuclear testing, dumping of nuclear wastes or deployment of nuclear and other weapons of mass destruction.

5. The General Assembly notes with serious concern that, in southern Africa in general, a critical situation continues to prevail as a result of South Africa's inhuman repression of the people of South Africa, and declares that the policy of apartheid and destabilization not only undermines the peace and stability of the southern African region but also constitutes a threat to international peace and security.

6. The General Assembly condemns the continued military, nuclear and intelligence collaboration between South Africa and certain countries, which constitutes a violation of the arms embargo imposed against South Africa by the Security Council in its resolution 418 (1977) of 4 November 1977, and which poses a threat to international peace and security. The Assembly urges the Council to consider, as a matter of urgency, the report of the Council Committee established under its resolution 421 (1977) of 9 December 1977 2/ and to adopt further measures to widen the scope of its resolution 418 (1977) in order to make it more effective and comprehensive. The Assembly also calls for the scrupulous observance of Security Council resolution 558 (1984) of 13 December 1984, enjoining all States to refrain from importing armaments from South Africa. The Assembly is particularly mindful, in that regard, of a series of resolutions adopted by the Security Council, 3/ the General Assembly, the Special Committee on the Situation with regard to the Implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples and the Special Committee against Apartheid, as well as the Movement of Non-Aligned Countries, the Organization of African Unity, the Commonwealth and a number of intergovernmental and regional organizations.

7. The General Assembly considers that the acquisition of nuclear-weapon capability by the racist regime of South Africa, with its infamous record of violence and aggression, constitutes a further effort on its part to terrorize and intimidate independent States in the region into submission while also posing a threat to all mankind. The Assembly condemns the continuing support to the racist regime of South Africa in the military and other fields. In this context, the Assembly expresses its concern at the grave consequences for international peace and security of the collaboration between the racist regime of South Africa and certain Western Powers, Israel and other countries in the military and other fields. It calls upon the States concerned to end all such collaboration and, in particular, to halt the supply to South Africa of equipment, technology, nuclear materials and related training, which increases its capability to manufacture nuclear weapons.

8. The General Assembly strongly condemns the continuing collaboration of certain countries with the racist regime in the military and nuclear fields, and expresses its conviction that such collaboration is in contravention of the arms embargo imposed against South Africa under Security Council resolution 418 (1977) and undermines international solidarity against the apartheid regime. The Assembly thus calls for the termination forthwith of all such collaboration.

9. The General Assembly urges all Governments, the specialized agencies and other intergovernmental organizations to provide increased material assistance to the thousands of refugees who have been forced by the oppressive policies of the apartheid regime in South Africa to flee into the neighbouring States and for the purpose of resettlement of those who are returning.

10. The General Assembly deplores the continued alienation of land in colonial Territories, particularly in the small island Territories of the Pacific and Caribbean regions, for military installations. The large-scale utilization of the local resources for this purpose could adversely affect the economic development of the Territories concerned.

11. The General Assembly requests the Secretary-General to continue, through the Department of Public Information of the Secretariat, to inform world public opinion of the facts concerning the military activities and arrangements in colonial Territories which are impeding the implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples, contained in General Assembly resolution 1514 (XV).

12. The General Assembly requests the Special Committee on the Situation with regard to the Implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples to continue to examine this question and to report thereon to the Assembly at its forty-seventh session.

C. Recommendation of the Special Committee

18. In accordance with decisions taken at its 1377th and 1393rd meetings, on 21 February and 14 August 1991, respectively, the Special Committee recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of the following draft resolution:

Implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples by the specialized agencies and the international institutions associated with the United Nations

The General Assembly,

Having considered the item entitled "Implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples by the specialized agencies and the international institutions associated with the United Nations",

Having considered the reports submitted on the item by the Secretary-General 1/ and the Acting Chairman of the Special Committee on the Situation with regard to the Implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples, 2/

Having examined the chapter of the report of the Special Committee on the Situation with regard to the Implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples relating to the item, 3/

Recalling its resolution 1514 (XV) of 14 December 1960, containing the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples, and resolution 1541 (XV) of 15 December 1960, as well as all its other resolutions on this subject, including, in particular, resolution 43/47 of 22 November 1988, on the International Decade for the Eradication of Colonialism,

Recalling also its resolution S-16/1 of 14 December 1989, the annex to which contains the Declaration on Apartheid and its Destructive Consequences in Southern Africa,

Bearing in mind the relevant provisions of the final documents of the successive Conferences of Heads of State or Government of Non-Aligned Countries and of the resolutions adopted by the Assembly of Heads of State and Government of the Organization of African Unity,

Deeply concerned that the objectives of the Charter of the United Nations and the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples have not been fully achieved,

Recognizing that permanent peace and stability in southern Africa can only be achieved when the system of apartheid in South Africa has been eradicated and South Africa has been transformed into a united, democratic and non-racial country, and reiterating therefore that all the necessary measures should be adopted at the present time to bring a speedy end to the apartheid system in the interest of all the people of southern Africa, the African continent and the world at large,

Noting that the large majority of the remaining colonial Territories are small island Territories,

Recalling its resolution 43/189 of 20 December 1988, concerning specific measures in favour of island developing countries,

Bearing in mind the conclusions and recommendations of the Meeting of Governmental Experts of Island Developing Countries and Donor Countries and Organizations, held in New York from 25 to 29 June 1990, 4/

Recalling relevant resolutions of the Caribbean Development and Cooperation Committee concerning the access of colonial Territories to programmes of the United Nations system,

TWO HUNDRED AND EIGHTY-FIFTH REPORT OF THE SUBCOMMITTEE ON PETITIONS, INFORMATION AND ASSISTANCE*

Chairman: Mr. Renagi Renagi LOHIA (Papua New Guinea)

Conclusions and recommendations

(1) The Special Committee reiterates that it considers it to be of utmost importance that the specialized agencies and other organizations and institutions of the United Nations system, guided by the relevant resolutions and decisions of the United Nations, should continue and intensify their efforts to contribute, within their spheres of competence, to the full and speedy implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples, contained in General Assembly resolution 1514 (XV) of 14 December 1960.

(2) The Special Committee commends those specialized agencies and other organizations and institutions of the United Nations system that have cooperated with the United Nations and various regional organizations in the implementation of the Declaration and the other relevant resolutions and decisions of the United Nations, and urges those that have not already done so to include in the agenda of the regular meetings of their governing bodies a separate item on the progress they have made in the implementation of the Declaration and the other relevant resolutions and decisions of the United Nations, particularly on the assistance provided to colonial peoples.

(3) The Special Committee considers that the assistance provided by the specialized agencies and other organizations and institutions of the United Nations system to the peoples of the Non-Self-Governing Territories should not only meet their immediate needs but also create conditions conducive to development after these peoples have exercised their right to self-determination, taking into consideration the need to preserve indigenous cultures and traditions.

(4) The Special Committee urges the specialized agencies and other organizations and institutions of the United Nations system to assist in accelerating progress in all sectors of the national life of the small Territories, particularly in the development of their economies.

(5) The Special Committee emphasizes the importance of coordination at the country, regional and headquarters levels of the programmes of assistance provided by the specialized agencies and other organizations and institutions of the United Nations system to the peoples of Non-Self-Governing Territories. The Committee considers that such coordination would enable the peoples concerned to derive the maximum benefit from those programmes.

(6) The Special Committee reiterates its conviction that consultations with the specialized agencies and other organizations and institutions of the United Nations system are an appropriate means for further strengthening the role of those organizations in the process of decolonization with regard to the aims and objectives of the Declaration, as well as for the Committee to benefit from their experience in that process.

Also noting the establishment, under the 1988 Constitution, of a Public Service Commission to advise the Governor on civil service matters, and of a Public Service Training Board under the Commission to advise on and assist in the supervision of policies and programmes for the training of public officers at all levels,

Further noting the enactment in May 1990 of an immigration bill designed to effect improved regulations governing the status of immigrants and migrant workers,

Noting with satisfaction the arrangements made to make university-level education available to the Turks and Caicos Islanders,

Recalling the dispatch in 1980 of two United Nations visiting missions to the Territory,

1. Urges the administering Power, in consultation with the territorial Government, to continue to provide the necessary assistance for the localization of the civil service at all levels and for the training of local personnel;

2. Notes with satisfaction the opening in February 1990 of the School for Field Studies on South Caicos, the first university-level institution in the Territory, as well as the arrangements made by the Government of the Bahamas enabling qualified students from the Territory to attend the College of the Bahamas on scholarships provided by the Government of the Bahamas;

3. Takes note that, as a result of the manpower review undertaken in 1989, a number of measures have been taken to strengthen and restructure the public service, including the establishment of new posts and the regrading of existing posts;

4. Notes with regret that a period of eleven years has elapsed since a United Nations mission visited the Territory.

X. United States Virgin Islands

The General Assembly,

Referring to resolution A above,

Having heard the statement of the representatives of the United States of America, as the administering Power, 7/

Having also heard the statement of the representative of the Governor of the United States Virgin Islands, 11/

Noting that legislation has been introduced in the Virgin Islands Senate to postpone the referendum on political status until 1993,

Noting also that the extension to ninety days of the residency requirement for voting has not addressed the concerns of the representatives of the territorial Government and those of the Commission on Status and Federal Relations regarding eligibility to participate in a referendum on self-determination,

Noting further that discussions are continuing between the territorial Government and the administering Power over the transfer of the ownership of Water Island to the Territory at the end of its lease in December 1992,

Taking note of the continued concerns of the Long Bay Coalition over the reclamation and development of submerged land at Long Bay in the Charlotte Amalie Harbour,

Noting the continuing interest of the territorial Government in seeking associate membership in the Organization of Eastern Caribbean States and in the Caribbean Community,

Recalling the dispatch in 1977 of a United Nations visiting mission to the Territory and the outstanding request by the territorial Government for a further visiting mission to the Territory,

1. Calls upon the administering Power, in cooperation with the territorial Government, to consider a review of the residency requirement for those eligible to participate in a genuine exercise of the right to self-determination in the United States Virgin Islands;

2. Urges the administering Power to ensure the transfer of Water Island to the Territory at the end of 1992 and to further ensure that the permanent sovereignty of the territorial Government over the natural resources of the Territory is fully respected and safeguarded;

3. Requests the administering Power to assist the Government of the United States Virgin Islands in securing the means to acquire the reclaimed and submerged land at Long Bay in the Charlotte Amalie Harbour from the West Indian Company;

4. Reiterates its requests to the administering Power to facilitate the participation of the Territory in the Organization of Eastern Caribbean States and the Caribbean Community, as well as in various international and regional organizations, including the Caribbean Group for Cooperation in Economic Development of the World Bank;

5. Calls upon the administering Power to respond favourably to the request of the territorial Government for the dispatch of a United Nations visiting mission to the Territory.

Having examined the chapter of the report of the Special Committee on the Situation with regard to the Implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples relating to the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, 4/

Taking note of the Trusteeship Agreement concluded between the Administering Authority and the Security Council with regard to the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, 12/

Mindful that, under Article 83 of the Charter of the United Nations, the Security Council shall exercise all functions of the United Nations relating to strategic areas, including the approval of the terms of the trusteeship agreements and of their alteration or amendment,

Confident that special attention will continue to be given by the Security Council to the full implementation of all provisions of the Trusteeship Agreement,

Noting that the Administering Authority has taken measures to distribute the financial payments for unpaid war-damage claims to the people of the Trust Territory, and expressing the hope that all remaining claims will be settled in the near future,

Bearing in mind the right of the people of the Trust Territory to oppose the presence of nuclear, chemical and biological weapons in areas under their territorial jurisdiction,

1. Approves the chapter of the report of the Special Committee on the Situation with regard to the Implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples relating to the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands; 4/

2. Reaffirms the importance of ensuring that the people of the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands fully and freely exercise their inalienable rights and that the obligations of the Administering Authority under the Trusteeship Agreement 12/ and the Charter of the United Nations are duly discharged;

3. Takes note of the adoption by the Security Council on 22 December 1990 of resolution 683 (1990), by which it determined, in the light of the entry into force of the new status agreements for the Federated States of Micronesia, the Marshall Islands and the Northern Mariana Islands, that the objectives of the Trusteeship Agreement had been fully attained and that the applicability of the Trusteeship Agreement had terminated with respect to those entities;

4. Expresses the hope that Palau, the only remaining Territory under the Trusteeship Agreement, will be able to complete the process of exercising its right to self-determination in due course;

5. Takes note of the fact that the Trusteeship Council, at its fifty-eighth session, welcomed the assurance of the Administering Authority that it was prepared to assist the Government of Palau, at its request, in any appropriate endeavour leading to the final determination of a political status for Palau, in accordance with the free choice of its people, 13/ and calls upon the Administering Authority to discharge its responsibilities in that connection, in strict conformity with the provisions of the Charter, particularly Article 83, and the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples;

6. Urges the Administering Authority to assist the maritime authorities of the Trust Territory in strengthening the existing legislation concerning the exploitation, management and conservation of a 200-mile exclusive economic zone, and reaffirms its conviction that the rights of the people of Palau over such a zone should be respected and that they should receive all benefits deriving from it;

7. Stresses the need to preserve the cultural identity and heritage of the people of Palau, and calls upon the Administering Authority to take all necessary steps towards that end;

8. Takes note of the interest of the people of the Trust Territory in the creation of a nuclear-free zone in the Pacific;

9. Requests the Special Committee to continue the examination of this question at its next session and to report thereon to the General Assembly at its forty-seventh session.

24. The Special Committee also recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of the following draft decisions:

DRAFT DECISION I

Question of Pitcairn

The General Assembly, having examined the relevant chapter of the report of the Special Committee on the Situation with regard to the Implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples, 4/ reaffirms the inalienable right of the people of Pitcairn to self-determination in conformity with the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples, which fully applies to the Territory. The Assembly further reaffirms the responsibility of the administering Power to promote the economic and social development of the Territory. The Assembly urges the administering Power to continue to respect the very individual lifestyle that the people of the Territory have chosen and to preserve, promote and protect it. The Assembly requests the Special Committee to continue to examine the question of Pitcairn at its next session and to report thereon to the Assembly at its forty-seventh session.

Question of St. Helena

The General Assembly, having examined the relevant chapters of the report of the Special Committee on the Situation with regard to the Implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples, 14/ reaffirms the inalienable right of the people of St. Helena to self-determination and independence in conformity with the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples, contained in General Assembly resolution 1514 (XV) of 14 December 1960. The Assembly urges the administering Power, in consultation with the Legislative Council and other representatives of the people of St. Helena, to continue to take all necessary steps to ensure the speedy implementation of the Declaration in respect of the Territory and, in that connection, reaffirms the importance of promoting an awareness among the people of St. Helena of the possibilities open to them in the exercise of their right to self-determination. The Assembly reaffirms the responsibility of the administering Power to promote the economic and social development of the Territory and calls upon the administering Power to continue, in cooperation with the territorial Government, to strengthen the economy and to increase its assistance to diversification programmes. The Assembly urges the administering Power, in cooperation with the territorial Government, to continue to take effective measures to safeguard and guarantee the inalienable right of the people of St. Helena to own and dispose of the natural resources of the Territory, including marine resources, and to establish and maintain control over the future development of those resources. The Assembly expresses the view that the administering Power should continue to implement infrastructure and community development projects aimed at improving the general welfare of the community, including the unemployment situation, and to encourage local initiative and enterprise, particularly in the areas of fisheries development, forestry, handicrafts and agriculture. The Assembly reaffirms that continued development assistance from the administering Power, together with any assistance that the international community might be able to provide, constitutes an important means of developing the economic potential of the Territory and of enhancing the capacity of its people to realize fully the goals set forth in the relevant provisions of the Charter of the United Nations. The Assembly, in that connection, welcomes the assistance rendered by the United Nations Development Programme and invites other organizations of the United Nations system to assist in the development of the Territory. The continued presence of military facilities in the Territory prompts the Assembly, on the basis of previous United Nations resolutions and decisions concerning military bases and installations in colonial and Non-Self-Governing Territories, to urge the administering Power to take measures to avoid the involvement of the Territory in offensive acts or interference against neighbouring States. The Assembly considers that the possibility of dispatching a United Nations visiting mission to St. Helena at an appropriate time should be kept under review, and requests the Special Committee to continue to examine the question of St. Helena at its next session and to report thereon to the Assembly at its forty-seventh session.

B. Decision of the Special Committee

14. The text of the resolution (ibid.) adopted by the Special Committee at its 1394th meeting, on 14 August, to which reference is made in paragraph 11, is reproduced below:

The Special Committee,

Having considered the question of the Falkland Islands (Malvinas),

Aware that the maintenance of colonial situations is incompatible with the United Nations ideal of universal peace,

Recalling General Assembly resolutions 1514 (XV) of 14 December 1960, 2065 (XX) of 16 December 1965, 3160 (XXVIII) of 14 December 1973, 31/49 of 1 December 1976, 37/9 of 4 November 1982, 38/12 of 16 November 1983, 39/6 of 1 November 1984, 40/21 of 27 November 1985, 41/40 of 25 November 1986, 42/19 of 17 November 1987 and 43/25 of 17 November 1988; its resolutions A/AC.109/756 of 1 September 1983, A/AC.109/793 of 20 August 1984, A/AC.109/842 of 9 August 1985, A/AC.109/885 of 14 August 1986, A/AC.109/930 of 14 August 1987, A/AC.109/972 of 11 August 1988, A/AC.109/1008 of 15 August 1989 and A/AC.109/1050 of 14 August 1990; and Security Council resolutions 502 (1982) of 3 April 1982 and 505 (1982) of 26 May 1982,

Distressed that, notwithstanding the time that has elapsed since the adoption of General Assembly resolution 2065 (XX), this prolonged dispute has not yet been settled,

Aware of the interest of the international community in the resumption by the Governments of Argentina and the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland of their negotiations in order to find as soon as possible a peaceful, just and lasting solution to the sovereignty dispute relating to the question of the Falkland Islands (Malvinas),

Expressing its preoccupation over the fact that the good level of relations between Argentina and the United Kingdom has not yet led to negotiations on the question of the Falkland Islands (Malvinas),

Considering that this situation should facilitate the resumption of the negotiations in order to find a peaceful solution to the dispute over sovereignty,

Reaffirming the principles of the Charter of the United Nations on the non-use of force or the threat of force in international relations and the peaceful settlement of international disputes,

Calling attention to the importance of the Secretary-General continuing his efforts to give full effect to the mission entrusted to him by the General Assembly in its resolutions on the question of the Falkland Islands (Malvinas),

Reaffirming the need for the parties to take due account of the interests of the population of the islands in accordance with the provisions of the General Assembly resolutions on the question of the Falkland Islands (Malvinas),

1. Reiterates that the way to put an end to the special and particular colonial situation in the question of the Falkland Islands (Malvinas) is the peaceful and negotiated settlement of the dispute over sovereignty between the Governments of Argentina and the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland;

2. Takes note with satisfaction of the fact that the Government of Argentina has reiterated, through its Minister for Foreign Affairs at the forty-fifth session of the General Assembly, its will to comply fully with the General Assembly resolutions referring to the question of the Falkland Islands (Malvinas);

3. Regrets that, in spite of such circumstance and of the widespread international support for a negotiation between the Governments of Argentina and the United Kingdom that includes all aspects on the future of the Falkland Islands (Malvinas), the implementation of the General Assembly resolutions on this question has not yet started;

4. Requests the Governments of Argentina and the United Kingdom to consolidate the current process of dialogue and cooperation through the resumption of negotiations in order to find as soon as possible a peaceful solution to the sovereignty dispute relating to the question of the Falkland Islands (Malvinas), in accordance with the provisions of General Assembly resolutions 2065 (XX), 3160 (XXVIII), 31/49, 37/9, 38/12, 39/6, 40/21, 41/40, 42/19 and 43/25;

5. Reiterates its firm support for the mission of good offices of the Secretary-General in order to assist the parties in complying with the request made by the General Assembly in its resolutions on the question of the Falkland Islands (Malvinas);

6. Decides to keep under review the question of the Falkland Islands (Malvinas) subject to the directives that the General Assembly has issued and may issue in that regard.
