

General Assembly

Distr.: General
14 July 2008

Original: English

Sixty-third session

Item 97 of the preliminary list*

Comprehensive Nuclear-Test-Ban Treaty

Report of the Secretary-General

1. In paragraph 9 of its resolution 62/59 entitled “Comprehensive Nuclear-Test-Ban Treaty”, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General, in consultation with the Preparatory Commission for the Comprehensive Nuclear-Test-Ban Treaty Organization, to prepare a report on the efforts of States that have ratified the Treaty towards its universalization and possibilities for providing assistance on ratification procedures to States that so request it and to submit such a report to the Assembly at its sixty-third session.
2. The present report is submitted pursuant to that request. Information on the subject provided by the Preparatory Commission for the Comprehensive Nuclear-Test-Ban Treaty Organization is contained in the annex.

* A/63/50.

Annex

Report on efforts of States towards the universalization of the Comprehensive Nuclear-Test-Ban Treaty^a

June 2007-May 2008

State	Date/period	Activities and context	Comments
1. Bilateral level
1 (a) Activities relating to Annex 2 States
Australia	June 2007-May 2008	In relation to the remaining Annex 2 States, Australia continued to conduct outreach activities in order to promote the Treaty and encourage its ratification by China, Egypt, Indonesia, and the United States of America
	9 and 11-13 May 2008	Australia facilitated a visit by the Executive Secretary to Australia to meet with the Minister for Foreign Affairs so as to discuss how best to promote the entry into force of the Treaty and to support the continued build-up of the verification regime. Australia organized media statements and press interviews and facilitated meetings between the Executive Secretary and various strategic institutes to raise awareness about the Treaty
	June 2007-May 2008	Australia issued various press statements and media releases to congratulate States who had ratified the Treaty (including Annex 2 States) and to promote awareness for entry into force of the Treaty

^a The present report includes activities that have been completed (i.e. that are not ongoing or planned) and that were aimed at promoting the entry into force of the Treaty.

State	Date/period	Activities and context	Comments
Austria	September 2007-May 2008	In its current functions as co-Chair of the Conference on Facilitating the Entry into Force of the Comprehensive Nuclear-Test-Ban Treaty ("Article XIV conference"), Austria is engaged actively in promoting ratification of the Treaty by those Annex 2 States that have not yet ratified it
Bulgaria	June 2007-May 2008	In its bilateral contacts with all Annex 2 States that have not yet signed or ratified the Treaty, Bulgaria has urged them to do so without further delay, stressing the importance of the early entry into force of the Treaty
France	June 2007-May 2008	France conducted regular discussions with Annex 2 States that have not yet signed or ratified the Treaty. In those discussions, France seized every opportunity to stress the importance that it attaches to entry into force of the Treaty
	31 January 2008	Welcoming the ratification of the Treaty by Colombia, ^b France called for a prompt entry into force of the Treaty
	21 March 2008	The President of France invited all countries, including Annex 2 States, to ratify the Treaty
	7 April 2008	On the occasion of the tenth anniversary of the ratification of the Treaty by France, France made a special appeal to the nine Annex 2 States that have not yet ratified the Treaty to do so
Iceland	June 2007-May 2008	In bilateral meetings and public statements, Iceland encouraged those Annex 2 States that had not yet signed and/or ratified the Treaty, to do so

^b Colombia ratified the Comprehensive Nuclear-Test-Ban Treaty on 29 January 2008.

State	Date/period	Activities and context	Comments
Morocco	June 2007-May 2008	Morocco seized every opportunity to urge all those States that had not yet signed and/or ratified the Treaty, in particular Annex 2 States, to do so, thus bridging an important gap in the international nuclear non-proliferation and disarmament regime
Netherlands	June 2007-May 2008	The former Ambassador of the Netherlands to the United Nations Office at Vienna was appointed as the Article XIV Conference Special Representative in order to promote, on behalf of ratifying States, early entry into force of the Treaty. As a Special Representative, Ambassador Ramaker has visited and will continue to visit Annex 2 States. The activities of the Article XIV Conference Special Representative, whose term was extended to September 2009, are supported by the Netherlands, in close cooperation with the co-chairs of the Article XIV Conference (Austria and Costa Rica)
	June 2007-May 2008	In its bilateral contacts, the Netherlands stressed to several Annex 2 States the importance of signature and ratification of the Treaty
Poland	July 2007-May 2008	In its bilateral contacts, frequently at the ministerial level, Poland raised the issue of signature and ratification of the Treaty with India in the context of the India/United States agreement, as well as with the Democratic People's Republic of Korea during the Polish Presidency of the European Union in the second half of 2007

State	Date/period	Activities and context	Comments
Peru	June 2007-May 2008	Peru continued its efforts aimed at promoting the universalization of the Treaty in relevant bilateral meetings. It underlined on several occasions the importance of the Treaty, promoted its early entry into force and, in this regard, urged Annex 2 States that have not yet signed or ratified the Treaty to do so
Qatar	June 2007-May 2008	Qatar spared no efforts to urge all States, including Annex 2 States, which had not yet signed or ratified the Treaty to do so because Qatar believes in the importance of the universalization of the Treaty for global security and in bridging the dangerous gap in the international disarmament and non-proliferation regime
Russian Federation	June 2007-May 2008	In the framework of its bilateral contacts with those Annex 2 States which had not yet signed or ratified the Treaty, the Russian Federation persistently called upon them to join the Treaty as soon as possible
Switzerland	June 2007-May 2008	Switzerland raised the importance of the early entry into force of the Treaty, with several Annex 2 States that had not yet signed and/or ratified the Treaty
Ukraine	June 2007-May 2008	After completing its functions as Coordinator of the Eastern European Group, Ukraine continued to put constant and concerted efforts into bilateral outreach activities (including with Annex 2 States) aimed at the earliest possible entry into force of the Comprehensive Nuclear-Test-Ban Treaty

State	Date/period	Activities and context	Comments
1. Bilateral level
1 (b) Activities relating to non-Annex 2 States
Australia	June 2007-May 2008	In relation to the remaining non-Annex 2 States, Australia continued to conduct outreach activities in order to promote the Treaty and to encourage its ratification by various non-Annex 2 States, including Brunei Darussalam, Marshall Islands, Myanmar, Papua New Guinea, Solomon Islands, Niue, Timor-Leste, and Tonga
	June 2007-May 2008	In bilateral engagements throughout the South Pacific and the Caribbean regions, Australia continued to encourage those non-Annex 2 States that had not yet done so to ratify the Treaty
	June 2007-May 2008	Australia issued various press statements and media releases to congratulate States that had ratified the Treaty (including non-Annex 2 States) and to promote awareness for entry into force of the Treaty
Austria	September 2007-May 2008	In its current functions as co-Chair of the Conference on Facilitating the Entry into Force of the Comprehensive Nuclear-Test-Ban Treaty ("Article XIV conference"), Austria is engaged actively in promoting ratification of the Treaty by those non-Annex 2 States that have not yet ratified the Treaty
Bulgaria	June 2007-May 2008	Bulgaria seized every suitable opportunity in the framework of its regular contacts with non-Annex 2 States to promote the Treaty and its universalization

State	Date/period	Activities and context	Comments
France	June 2007-May 2008	France conducted regular discussions with non-Annex 2 States that have not yet signed or ratified the Treaty. In those discussions, France seized every opportunity to stress the importance France attaches to entry into force of the Treaty
	31 January 2008	Welcoming the ratification of the Comprehensive Nuclear-Test-Ban Treaty by Barbados and Malaysia, ^c France called for a prompt entry into force of the Treaty
	21 March 2008	The President of the Republic of France invited all countries, including non-Annex 2 States, to ratify the Treaty
Morocco	June 2007-May 2008	Morocco seized every opportunity to urge all those States which had not yet signed and/or ratified the Treaty, including non-Annex 2 States, to do so, thus bridging an important gap in the international nuclear non-proliferation and disarmament regime
	June 2007-May 2008	Morocco provided voluntary financial contributions to enable the participation of technical experts from developing countries in official technical meetings of the Preparatory Commission for the Comprehensive Nuclear-Test-Ban Treaty Organization, thus strengthening the universal character of the Treaty

^c Barbados and Malaysia ratified the Comprehensive Nuclear-Test-Ban Treaty on 14 January 2008 and 17 January 2008, respectively.

State	Date/period	Activities and context	Comments
Netherlands	June 2007-May 2008	The Article XIV Special Representative visited several non-Annex 2 States which had not yet signed and/or ratified the Treaty. The activities of the Article XIV Conference Special Representative, whose term was extended to September 2009, are supported by the Netherlands, in close cooperation with the co-Chairs of the Article XIV Conference (Austria and Costa Rica)
	June 2007-May 2008	On several bilateral occasions (including in speeches by, and during visits of, the Minister for Foreign Affairs), the Netherlands underlined to non-Annex 2 States the importance of the Treaty and promoted its entry into force
	June 2007-May 2008	The Netherlands provided voluntary financial contributions to enable the participation of technical experts from developing countries in official technical meetings of the Preparatory Commission for the Comprehensive Nuclear-Test-Ban Treaty Organization, thus strengthening the universal character of the Treaty
Peru	June 2007-May 2008	Peru continued its efforts aimed at promoting the universalization of the Treaty in relevant bilateral meetings. It underlined the importance of the Treaty on several occasions, promoted its early entry into force and, in this regard, urged non-Annex 2 States that have not yet signed or ratified the Treaty to do so
Poland	June 2007-May 2008	In its bilateral contacts, frequently at the ministerial level, Poland raised the issue of signature and ratification of the Treaty with a number of non-Annex 2 States, including Iraq

State	Date/period	Activities and context	Comments
Qatar	June 2007-May 2008	Qatar spared no efforts to urge all non-Annex 2 States which had not yet signed or ratified the Treaty to do so because Qatar believes in the importance of the universalization of the Treaty for global security and in bridging the dangerous gap in the international disarmament and non-proliferation regime
Russian Federation	June 2007-May 2008	In the framework of its bilateral contacts with those non-Annex 2 States which had not yet signed or ratified the Treaty, the Russian Federation persistently called upon them to join the Treaty as soon as possible
Turkey	13 February 2008	Turkey provided voluntary financial contributions to enable the participation of technical experts from developing countries in official technical meetings of the Preparatory Commission
Ukraine	June 2007-May 2008	After completing its functions as Coordinator of the Eastern European Group, Ukraine continued to put constant and concerted efforts into bilateral outreach activities (including with non-Annex 2 States) aimed at the earliest possible entry into force of the Treaty
2. Multilateral level
2 (a) Global
Australia	June-September 2007	In its capacity as Coordinator of the Conference on Facilitating the Entry into Force of the Comprehensive Nuclear-Test-Ban Treaty, Australia led preparations for the Conference on 17 and 18 September 2007 before handing responsibility over to Costa Rica and Austria

State	Date/period	Activities and context	Comments
	February-May 2008	Australia, in its capacity as Chair of the “Vienna Group of Ten”, conducted activities in advance of and during the second session of the Preparatory Committee for the 2010 Review Conference of the Parties to the Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons to encourage States yet to do so to sign and/or ratify the Treaty
	13-18 April 2008	Australia, together with Japan and Zambia, called for a resolution promoting the entry into force of the Treaty at the 118th Inter-Parliamentary Union held in Cape Town, South Africa. Australia, together with Zambia, agreed to act as co-rapporteurs in drafting the proposed resolution
	17 April 2008	Australia sent a Parliamentary delegation led by the President of the Australian Senate to meet with the Executive Secretary in Vienna to discuss how best to promote the entry into force of the Treaty and continue the development of the verification regime
	June 2007-May 2008	Australia continued to place a priority on the establishment of the Treaty verification regime and played a leading role among Member States in contributing resources, equipment and expertise to develop the regime. Australia also continued to lobby for a programme-driven budget to ensure that the Provisional Technical Secretariat is given the necessary political and financial support to complete its mandate
	May 2008	Australia provided a voluntary financial contribution to support the international scientific study on the verification capabilities of the Treaty verification regime

State	Date/period	Activities and context	Comments
Austria	September 2007-May 2008	In its current functions as co-Chair of the Conference on Facilitating the Entry into Force of the Comprehensive Nuclear-Test-Ban Treaty (“Article XIV conference”), Austria is engaged actively in promoting ratification of the Treaty in all multilateral forums
Bulgaria	5 December 2007	Bulgaria co-sponsored General Assembly resolution 62/59, ^d entitled “Comprehensive Nuclear-Test-Ban Treaty”, adopted by the Assembly at its sixty-second session
France	June 2007-May 2008	In relevant multilateral forums (e.g. the United Nations, the Conference on Disarmament, the second session of the Preparatory Committee for the 2010 Review Conference of the Parties to the Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons) France seized every opportunity to promote entry into force of the Treaty
	17-18 September 2007	France played an active role in the Conference on Facilitating the Entry into Force of the Comprehensive Nuclear-Test-Ban Treaty, held in Vienna
	28 April 2008	France organized, in cooperation with the United Nations Institute for Disarmament Research (UNIDIR), a seminar on the “Comprehensive Nuclear-Test-Ban Treaty and the fissile material cut-off treaty: highways to disarmament”, to discuss the potential contribution of both instruments to nuclear disarmament
Jordan	June 2007-May 2008	Jordan stressed, on all relevant international occasions, the importance of achieving universality of the Treaty

^d Four abstentions (Colombia, India, Mauritius and Syrian Arab Republic) and one vote against (United States of America).

State	Date/period	Activities and context	Comments
Morocco	17-18 September 2007	At the 2007 Article XIV Conference, Morocco reiterated its confidence in multilateral disarmament and non-proliferation instruments, and called on those States that have yet to sign and/or ratify the Treaty (in particular Annex 2 States) to do so in order to appease one of the major concerns of the international community
	5 December 2007	Morocco voted in favour of General Assembly resolution 62/59, entitled “Comprehensive Nuclear-Test-Ban Treaty”, which was adopted by the Assembly at its sixty-second session
	29 April-9 May 2008	In its statement at the second session of the Preparatory Committee for the 2010 Review Conference of the Parties to the Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons, held in Geneva, Morocco recalled the commitment made by the international community in 1995 and 2000 in favour of the entry into force and the universalization of the Treaty
	June 2007-May 2008	Furthermore, Morocco regularly participated in all meetings of the Preparatory Commission for the Comprehensive Nuclear-Test-Ban Treaty Organization and its subsidiary organs, as well as in all consultations aimed at promoting the Treaty and its entry into force
	June 2007-May 2008	In relevant multilateral forums, Morocco seized every opportunity to remind those States which had not yet ratified the Treaty, to do without further delay

State	Date/period	Activities and context	Comments
Netherlands	June 2007-May 2008	The Netherlands underlined the importance of early entry into force of the Treaty on many occasions, including interventions at the second session of the Preparatory Committee for the 2010 Review Conference of the Parties to the Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons, held in Geneva from 28 April to 9 May 2008
Peru	June 2007-May 2008	Peru continued its efforts aimed at promoting the universalization of the Treaty through public statements and joint declarations in relevant international forums. Peru underlined on several multilateral occasions the importance of the Treaty, promoted its early entry into force and, in this regard, urged States that have not yet signed or ratified the Treaty to do so
Poland	17-18 September 2007	Poland participated in the Conference on Facilitating the Entry into Force of the Comprehensive Nuclear-Test-Ban Treaty, held in Vienna
	5 December 2007	Poland co-sponsored General Assembly resolution 62/59, entitled “Comprehensive Nuclear-Test-Ban Treaty”, which was adopted by the Assembly at its sixty-second session
	July 2007-May 2008	Poland fully supported European Union statements at United Nations meetings calling for entry into force and universalization of the Treaty, including at the United Nations Conference on Disarmament and at the second session of the Preparatory Committee for the 2010 Nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty Review Conference held from 28 April to 9 May 2008

State	Date/period	Activities and context	Comments
Qatar	June 2007-May 2008	Qatar spared no efforts in multilateral forums to urge all States which had not yet signed or ratified the Treaty to do so because Qatar believes in the importance of the universalization of the Treaty for global security, and in bridging the dangerous gap in the international disarmament and non-proliferation regime
Republic of Korea	17-18 September 2007	The Republic of Korea participated in the Conference on Facilitating the Entry into Force of the Comprehensive Nuclear-Test-Ban Treaty, held in Vienna, and urged those Annex 2 States which had not yet signed or ratified the Treaty to do so without delay. In addition, the Republic of Korea expressed its opinion that the nuclear test announced by the Democratic People's Republic of Korea in October 2006 was a wake-up call for the early entry into force of the Treaty and that it was thus expecting that the success of the six-party Talks would generate a real momentum for the long-awaited entry into force of the Treaty
	3-5 December 2007	The Republic of Korea organized the sixth Republic of Korea-United Nations Joint Conference on Disarmament and Non-Proliferation Issues, held in Seoul, at which participants discussed possible options for revitalizing the multilateral disarmament and non-proliferation regime and reaffirmed the need to promote the early entry into force of the Treaty
	5 December 2007	The Republic of Korea voted in favour of General Assembly resolution 62/59, entitled "Comprehensive Nuclear-Test-Ban Treaty", which was adopted by the Assembly at its sixty-second session

State	Date/period	Activities and context	Comments
	30 April 2008	In its statement at the second session of the Preparatory Committee for the 2010 Review Conference of the Parties to the Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons, held in Geneva from 28 April to 9 May 2008, the Republic of Korea welcomed the ratification of the Treaty by Colombia and Malaysia and strongly called upon those States that had not yet ratified the Treaty to do so without further delay. The Republic of Korea also stressed the importance of maintaining the moratorium on nuclear testing until the entry into force of the Treaty
Russian Federation	17-18 September 2007	The Russian Federation participated in the Conference on Facilitating the Entry into Force of the Comprehensive Nuclear-Test-Ban Treaty, held in Vienna, and supported the adoption of the Final Declaration and Measures to Promote the Entry into Force of the Treaty. The Minister for Foreign Affairs of the Russian Federation, Serguey V. Lavrov, sent a special address to the participants at the Conference. Currently, the Russian Federation participates in the practical implementation of the action plan to promote the entry into force of the Treaty agreed at the Conference
	5 December 2007	The Russian Federation co-sponsored General Assembly resolution 62/59, entitled “Comprehensive Nuclear-Test-Ban Treaty”, which was adopted by the Assembly at its sixty-second session

State	Date/period	Activities and context	Comments
	12 December 2007	The Russian Federation held consultations with the Article XIV Special Representative, Ambassador Ramaker, on the prospects for the entry into force of the Treaty and Russian efforts in this regard. The need to consistently facilitate the efforts of the international community aimed at promoting the earliest entry into force and universalization of the Treaty was mutually stressed at the meeting between the Special Representative and the Minister for Foreign Affairs of the Russian Federation
	June 2007-May 2008	The Russian Federation continued its efforts to actively support the Treaty at the United Nations at the second session of the Preparatory Committee for the 2010 Review Conference of the Parties to the Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons held in Geneva, and in other international forums
Switzerland	June 2007-May 2008	Switzerland stressed, in all relevant international forums, the importance of the early entry into force of the Treaty
Turkey	17-18 September 2007	Turkey participated in the Conference on Facilitating the Entry into Force of the Comprehensive Nuclear-Test-Ban Treaty, held in Vienna, and associated itself with the Final Declaration adopted at the Conference
	5 December 2007	Turkey co-sponsored General Assembly resolution 62/59, entitled "Comprehensive Nuclear-Test-Ban Treaty", which was adopted by the Assembly at its sixty-second session

State	Date/period	Activities and context	Comments
	5 December 2007	Turkey co-sponsored General Assembly resolution 62/37, ^e entitled “Renewed determination towards the total elimination of nuclear weapons”, which was adopted by the Assembly at its sixty-second session
Ukraine	June 2007-May 2008	After completing its functions as Coordinator of the Eastern European Group, Ukraine continued to put constant and concerted efforts into multilateral outreach activities aimed at the earliest possible entry into force of the Treaty
	29 April-9 May 2008	In its statement at the second session of the Preparatory Committee for the 2010 Review Conference of the Parties to the Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons held in Geneva, Ukraine reiterated its call upon all States, particularly Annex 2 States, to sign and ratify the Treaty without delay and unconditionally, and, pending its entry into force, to abide by a moratorium on nuclear testing as well as to refrain from any action contrary to the obligations and provisions of the Treaty
2. Multilateral level
2 (b) Regional
Australia	8-9 May 2008	Australia supported the regional workshop on international cooperation for States from the Pacific, organized by the Comprehensive Nuclear-Test-Ban Treaty Organization in cooperation with the Government of Samoa, by sending an expert to the workshop on Samoa to make a presentation on the verification regime and its capabilities

^e Nine abstentions (Bhutan, China, Cuba, France, Iran (Islamic Republic of), Israel, Myanmar, Nicaragua and Pakistan) and three votes against (Democratic People’s Republic of Korea, India and United States of America).

State	Date/period	Activities and context	Comments
Austria	June 2006-May 2007	Austria sought to contribute to the universalization of the Treaty by co-financing and taking part in regional workshops on the subject
Bulgaria	June 2007-May 2008	Within the framework of the European Union, Bulgaria supported all démarches and initiatives to promote the early entry into force of the Treaty as a key instrument for ensuring global peace and security
Belgium	June 2007-May 2008	Within the framework of the European Union, Belgium supported all démarches and initiatives to promote the early entry into force of the Treaty
France	June 2007-May 2008	Within the framework of the European Union, France supported all initiatives aimed at promoting entry into force of the Treaty. These included démarches carried out by France on behalf of the Portuguese Presidency of the European Union, in Malaysia.
Jordan	June 2007-May 2008	Jordan called, at relevant occasions, upon States in the Middle East that had not yet signed and/or ratified the Treaty to do so
Morocco	June 2007-May 2008	In relevant regional forums, Morocco seized every opportunity to remind those States which had not yet ratified the Treaty to do without further delay
Netherlands	June 2007-May 2008	The Netherlands contributed to the European Union Joint Action in support for the activities of the Preparatory Commission. The Joint Action focused on the verification system, including technical assistance to States signatories in Africa to fully participate in, and contribute to, the implementation of the Treaty verification system

State	Date/period	Activities and context	Comments
Peru	June 2007-May 2008	Peru continued its efforts aimed at promoting the universalization of the Treaty through public statements and joint declarations in relevant international forums. Peru underlined at several multilateral events the importance of the Treaty, promoted its early entry into force and, in this regard, urged States that have not yet signed or ratified the Treaty to do so	