Having considered the report of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Board for 2012,¹ including the financial statements of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund for the biennium ended 31 December 2011, the audit opinion and report of the Board of Auditors thereon, the information provided on the internal audits of the Fund and the observations of the Board and of the Audit Committee, the report of the Secretary-General on the investments of the Fund and measures undertaken to increase diversification² and the related report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions,³
