Overall orientation

- 8.1 The overall purpose of the programme is to support the accomplishment of the objectives of the United Nations by providing advice to the principal and subsidiary organs of the United Nations and by promoting among Member States a better understanding of and respect for the principles and norms of international law.
- 8.2 The mandate for the programme derives from the principal decision-making organs of the United Nations in accordance with the Charter of the United Nations and the Statute of the International Court of Justice.
- 8.3 Within the Secretariat, substantive responsibility for the programme is vested in the Office of Legal Affairs. It provides a unified central legal service for the Secretariat and the principal and subsidiary organs of the United Nations; supports the development of international justice; contributes to the progressive development and codification of international public and trade law and the strengthening and development of the international legal order for the seas and oceans; registers and publishes treaties; and performs the depositary functions of the Secretary-General. The Office of the Under-Secretary-General for Legal Affairs supports the Legal Counsel in the discharge of her responsibilities and assists her in the overall direction and management of the Office of Legal Affairs.

- 8.4 The Office will provide legal advice and services, on request, to the decision-making organs of the United Nations and its Member States. It will aim to strengthen respect within the United Nations for the rule of law in international relations, in particular, observance of the Charter and the resolutions, decisions, regulations, rules and treaties emanating from the Organization. Particular attention will be given to incorporating a gender perspective into the work of the programme, in particular to the advice provided by the Office and in its activities, as appropriate.
- 8.5 The Office will carry out its activities in cooperation with other departments and offices of the Secretariat, entities of the United Nations system and entities external to the United Nations, including treaty organizations, intergovernmental, interregional, regional and national organizations, non-governmental organizations and academic communities. Such collaboration and cooperation include the following:
 - (a) Coordination of interdepartmental activities, liaison with United Nations organs dealing with legal matters, offices away from Headquarters and legal advisers or liaison officers assigned to field missions or other Secretariat units;
 - (b) Representation at and convening of meetings with legal advisers of the United Nations system and coordination of institutional arrangements for the specialized agencies and related organizations on matters of common concern;
 - (c) Representation of the Secretary-General and the Legal Counsel at meetings and conferences convened by the United Nations or sponsored by Governments, intergovernmental organizations and other international institutions.
- 8.6 The Office will face changing demands in a number of areas of its work. It will also aim to carry out its functions in the most efficient and modern way possible through enhanced use of the latest information and communications technology.
- 8.7 The Office of the Under-Secretary-General for Legal Affairs supports the Legal Counsel in the timely discharge of her responsibilities and in the management of the Office of Legal Affairs, which includes monitoring the resources of the Office to address changing organizational priorities and increased mandates, and streamlining the Office's management systems. The Office of the Under-Secretary-General supports the Legal Counsel in formulating recommendations to the Secretary-General in interdepartmental and inter-agency bodies, in coordinating the United Nations Legal Advisers Network and in providing legal advice to high-level inter-agency bodies. It monitors the implementation of the Office of Legal Affairs. It also coordinates interdepartmental activities and consults and negotiates with other departments, offices, subsidiary bodies and related agencies of the United Nations system on matters of mutual concern. In addition, the Office of the Under-Secretary-General coordinates the Legal Counsel's public outreach on behalf of the Office of Legal Affairs, including through the drafting of statements made by the Legal Counsel in public forums.
- 8.8 Subprogramme 1 is implemented by the Office of the Legal Counsel, which will continue to provide legal services to the United Nations system as a whole. The Office seeks to provide qualitative and timely legal advice and assistance to facilitate the functioning of the United Nations, both at Headquarters and in the field, in accordance with international law and the legal regime of the United Nations. It will continue to provide advice at meetings of the political organs of the United Nations, to protect the privileges and immunities of the Organization and to ensure that appropriate legal instruments are finalized in respect of the activities of the United Nations. The demand for legal services provided by the Office has increased, in particular with regard to support for the peacekeeping operations of the Organization, support for international courts and tribunals, advice on matters involving the privileges and immunities of the Department of Political Affairs, mainly related to special political missions, as well as with regard to constitutional and procedural issues of rules of procedure.

- Subprogramme 2 is implemented by the General Legal Division, which provides general legal 8.9 services and support to United Nations organs and programmes. The Division seeks to provide timely and effective legal advice, assistance and services to units of the Organization (e.g., Headquarters, regional commissions and other offices away from Headquarters, and peacekeeping and other missions) and of the separately funded subsidiary organs of the United Nations, in order to protect the legal interests of the Organization and to prevent or minimize legal liabilities arising from the activities and operations of the Organization. Demand for legal services provided by the Division continues to increase, in particular with regard to support for peacekeeping and similar missions of the Organization, internal investigations and the development and implementation of reform policies. The Division has also experienced a strong demand for legal services resulting from the reform of the system for the administration of justice, as requirements for legal advice and representation to meet the level of activity resulting from that reform have increased. In addition, the Division will continue to assist the Organization in the design and implementation of innovative legal arrangements for meeting the logistical requirements of the Organization's peacekeeping, political and humanitarian operations, including as required through partnerships with Governments, other international intergovernmental organizations, civil society and the business sector. It will continue to defend the Organization from claims by contractors and third parties arising from activities and operations of the United Nations with the aim of minimizing the Organization's legal liabilities. Finally, in response to recommendations made by both internal and external auditors, the Division will continue to contribute to improving the Organization's procurement practices through the development and improvement of standard forms of contracts and related instruments, as well as the reform of the policies and procedures for such procurement activities.
- 8.10 Subprogramme 3 is implemented by the Codification Division, which plays an increasing role in the substantive servicing of a number of legal bodies, including the preparation of analytical reports for the chairpersons of various working groups on legal instruments. The substantive work of the Division has increased significantly as a result of the increasing demands by the International Law Commission for research projects to be conducted by the Division, including proposal papers for new topics, comprehensive studies on new topics to guide the Commission's work throughout its consideration of the topics and extensive research and legal advice to Special Rapporteurs. The Division is responsible for the implementation of the United Nations Programme of Assistance in the Teaching, Study, Dissemination and Wider Appreciation of International Law, which has provided the foundation for United Nations efforts to contribute to better knowledge of international law as a means of strengthening international peace and security, and promoting friendly relations and cooperation among States. Work under the Programme of Assistance has grown significantly owing to the increasing demand for international law training and research materials from both developing countries and developed countries. The Division performs significant additional functions regarding the International Law Fellowship Programme and the Regional Courses in International Law for Africa, Asia and the Pacific as well as Latin America and the Caribbean. The Division has revitalized the regional courses to respond to the increasing demand for international law training in a more efficient and cost-effective way by identifying venues where the courses may be conducted on an annual basis if there is sufficient funding. The Division has created the United Nations Audiovisual Library of International Law to provide additional international law training via the Internet free of charge to an unlimited number of individuals and institutions in countries around the world. On an exceptional basis, the Division has also extended its desktop publishing to additional legal publications and performed such additional tasks as editing, proofreading, formatting and translation of short texts, in order to expedite the publications and eliminate the backlog. The Division also prepares numerous study books in hard copy and electronic format for its training courses.

- 8.11 Subprogramme 4 is implemented by the Division for Ocean Affairs and the Law of the Sea. The mandate of the subprogramme derives from the 1982 United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea, the 1995 Fish Stocks Agreement and relevant General Assembly resolutions. Increased activities are anticipated in several areas of work during the biennium 2014-2015. Member States expect expeditious consideration of the submissions to the Commission on the Limits of the Continental Shelf and issuance of recommendations in view of the important national interests involved. In view of the large number of submissions by coastal States to the Commission currently considered in the order in which they were received, the Commission, in accordance with paragraph 58 of General Assembly resolution 66/231, was requested to consider, in coordination with the Secretariat, that it, and its subcommissions meeting simultaneously as far as possible, meet in New York for up to 26 weeks but not less than an intended minimum of 21 weeks a year for a period of five years. Subsequently, the Commission decided to convey its work in three sessions, seven weeks each, for a total of 21 weeks per year. That will lead to a significant increase in substantive services provided by the Division as the secretariat of the Commission. Increased activities are also expected in relation to the requirements for servicing of and follow-up to the Ad Hoc Open-ended Informal Working Group to study issues relating to the conservation and sustainable use of marine biological diversity beyond areas of national jurisdiction. Furthermore, the Division will be responding to requirements for the servicing of and follow-up to the Meetings of States Parties to the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea with respect to the Openended Informal Consultative Process on Oceans and the Law of the Sea, particularly in view of enhanced cooperation with agencies, programmes and funds of the United Nations system. As requested by the General Assembly, in paragraph 210 of its resolution 65/37 A, the Division will also provide secretariat support to the Regular Process for global reporting and assessment of the state of the marine environment, including socioeconomic aspects, and its established institutions, such as the Ad Hoc Working Group of the Whole of the General Assembly composed of Member States, and the Group of Experts and the Bureau.
- 8.12 With respect to subprogramme 5, the International Trade Law Division will continue to provide substantive services to the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL) and its working groups with a view to expanding the body of uniform legal standards for worldwide use and to preparing the future legislative work programme of the Commission. In addition to the six subject matters currently assigned to UNCITRAL working groups, the Commission has asked the Division to develop proposals for work on legal and regulatory aspects of microfinance. This is a rapidly expanding field globally and work would draw in part on the Commission's experience in other areas, including electronic commerce, secured transactions, international credit transfers and general contract law. As the substantive secretariat of the only United Nations body with a mandate for modernization of the legal framework for a globalized economy, the Division will respond to the increasing demand for new international trade law standards and the increasing reliance by Member States, in particular developing countries, on technical assistance from UNCITRAL experts in capacity-building. Better understanding of the importance of trade law in the overall promotion of the rule of law and an enhanced perception of treaty obligations incumbent on Member States for the uniform interpretation of a number of UNCITRAL standards have also resulted in an escalation of demand for assistance from the Division. The Division continues to explore a range of options for responding to the growing need for uniform interpretation of UNCITRAL texts, which is indispensable for their effective implementation. That objective is currently being addressed through the Secretariat's continuing work on its case law on UNCITRAL texts (CLOUT) initiative. The growing scope of the work, increased inflow of new cases, editing of abstracts and management of the CLOUT database and website constitute a large and growing portion of the workload of the Division. The Division is responsible for ongoing work with Member States in the promotion and implementation of the many UNCITRAL texts (as of 2012, that comprises 38 international trade law standards, including 10 international conventions and 9 model laws) that have been developed to date. Strengthened coordination between international organizations active in the field of international trade law will also be sought, consistent with the mandate of UNCITRAL as the core legal body in the United Nations system in the field of international trade law.

8.13 Subprogramme 6 is implemented by the Treaty Section. The Section will discharge the functions of the Secretary-General as depositary of more than 550 multilateral treaties. It will promote wider participation in the multilateral treaty framework, including through a treaty event at United Nations Headquarters. It will register, file and record and publish an increasing number of treaties pursuant to Article 102 of the Charter of the United Nations and the General Assembly regulations to give effect to Article 102. In order for the Treaty Section to respond to the constantly increasing needs of Member States and intergovernmental organizations and other end-users for timely, efficient and user-friendly access to treaties and related actions deposited with the Secretary-General, including their status, and to registered and filed and recorded treaties in published format, and other treaty-related information, as well as to ensure the efficiency of computerized work processes within the Treaty Section, the Treaty Information and Publication System's functionality will require continued, effective maintenance and critical operational upgrades throughout the biennium. The Treaty Section will also continue to provide assistance to States on legal and technical aspects of their participation in treaties deposited with the Secretary-General and the registration of treaties, including through development of capacity in treaty law at Headquarters and to a lesser extent at the regional level. As the only substantive unit within the United Nations system dedicated to treaty law and practice, the Treaty Section is very much relied upon to respond to increasing and time-sensitive requests for legal advice and assistance on various aspects of treaty law and practice, including the drafting of final clauses, received from Member States and intergovernmental organizations within and outside the United Nations system, as well as requests received from treaty secretariats, which act as the substantive secretariats of the treaties deposited with the Secretary-General. There is also an increased need for the provision of training and capacity-development in treaty law and practice to Member States and intergovernmental organizations at the regional level and at Headquarters, and for raising awareness of and participation in treaties. The importance of assisting States in the registration of treaties under Article 102 of the Charter is widely recognized. The Treaty Section will strive to continue its high level of support to States.

Overview of resources

8.14 The overall resource requirements of the Office of Legal Affairs for the biennium 2014-2015 amount to $47,218,200, before recosting, reflecting a 1.4 per cent decrease of $682,300 compared with the previous biennium. The decrease of $682,300 is the net result of the following factors:
(a) technical adjustments related to the delayed impact of six new posts (1 P-5, 3 P-4, 1 P-3 and

1 General Service (Other level)) approved in 2012-2013; (b) inter-component changes; (c) resource changes in line with General Assembly resolution 67/248; and (d) resource changes reflected in the report of the Secretary-General on the budget outline for 2014-2015.

8.15 The distribution of resources is reflected in tables 8.3 to 8.5 below.

Technical adjustments

8.16 The resource increase of $763,400 reflects the delayed impact of six posts (1 P-5, 3 P-4, 1 P-3 and 1 General Service (Other level)) which were established in the biennium 2012-2013, and removal of non-recurrent requirements in 2012-2013 related to the enhancement of the treaty information system.

Inter-component changes

8.17 In addition, resources have been redistributed across subprogrammes and various objects of expenditure in efforts to better implement existing mandates. Those changes do not alter the overall level of resources for this budget section.

Changes in line with General Assembly resolution 67/248

8.18 Resource changes of $1,343,000 are proposed in line with General Assembly resolution 67/248. The primary areas of resource changes in the amount of $1,121,000 and the related impact are outlined in table 8.6 below.

1	Programme of work Subprogramme 2 Abolishment: 1 P-3 Legal Officer	Redistribution of work relating to legal services to United Nations organs and programmes Total reduction: $295,500 Effort would be made to redistribute the functions of the P-3 post among other Professional staff. However, the timeliness of their servicing the needs of the operational requirements of the Organization would be affected and that could result in increases of the legal liabilities of the United Nations from claims in contract, tort or arbitration. The General Legal Division has been instrumental in reducing the liability of the United Nations in respect of legal claims made against the Organization. Lawyers in the organizational unit have reduced the liability of the United Nations in respect of such claims through arbitration or settlement by $255.5 million ^a during the period from 2000 to 2011. Participation in review and oversight bodies would also be reduced.

Participants and lecturers of the Fellowship Programme would receive less timely communications and participants would receive less extensive study materials. Functions of both the Staff Assistant and the Legal Assistant under subprogramme 4 would be redistributed. Servicing of intergovernmental and expert meetings would be affected, as well as the timely preparation of publications on ocean affairs and the law of the sea and publication thereof on the website. Moreover, provision of library services as well as contribution to external bibliographic references would be curtailed. Under subprogramme 2, reduced resources would be prioritized for "operational travel" (e.g., negotiation with Member States for host country agreements), while coordination travel would be reduced. Participation in meetings of legal advisers and legal liaison officers of the United Nations system would have to be reduced. The ability of the Office of Legal Affairs to provide consistent central legal support and coordinate with all United Nations offices, funds, programmes and operations would be affected. 	Subprogramme 6 Reduction: Travel of staff General operating expenses	Under subprogramme 5, reduced participation of experts and consultants would affect the quality of normative texts for consideration by UNCITRAL, and reduced travel resources would affect the Secretariat's technical assistance programme.		324,000
		Under subprogramme 6, this would result in the cancellation of one treaty event. There would also not be any United Nations Television coverage and audio services during the event. Since the treaty event provides a catalyst for encouraging wider participation in the treaties deposited with the Secretary- General, the absence of one event would reduce the annual participation in those treaties by an average of 85 treaty actions (signatures, ratifications or accessions) from around 50 States.
4	Programme of work	Reduction in information technology support services
	Subprogramme 4 Reduction: Contractual services Subprogramme 6 Reduction: Contractual services	Total reduction: $56,200 Resources for maintenance of proprietary software related to geographic information systems, and treaty information and publication, would be reduced. That would increase the potential likelihood of system security breaches or downtime and reduced compatibility with United Nations standard platforms, which would incur delays in the provision of legal advice, decrease the quality of services to the Commission on the Limits of the Continental Shelf, and affect availability of treaty information on the website.

^{a} The total reduction of $255.5 million is the cumulative amount for the 12-year period from January 2000 to December 2011, as referenced in the following programme performance reports: A/57/62, annex, sect. 8; A/59/69, part two, para. 8.3; A/61/64, chap. II, para. 8.2; A/63/70, chap. VI, para. 8.2; A/65/70, para. 242; and A/67/77, para. 239.

Changes reflected in the report of the Secretary-General on the budget outline for 2014-2015

8.19 Reductions in line with the report of the Secretary-General on the budget outline for 2014-2015 amount to $102,700, as outlined in table 8.7 below.

Other assessed resources

8.20 During the biennium 2014-2015, other assessed resources estimated at $7,745,800 would provide for 18 posts (5 P-5, 8 P-4, 2 P-3, 1 P-2, 2 General Service (Other level)) for the provision of legal support and assistance to peacekeeping operations. The increase of $713,000 from 2012-2013 estimates of $7,032,800 is due to the proposed conversion to posts of three general temporary assistance positions (two P-4 and one P-3), of which one P-4 was approved in the period from 1 July 2009 to 30 June 2010 and one P-4 and one P-3 were approved in the period from 1 July 2011 to 30 June 2012, in order to cope with the increased demand placed on the Office of Legal Affairs to provide legal services to peacekeeping operations.

Extrabudgetary resources

8.21 During the biennium 2014-2015, extrabudgetary resources estimated at $8,999,800 would complement various activities related to, inter alia, the provision of legal support to extrabudgetary structures of the United Nations system; support for international trade law through symposiums on international trade law; assistance in the teaching, study, dissemination and wider appreciation of international law; and fellowship programmes in the field of ocean affairs and the law of the sea. The extrabudgetary resources will also be utilized to assist States in the settlement of disputes through the International Court of Justice, assist developing States in attending meetings of the United Nations Open-ended Informal Consultative Process on Oceans and the Law of the Sea, assist members of the Commission on the Limits of the Continental Shelf who are from developing States to participate in meetings, assist developing States in the preparation of submissions to the Commission and conduct seminars on international trade law. Through its extrabudgetary resources, the Office of Legal Affairs is supported by 11 posts (2 D-1, 1 P-5, 1 P-4, 1 P-3, 1 P-2 and 5 General Service (Other level)). It is anticipated that the level of extrabudgetary resources would decrease by $183,500 from the 2012-2013 estimates of $9,183,300. The projections with respect to extrabudgetary activities are based on the projected level of contributions for the biennium 2014-2015.

Other information

- 8.22 The Office of Legal Affairs will continue to strive to make improvements in processes with the objective of increasing efficiency and providing better value for money. These efforts took place in all units within the Office. The Office will continue to assume additional functions with respect to the fellowship programme funded through regular budget resources, which were previously entrusted to an outside entity. That enabled the Office to finance 20 and 19 fellows for the 2011 and 2012 International Law Fellowship Programme, respectively, as compared with 12 fellowships in 2009, an increase of more than 50 per cent each year. The Office also improved the servicing of meetings related to oceans and the law of the sea with participation of Member States, as well as the servicing of its subcommissions. It did so through increased reliance on the website of the Division for Ocean Affairs and the Law of the Sea for dissemination of information and documents, and through continued utilization of online forums.
- 8.23 Pursuant to General Assembly resolution 58/269, resources identified for monitoring and evaluation would amount to $604,600, of which $582,100 represents 14.5 work-months of staff at various grades/levels and $22,500 relates to non-post items. Of the staffing resources, $479,500 will be funded from the regular budget, $58,600 will be funded from the support account for peacekeeping operations, and $44,000 will be funded from extrabudgetary resources. Of the non-post resources, $12,500 will be funded from the regular budget, and $10,000 will be funded from extrabudgetary resources. Monitoring and internal evaluation activities will be regularly carried out throughout the biennium at the subprogramme level to continuously assess the programme of work against: (a) the satisfaction of the recipients of the legal advisory services; (b) the effective reduction of the legal liabilities of the Organization; (c) the adequacy of resources to address emerging mandated tasks, as well as priorities; (d) the effectiveness of coordination achieved within the United Nations system in the area of international trade law and the impact of legal standards developed by UNCITRAL; and (e) the efficiency of internal processes. Where applicable, the findings and lessons learned from selfevaluation and monitoring activities have been applied to refine best practices aimed to minimize legal claims against the Organization (e.g., development of model contracts and general conditions of contracts, and development of model agreements); rationalize workflows, in particular in respect of the depositary functions and registration of treaties and treaty actions; adjust the plan of action; and tailor capacity-development activities to the needs of beneficiary Member States.
- 8.24 The issue of publications as a part of the programme of work has been reviewed in the context of each subprogramme. It is anticipated that recurrent and non-recurrent publications will be issued as summarized in table 8.8 and as described in the output information for each subprogramme. The decrease over the past bienniums reflects consolidation and reformulation in an effort to further increase the comprehensiveness, quality and relevance of publications.

Table 8.8Summary of publications

8.25 With regard to the implementation of the recommendations of oversight bodies, the Office carried out a management and process review in one of its units which resulted in considerable improvement in output. It also continued to improve coordination and communication among United Nations system legal advisers and legal liaison officers to promote system-wide legal coherence, including achieving a more concerted provision of legal advisers of the specialized agencies, funds and programmes, and the field legal officers in the peacekeeping operations and the special political missions.

A. Policymaking organs

1. International Law Commission

Resource requirements (before recosting): $2,765,100

- 8.26 Pursuant to Article 13, paragraph 1 (a), of the Charter of the United Nations, the General Assembly, by its resolution 174 (II), established the International Law Commission and approved its statute. The Commission has as its objective the promotion of the progressive development of international law and its codification. It consists of 34 members who are persons of recognized competence in international law. The statute of the Commission does not specify the duration of its sessions. Unless otherwise decided by the Assembly, the Commission normally holds an annual 12-week session in Geneva and reports to the Assembly, which provides guidance to the Commission on its programme of work through annual resolutions on the reports of the Commission. As of 2000, as mandated by the Assembly, the Commission holds split annual sessions up to the total of 12 weeks. The Codification Division of the Office of Legal Affairs provides the substantive servicing of the Commission.
- 8.27 The distribution of resources for the International Law Commission is reflected in table 8.9 below.

Total	2 810.8	2 765.1	_	_

Table 8.9 Resource requirements: International Law Commission

8.28 The amount of $2,765,100 covers the costs of: (a) attendance by the Chairperson and 33 members at the annual session in Geneva; (b) attendance by the Chairperson at the regular sessions of the General Assembly during the consideration of the reports of the Commission; (c) travel of staff to service the sessions of the Commission; and (d) non-staff compensation payable at the rate set by the General Assembly in its resolution 57/272. The amount would not cover the cost of attendance by the Chairperson or another representative of the Commission at the sessions of the four regional legal intergovernmental bodies (two weeks each) with which the Commission, pursuant to its statute, has established links of cooperation. The resources for 2014-2015 reflect a reduction of $45,700 in travel of representatives and travel of staff, proposed in line with General Assembly resolution 67/248, as reflected in table 8.6, item 3 "Reduced representation and provision of expertise", of the present report. Notwithstanding the past pattern of the sessions, the level of resources contained would provide for split sessions of up to nine weeks each year.

2. United Nations Commission on International Trade Law

Resource requirements (before recosting): $375,500

- 8.29 UNCITRAL, comprising 60 Member States, is charged, pursuant to General Assembly resolution 2205 (XXI), with the improvement and harmonization of international trade law, which corresponds to subprogramme 5. The Commission carries out its tasks, with the assistance of the International Trade Law Division as its secretariat, in one annual meeting of up to four weeks' duration and in six working group meetings on specialized topics of up to 12 weeks' duration per year.
- 8.30 The distribution of resources for UNCITRAL is reflected in table 8.10 below.

Table 8.10 Resource requirements: United Nations Commission on International Trade Law

Total	433.5	375.5	_	-

8.31 The amount of $375,500, which represents a decrease of $58,000 compared with the biennium 2012-2013, would provide for the travel of representatives, travel of staff and contractual services. The decrease is mainly attributable to reduction under external printing of publications, reflecting changes in line with resolution 67/248. The Secretariat expects to rely more heavily on electronic publication and distribution.

B. Executive direction and management

- 8.32 The Under-Secretary-General for Legal Affairs, the Legal Counsel, is responsible for the overall policy direction, supervision, administration and management of the Office of Legal Affairs. She represents the Secretary-General at meetings and conferences of a legal nature and in judicial and arbitral proceedings, certifies legal instruments issued on behalf of the United Nations, convenes meetings of the legal advisers of the United Nations system and represents the Organization at such meetings. In the exercise of her responsibilities, the Legal Counsel is assisted by the Assistant Secretary-General for Legal Affairs, who serves as her deputy and who, under the direction of the Legal Counsel, assists with the implementation of the programme of work of all other units in the Office.
- 8.33 The Office of the Under-Secretary-General for Legal Affairs supports the Legal Counsel in the timely discharge of her responsibilities and in the management of the Office, which includes monitoring the resources of the Office of Legal Affairs to address changing Organizational priorities and increased workload, and streamlining the Office's management systems. The Office of the Under-Secretary-General supports the Legal Counsel in formulating recommendations to the Secretary-General in interdepartmental and inter-agency bodies, in the coordination of the United Nations Legal Advisers Network and in the provision of legal advice to high-level inter-agency bodies. It monitors the implementation of the programme of work and acts as the focal point for information on all aspects of the work of the Office of Legal Affairs. It also coordinates interdepartmental activities and consults and negotiates with other departments, offices, subsidiary bodies and related agencies of the United Nations system on matters of mutual concern.

External factors

8.34 The Office of Legal Affairs is expected to achieve its objectives and expected accomplishments in the area of executive direction and management on the assumption that recruitment and placement of staff is timely.

Outputs

- 8.35 During the biennium 2014-2015, the following outputs will be delivered:
 - (a) Coordination with the Executive Office of the Secretary-General and with the offices of other senior managers to ensure optimal coordination between the Office of Legal Affairs and other parts of the Organization and, in this regard, optimal support to the Legal Counsel;
 - (b) Organization of meetings annually in connection with three United Nations legal networks (2);
 - (c) Regular formal meetings with the director of each unit and regular meetings of the Management Committee of the Office of Legal Affairs to ensure the timely provision of advisory services and the substantive servicing of meetings;
 - (d) Regular monitoring of all units to ensure the continued timely submission of parliamentary documentation and recurrent and non-recurrent publications;
 - (e) Representation of the Secretary-General in legal conferences and legal proceedings, as required, and provision of legal advice to the Secretary-General.
- 8.36 The distribution of resources for executive direction and management is reflected in table 8.12 below.

8.37 The amount of $2,124,600 would provide for the continuation of seven posts (1 Under-Secretary-General, 1 P-5, 1 P-3, 1 General Service (Principal level), 3 General Service (Other level)), and non-post requirements related to overtime, travel of staff, contractual services, hospitality, and furniture and equipment necessary for the operation of the Office. The increase of $2,700 is due to the replacement of office equipment based on the replacement cycle of equipment no longer serviceable.

Target 2014-2015: 98 per cent

External factors

8.40 The subprogramme is expected to achieve its objectives and expected accomplishments on the assumption that Member States will be supportive of the Organization and recognize its status and its privileges and immunities through their legal systems, and that United Nations departments and offices will seek legal advice in a timely manner, provide sufficient information for legal analysis and be guided by the advice provided.

Outputs

- 8.41 During the biennium 2014-2015, the following outputs will be delivered:
 - (a) Servicing of intergovernmental and expert bodies (regular budget):
 - Provision of advice to the General Assembly, it Main Committees, the Credentials Committee and conferences on the Charter of the United Nations, resolutions, rules of procedure, status of members and observers, credentials and representation (100);
 - Provision of oral and written advice to the Security Council and its subsidiary organs on the interpretation and implementation of resolutions, provisional rules of procedure and statutes of ad hoc criminal tribunals (25);
 - (iii) Provision of substantive and procedural advice to the Economic and Social Council, including functional and regional commissions, on the Charter of the United Nations, resolutions, rules of procedure, elections and non-governmental organizations in consultative status (30);
 - (iv) Provision of substantive and secretariat services to the Committee on Relations with the Host Country and its working groups, including preparation of notes and statements for the Chairman, assistance to the Bureau, analysis of legal issues and preparation of reports and documentation (5);
 - (b) Other substantive activities (regular budget/other assessed/peacekeeping): promotion of legal instruments:
 - Provision of advice and support to the international and United Nations-assisted criminal tribunals and the relevant management committees on the constitutive instruments and the Secretary-General's functions thereunder, the rules of procedure and evidence, and all related legal and administrative matters concerning the functioning of the tribunals;

- (ii) Provision of advice on legal questions concerning the privileges and immunities and the status of the Organization, including the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP), the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF), the United Nations Population Fund (UNFPA) and the United Nations Office for Project Services (UNOPS), in the territories of Member States and relationships with States and intergovernmental organizations;
- (iii) Provision of advice on questions relating to the interpretation and application of the Charter, legal agreements, United Nations resolutions and general questions of public international law to ensure uniform and consistent practice of the law;
- (iv) Provision of advice to operationally responsible Secretariat units, offices established away from Headquarters, peacekeeping and other missions and expert groups mandated to investigate matters related to international peace and security;
- (v) Establishment of and provision of advice on the necessary legal instruments, legal regimes and mandates for all peacekeeping operations and other missions, including status-of-forces and status-of-mission agreements, agreements with contributing States and cooperation agreements with regional organizations;
- (vi) Formulation of statements of public international law and analysis of specific legal issues in response to inquiries from intergovernmental and regional organizations, international and academic institutions, and the public;
- (vii) Liaison with the International Court of Justice and discharging the responsibilities of the Secretary-General under the Statute of the Court, including the preparation of legal statements and the transmission of notices relating to legal proceedings;
- (viii) Negotiation of international agreements, constitutive instruments and others required for the conduct of mandates carried out by the United Nations and its subsidiary organs, including UNDP, UNICEF, UNFPA and UNOPS, with Governments and intergovernmental organizations;
- (ix) Preparation and/or analysis of reports of a legal nature requested by the Security Council or its subsidiary organs in the field of international peace and security;
- (x) Promotion of respect for Articles 104 and 105 of the Charter, the Convention on the Privileges and Immunities of the United Nations, the headquarters agreements with the United States of America and other host Governments;
- (xi) Settlement of disputes of a public international law character involving the Organization, including representation of the Secretary-General at judicial proceedings, including those of the International Court of Justice;
- (xii) Coordination of interdepartmental activities and liaison with United Nations organs dealing with legal matters, offices established away from Headquarters, legal advisers or liaison officers assigned to field missions or other Secretariat units;
- (xiii) Representation at and convening of meetings with legal advisers of the United Nations system and cooperation/coordination of institutional arrangements for the specialized agencies and related organizations on matters of common concern;
- (xiv) Representation of the Secretary-General and the Legal Counsel at meetings and conferences convened by the United Nations or sponsored by Governments, intergovernmental organizations and other international institutions.

- (c) Technical cooperation (regular budget/extrabudgetary):
 - (i) Advisory services: assistance to States, including through the Trust Fund to Assist States in the Settlement of Disputes through the International Court of Justice, in settling their legal disputes through the Court, including application of the Statute, and reporting to the Secretary-General and the General Assembly (5);
 - (ii) Training courses, seminars and workshops: presentation of papers and participation in meetings and conferences sponsored by United Nations organs, Governments, professional societies or international organizations on legal issues relating to the functions of the United Nations (5);
 - (iii) Provision of legal expertise and resource persons to training courses sponsored by Governments or international institutions for diplomats on subjects falling within the competence of the Office of the Legal Counsel (5).
- 8.42 The distribution of resources for subprogramme 1 is reflected in table 8.15 below.

- 8.43 The amount of $3,778,500 provides for 12 posts (1 ASG, 1 D-1, 2 P-5, 1 P-4, 1 P-3, 1 P-2, 1 General Service (Principal level), 4 General Service (Other level)), as well as non-post requirements for overtime, travel of staff, contractual services, and furniture and equipment. The increase of $196,500 is due to: (a) an increase of $195,100 under the heading "Post", reflecting the redeployment of one General Service (Principal level) post from subprogramme 3, in order to provide paralegal and administrative support to legal officers who need to address complex legal matters arising from recent decisions to establish the residual mechanism for international tribunals, to which increased legal support from the Office of Legal Affairs is required; and (b) an increase of $1,400 under the heading "Non-post" owing to adjustments based on expenditure pattern.
- 8.44 The amount of $2,210,400 from the support account for peacekeeping operations and $1,452,300 from extrabudgetary resources will be utilized to fund eight posts (six in the Professional and higher category and two in the General Service category) and one general temporary assistance position. The increase under the heading "Other assessed" resources is attributable to the inclusion of a provision for general temporary assistance to cover for maternity and extended leave replacement. The lawyers and support staff will provide legal support and assistance to the Organization, specifically to funds and programmes and peacekeeping operations. The projected decrease in extrabudgetary resources as compared to the previous biennium is due to the limited extrabudgetary funding anticipated.

Subprogramme 2 General legal services provided to United Nations organs and programmes

Resource requirements (before recosting): $7,222,600

8.45 Substantive responsibility for subprogramme 2 is vested in the General Legal Division. The subprogramme will be implemented in accordance with the strategy set out under subprogramme 2 of programme 6 of the biennial programme plan for the period 2014-2015.

^{8.49} Resources amounting to $7,222,600 would provide for the continuation of 23 posts (1 D-2, 1 D-1, 4 P-5, 5 P-4, 4 P-3, 1 P-2, 7 General Service (Other level)), and non-post requirements such as consultancy for retaining services of counsel on issues requiring special expertise not available in the Secretariat, travel of staff, subscriptions and fees for legal database services, and office automation equipment. The increase of $110,800 reflects the net result of: (a) an increase of $463,800 as the delayed impact of three posts (2 P-4, 1 P-3) approved in the biennium 2012-2013; (b) a reduction of $295,500 related to the abolishment of one P-3 Legal Officer post, proposed in line with resolution 67/248, as reflected in table 8.6, item 1 "Redistribution of work relating to legal services to United Nations organs and programmes", of the present report; and (c) a net decrease of $64,400 under non-post resources, reflecting reductions proposed in line with resolution 67/248, with respect to other staff costs and travel of staff, as reflected in table 8.6, item 3 "Reduced representation and provision of expertise", of the present report.

8.50 The amount of $5,535,400 under the heading "Other assessed" relates to the support account for peacekeeping operations and, together with $2,492,900 from extrabudgetary resources, will be utilized to fund 20 posts, including 16 in the Professional and higher category and 4 in the General Service category. The lawyers and support staff will provide legal support and assistance to the Organization and, specifically, to the funds and programmes, and to peacekeeping operations. The increased requirements, mainly from the support account for peacekeeping operations, relate primarily to the proposed three additional posts (2 P-4, 1 P-3), partially offset by reduced requirements for general temporary assistance, data-processing services and communications.

Subprogramme 3 Progressive development and codification of international law

Resource requirements (before recosting): $6,717,900

8.51 Substantive responsibility for subprogramme 3 is vested in the Codification Division. The subprogramme will be implemented in accordance with the strategy set out under subprogramme 3 of programme 6 of the biennial programme plan for the period 2014-2015.

- Special Committee on the Charter of the United Nations and on the Strengthening of the Role of the Organization:
 - a. Substantive servicing of meetings of the Committee and its working group (30);
 - b. Parliamentary documentation: pre-session and in-session documents (2);
- (iii) Advisory Committee on the United Nations Programme of Assistance in the Teaching, Study, and Dissemination and Wider Appreciation of International Law: substantive servicing of meetings (4);
- (iv) Ad Hoc Committee on the Elaboration of Legal Instruments for the Prevention of Terrorist Acts:
 - a. Substantive servicing of meetings of the Committee and its working group (20);
 - b. Parliamentary documentation: pre-session and in-session documents (2);
- (v) International Law Commission:
 - a. Substantive servicing of meetings of the International Law Commission and its Drafting Committee, Planning Group and working groups (182);
 - b. Parliamentary documentation: in-session documents: report of the Special Rapporteur on the expulsion of aliens; report of the Special Rapporteur on the immunity of State officials from foreign criminal jurisdiction (2); report of the Special Rapporteur on the obligation to extradite or prosecute (2); report of the Special Rapporteur on the protection of persons in the event of disasters (2); topical summary (2); report on provisional application of treaties (2); report on formation and evidence of customary international law (2); report on subsequent agreements and subsequent practice in relation to the interpretation of treaties (2);
 - c. Assistance to representatives and rapporteurs: provision of assistance to the Special Rapporteur of the International Law Commission on: the expulsion of aliens; the obligation to extradite or prosecute; the protection of persons in the event of disasters; immunities of State officials;
- (b) Other substantive activities (regular budget/extrabudgetary):
 - (i) Recurrent publications: United Nations Juridical Yearbook 2013 and 2014; Repertory of Practice of United Nations Organs, Supplement No. 10, vol. III; United Nations

Legislative Series, vol. 28; Yearbook of the International Law Commission 2011, vols. I and II; Yearbook of the International Law Commission 2012, vols. I and II;

- (ii) Non-recurrent publications: Advisory Opinions, Judgments and orders of the International Court of Justice (2013-2017); The Work of the International Law Commission (9th edition) (2);
- (iii) Promotion of legal instruments: coordination of the preparation of the Repertory of Practice of United Nations Organs; provision of advice to the United Nations Office at Geneva on the preparation of the Yearbooks of the International Law Commission; website on official records of diplomatic conferences; website on the Repertory of Practice of United Nations Organs; website on the United Nations Audiovisual Library of International Law; website on the Yearbooks of the International Law Commission; website on the codification and progressive development of international law; website of the International Law Commission; website of the Sixth Committee;
- Seminars for outside users: lectures/briefings on subjects of international public law of direct relevance to the subprogramme for outside users;
- (c) Technical cooperation (regular budget/extrabudgetary):

8.55 The amount of $6,717,900 provides for 21 posts (1 D-2, 2 D-1, 2 P-5, 4 P-4, 2 P-3, 3 P-2, 1 General Service (Principal level), 6 General Service (Other level)), and various non-post requirements such as overtime, travel of staff, contractual services, furniture and equipment and fellowships. The decrease of $217,100 is due to: (a) a decrease of $195,100 related to the outward redeployment of one General Service (Principal level) post to subprogramme 1 in order to provide paralegal and administrative support to legal officers who need to address complex legal matters arising from recent decisions to establish the residual mechanism for international tribunals, to which increased legal support from the Office of Legal Affairs is required; (b) an increase of $155,800 related to the inward redeployment of one General Service (Other level) from subprogramme 6 to support activities under the United Nations Programme of Assistance in the Teaching, Study, Dissemination and Wider Appreciation of International Law; offset by (c) a decrease of $155,800 related to the proposed abolition of one General Service (Other level) Team Assistant post, in line with resolution 67/248, as reflected in table 8.6, item 2 "Reduction in substantive support from assistants", of the present report; and (d) reductions totalling $22,000 under the heading "Non-post" with respect to other staff costs and contractual services, in line with resolution 67/248.

8.56 Extrabudgetary resources estimated at $848,000 would be needed to provide for the implementation of the Programme of Assistance for which the Codification Division is responsible, including the further development and maintenance of the Audiovisual Library of International Law; additional fellowships for the United Nations International Law Fellowship Programme; and the organization of two regional courses in international law for Africa, Asia-Pacific or Latin America and the Caribbean. Extrabudgetary resources would also be utilized for the preparation of the Repertory of Practice of United Nations Organs.

Subprogramme 4 Law of the sea and ocean affairs Resource requirements (before recosting): $9,721,600

8.57 Substantive responsibility for subprogramme 4 is vested in the Division for Ocean Affairs and the Law of the Sea. The subprogramme will be implemented in accordance with the strategy set out under subprogramme 4 of programme 6 of the biennial programme plan for the period 2014-2015.

8.64 The subprogramme is expected to achieve its objectives and expected accomplishments on the assumption that: (a) Member States will commit to adhere to conventions and enact model laws and to report on such legislative actions; (b) national correspondents will report on court and arbitral tribunal activities at the national level; (c) international organizations will cooperate in the coordination process and organization of joint activities; and (d) representatives of Member States will comment on their level of satisfaction with the work of the secretariat.

Outputs

- 8.65 During the biennium 2014-2015, the following outputs will be delivered:
 - (a) Servicing of intergovernmental and expert bodies (regular budget):
 - (i) United Nations Commission on International Trade Law:
 - a. Substantive servicing of meetings: presentation of substantive reports prepared by the Division, responses to requests for clarification, procedural and substantive advice to the Chairperson and preparation of the draft report (2); presentation of the annual report of the Commission (2);
 - b. Parliamentary documentation: report of the Commission to the General Assembly (2); reports of six intergovernmental working groups, substantive reports requested by the Commission, substantive recurrent reports and substantive conference room papers (50);
 - (ii) UNCITRAL Working Groups I to VI:
 - a. Substantive servicing of meetings: presentation of substantive reports prepared by the Division, responses to requests for clarification, procedural and substantive advice to the Chairperson and preparation of draft reports (24);
 - b. Parliamentary documentation: reports prepared in response to requests of the working groups and substantive conference room papers (216);
 - (iii) Ad hoc expert groups: discussion of draft reports and statutory texts prepared by the Division for submission to the Commission and its working groups (24);

(b) Other substantive activities (regular budget):

(i) Recurrent publications: Digest of Case Law on the United Nations Convention on the International Sale of Goods; commentaries on UNCITRAL texts; consolidated bibliography of recent writings related to the work of UNCITRAL; Yearbook of the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (1); UNCITRAL collected texts;

- (ii) Non-recurrent publications: Commentary on the United Nations Convention on the Assignment of Receivables in International Trade; Digest of Case Law on the UNCITRAL model law on arbitration, 2014; Digest of Case Law on the UNCITRAL model law on cross-border insolvency; index to the legislative history of the Rotterdam Rules, with introductory note; legislative guide on electronic transferable records; legislative guide on public-private partnerships; model law on secured transactions (with commentary); rules on transparency, 2014; UNCITRAL legislative guide on insolvency law: part four — obligations of directors in the period approaching insolvency; UNCITRAL model rules for online dispute resolution;
- (iii) Exhibits, guided tours, lectures: lectures to groups of practitioners, academics and law students in Vienna and elsewhere as part of programmes organized by other professional, academic, non-governmental or intergovernmental organizations (15);
- (iv) Special events: participation as co-organizers and moderators in the annual Willem C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot in Vienna (2);
- (v) Technical material: maintenance of a searchable Internet database of court and arbitral decisions collected under the CLOUT system; maintenance of the system for collecting court and arbitral decisions on Commission texts; publication of abstracts of decisions; and monitoring developments and trends;
- (c) Technical cooperation (regular budget/extrabudgetary): advisory services at the request of Governments in the form of briefing missions, seminars, law reform assessments, assistance in the drafting of national legislation based on UNCITRAL texts and advice on the use of non-legislative Commission texts (30); field projects: enhancement of international trade and development at the regional level;
- (d) Conference services, administration, oversight (regular budget): provision of library services; acquisition for and servicing of the UNCITRAL Law Library; maintenance of the UNCITRAL website.
- 8.66 The distribution of resources for subprogramme 5 is reflected in table 8.23 below.

Part III International justice and law

- 8.67 The amount of $6,276,400 provides for 20 posts (1 D-2, 1 D-1, 3 P-5, 5 P-4, 3 P-3, 1 P-2, 6 General Service (Other level)), and non-post resources for consultants and experts, travel of staff, maintenance of office automation equipment, library books and supplies, and furniture and equipment. The decrease of $226,800 is due to: (a) a decrease of $176,200 related to the proposed abolishment of one General Service (Other level) Programme Assistant post, in line with resolution 67/248, as reflected in table 8.6, item 2 "Reduction in substantive support from assistants", of the present report; and (b) reductions totalling $50,600, mainly with respect to travel of staff and consultants, proposed in line with resolution 67/248, as reflected in table 8.6, item 3 "Reduced representation and provision of expertise", of the present report.
- 8.68 Extrabudgetary resources estimated at $997,500 would be utilized to provide advisory services at the request of Governments in the form of briefing missions, seminars, law reform assessments, assistance in the drafting of national legislation based on UNCITRAL texts and advice on the use of non-legislative Commission texts. These technical assistance activities ensure response to requests from Governments of developing countries, countries with economies in transition and regional organizations for information and assistance in considering and using UNCITRAL legal instruments in the area of international trade law, including drafting necessary domestic legislation. These activities increase awareness for policymakers, judges, legal practitioners and other persons involved in trade law matters and facilitate the use, interpretation, adoption and enactment of UNCITRAL texts.

Subprogramme 6 Custody, registration and publication of treaties

Resource requirements (before recosting): $6,289,400

8.69 Substantive responsibility for subprogramme 6 is vested in the Treaty Section. The subprogramme will be implemented in accordance with the strategy set out under subprogramme 6 of programme 6 of the biennial programme plan for the period 2014-2015.

Table 8.24 Objectives for the biennium, expected accomplishments, indicators of achievement and performance measures

- 8.70 The subprogramme is expected to achieve its objectives and expected accomplishments on the assumption that:
- (a) Member States will request legal and technical assistance before concluding multilateral treaties to be deposited with the Secretary-General, in particular final clauses of treaties, which would avoid complex and legal issues of interpretation and application, and that Member States will submit treaty actions in proper form guided by the provisions of the treaty in question and the legal advice provided;
- (b) Member States will provide complete materials in proper form to facilitate registration and publication, and will provide courtesy translations into English or French of treaties submitted in languages other than the official languages of the United Nations (courtesy translations into either English or French help the registration process but not the publication process, as such translations are subject to further review and necessary translation);
- (c) Governments will show readiness to host and/or sponsor treaty law seminars; relevant and competent individuals are chosen by Governments to undertake the training; and appropriate experts from substantive offices of the United Nations or from other international organizations or academia are available to provide training in the implementation of specific treaties and can fund their own participation;

(d) Various risks normally associated with information technology vendors will unfold within expected parameters. Expected risks associated with a highly complex, custom designed information system would be maintained at acceptable levels.

Outputs

- 8.71 During the biennium 2014-2015, the following outputs will be delivered:
 - (a) Servicing of intergovernmental and expert bodies (regular budget):
 - (i) Depository services: examination and validation of any corrections submitted to the text of a treaty deposited with the Secretary-General and rectification of the text; examination of whether an instrument of full powers, acceptance, approval, ratification or accession or a reservation or declaration to a treaty deposited with the Secretary-General is in due and proper form and, if need be, bringing the matter to the attention of the State in question; preparation of the original text of new multilateral treaties for which the Secretary-General is the depositary, as well as certified true copies; processing, recording and notifying States and international organizations through depositary notifications of treaty actions (signatures, ratifications, acceptances, approvals, accessions and successions, declarations, reservations, etc.) and other treatyrelated formalities; receipt of any signatures to a multilateral treaty deposited with the Secretary-General and receiving and keeping custody of any instruments relating to it; review of adopted amendments and preparation of depositary notifications circulating the amendments;
 - (b) Other substantive activities (regular budget):
 - (i) Recurrent publications: statement of treaties and international agreements registered or filed and recorded with the Secretariat (24); treaty event booklet (1); United Nations Treaty Series (124);
 - Booklets, fact sheets, wallcharts, information kits: preparation of papers and other materials for training seminars and other events;
 - (iii) Special events: organization and servicing of a special treaty event dedicated to a particular treaty deposited with the Secretary-General (1); organization and servicing of the treaty event during the opening of the session of the General Assembly to encourage wider participation in the multilateral treaties deposited with the Secretary-General (1);
 - (iv) Technical material: maintenance and updating of the United Nations Treaty Collection on the Treaty Section website; maintenance and updating of the status of multilateral treaties deposited with the Secretary-General, posting of depositary notifications, certified true copies and other depositary-related information on the Treaty Section website; maintenance of capacity-building-related information on the Treaty Section website, including the United Nations Legal Technical Assistance to States website;
 - (v) Promotion of legal instruments: analysis and filing and recording of treaties; analysis and registration of subsequent treaty actions to treaties already registered or filed and recorded with the Secretariat (Article 102 of the Charter); analysis and registration of treaties (Article 102 of the Charter); provision of information and legal advice concerning the registration of treaties to States, intergovernmental organizations, United Nations offices and other treaty bodies; provision of information and legal advice on treaty law and depositary practice to States, international organizations, United Nations offices and other treaty bodies;

- (c) Technical cooperation (regular budget):
 - (i) Advisory services: advisory services to States, international organizations, United Nations offices and other treaty bodies on legal questions concerning final clauses to treaties to be deposited with the Secretary-General (4);
 - (ii) Training courses, seminars and workshops: training seminars at Headquarters on various aspects of treaty law, the depositary practice of the Secretary-General and the registration of treaties organized for Government officials, representatives from permanent missions and international organizations (4); training seminars at the regional level on various aspects of treaty law, the depositary practice of the Secretary-General and the registration of treaties organized for Government officials and representatives of international organizations (1).
- 8.72 The distribution of resources for subprogramme 6 reflected in table 8.25 below.

8.73 The amount of $6,289,400 would provide for 26 posts (1 P-5, 2 P-4, 4 P-3, 5 P-2, 7 General Service (Principal level), 7 General Service (Other level)), as well as various non-post items, including overtime, travel of staff, contractual services and office equipment. The reduction of $311,600 is due to: (a) a decrease of $155,800 related to the redeployment of one General Service (Other level) post to subprogramme 3 to allow for the Codification Division to support activities under the United Nations Programme of Assistance in the Teaching, Study, Dissemination and Wider Appreciation of International Law; (b) a decrease of $94,000 owing to the discontinuation of non-recurrent requirements in 2012-2013 related to the enhancement of the treaty information system; and (c) a decrease of $61,800 under non-post resources, resulting from reductions proposed in line with resolution 67/248 with respect to travel of staff, general operating expenses and contractual services, as reflected in table 8.6, item 3 "Reduced representation and provision of expertise" and item 4 "Reduction in information technology support services", of the present report.

D. Programme support

- 8.74 The Executive Office provides services to the Office of Legal Affairs in connection with personnel, budgetary and financial administration, resource planning and use of common services, together with administrative support for policymaking organs and other international meetings, as required.
- 8.75 The distribution of resources for programme support is reflected in table 8.26 below.

- 8.76 The amount of $1,946,600 would provide for the continuation of six posts (1 P-5, 1 P-4, 4 General Service (Other level)), as well as various non-post items, such as general temporary assistance, overtime, contractual services, communications, supplies and materials, and office equipment. The decrease of $154,800 is attributable to: (a) reductions totalling $102,700, in line with the Secretary-General's budget outline for 2014-2015, to be achieved through sustainable measures by redistribution of the workload of staff on sick leave, maternal or paternal leaves to existing staff, thereby reducing the need for temporary assistance and overtime), as reflected in table 8.7 of the present report; and (b) reductions totalling $52,100, reflecting changes in line with resolution 67/248 and adjustments based on expenditure patterns.
- 8.77 Extrabudgetary resources estimated at $165,700 would be utilized to fund one General Service (Other level) post to support the increased workload generated by the management of trust funds.

Board of Auditors

(A/65/5 (Vol. I), chap. II)

The Office of Legal Affairs should define and specify intermediate management objectives and indicators for each stage of the treaty publication process.

The Office of Legal Affairs has thoroughly reviewed its past and current operational procedures with a view to establishing a revised and more efficient publication process. Such a process is aimed at deploying the supporting technologies which would incorporate, in addition to the desktop publishing of the United Nations Treaty Series volumes in hard copy, an efficient webpublishing component built to publish on the Internet the authentic texts of individual treaties, along with their translations, when available, shortly after their registration. Continued upgrading of such supporting technologies will become imperative for an expedited treaty publication process now and in the future. An equally significant contributory factor in implementing this recommendation is the additional staff resources to be allocated to this task. The existing supporting technologies have recently been upgraded and deemed adequate to enable the launch of web-publishing activities. Partly as a result of continued improvements in the technology, the hard copy output of the United Nations Treaty Series in 2011 and 2012 has continued to increase. It is anticipated that intermediate management objectives could be applied and monitored in the context of this new two-tier publishing process (desktop and Internet publishing) and that the indicators for each stage of the treaty process could be reliably identified and recorded.

In-depth evaluation of legal affairs (E/AC.52/2002/5)

Recommendation 13: increased coordination with trade law organizations

To enhance coordination in accordance with its basic mandate and ensure a concerted approach to common issues, the International Trade Law Branch should meet annually with key organizations working on trade law issues to share information and workplans. Continued efforts of coordination with interested organizations with a view to ensuring harmony and consistency between instruments and texts in the area of trade law (see A/67/17, paras. 162-181); resolution 65/21, para. 7: The General Assembly "Endorses the efforts and initiatives of the Commission ... aimed at increasing coordination of, and cooperation on, legal activities of international and regional organizations active in the field of international trade law ..." Annual coordination meetings are being held and reported on an annual basis.
