REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CONFERENCES

The General Assembly,

Having considered the report of the Committee on Conferences,<sup>75</sup>

1. Takes note with appreciation of the report of the Committee on Conferences;
2. Approves the draft revised calendar of conferences and meetings of the United Nations for 1989 as submitted by the Committee on Conferences;<sup>76</sup>
3. Authorizes the Committee on Conferences to make adjustments in the calendar of conferences and meetings for 1989 that may become necessary as a result of action and decisions taken by the General Assembly at its forty-third session;
4. Notes with appreciation that there has been a considerable improvement in the utilization of conference resources by a number of United Nations organs;
5. Urges those United Nations organs which have failed to make adequate use of the conference-servicing resources provided to them to consider reducing the number of meetings they request in their future programmes of work;
6. Requests the Chairman of the Committee on Conferences and the Secretary-General to maintain their contacts with United Nations organs that have failed to make adequate use of the conference-servicing resources provided to them in order to assist those organs in making better use of their services;
7. Requests the Committee on Conferences to remain seized of the matter on the basis of further reports from the Secretary-General.

*84th plenary meeting
21 December 1988*

STATUS OF THE COMMITTEE ON CONFERENCES<sup>77</sup>

The General Assembly

1. Decides to retain the Committee on Conferences as a permanent subsidiary organ;
2. Decides that the Committee on Conferences shall be composed of twenty-one members to be appointed by the President of the General Assembly, after consultations with the chairmen of the regional groups, for a period of three years, on the basis of the following geographical distribution:
  - (a) Six members from African States;
  - (b) Five members from Asian States;

(c) Four members from Latin American and Caribbean States;

(d) Two members from Eastern European States;

(e) Four members from Western European and other States;

3. Decides that one third of the Committee's membership shall retire annually and that retiring members may be reappointed;

4. Decides that the Committee on Conferences shall have the following terms of reference:

(a) To advise the General Assembly on all matters pertaining to the organization of conferences in the United Nations;

(b) To plan and co-ordinate conferences and meetings in close consultation with the Secretariat and all relevant bodies in the preparation of the draft calendar, in particular by staggering conferences and meetings throughout the year, and to avoid to the maximum extent possible the overlapping of meetings related to the same sector of activity in the same conference location;

(c) In this connection, to examine the proposals of the Secretary-General on the draft calendar prepared on the basis of his budgetary proposals and to recommend to the General Assembly a draft calendar of conferences and meetings designed to meet the needs of the United Nations and to ensure the optimum utilization of conference-servicing resources. With respect to the proposed departures from the approved calendar of conferences and meetings that have administrative and financial implications, to act on behalf of the Assembly, in conformity with the budgetary process in force and with full respect for the mandates of other bodies;

(d) To determine the ways and means that might ensure the optimum utilization of conference facilities and services, including documentation, and to present appropriate recommendations to the General Assembly;

(e) To advise the General Assembly on the current and future requirements of the Organization for conference services, facilities and documentation;

(f) To make recommendations, as appropriate, to the General Assembly on means to ensure an improved co-ordination of conferences within the United Nations system, including conference services and facilities, and to conduct the appropriate consultations in that regard;

(g) To monitor the implementation of all General Assembly resolutions on the organization and servicing of, and documentation for, conferences and meetings;

(h) To monitor the policy of the Organization on publications, with the assistance of the Publications Board of the Secretariat and taking into account the positions adopted by the Committee on Information and other relevant bodies;

(i) To report annually thereon to the General Assembly.

*84th plenary meeting
21 December 1988*

<sup>77</sup> The Fifth Committee decided to inform the General Assembly that action on draft resolution B in the report of the Committee on Conferences (A/43/32 and Corr.1 and 2) was being taken on the understanding that nothing in paragraph 4 (c) of that draft resolution should be construed as giving the Committee on Conferences any role in the budgetary process or authority to override decisions on programmes and on meetings and conferences duly decided upon by legislative organs of the United Nations.

In accordance with paragraph 2 of the above resolution, the President of the General Assembly informed the Secretary-General by a communication dated 3 January 1989 that as a result of the consultations the Committee on Conferences is now composed of the following Member
