D'ordre de mon gouvernement, j'ai l'honneur de vous faire tenir ci-joint une lettre datée du 12 mars 2018 qui vous est adressée par le Ministre des affaires étrangères du Pakistan, Khawaja Muhammad Asif, au sujet de la détérioration de la situation des droits de l'homme dans le Jammu-et-Cachemire occupé par l'Inde et de la situation sur la ligne de contrôle des déplacements et la ligne de démarcation provisoire (voir annexe).

Je vous serais reconnaissante de bien vouloir faire distribuer le texte de la présente lettre et de son annexe comme document du Conseil de sécurité, au titre de la question intitulée « La question Inde-Pakistan ».

Annexe à la lettre datée du 4 avril 2018 adressée au Secrétaire général par la Représentante permanente du Pakistan auprès de l'Organisation des Nations Unies

Lettre datée du 12 mars 2018, adressée au Secrétaire général par le Ministre des affaires étrangères du Pakistan

La situation sur la ligne de contrôle des déplacements et la ligne de démarcation provisoire

J'ai l'honneur de me référer aux lettres datées des 6 décembre, 31 octobre, 6 juin et 27 avril 2017 que je vous ai adressées au sujet de la détérioration continue de la situation des droits de l'homme dans le Jammu-et-Cachemire occupé par l'Inde, où les forces d'occupation indiennes font régner la terreur et commettent des atrocités contre les Cachemiriens innocents et sans défense.

Des milliers de civils cachemiriens innocents dans le Jammu-et-Cachemire occupé par l'Inde manifestent chaque jour dans les rues. Tout ce qu'ils réclament, c'est de pouvoir exercer le droit à l'autodétermination que leur a promis l'ONU. Depuis juillet 2016, des centaines de Cachemiriens innocents ont été tués et plus de 20 000 blessés. Des dizaines de personnes ont perdu partiellement ou totalement la vue, certains définitivement. Face à ces actes de barbarie, la communauté internationale doit agir d'urgence.

Vous vous souviendrez peut-être que, s'adressant à la soixante-douzième session de l'Assemblée générale, le Premier Ministre du Pakistan a présenté à la communauté internationale des arguments solides à l'appui de la position de son pays sur le différend relatif au Jammu-et-Cachemire et insisté sur les violations graves des droits de l'homme commises par les forces indiennes dans la région. Il a souligné la répression brutale, par l'Inde, de la lutte pour l'autodétermination menée par le peuple du Jammu-et-Cachemire occupé. Il a réclaté la conduite d'une enquête internationale sur les crimes commis par l'Inde dans le Jammu-et-Cachemire occupé et demandé au Secrétaire général et au Haut-Commissaire des Nations Unies aux droits de l'homme d'envoyer une commission d'enquête sur place pour établir la nature et l'ampleur des violations des droits de l'homme commises par l'Inde, veiller à ce que les responsables soient punis et apporter justice et secours aux victimes. Il a également demandé au Secrétaire général de nommer un envoyé spécial pour le Jammu-et-Cachemire.

Il est alarmant de constater qu'au lieu de mettre un terme à ces brutalités, les forces d'occupation indiennes ont délibérément aggravé les tensions sur la ligne de contrôle des déplacements et la ligne de démarcation provisoire pour détourner l'attention de la communauté internationale de la gravité de la situation des droits de l'homme dans le Jammu-et-Cachemire occupé par l'Inde.

L'année 2017 a vu une escalade sans précédent des violations du cessez-le-feu par les forces d'occupation indiennes le long de la ligne de contrôle des déplacements et de la ligne de démarcation provisoire. Cinquante-quatre civils innocents sont morts en martyrs, et plus de 200 ont été blessés, dont des femmes, des enfants et des personnes âgées, à l'occasion de 1 970 violations du cessez-le-feu.

La tendance s'est aggravée durant les deux premiers mois de 2018, au cours desquels le nombre total de violations du cessez-le-feu par les forces indiennes s'est élevé à plus de 400. Vingt civils innocents sont morts en martyrs, et 71 ont été blessés. Les villages peuplés de civils le long de la ligne de contrôle des déplacements et de la ligne de démarcation provisoire sont constamment la cible de mortiers lourds et d'armes automatiques. Du fait de l'emploi sans discrimination de ces armes de gros calibre, le nombre de victimes a augmenté.

Le Pakistan s'est maintes fois plaint à l'Inde des violations du cessez-le-feu commises et des vies précieuses perdues à ces occasions. Des copies de toutes les lettres adressées au Haut-Commissariat de l'Inde en 2017 sont annexées à la présente (voir pièce jointe).

Les actions de l'Inde menacent la paix et la tranquillité régionales et pourraient entraîner une erreur d'appréciation stratégique dans l'Asie du Sud nucléarisée. Je vous serais reconnaissant de bien vouloir faire distribuer les lettres ci-jointes comme documents du Conseil de sécurité afin de sensibiliser la communauté internationale à la gravité des atrocités commises par l'Inde.
