Administrative instruction

Administration of temporary appointments

The Under-Secretary-General for Management, pursuant to section 4.2 of Secretary-General's bulletin ST/SGB/2009/4, and for the purpose of establishing terms and conditions pertaining to the use and administration of temporary appointments in accordance with staff rule 4.12, hereby promulgates the following:

Section 1 General

1.1 The purpose of the temporary appointment is to enable the Organization to effectively and expeditiously manage its short-term staffing needs. Such short-term needs were defined by the General Assembly in its resolution 63/250 as "seasonal or peak workloads and specific short-term requirements for less than one year". Such temporary appointments "could be renewed for up to one additional year when warranted by surge requirements and operational needs related to field operations and special projects with finite mandates". This definition sets the criteria for the use of temporary appointments in terms of both need and duration. Procedures have been designed to allow for an expedited recruitment process while ensuring transparency and a competitive selection process.

1.2 In accordance with staff rule 4.12 (c), a temporary appointment does not carry any expectancy, legal or otherwise, of renewal and shall not be converted to any other type of appointment.

Section 2 Use and duration of temporary appointments

2.1 Pursuant to staff rule 4.12 (a), a temporary appointment may be granted for a single or cumulative period of less than one year to meet seasonal or peak workloads and specific short-term requirements and shall have an expiration date specified in the letter of appointment.

2.2 A temporary appointment may be granted for specific short-term requirements that are expected to last for less than one year at the time of the staff member's appointment, such as:

* Reissued for technical reasons on 28 May 2010.

(a) To respond to an unexpected and/or temporary emergency or surge demand involving, for example, a natural disaster, conflict, violence or similar circumstances;

(b) To meet a seasonal or peak work requirement of limited duration that cannot be carried out by existing staff members;

(c) To temporarily fill a position whose incumbent is on special leave, sick leave, maternity or paternity leave or on assignment to a peacekeeping or special political mission;

(d) To temporarily fill a vacant position pending the finalization of the regular selection process;

(e) To work on a special project with a finite mandate.

2.3 A temporary appointment shall not be used to fill needs that are expected to last for one year or more.

2.4 In the case of staff members governed by the Association internationale des traducteurs de conférence (AITC) and the Association internationale des interprètes de conférence (AIIC) agreements, a temporary appointment may be granted for a maximum of 729 days within a 27-month period at the same duty station.

Extension of a temporary appointment and successive temporary appointments within a period of 364 days

2.5 Subsequent to the initial temporary appointment:

(a) A temporary appointment may be extended in the same office for a continuous period not exceeding 364 calendar days; or

(b) New temporary appointments may be granted for service in the same office or in a different office any number of times, for any duration, provided that the cumulative length of service does not exceed the period of 364 calendar days.

The period of 364 days shall be counted either starting from the first day of service under the initial temporary appointment or from the first day of service following the mandatory break in service as set out in section 14 below.

Section 3

Selection process for the granting of a temporary appointment

Temporary vacancy announcement

3.1 When a need for service for more than three months but less than one year is anticipated, a temporary vacancy announcement shall be issued by the programme manager.

3.2 While the decision to issue a temporary vacancy announcement for a temporary appointment of less than three months is made at the discretion of the programme manager, any extension of three months or more shall require the issuance of a temporary vacancy announcement.

3.3 The selected candidate should be offered a temporary appointment unless he/she already holds another type of appointment, such as a fixed-term or permanent appointment.

3.4 The temporary vacancy announcement shall include a description of the qualifications, skills and competencies required and reflect the functions of the post, using to the greatest possible extent the database of generic job profiles maintained by the Office of Human Resources Management. Each temporary vacancy announcement shall indicate the date of posting and specify a deadline by which all applications must be received.

3.5 Temporary vacancy announcements shall be posted for a minimum of one week on the Intranet or be circulated by other means, such as e-mail, in the event that an Intranet is not available at the duty station concerned. A temporary vacancy announcement may also be advertised externally if deemed necessary and appropriate.

Evaluation and selection

3.6 A candidate's suitability for the position shall be assessed through interviews and/or other appropriate evaluation mechanisms, such as written tests or other assessment techniques. Following a competitive process, the head of department/office/mission shall make the selection decision.

3.7 At the time of review, the head of department/office/mission shall be required to take into account the candidate's eligibility to be appointed. A candidate who has been previously employed on a temporary appointment and who has reached the maximum authorized duration under a temporary appointment in an entity that applies the United Nations Staff Regulations and Rules, shall not be granted a new temporary appointment unless the requirement for a break in service specified in section 14 below has been met.

Letter of appointment

3.8 When a candidate has been selected and has obtained the required clearances, he/she shall be issued a letter of appointment upon entry on duty. The letter of appointment shall contain, expressly or by reference, the terms and conditions of employment and details on his/her entitlements.

Section 4

Fitness for duty

4.1 In order to determine a candidate's fitness to assume the assigned functions, he/she shall be medically cleared prior to the issuance of the letter of appointment. For this purpose, a candidate who has been offered a temporary appointment may be required by the Secretary-General to undergo such medical examinations and receive such inoculations as may be required by the United Nations Medical Director or medical officer designated by the United Nations Medical Director.

4.2 The following minimum requirements shall apply for recruitment under a temporary appointment:

Temporary appointments of less than six months

(a) A candidate who has been offered a temporary appointment of less than six months shall, unless requested to undergo a full medical examination pursuant to section 4.1 above, submit a medical certificate by a licensed medical practitioner stating that he/she is physically fit to perform the assigned functions.

Temporary appointments of more than six months

(b) A candidate who has been offered a temporary appointment of six months or more, or whose shorter appointment upon extension will reach six months or more, is required to satisfy the United Nations Medical Director or medical officer designated by the United Nations Medical Director, by medical examination, that he/she is medically fit to perform the assigned functions and is free from any ailment likely to impair the health or safety of others.

5.2 A staff member holding a temporary appointment who is recruited in the Professional and higher categories on a position authorized for one year or more may not apply for or be reappointed to his/her current position within six months of the end of his/her current service if the position is advertised through the established procedures and will result in a fixed-term appointment following review by the central review bodies. This provision does not apply to staff members holding temporary appointments and serving in positions authorized for one year or more in peacekeeping operations or special political missions.

5.4 United Nations Volunteers may not be appointed to positions in the mission in which they last served within six months following completion of their service with the United Nations Volunteers programme. United Nations Volunteers who have served less than 12 months are not eligible for appointment in a peacekeeping operation or special political mission, unless a period of six months has elapsed following completion of their service as a United Nations Volunteer. United Nations Volunteers who resign may not be appointed to a position in a peacekeeping operation or special political mission within six months following the date of their resignation.

Section 6
Performance evaluation

6.1 At the end of the temporary appointment, regardless of duration, the programme manager shall issue a performance evaluation on a standard performance evaluation form for staff members holding temporary appointments. The form should state what was expected of the staff member and whether the staff member and the supervisor discussed those expectations. Signed hard copies of the standard performance evaluation form shall be included in the official status file of the staff member concerned.

6.2 A staff member who disagrees with the performance rating given at the end of his/her temporary appointment may, within seven days of signing the completed performance appraisal form, submit a written explanatory statement to the respective Executive Office at Headquarters, or to the Chief of Administration elsewhere.
