Report of the Secretary-General

On 9 December 1982, the General Assembly adopted resolution 37/76, the operative part of which read as follows:

"The General Assembly,

"1. Reaffirms its endorsement, in principle, of the concept of a nuclear-weapon-free zone in South Asia;

"2. Urges once again the States of South Asia and such other neighbouring non-nuclear-weapon States as may be interested to continue to make all possible efforts to establish a nuclear-weapon-free zone in South Asia and to refrain, in the meantime, from any action contrary to this objective;

"3. Calls upon those nuclear-weapon-States that have not done so to respond positively to this proposal and to extend the necessary co-operation in the efforts to establish a nuclear-weapon-free zone in South Asia;

"4. Requests the Secretary-General to render such assistance as may be required to promote the efforts for the establishment of a nuclear-weapon-free zone in South Asia and to report on the subject to the General Assembly at its thirty-eighth session;

"5. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its thirty-eighth session the item entitled 'Establishment of a nuclear-weapon-free zone in South Asia'."

* A/38/150.

2. The Secretary-General has been in contact with the States of the South Asian region with regard to paragraph 4 of General Assembly resolution 37/76. He wishes to inform the Assembly that there has been no request by the States concerned for his assistance in connection with the subject. In the course of those contacts, a view was expressed to the Secretary-General that he should continue to be available for this purpose.
