Introduction

The present report, covering the period from 16 June 1995 to 15 June 1996, is submitted to the General Assembly by the Security Council in accordance with Article 24, paragraph 3, and Article 15, paragraph 1, of the Charter of the United Nations. It is the fifty-first annual report of the Security Council to the General Assembly. These reports are circulated as Supplement No. 2 to the Official Records of each regular session of the General Assembly.

As in previous years, the report is intended as a guide to the activities of the Security Council during the period covered. It should be noted, in this connection, that in December 1974 the Council decided to make its report shorter and more concise, without changing its basic structure (see Official Records of the Security Council, Twenty-ninth Year, Supplement for October, November and December 1974, document S/11586). Moreover, in January 1985, the Council agreed, in keeping with the spirit of its 1974 decision, to discontinue the practice of summarizing documents addressed to the President of the Council or to the Secretary-General and circulated as documents of the Council and instead simply to indicate the subject-matter of those documents which related to the procedure of the Council (see Resolutions and Decisions of the Security Council 1985, part II, document S/16913).

During the period under review, the Council adopted a number of further measures in connection with the ongoing rationalization of its documentation and other procedures (see Part II, chap. 25 below). Measures relating to the format, adoption and timely submission of the report (S/26015) had already been implemented in the previous reports. Accordingly, the appendices listing resolutions and presidential statements provide cross-references to the relevant chapter, section and subsection of the report for each resolution and presidential statement (see appendices V and VI).

Moreover, other procedural measures related to the question of the flow of information to States not members of the Council were introduced in July 1993, March and December 1994, March and May 1995 and January 1996. In July 1993, the Council decided to make available to all Member States the tentative forecast of the programme of work of the Council for each month (S/26176). In March 1994, it decided that the draft resolutions in their provisional form would be made available for collection by States not members of the Council (S/1994/230). In December 1994, the Council decided, as part of its efforts to improve the flow of information and the exchange of ideas between members of the Council and other States Members of the United Nations, that there should be increased recourse to open meetings, in particular at an early stage in its consideration of a subject. In March 1995, it decided that, in order to make the procedures of the Sanctions Committees more transparent, the annual report should contain, in the introduction, more information about each Committee's activities (S/1995/234) and in January 1996 that the Chairman of each Committee should give an oral briefing to interested Members of the United Nations after each meeting, in the same way as the President of the Security Council gives oral briefings following informal consultations of Council members (S/1996/54). In order to bring about transparency and increased consultations in matters relating to peacekeeping operations, in May and November 1994 and March 1996, the Council decided to strengthen further a number of measures on consultations and exchange of information with troop contributing countries (S/PRST/1996/13). The current report, therefore, reflects the foregoing decisions by the Security Council.

With respect to the membership of the Security Council during the period under review, it will be recalled that the General Assembly, at the 53rd plenary meeting of its fiftieth session, on 8 November 1995, elected Chile, Egypt, Guinea-Bissau, Poland and the Republic of Korea to fill the vacancies resulting from the expiration, on 31 December 1995, of the terms of office of Argentina, the Czech Republic, Nigeria, Oman and Rwanda.

During the year, the Council held 132 formal meetings, adopted 64 resolutions and issued 62 statements by the President. In addition, the Council members held 240 consultations of the whole, totalling some 377 hours. The Council considered over 70 reports by the Secretary-General and reviewed and processed more than 1,079 documents and communications from States and regional and other intergovernmental organizations.

The present report consists of 4 parts and 10 appendices:

Part I deals with the questions considered by the Council under its responsibility for the maintenance of international peace and security. Chapters in this part are arranged in chronological order based on the first occasion on which the Council considered the item in a formal meeting. However, for ease of reference, agenda items on related subjects are grouped under umbrella headings. (a) Security Council Committee established by resolution 661 (1990) concerning the situation between Iraq and Kuwait

The Security Council Committee established by resolution 661 (1990) concerning the situation between Iraq and Kuwait is mandated by the Council to ensure the effective implementation of the provisions contained in relevant resolutions concerning sanctions against Iraq, particularly resolutions 661 (1990), 665 (1990), 666 (1990), 669 (1990), 670 (1990), 687 (1991), 692 (1991), 700 (1991), 706 (1991), 707 (1991), 712 (1991), 715 (1991), 773 (1992), 778 (1992), 806 (1993), 833 (1993), 899 (1994) and 986 (1995). At its 126th meeting, on 20 July 1995, the Committee approved an export/import mechanism proposal jointly prepared by the United Nations Special Commission and the International Atomic Energy Agency in accordance with paragraph 7 of Security Council resolution 715 (1991), for monitoring future sales or supplies to Iraq of dual-use items that could assist Iraq in the production or acquisition of proscribed weapons. The Committee forwarded the proposed mechanism to the Council for its consideration (S/1995/1017). On 27 March 1996, the Council unanimously adopted resolution 1051 (1996) on the establishment of the mechanism.

Following the signing, on 20 May 1996, of the memorandum of understanding between the Secretariat of the United Nations and the Government of Iraq on the implementation of Security Council resolution 986 (1995), the Committee started its deliberations on the expedited procedures to be employed in the discharge of its responsibilities pursuant to paragraph 12 of resolution 986 (1995).

Pursuant to the note by the President of the Security Council of 29 March 1995 (S/1995/234), the Committee prepared its annual report to the Security Council.

The Security Council, pursuant to paragraphs 21 and 28 of resolution 687 (1991), conducted six reviews of the sanctions against Iraq.

The Committee's bureau, as elected at the Committee's first meeting of each year, consists of a Chairman and two Vice-Chairmen. The Chairman is elected in his or her personal capacity for the calendar year, while two delegations are elected to provide the Vice-Chairmen for the year. For 1995, the bureau consisted of H.E. (c) Special Commission established pursuant to resolution 687 (1991)

The Special Commission established pursuant to paragraph 9(b)(i) of resolution 687 (1991) is mandated by the Security Council to supervise the destruction, removal or rendering harmless of all Iraqi chemical and biological weapons, stocks of agents, related subsystems and components, all research, development, support and manufacturing facilities, as well as all ballistic missiles with a range greater than 150 kilometres and related major parts, and repair and production facilities.

During the period under review, the Special Commission held two meetings and considered reports prepared by the Office of the Executive Chairman of the Special Commission. In conjunction with the meetings of the Special Commission, its working groups on chemical and biological weapons and on compliance monitoring held two meetings.

Pursuant to paragraph 9(b)(i) of resolution 687 (1991), paragraph 3 of resolution 699 (1991) and paragraph 8 of resolution 715 (1991), the Special Commission submitted four progress reports to the Council.

(d) Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 724 (1991) concerning Yugoslavia

During the period under review, the Committee continued to implement the mandate entrusted to it by the Council. By resolutions 1003 (1995) of 5 July 1995 and 1015 (1995) of 15 September 1995, the Council extended the suspension of those sanctions against the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia (Serbia and Montenegro) referred to in paragraph 1 of resolution 943 (1994). Following the initialling on 21 November 1995 in Dayton, Ohio, of the General Framework Agreement for Peace in Bosnia and Herzegovina and the annexes thereto (collectively referred to as the Peace Agreement), the Council significantly modified the regime of the mandatory measures in question by adopting, on 22 November 1995, resolutions 1021 (1995) and 1022 (1995). By resolution 1021 (1995), the Council stipulated the terms and timing for terminating the embargo on deliveries of weapons and military equipment to all the countries of the former Yugoslavia. By resolution 1022 (1995), the Council suspended indefinitely, with immediate effect and subject to certain provisions stipulated in the resolution, the sanctions against the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia. By a note verbale dated 11 December 1995, the Chairman of the Committee apprised all States of action taken by the Committee to amend its guidelines in the light of resolutions 1021 (1995) and 1022 (1995).

On 26 February 1996, the Security Council was informed, through the appropriate political authorities, that, in the assessment of the Commander of the Implementation Force in Bosnia and Herzegovina, Bosnian Serb forces had withdrawn from the zones of separation established in the Peace Agreement. Therefore, in accordance with the provisions contained in paragraph 2 of the same resolution, the measures imposed on the Bosnian Serb party were also suspended indefinitely, starting on 27 February 1996. By a note verbale dated 27 February 1996, the Chairman of the Committee informed all States of the suspension of the corresponding provisions in the guidelines for the conduct of its work.

By a note verbale dated 14 March 1996, the Chairman of the Committee apprised all States that, in accordance with the provisions contained in paragraph 1 of Security Council resolution 1021 (1995), 13 March 1996 would be the date of termination of all provisions of the embargo on the deliveries of weapons and military equipment imposed by resolution 713 (1991), except those related to the delivery of heavy weapons as well as ammunition therefor, mines, military aircraft and helicopters.

During the reporting period, the Committee's activities covered a wide variety of complex matters arising from the implementation of the mandatory measures in effect. Since 16 June 1995, the Committee has met in formal session 16 times. Most issues under consideration related to practical questions arising from the application of sanctions. On several occasions, the Committee was called upon to give urgent consideration to requests for the supply of items for essential humanitarian need and medical evacuation flights, particularly related to hostilities in Croatia and Bosnia and Herzegovina. In accordance with its practices, the Committee handled all applications from the international humanitarian agencies on a priority basis, maintaining close cooperation with the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees, the International Committee of the Red Cross, the World Food Programme, the United Nations Children's Fund and the World Health Organization, as well as with the International Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies and with the Department of Humanitarian Affairs of the Secretariat. In addition, the Committee continued to keep under review various issues relating to the humanitarian and social situation in the areas subject to sanctions, paying special attention to facilitating legitimate international traffic on the river Danube and pursued with the Governments concerned a number of cases of alleged or established sanctions violations. The Committee also considered several queries related to funds and assets that were frozen or impounded as funds and assets of the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia (Serbia and Montenegro).

More specifically, in October 1995, the Committee approved the restoration of deliveries to the Republic of Bosnia and Herzegovina of natural gas through the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia (Serbia and Montenegro). In November 1995, the Committee approved, on humanitarian grounds, the delivery of 186.5 million cubic metres of natural gas per month, for an initial period of two months, and 28,500 tons per month of heating oil and 588 tons per month of liquid gas, for a period of six months, to the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia. In response to requests from several Member States experiencing special economic problems, the Committee approved, inter alia, a request from Albania for the transit passage of electric energy from third countries through the electric power grid of the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia (Serbia and Montenegro) and a request from Romania to the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia (Serbia and Montenegro) to export certain petroleum products that were urgently needed for the maintenance of the Iron Gates I hydroelectric and navigation system on the right bank of the Danube.

Based on a report by the Executive Director of the Danube Commission, the Chairman of the Committee, on 22 June 1995, apprised the President of the Security Council that preparations for the repairs to the locks of the Iron Gates I system on the right hand bank of the Danube had been completed. Accordingly, resolution 992 (1995) came into force on 23 June 1995 and remained in effect until the suspension of the sanctions against the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia referred to above.

On 27 June 1995, the Committee adopted streamlined procedures for expediting its consideration of applications concerning legitimate humanitarian assistance, as well as a number of measures facilitating legitimate trans-shipments via the Danube river. As recommended by the Security Council in the note by its President dated 29 March 1995 (S/1995/234), the Committee implemented measures aimed at making the Committee's procedures more transparent, including the practice of issuing press releases on matters of importance and making available to the delegations concerned lists of its major decisions on a regular basis.

Overall, during the reporting period the Committee dealt with 5,721 applications for humanitarian shipments to the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia and the areas of Bosnia and Herzegovina under the control of Bosnian Serb forces, as well as requests for trans-shipments through the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia and for the removal of personal effects. Of these, 2,137 were notifications for foodstuffs and medical supplies and 3,472 were requests of various kinds. During the same period, the Committee issued 5,125 letters of acknowledgement and 4,377 letters of approval, including responses to applications received prior to the reporting period. The Committee rejected or put on hold 728 requests.

The Committee continued to benefit from close cooperation with the European Union/Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe Sanctions Coordinator and the Sanctions Assistance Missions Communications

Centre and from the regular receipt of reports from the United Nations Peace Forces in the countries of the former Yugoslavia, the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and the Western European Union on matters falling within the Committee's terms of reference.

During the period under review, the Council conducted two reviews of the measures contained in resolution 942 (1994).

For 1995, the Committee's bureau consisted of H.E. Mr. Emilio J. Cárdenas (Argentina) as Chairman, with the delegations of Nigeria and Oman providing the Vice-Chairmen; for 1996, it consists of H.E. Mr. Juan Somavía (Chile) as Chairman, with the delegations of Guinea-Bissau and the Republic of Korea as Vice-Chairmen.

(e) Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 748(1992) concerning the Libyan Arab Jamahiriya

By resolution 748 (1992), adopted on 31 March 1992, the Security Council imposed a regime of mandatory sanctions against the Libyan Arab Jamahiriya relating to various aspects of air links with, the supply of arms and military weapons to, reductions and restriction of the activities of the diplomatic and consular missions of, and restrictions on known or suspected terrorists nationals of the Libyan Arab Jamahiriya. For 1995, the bureau of the Committee consisted of H.E. Mr. Karel Kovanda (Czech Republic) as Chairman, with the delegations of Germany and Oman providing the two Vice-Chairmen. For 1996, the bureau consisted of H.E. Mr. Zbigniew Maria Wlosowicz (Poland) as Chairman, with the delegations of Germany and the Republic of Korea providing the two Vice-Chairmen. During the period under review, the Committee held 12 meetings and handled over 95 incoming communications relating to various aspects of the implementation of the mandatory sanctions. Sixty-one of those communications contained requests for exemptions, on humanitarian grounds, from the air embargo imposed by resolutions 748 (1992) and 883 (1993) against the Libyan Arab Jamahiriya, out of which 56 were approved and 5 have been placed on hold.

At its 59th meeting, held on 17 July 1995, the Committee approved further procedures and arrangements concerning the authorization and monitoring procedures for emergency medical evacuation flights from the Libyan Arab Jamahiriya and the related issue of the maintenance and supply of spare parts for the predesignated four Libyan air ambulances as an annex to the special arrangements for emergency medical evacuations by air from the Libyan Arab Jamahiriya adopted previously by the Committee.

At its 61st and 65th meetings, held on 17 October 1995 and 5 February 1996 respectively, the Committee adopted a number of measures aimed at making its procedures more transparent, as recommended in the notes by the President of the Security Council (S/1995/234 and S/1996/54), including issuing press releases reflecting the most important matters discussed at the meetings as well as oral briefings by the Chairman to interested Member States after each meeting. The Committee also provides tables indicating the status of emergency medical evacuation flights processed under the "no-objection procedure". A compilation of decisions on other major issues considered at Committee meetings is prepared on a regular basis and made available to any delegation upon request. In addition, an annual report to the Security Council on its activities is prepared by the Committee (S/1996/2).

By a note verbale dated 1 March 1996, Egypt requested the Committee's approval for 45 flights of Egypt Air from Cairo to Tripoli and Benghazi and on to Jeddah, and an equal number of return flights, for the purpose of transporting Libyan pilgrims to perform the Haj. The Committee approved the Egyptian request, with certain conditions.

In 1996, the Committee received reports of a violation concerning an unauthorized flight from Tripoli to Jeddah for the transport of Libyan pilgrims during the 1996 Haj season. Appropriate action was taken by the Committee in response to the violation (S/PRST/1996/18).

During the period under consideration, the Council conducted three reviews of the sanctions. On those occasions, the members found that conditions did not exist for modifying the regime of sanctions established by the Council in paragraphs 3 to 7 of resolution 748 (1992). Accordingly, the President of the Council issued statements on the same day (S/PRST/1995/36 and S/PRST/1995/56) reflecting that position on behalf of the members of the Council. No statement was issued on the occasion of the Committee's twelfth review, held on 21 March 1996.

(f) Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 751 (1992) concerning Somalia

The Committee was established pursuant to resolution 751 (1992) to ensure the effective implementation of the general and complete embargo, imposed by resolution 733 (1992), on all deliveries of weapons and military equipment to Somalia. According to the guidelines of the Committee for the conduct of its work, adopted on 8 May 1992, all decisions are taken by consensus.

During the period under review the Committee held one meeting and dealt with seven communications concerning the mandatory embargo against Somalia.

In accordance with the note by the President of the Security Council of 29 March 1995 (S/1995/234), the Committee submitted a report, on 15 January 1996, on its activities from its establishment in 1992 to 31 December 1995 (S/1996/17).

The Committee's bureau, as elected at the Committee's first meeting of each year, consists of a Chairman and two Vice-Chairmen. The Chairman is elected in his or her personal capacity for the calendar year, while two delegations are elected to provide the Vice-Chairmen for the year. For 1995, the bureau consisted of H.E. Mr. Salim Bin Mohammed Al-Khussaiby (Oman) as Chairman, with the delegations of Honduras and Rwanda providing the two Vice-Chairmen; for 1996 it consists of H.E. Mr. Park Soo Gil (Republic of Korea) as Chairman, with the delegations of Egypt and Honduras providing the two Vice-Chairmen.

(g) International Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law in the Territory of the Former Yugoslavia

The Dayton Peace Agreement initialled in November 1995 and signed in December 1995 opened up the way for a more effective implementation of the mandate of the International Tribunal. In particular, the former war area has now become accessible, allowing more in situ investigations to be carried out by the Prosecutor's Office. The rise in investigations has been one of the factors that have led to the increased activity of the International Tribunal. The International Tribunal became fully operational in 1996.

As of 29 May 1996, 15 indictments had been issued by the International Tribunal, involving a total of 58 indictees. In one case, upon the request of the Prosecutor, the Tribunal requested the deferral of a national investigation against one of the suspects.

A total of four hearings were held under rule 61 of the Tribunal's rules of procedure and evidence. Rule 61 allows for an international arrest warrant to be issued by the Judges, to be transmitted to all States, if the personal service of the indictment to the accused has not been effected and, consequently, the accused has not appeared before the Tribunal.

The Tribunal's first trial commenced on 7 May 1996. Hearings are expected to continue for a number of weeks. Preliminary hearings are being held in a few other cases. Whereas most of the defendants now at trial or awaiting trial have pleaded not guilty, one defendant has recently pleaded guilty. In yet another case, the trial was terminated by the decease of the accused.

Furthermore, over the past year, a total of 11 individuals have been held, at different times, in custody at the United Nations Detention Unit. A total of eight persons, Bosnian Serbs and Croats as well as Muslims, are currently being detained.

The Judges of the International Tribunal held three plenary sessions in The Hague. During these sessions, the Judges inter alia amended the rules of procedure and evidence, (re-)elected the President and Vice-President, determined the composition of the Trial Chambers and assessed the situation of the Tribunal. Pursuant to Security Council resolution 1047 (1996) of 29 February 1996, Justice Louise Arbour (Canada), was appointed by the Security Council, effective 1 October 1996, as the new Prosecutor of both the International Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia and the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda, following the resignation of Justice Richard Goldstone.

(h) Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 864 (1993) concerning the situation in Angola

The Committee was established pursuant to resolution 864 (1993) to ensure the effective implementation of the mandatory sanctions imposed by that resolution against the União Nacional para a Independência Total de Angola (UNITA) relating to the sale or supply of arms and related matériel of all types, including weapons and ammunition, military vehicles, equipment and spare parts, as well as of petroleum and petroleum products. According to the guidelines of the Committee for the conduct of its work, adopted on 25 October 1993, all decisions are taken by consensus.

During the period under review, the Committee held two meetings and dealt with eight communications concerning the mandatory sanctions imposed by the Council against UNITA.

In accordance with the note by the President of the Security Council of 29 March 1995 (S/1995/234), the Committee submitted a report, on 16 January 1996, on its activities since its establishment in 1993 to 31 December 1995 (S/1996/37).

The Committee's bureau, as elected at the Committee's first meeting of each year, consists of a Chairman and two Vice-Chairmen. The Chairman is elected in his or her personal capacity for the calendar year, while two delegations are elected to provide the Vice-Chairmen for the year. For 1995 the bureau consisted of H.E. Mr. Francesco Paolo Fulci (Italy) as Chairman, with the delegations of Honduras and Indonesia providing the two Vice-Chairmen; for 1996 it consists of H.E. Mr. Nabil A. Elaraby (Egypt) as Chairman, with the same two Vice-Chairmen.

(i) Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 918 (1994) concerning Rwanda

The Committee was established pursuant to resolution 918 (1994) to ensure the effective implementation of the mandatory sanctions imposed by that resolution against the sale or supply to Rwanda of arms and related matériel of all types, including weapons and ammunition, military vehicles and equipment, paramilitary police equipment and spare parts. According to the new consolidated guidelines of the Committee for the conduct of its work, adopted on 10 October 1995, pursuant to Security Council resolution 1011 (1995), all decisions are taken by consensus.

By paragraph 7 of Council resolution 1011 (1995) of 16 August 1995, the restrictions imposed by paragraph 13 of resolution 918 (1994) relating to the sale or supply of arms and related matériel to the Government of Rwanda were lifted until 1 September 1996. Under that resolution, the Committee is also required to report to the Council on notifications received from States on the export of arms or related matériel to Rwanda as well as notifications of imports of arms and related matériel made by the Government of Rwanda. Accordingly, three notifications received by the Committee were reported to the Security Council (S/1996/329, S/1996/396 and S/1996/407).

By paragraph 3 of resolution 1013 (1995) of 7 September 1995, the Committee is required to collate and provide to the International Commission of Inquiry information in its possession relating to the mandate of the Commission, i.e., on the sale or supply of arms and related matériel to former Rwandese government forces in the Great Lakes region in violation of resolutions 918 (1994), 997 (1995) and 1011 (1995). Accordingly, the Committee provided the Commission with relevant information as required on 24 November and 4 December 1995.

The six judges of the Trial Chamber of the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda were elected by the General Assembly on 24 May 1995. The Tribunal shares the Appeals Chamber, which is made up of five Judges and the same Prosecutor, with the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia. “Letter dated 17 August 1995 from the Secretary-General addressed to the President of the Security Council (S/1995/707)”

The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representatives of Bosnia and Herzegovina and Croatia, at their request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Council’s provisional rules of procedure.

“The Security Council is deeply concerned by the contents of the Secretary-General’s letter of 17 August 1995 (S/1995/707) regarding the continued impediments to the functioning and deployment of the rapid reaction force established by resolution 998 (1995) of 16 June 1995.

“The Council reaffirms in this regard that the rapid reaction force is an integral part of the United Nations Peace Forces/United Nations Protection Force and that its deployment is crucial for the strengthening of the capacity of the United Nations Protection Force to carry out its mandate in the Republic of Bosnia and Herzegovina. It shares the Secretary-General’s view that the existing status-of-forces agreements constitute an appropriate and sufficient basis for the presence of the United Nations Peace Forces/United Nations Protection Force, including the rapid reaction force.

“The Security Council is deeply concerned at the implications of the continued impediments to the functioning of the rapid reaction force for the effectiveness of the United Nations mission in the Republic of Bosnia and Herzegovina. It calls upon the Governments of the Republic of Croatia and the Republic of Bosnia and Herzegovina immediately to remove all impediments and to give clear undertakings concerning the freedom of movement and provision of facilities for the rapid reaction force, in order that it may perform its tasks without further delay. It further calls upon them to resolve forthwith within the framework of the existing status-of-forces agreements any outstanding difficulties with the relevant United Nations authorities.

“The Security Council supports fully the efforts of the Secretary-General in this matter and will return to this question in the light of a further report which the Security Council requests the Secretary-General to submit no later than 24 August 1995.”

B. The situation in Croatia

1. Consideration at the 3545th meeting (16 June 1995) and presidential statement

At the 3545th meeting, held on 16 June 1995 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“The situation in Croatia

“Report of the Secretary-General submitted pursuant to Security Council resolution 994 (1995) (S/1995/467)”

The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representative of Croatia, at his request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Council’s provisional rules of procedure.

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1995/30):

“The Security Council has considered the report of the Secretary-General of 9 June 1995 (S/1995/467) submitted pursuant to its resolution 994 (1995) of 17 May 1995. It is concerned at the situation described therein and at the continuing failure of the parties to cooperate satisfactorily with UNCRO and to comply fully with the demands of the Council. It condemns in particular the continuation of offensive actions and the intimidation of UNCRO personnel in violation of its resolution 994 (1995).

“The Security Council looks to the parties to cooperate fully and unconditionally with UNCRO in the performance of its mandate and to ensure the safety, security and freedom of movement of its personnel. The Council demands that they fulfil their commitment under the cease-fire agreement of 29 March 1994, in particular in respect of the withdrawal of all forces and heavy weapons from the zones of separation, and fully implement the 2 December 1994 agreement on economic confidence-building measures. It calls upon the parties, and in particular the Government of Croatia, to cease all military action in and around Sector South. It also calls upon all parties to respect fully the international border between the Republic of Croatia and the Republic of Bosnia and Herzegovina and to stop any action that extends the conflict across this border, since this is in violation of the Council’s resolutions. It reiterates its warning that, in the event of failure to comply with the demand in its resolution 994 (1995) that the parties refrain from taking any further military measures or actions that could lead to the escalation of the situation, it will consider further steps needed to ensure such compliance.

“The Security Council requests the Committee established pursuant to resolution 724 (1991) of 15 December 1991 to continue to investigate, in accordance with its mandate, reports of violations of resolution 713 (1991) of 25 September 1991.

“The Security Council welcomes the agreement of the Government of Croatia to a continued UNCRO presence in the area of Western Slavonia known as Sector West for the purposes of implementing its mandate, in particular in respect of human rights, to which it continues to attach great importance. It endorses the Secretary-General’s view as to the necessity for reconciliation and confidence-building in that Sector. It stresses the importance it attaches to full respect for the human rights of the Serb population there. It encourages the Secretary-General to continue his coordination with the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights as well as other international organizations and agencies in this regard.

“The Security Council notes the Secretary-General’s judgement that completion of the redeployment of United Nations peacekeeping personnel in the Republic of Croatia by 30 June 1995 envisaged in its resolution 982 (1995) of 31 March 1995 is no longer possible. It requests the Secretary-General to proceed as expeditiously as possible with this redeployment with the aim of fulfilling all the tasks under the mandate of UNCRO. It demands that the parties cooperate with the efforts of UNCRO to implement fully its mandate.

“The Security Council notes the fact that both parties have stated their desire that the peacekeeping mission should continue, and are seeking the assistance of UNCRO. It welcomes the Secretary-General’s intention to monitor closely their cooperation with UNCRO and their compliance with the cease-fire agreement of 29 March 1994, and requests him to keep the Council fully informed. Such cooperation and compliance are essential for the implementation of the mandate of UNCRO and for progress towards a negotiated settlement respecting fully the sovereignty and territorial integrity of the Republic of Croatia and which guarantees the security and rights of all communities.

“The Security Council could not countenance moves by the local Serb authorities in the Republic of Croatia and the Republic of Bosnia and Herzegovina to establish a union between them, since this would be inconsistent with the Council’s commitment to the sovereignty and territorial integrity of the Republic of Croatia and the Republic of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

“The Security Council stresses that there can be no military solution to the conflict and calls upon the parties to reaffirm their commitment to a peaceful resolution of their differences.

“The Security Council notes with distress the loss of life and casualties that have been suffered by UNCRO and extends its condolences to the families of the bereaved.

“The Security Council will remain seized of the matter.”

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1995/38):

“The Security Council is deeply concerned at the resumption of hostilities in and around the Republic of Croatia. The Council recalls the statement by its President of 3 August 1995. It strongly deplores the decision by the Croatian Government to launch a broad military offensive, thereby unacceptably escalating the conflict, with the risk of further consequent attacks by whatever party, and demands that all military action cease immediately and that there be full compliance with all Council resolutions including resolution 994 (1995).

“The Security Council condemns any shelling of civilian targets. It demands that no military action be taken against civilians and that their human rights be fully respected. The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representative of Croatia, at his request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Council’s provisional rules of procedure.

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1995/44):

“The Security Council has considered the report of the Secretary-General of 23 August 1995 (S/1995/730) submitted pursuant to its resolution 1009 (1995) of 10 August 1995 on Croatia and in particular the humanitarian situation and human rights violations described therein.

“The Security Council expresses its deep concern at the grave situation of refugees and persons displaced during the Croatian offensive and at reports of violations of international humanitarian law as described in the report of the Secretary-General of 23 August 1995 (S/1995/730). The Council shares the view of the Secretary-General that the mass exodus of the local Serb population has created a humanitarian crisis of significant proportions. The Council is also concerned by reports of human rights violations including the burning of houses, looting of property and killings and demands that the Government of Croatia immediately investigate all such reports and take appropriate measures to put an end to such acts.

“The Security Council reiterates its demand that the Government of the Republic of Croatia respect fully the rights of the local Serb population including their right to remain or return in safety.

“The Security Council welcomes efforts made by the Secretary-General in coordination with international humanitarian organizations in response to this acute humanitarian situation. It calls upon all Member States to provide urgent humanitarian relief and assistance to these refugees and displaced persons.

“The Security Council reiterates that all those who commit violations of international humanitarian law will be held individually responsible in respect of such acts. The Council reiterates in this context that all States shall cooperate fully with the International Tribunal established pursuant to its resolution 827 (1993) and its organs.

“The Security Council will remain actively seized of the matter.”

At the 3584th meeting, held on 3 October 1995 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“The situation in Croatia”

The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representatives of Bosnia and Herzegovina and Croatia, at their request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Council’s provisional rules of procedure.

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1995/49):

“The Security Council expresses its concern at the humanitarian situation in and around the Republic of Croatia, including the situation of refugees from the Republic of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

“The Security Council is particularly concerned at the withdrawal of refugee status from and the consequent ending of assistance to many refugees from the Republic of Bosnia and Herzegovina at present in the Republic of Croatia. The decisions of the Government of Croatia in this regard may lead to the involuntary return of tens of thousands of people to an area that is neither safe nor prepared to receive them. The Council stresses the importance of the principle of non-refoulement set out in the 1951 Geneva Convention on the Status of Refugees, to which Croatia is a party. The Council urges the Government of Croatia to continue to provide asylum to all refugees regardless of their origin.

“The Security Council is also seriously concerned at the situation of the refugees from the Republic of Croatia wishing to return, as well as of those ethnic Serbs who have chosen to remain in the Republic of Croatia. It reiterates its demands, contained, inter alia, in its resolution 1009 (1995), that the Government of Croatia respect fully the rights of the local Serb population including their right to remain or return in safety, investigate all reports of human rights violations and take appropriate measures to put an end to such acts. The Council calls upon the Government of Croatia to lift any time limits placed on the return of refugees to Croatia to reclaim their property. The Council also calls on the Government to cooperate with international humanitarian organizations in the creation of conditions conducive for the repatriation of refugees in safety and dignity.

“The Security Council will remain actively seized of the matter.”

17. Consideration at the 3615th meeting
(22 December 1995) and presidential statement

At the 3615th meeting, held on 22 December 1995 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“The situation in Croatia

“Report on the situation of human rights in Croatia pursuant to Security Council resolution 1019 (1995) (S/1995/1051)”

The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representative of Croatia, at his request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Council’s provisional rules of procedure.

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1995/63):

“The Security Council takes note of the report of the Secretary-General (S/1995/1051) of 21 December 1995, which it has just received.

“The Security Council, as a matter of urgency, expresses its grave concern that, according to information in that report, the Government of the Republic of Croatia has ignored the call of the Council in the statement by its President of 3 October 1995 (S/PRST/1995/49) that it lift any time limits placed on the return of refugees to reclaim their property. The requirement that owners must reclaim their property by 27 December 1995 constitutes a virtually insurmountable obstacle for most Serb refugees.

“The Security Council strongly demands that the Government of the Republic of Croatia lift immediately any time limits placed on the return of refugees to reclaim their property.

“The Security Council will continue its consideration of the report of the Secretary-General.”

18. Communications received between 22 December 1995 and 3 January 1996

19. Consideration at the 3617th meeting (8 January 1996) and presidential statement

At the 3617th meeting, held on 8 January 1996 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“The situation in Croatia

“Report on the situation of human rights in Croatia pursuant to Security Council resolution 1019 (1995) (S/1995/1051)”

The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representative of Croatia, at his request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Council’s provisional rules of procedure.

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1996/2):

“The Security Council has considered the report of the Secretary-General of 21 December 1995 (S/1995/1051) submitted pursuant to its resolution 1019 (1995) of 9 November 1995 on Croatia and in particular the humanitarian situation and human rights violations described therein.

“The Security Council strongly condemns the violations of international humanitarian law and human rights in the former sectors North and South in the Republic of Croatia, as described in the report of the Secretary-General, including killings of several hundreds of civilians, systematic and widespread looting and arson and other forms of destruction of property. The Council expresses its deep concern that there is a considerable discrepancy between the number of perpetrators that have so far been brought to justice and the number of reported violations of international humanitarian law and human rights. The Council urges the Government of the Republic of Croatia to make every effort to arrest all perpetrators and bring them promptly to trial.

“The Security Council is disturbed by the humanitarian and security situation of the mostly elderly Serb population that has remained in the former sectors in the Republic of Croatia. The Council is gravely concerned at the information contained in the report on continuing extensive harassment and intimidation, looting of property and other forms of abuse. It reaffirms once again its demand that the Government of the Republic of Croatia take urgent measures to stop all such acts immediately and calls on the Government of the Republic of Croatia to provide urgently needed food, medical assistance and proper shelter to the Serb population.

“The Security Council reaffirms that all those who commit violations of international humanitarian law will be held individually responsible in respect of such acts. It recalls with dismay the failure to date of the Government of the Republic of Croatia to transfer to the custody of the International Tribunal established pursuant to its resolution 827 (1993) persons indicted by the Tribunal and expresses its concern at the recent appointment of one of those indicted to a position in the Croatian army. The Council reiterates that all States must cooperate fully with the International Tribunal and its organs.

“The Security Council expresses its deep concern at the situation of the refugees from the Republic of Croatia who wish to return. The Council shares the Secretary-General’s view that the rights of the members of the Serb population who fled during the military operation to return to their homes in safety and dignity are being severely curtailed by the absence of constructive measures to facilitate their return. The Council reaffirms its demand that the Government of the Republic of Croatia respect fully the rights of the members of the local Serb population, including their right to remain, leave or return in safety, and demands that that Government create conditions conducive to the return of those persons and urgently establish procedures to facilitate the processing of requests by persons wishing to return. It also urges the Government of the Republic of Croatia to refrain from any measure that would adversely affect the exercise of the right to return.

“The Security Council reaffirms its call on the Republic of Croatia to lift any time limits placed on the return of refugees to reclaim their property. It notes the decision of the Government of the Republic of Croatia of 27 December 1995 to suspend the deadline set in the relevant Croatian law as a step in the right direction. The Council will follow closely whether the Republic of Croatia will lift any such time- limit in a definitive manner.

“The Security Council takes note with appreciation of the decision of the Government of the Republic of Croatia of 30 December 1995 to suspend criminal proceedings against and release 455 local Serbs detained on suspicion of armed rebellion. The Council calls on the Government of the Republic of Croatia to take appropriate measures to ensure that the right to a fair trial of those Serbs who remained and have been arrested and accused of war crimes or armed rebellion is safeguarded.

“The Security Council affirms that it is necessary to ensure that the rights of persons belonging to the Serb minority are adequately safeguarded in the legal and constitutional framework of the Republic of Croatia. It urges the Government of Croatia to rescind its decision to suspend several articles of the ‘Constitutional Law on Human Rights and Freedoms and the Rights of National and Ethnic Communities in the Republic of Croatia’ as described in the report of the Secretary-General. The Council stresses that strict respect for the rights of persons belonging to the Serb minority will also be of great importance to the implementation of the Basic Agreement of 12 November 1995 on the Region of Eastern Slavonia, Baranja and Western Sirmium (S/1995/951, annex).

“The Security Council requests the Secretary-General to keep the Council regularly informed on the progress of measures taken by the Government of the Republic of Croatia to implement resolution 1019 (1995) and the demands set out in the present statement, requests the Secretary-General to report to it no later than 15 February 1996 on this matter and expresses its intention to act as appropriate.

“The Security Council will remain seized of the matter.”

20. Communications received on 10 and 11 January 1996

Letter dated 10 January 1996 (S/1996/13) from the representative of Croatia addressed to the President of the Security Council.

Letter dated 11 January (S/1996/21) from the representative of Yugoslavia addressed to the President of the Security Council, and annex.

25. Consideration at the 3633rd meeting (23 February 1996) and presidential statement

At the 3633rd meeting, held on 23 February 1996 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“The situation in Croatia

“Further report on the situation of human rights in Croatia pursuant to Security Council resolution 1019 (1995) (S/1996/109)”

The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representative of Croatia, at his request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Council’s provisional rules of procedure.

The President of the Security Council stated that, following consultations of the Council, she had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1996/8):

“The Security Council has considered the further report of the Secretary-General of 14 February 1996 (S/1996/109) submitted pursuant to its resolution 1019 (1995) on Croatia.

“The Security Council recalls the statement by its President of 8 January 1996 (S/PRST/1996/2). The Council acknowledges that the incidence of human rights violations has been greatly reduced. However, it expresses concern that isolated incidents of killings and other violations of human rights have been reported. The Council also acknowledges the significant progress made by the Croatian Government in alleviating the humanitarian plight of the mostly elderly Serb population who remain in the former sectors in the Republic of Croatia. The Council looks to the Croatian Government to ensure the security and well-being of that population and to ensure the provision of basic humanitarian assistance, including access to medical facilities, pension allowances and property. The Council also looks to the Croatian Government to pursue vigorously prosecutions against those suspected of past violations of international humanitarian law and human rights against the local Serb minority.

“The Security Council calls upon the Croatian Government to give due consideration to granting amnesty to local Serbs remaining in detention on charges arising from their alleged participation in the conflict.

“The Security Council reiterates that all States must cooperate fully with the International Tribunal and its organs established pursuant to its resolution 827 (1993). It notes that Croatian legislation providing for full cooperation with the International Tribunal is reported to be imminent. The Council urges the Government of the Republic of Croatia to uphold its obligations with respect to the International Tribunal unreservedly and without delay.

“The Security Council remains deeply concerned at the situation of those refugees from the Republic of Croatia who wish to return. It condemns the fact that effective measures have not so far been taken in that respect. It calls upon the Croatian Government to ensure the expeditious processing of all requests from refugees. It underlines that the exercise by members of the local Serb population of their rights, including their right to remain, leave or return to their homes in safety and dignity, and reclaim possession of their property, cannot be made conditional upon an agreement on the normalization of relations between the Republic of Croatia and the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia. The Council demands that the Croatian Government take measures forthwith to ensure that those concerned may fully exercise these rights. The Council also calls upon the Croatian Government to rescind its earlier decision to suspend articles of the constitutional law affecting the rights of national minorities, and to proceed with the establishment of a provisional human rights court. It reminds the Croatian Government once again that the promotion of strict respect for the rights of persons belonging to the Serb minority is relevant to the successful implementation of the Basic Agreement of 12 November 1995 on the Region of Eastern Slavonia, Baranja and Western Sirmium (S/1995/951, annex).

“The Security Council welcomes and supports the Croatian Government’s agreement to the establishment by the Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe of a long-term mission with a view to monitoring respect for human rights throughout the Republic of Croatia. The Council pays tribute to the valuable work carried out by UNCRO and the European Community Monitoring Mission in this field over the past year.

“The Security Council requests the Secretary-General to keep the Council regularly informed and to report in any case no later than 20 June 1996, drawing inter alia on information available from other relevant United Nations bodies, including the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees, and the European Community Monitoring Mission, on the progress of measures undertaken by the Government of the Republic of Croatia in the light of this statement.

“The Security Council will remain seized of the matter.”

26. Communications received between 28 February and 20 May 1996 and report of the Secretary-General

Letter dated 28 February 1996 (S/1996/143) from the President of the Security Council addressed to the Secretary-General, stating that his letter dated 21 February 1996 (S/1996/142) had been brought to the attention of the members of the Council and that they agreed with the proposal contained therein.

Report of the Secretary-General dated 12 March (S/1996/180) submitted pursuant to Security Council resolution 1038 (1996), describing the situation in the Prevlaka peninsula as well as progress made by the Republic of Croatia and the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia towards a settlement and stating that the continued presence of the United Nations Mission of Observers in Prevlaka (UNMOP) would contribute to the decrease of tension in the area.

Letter dated 14 March (S/1996/189) from the representative of Yugoslavia addressed to the President of the Security Council, and annex.

Letter dated 14 March (S/1996/191) from the President of the Security Council addressed to the Secretary-General, stating that his report of 11 March 1996 (S/1996/180) had been considered by the members of the Security Council and noting that, in the light of the Secretary-General’s view that the continued presence of UNMOP would contribute to the decrease of tension, the mandate of UNMOP would continue in accordance with paragraph 1 of resolution 1038 (1996).

Letter dated 13 March (S/1996/194) from the representative of Croatia addressed to the Secretary-General, transmitting the text of a declaration dated 1 March 1996 adopted by the Croatian Parliament on the issue of missing and imprisoned persons.

Letter dated 19 March (S/1996/205) from the representative of Croatia addressed to the President of the Security Council.

Letter dated 20 May (S/1996/357) from the representative of Croatia addressed to the President of the Security Council.

Letter dated 20 May (S/1996/363) from the Secretary-General addressed to the President of the Security Council, stating that the Transitional Administrator had informed him of his assessment that the military component of UNTAES had been deployed and was ready to undertake its mission of demilitarization of the region of Eastern Slavonia, Baranja and Western Sirmium.

27. Consideration at the 3666th meeting (22 May 1996) and presidential statement

At the 3666th meeting, held on 22 May 1996 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“The situation in Croatia

“Letter dated 20 May 1996 from the Secretary-General addressed to the President of the Security Council (S/1996/363)”

The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representative of Croatia, at his request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Council’s provisional rules of procedure.

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1996/26):

“The Security Council has considered the letter of the Secretary-General to its President of 20 May 1996 (S/1996/363) in which he informed the Council of the assessment of the Transitional Administrator that the military component of the United Nations Transitional Administration for Eastern Slavonia, Baranja and Western Sirmium had been deployed and was ready to undertake its mission of demilitarization of the region. That mission of demilitarization began on 21 May 1996.

“The Security Council calls upon the parties to comply strictly with their obligations under the Basic Agreement of 12 November 1995 on the Region of Eastern Slavonia, Baranja and Western Sirmium (S/1995/951, annex) and to cooperate fully with the Transitional Administration. It stresses that they must refrain from any unilateral action which could hinder the implementation of the Basic Agreement, including the process of demilitarization.

“The Security Council reminds the parties that the successful implementation of the Basic Agreement requires the respect by them of the highest level of internationally recognized human rights and fundamental freedoms. It calls upon the parties to continue to cooperate with the Transitional Administration in adopting confidence-building measures to promote an environment of mutual trust.

“The Security Council calls upon the Government of the Republic of Croatia to grant amnesty to all persons who, either voluntarily or by coercion, served in the civil administration, military or police forces of the local Serb authorities in the former United Nations Protected Areas with the exception of those who committed war crimes as defined in international law. It notes that the law on amnesty recently passed in the Republic of Croatia is a step in this direction. The Council calls upon the Government of the Republic of Croatia to make this amnesty comprehensive as soon as possible and stresses the importance such a measure would have for maintaining public confidence and stability during the demilitarization and demobilization process.

“The Security Council underlines the key importance of attention to the need for economic reconstruction and rehabilitation of the region of Eastern Slavonia, Baranja and Western Sirmium and encourages Member States to contribute to this end.

“The Security Council will remain seized of the matter and requests the Secretary-General to keep it regularly informed of developments in the situation.”

“The Security Council reiterates its condemnation of interference with humanitarian supplies and the freedom of movement of the United Nations Protection Force by all parties within the territory of the Republic of Bosnia and Herzegovina. In this context it is deeply concerned by the blockading by Bosnian government forces of the United Nations Protection Force personnel in the Visoko, Gorazde, Gornj Vakuf and Kladanj areas, which included on 20 June 1995 placing mines outside the camp of the United Nations Protection Force in Visoko. The Council is also deeply concerned at the deterioration in the situation in and around Sarajevo, the obstruction by the Bosnian Serb party of freedom of movement and utilities to the city and the continued obstruction of the normal operation of Sarajevo airport.

“The Security Council stresses that all such actions are unacceptable and demands that all parties fully respect the safety and security of the United Nations Protection Force personnel and ensure their complete freedom of movement to enable the United Nations Protection Force to carry out its mandate in accordance with the Council’s resolutions.

“The Security Council calls upon the parties to enter into negotiations as provided for in its resolution 998 (1995) of 16 June 1995 and to agree without further delay to a ceasefire and a complete cessation of hostilities in the Republic of Bosnia and Herzegovina. At the 3554th meeting, held on 14 July 1995 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“The situation in the Republic of Bosnia and Herzegovina”

The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representative of Bosnia and Herzegovina, at his request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Council’s provisional rules of procedure.

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1995/32):

“The Security Council recalls its resolution 1004 (1995). The Council is deeply concerned about the ongoing forced relocation of tens of thousands of civilians from the Srebrenica safe area to the Tuzla region by the Bosnian Serb party. Such a forced relocation is a clear violation of the human rights of the civilian population. It is especially concerned about reports of grave mistreatment and killing of innocent civilians. It is equally concerned about reports that up to four thousand men and boys have been forcibly removed by the Bosnian Serb party from the Srebrenica safe area. It demands that, in conformity with internationally recognized standards of conduct and international law, the Bosnian Serb party release them immediately, respect fully the rights of the civilian population of the Srebrenica safe area and other persons protected under international humanitarian law and permit access by the International Committee of the Red Cross.

“The Security Council again condemns the unacceptable practice of ‘ethnic cleansing’ and reaffirms that those who have committed or have ordered the commission of such acts will be held individually responsible in respect of such acts.

“The Security Council demands that the Bosnian Serb party immediately allow unimpeded access to the civilian population of the Srebrenica safe area by international humanitarian organizations and cooperate with any procedure established by those organizations to determine which civilians wish to depart the area of Srebrenica. It further demands that the Bosnian Serb party respect fully the rights of those civilians who wish to remain in the safe area and cooperate with efforts to ensure that civilians who wish to depart are allowed to do so with their families in an orderly, safe way in conformity with international law.

“The Security Council demands that both sides allow the unhindered movement of humanitarian relief and cooperate with efforts by international organizations and agencies and concerned Governments to provide food, medicine, facilities and housing to the displaced.

“The Security Council reiterates its demand that the Bosnian Serb forces immediately and unconditionally release unharmed all detained personnel of the United Nations Protection Force and that the parties respect fully the safety of all United Nations Protection Force personnel and ensure their complete freedom of movement.

“The Security Council pays tribute to all the personnel of the United Nations Protection Force, and of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees, especially those deployed in the area of Srebrenica. It notes that the presence and bravery of the troops has undoubtedly saved the lives of many civilians in the Srebrenica area.”

At the 3587th meeting, held on 12 October 1995 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“The situation in the Republic of Bosnia and Herzegovina”

The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representative of Bosnia and Herzegovina, at his request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Council’s provisional rules of procedure.

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1995/52):

“The Security Council welcomes the entry into force of the ceasefire agreement between the Bosnian parties of 5 October 1995.

“The Security Council takes this opportunity to express its gratitude to all those who negotiated the ceasefire agreement, and to the United Nations Protection Force and others who, often at risk to their own lives, have made possible, with the cooperation of all the parties, the restoration of gas and electricity supplies to the inhabitants of Sarajevo enabling them to live in more decent conditions.

“The Security Council demands that all parties fully comply with the provisions of the ceasefire agreement and refrain from any military activity that could jeopardize the peace process. It expresses its deepest concern at any operation that provokes large-scale movements of population detrimental to the peace process and a final and fair settlement. The Council is particularly concerned about new reports related to the movements of the displaced population in the areas of Sanski Most and Mrkonjic Grad.

“The Security Council reiterates its strong condemnation of all practices of ethnic cleansing wherever they occur and by whomsoever committed. It demands their immediate cessation and underlines the need to alleviate the sufferings caused by these acts. The Council urges all Bosnian parties to respect fully the rights of all communities including their right to remain where they are or to return to their homes in safety.

“The Security Council is in particular deeply concerned about new reports concerning acts of ethnic cleansing committed in the Banja Luka and Prijedor areas, especially about reports, including those by international humanitarian organizations, that non-Serb men and boys of draft age are being taken away by Bosnian Serb and other paramilitary forces. The Council demands that these persons be immediately released.

“The Security Council demands that the Bosnian Serb party grant immediate and unimpeded access for United Nations personnel and the representatives of the International Committee of the Red Cross to all the areas of concern. It also demands that representatives of the International Committee of the Red Cross be allowed to visit and register any persons detained against their will. The Council reiterates in this context the demands set out in resolution 1010 (1995) and in the statement of its President of 7 September 1995 on Srebrenica and Zepa.

“The Security Council reaffirms that those who have committed or have ordered the commission of violations of international humanitarian law will be held individually responsible for them. The Council recalls in this context the establishment of the International Tribunal pursuant to its resolution 827 (1993) and reiterates that all States shall cooperate fully with the Tribunal and its organs.

“The Security Council will remain actively seized of the matter.”

Resolution 1034 (1995) reads as follows:

“The Security Council,

“Reaffirming all its earlier relevant resolutions on the situation in Bosnia and Herzegovina, including its resolution 1019 (1995) of 9 November 1995, and condemning the failure of the Bosnian Serb party, despite repeated calls that it should do so, to comply with the demands contained therein, “Having considered the report of the Secretary-General pursuant to resolution 1019 (1995) on violations of international humanitarian law in the areas of Srebrenica, Zepa, Banja Luka and Sanski Most of 27 November 1995 (S/1995/988), “Gravely concerned at the information contained in the above-mentioned report that there is overwhelming evidence of a consistent pattern of summary executions, rape, mass expulsion, arbitrary detentions, forced labour and large-scale disappearances, “Reiterating its strong support for the work of the International Tribunal established pursuant to its resolution 827 (1993) of 25 May 1993, “Noting that the General Framework Agreement for Peace in Bosnia and Herzegovina and the annexes thereto (collectively the Peace Agreement) (S/1995/999, annex) initialled at Dayton, Ohio, on 21 November 1995 provides that no person who is serving a sentence imposed by the International Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia, and no person who is under indictment by the Tribunal and who has failed to comply with an order to appear before the Tribunal may stand as a candidate or hold any appointive, elective or other public office in Bosnia and Herzegovina, “Condemning the failure of the Bosnian Serb party to comply with its commitments in respect of giving access to displaced persons and to persons detained or reported missing, “Reiterating its concern expressed in the statement by its President of 7 December 1995 (S/PRST/1995/60), “Deeply concerned by the plight of hundreds of thousands of refugees and displaced persons as a result of hostilities in the former Yugoslavia,

“1. Strongly condemns all violations of international humanitarian law and of human rights in the territory of the former Yugoslavia, demands that all concerned comply fully with their obligations in this regard, and reiterates that all those who commit violations of international humanitarian law will be held individually responsible in respect of such acts;

“2. Condemns in particular in the strongest possible terms the violations of international humanitarian law and of human rights by Bosnian Serb and paramilitary forces in the areas of Srebrenica, Zepa, Banja Luka and Sanski Most as described in the report of the Secretary-General of 27 November 1995 and showing a consistent pattern of summary executions, rape, mass expulsions, arbitrary detentions, forced labour and large-scale disappearances;

“3. Notes with the utmost concern the substantial evidence referred to in the report of the Secretary-General of 27 November 1995 that an unknown but large number of men in the area of Srebrenica, namely in Nova Kasaba-Konjevic Polje (Kaldrumica), Kravice, Rasica Gai, Zabrde and two sites in Karakaj, and possibly also in Bratunac and Potocari, have been summarily executed by Bosnian Serb and paramilitary forces, and condemns in the strongest terms the commission of such acts;

“4. Reiterates its strong support for the efforts of the International Committee of the Red Cross in seeking access to displaced persons and to persons detained or reported missing and calls on all parties to comply with their commitments in respect of such access;

“5. Reaffirms its demand that the Bosnian Serb party give immediate and unimpeded access to representatives of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees, the International Committee of the Red Cross and other international agencies to persons displaced and to persons detained or reported missing from Srebrenica, Zepa and the regions of Banja Luka and Sanski Most who are within the areas of Bosnia and Herzegovina under the control of Bosnian Serb forces and that the Bosnian

Serb party permit representatives of the International Committee of the Red Cross (i) to visit and register any persons detained against their will, whether civilians or members of the forces of Bosnia and Herzegovina, and (ii) to have access to any site it may deem important;

“6. Affirms that the violations of humanitarian law and human rights in the areas of Srebrenica, Zepa, Banja Luka and Sanski Most from July to October 1995 must be fully and properly investigated by the relevant United Nations and other international organizations and institutions;

“7. Takes note that the International Tribunal established pursuant to resolution 827 (1993) of 25 May 1993 issued on 16 November 1995 indictments against the Bosnian Serb leaders Radovan Karadzic and Ratko Mladic for their direct and individual responsibilities for the atrocities committed against the Bosnian Muslim population of Srebrenica in July 1995;

“8. Reaffirms its demand that the Bosnian Serb party give immediate and unrestricted access to the areas in question, including for the purpose of the investigation of the atrocities, to representatives of the relevant United Nations and other international organizations and institutions, including the Special Rapporteur of the Commission on Human Rights;

“9. Underlines in particular the urgent necessity for all the parties to enable the Prosecutor of the International Tribunal to gather effectively and swiftly the evidence necessary for the Tribunal to perform its task;

“10. Stresses the obligations of all the parties to cooperate with and provide unrestricted access to the relevant United Nations and other international organizations and institutions so as to facilitate their investigations, and takes note of their commitment under the Peace Agreement in this regard;

“11. Reiterates its demand that all parties, and in particular the Bosnian Serb party, refrain from any action intended to destroy, alter, conceal or damage any evidence of violations of international humanitarian law and that they preserve such evidence;

“12. Reiterates further its demand that all States, in particular those in the region of the former Yugoslavia, and all parties to the conflict in the former Yugoslavia, comply fully and in good faith with the obligations contained in paragraph 4 of resolution 827 (1993) to cooperate fully with the International Tribunal, and calls upon them to create the conditions essential for the Tribunal to perform the task for which it has been created, including the establishment of offices of the Tribunal when the latter deems it necessary;

“13. Reiterates its demand that all detention camps throughout the territory of Bosnia and Herzegovina should be immediately closed;

“14. Urges the parties to ensure full respect for the norms of international humanitarian law and of human rights of the civilian population, living in the areas in Bosnia and Herzegovina now under their control, which under the Peace Agreement will be transferred to another party;

“15. Condemns the widespread looting and destruction of houses and other property, in particular by HVO forces in the area of Mrkonjic Grad and Sipovo, and demands that all sides immediately stop such action, investigate them and make sure that those who violated the law be held individually responsible in respect of such acts;

“16. Demands that all sides refrain from laying mines, in particular in those areas now under their control, which under the Peace Agreement will be transferred to another party;

“17. Urges Member States to continue to assist the efforts of the United Nations, humanitarian agencies and non-governmental organizations under way in the former Yugoslavia to alleviate the plight of hundreds of thousands of refugees and displaced persons;

“18. Also urges all the parties to the conflicts in the territory of the former Yugoslavia to fully cooperate with these efforts with the view to creating conditions conducive to the repatriation and return of refugees and displaced persons in safety and dignity;

“19. Requests the Secretary-General to keep the Council regularly informed on progress reached in the investigation of the violations of international humanitarian law referred to in the report mentioned above;

“20. Decides to remain actively seized of the matter.”

35. Consideration at the 3647th meeting (4 April 1996) and presidential statement

At the 3647th meeting, held on 4 April 1996 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“The situation in Bosnia and Herzegovina

“Report of the Secretary-General pursuant to resolution 1035 (1995) (S/1996/210)

“Letter dated 13 March 1996 from the Secretary-General addressed to the President of the Security Council (S/1996/190)”

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1996/15):

“The Security Council has considered the report of the Secretary-General of 29 March 1996 (S/1996/210*) submitted pursuant to its resolution 1035 (1995) of 21 December 1995, and the report of the High Representative for the Implementation of the Peace Agreement on Bosnia and Herzegovina, annexed to the letter from the Secretary-General to the President of the Security Council of 13 March 1996 (S/1996/190). The Council welcomes both reports.

“The Security Council notes that, on the whole, the implementation of the General Framework Agreement for Peace in Bosnia and Herzegovina and Annexes thereto (collectively the Peace Agreement, S/1995/999, annex) is proceeding according to the timetable established by this Agreement. It also notes, in general, satisfactory compliance with the military aspects of the Peace Agreement as confirmed in the most recent report to the Council on IFOR operations (S/1996/215, annex and appendix) and stresses that now the main emphasis in implementation efforts by the international community and the Bosnian parties themselves should shift to the civil aspects of the Agreement.

“The Security Council stresses that the responsibility for implementing the Peace Agreement rests primarily with the parties to that Agreement. It demands that they fully implement the Peace Agreement, and demonstrate a genuine commitment to confidence and security-building measures, regional arms control, reconciliation and the building of a common future. In that context, it demands that the parties comply fully, unconditionally and without any further delay with their commitments regarding the release of prisoners, implementation of the constitutional framework, withdrawal of foreign forces, ensuring freedom of movement, cooperation with the International Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia, return of refugees, and respect for human rights and international humanitarian law. It calls upon the authorities concerned with the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina to move forward vigorously on measures to strengthen that Federation and, to that end, to implement in full the Sarajevo Agreement concluded on 30 March 1996 (S/1996/244).

“The Security Council is particularly concerned at the failure to date by all parties to comply fully with the provisions of the Peace Agreement concerning the release of prisoners, in spite of the repeated commitments by the parties to do so. The Council stresses that the obligation to release the prisoners is unconditional. Failure to do so constitutes a serious case of non-compliance. In this context the Council affirms its support for the conclusions of the Contact Group Ministerial Meeting of 23 March 1996 (S/1996/220) and notes the readiness of the High Representative to propose measures to be taken against any party that fails to comply.

“The Security Council expresses its full support for the High Representative who is in charge of monitoring the implementation of the Peace Agreement and mobilizing and, as appropriate, giving guidance to, and coordinating the activities of, the civilian organizations and agencies involved, in accordance with resolution 1031 (1995). It also expresses its full support for the United Nations Mission in Bosnia and Herzegovina, and other international institutions and organizations involved in the implementation of the Peace Agreement. It affirms that the implementation of the Peace Agreement must be strict, just, and impartial.

“The Security Council expresses its strong support for the International Police Task Force in Bosnia and Herzegovina of the United Nations Mission in Bosnia and Herzegovina. It notes that an effective United Nations civilian police operation is vital to the implementation of the Peace Agreement and encourages the International Police Task Force to implement its mandate as actively as possible consistent with annex 11 of the Peace Agreement as referred to in resolution 1035 (1995). The Council, bearing in mind the agreement of the parties in annex 11 of the Peace Agreement not to impede the movement of the International Police Task Force personnel or in any way hinder, obstruct or delay International Police Task Force personnel in the performance of their responsibilities, calls upon the parties to allow International Police Task Force personnel immediate and complete access to any site, person, activity, proceeding, record, or other item or event in Bosnia and Herzegovina as the International Police Task Force may request. It notes with appreciation the participation of Member States in the staffing of the International Police Task Force and urges those Member States which have agreed to provide civilian police to dispatch expeditiously fully qualified personnel to enable the International Police Task Force to reach full deployment by mid-April. It encourages the International Police Task Force to accelerate the deployment of police monitors, consistent with maintaining their high quality. The Council also expresses its strong support for the Mine Action Centre of the United Nations Mission in Bosnia and Herzegovina and encourages States to contribute to the United Nations Voluntary Trust Fund for Assistance in Mine Clearance.

“The Security Council recognizes that economic reconstruction and rehabilitation throughout the territory of Bosnia and Herzegovina are key factors for the overall success of the peace implementation process, reconciliation and reintegration. These tasks require the political will of and consistent efforts by the Bosnian parties as well as substantial international assistance. The Council urges that priority be given to projects aimed at facilitating the process of reconciliation and the economic reintegration of the whole country. It notes with appreciation the resources that have already been made available in this respect. It calls upon States and international institutions to honour fully their commitments regarding economic and financial assistance to Bosnia and Herzegovina.

The Council recalls the relationship, as described in the London Conference, between the fulfilment by the parties of their commitments in the Peace Agreement and the readiness of the international community to commit financial resources for reconstruction and development. It affirms that it is the parties themselves that have the most important role in re-establishing the economy of their country.

“The Security Council expresses its deep concern over recent developments in the Sarajevo area which caused thousands of Bosnian Serb civilians to leave their homes. The Council calls on the parties to make greater efforts towards reconciliation and the reconstitution of a multicultural and multi-ethnic Sarajevo, as a city of Bosniacs, Serbs, Croats, and others, and as the capital and seat of the future common institutions of Bosnia and Herzegovina. It further calls on the parties to put in place additional measures to ensure security, freedom of movement and conditions for the return of people affected in Sarajevo and all other transferred areas. The Council calls on the parties to reverse the trend of population movements and partition efforts in Bosnia and Herzegovina along ethnic lines.

“The Security Council pays tribute to all those who have given their lives in the cause of peace in the former Yugoslavia and expresses its condolences to their families, including to the family of the Secretary of Commerce of the United States of America.

“The Security Council requests the Secretary-General and the High Representative to continue to keep the Council regularly informed on the situation in Bosnia and Herzegovina and on the implementation of the Peace Agreement.”

“6. Further decides that the suspension or termination of obligations pursuant to this resolution is without prejudice to claims of successor States to the former Socialist Federal Republic of Yugoslavia with respect to funds and assets, stresses the need for the successor States to reach agreement on the distribution of funds and assets and the allocation of liabilities of the former Socialist Federal Republic of Yugoslavia, encourages all States to make provision under their national law for addressing competing claims of States, as well as claims of private parties affecting funds and assets, and further encourages States to take appropriate measures to facilitate the expeditious collection of any funds and assets by the appropriate parties and the resolution of claims related thereto;

“7. Further decides that all States shall continue to take the necessary measures to ensure that there shall be no claim in connection with the performance of any contract or other transaction where such performance was affected by the measures imposed by the resolutions referred to in paragraph 1 above and related resolutions;

I. Consideration at the 3646th meeting (29 March 1996) and presidential statement

At the 3646th meeting, held on 29 March 1996 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“The situation in Tajikistan and along the Tajik-Afghan border

“Report of the Secretary-General on the situation in Tajikistan (S/1996/212)”

The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representative of Tajikistan, at his request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Council’s provisional rules of procedure.

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1996/14):

“The Security Council has considered the report of the Secretary-General on the situation in Tajikistan of 22 March 1996 (S/1996/212).

“The Security Council regrets that insufficient progress has been achieved during the continual round of the inter-Tajik talks in Ashgabat towards the solution of fundamental political and institutional issues. It calls upon the Tajik parties to accelerate substantially their efforts to reach agreement on the basis of the Protocol on the fundamental principles for establishing peace and national accord in Tajikistan of 17 August 1995 (S/1995/720, annex). It urges them to negotiate constructively and in good faith and to search for solutions on the basis of mutual concessions and compromises.

“The Security Council is deeply concerned about the violations of the Tehran cease-fire agreement of 17 September 1994 (S/1994/1102, annex I), and in particular about the ongoing fighting in the Tavildara region. It appeals to the Tajik parties to comply strictly with all their obligations undertaken under this agreement. It reminds them that the mandate of the United Nations Mission of Observers in Tajikistan is subject to the proviso that the Tehran cease-fire agreement remains in force and the parties continue to be committed to an effective cease-fire, to national reconciliation and to the promotion of democracy. The Council notes with concern that the ongoing military operations and other violations of the cease-fire create doubt regarding the parties’ commitment to an effective cease-fire.

“The Security Council acknowledges the extension of the cease-fire by the parties for a further three months until 26 May 1996. It is concerned, however, that the cease-fire has only been extended for this short period. The Council fully supports the appeal by the Secretary-General to the Tajik opposition contained in his report (S/1996/212) to agree to the extension of the cease-fire agreement for the duration of the inter-Tajik talks.

“The Security Council reiterates the importance of direct political dialogue between the President of the Republic of Tajikistan and the leader of the Islamic Revival Movement of Tajikistan for the peace process and encourages them to hold the next meeting as soon as possible.

“The Security Council welcomes the position of the Majlisi Oli (Parliament) of Tajikistan which at its special session on 11-12 March 1996 expressed its strong support for the efforts to achieve national reconciliation and for the search for compromise at the Inter-Tajik talks held under the auspices of the United Nations. It regrets that the leaders of the Islamic Revival Movement of Tajikistan declined to participate in the special session of the Majlisi Oli.

“The Security Council expresses its deep concern over the kidnapping on 24 February 1996 of the opposition co-chair of the Joint Commission and calls on the Tajik Government to intensify its investigation into this incident. The Council joins the Secretary-General in calling on the Government to provide the necessary security guarantees to allow the Joint Commission to function safely and effectively.

“The Security Council expresses its hope that the Agreement on social accord in Tajikistan signed on 9 March 1996 in Dushanbe by the leaders of Tajikistan and of political parties, social movements and ethnic communities (S/1996/187, annex) will contribute to national reconciliation.

“The Security Council expresses its serious concern at the deterioration of the humanitarian situation in Tajikistan. It calls upon Member States and others concerned to respond promptly in support of the humanitarian relief efforts of the United Nations and other international organizations.

“The Security Council welcomes the positive role played by the Mission under difficult circumstances. The Council expresses deep concern over recent incidents in which Mission personnel were harassed and threatened and reiterates its call to the parties to cooperate fully with the Mission and to ensure the safety and freedom of movement of the personnel of the United Nations and other international organizations.

“The Security Council is concerned about delays in the establishment of a liaison post of the Mission at Taloqan (northern Afghanistan) and encourages the relevant Afghan authorities to facilitate its opening.

“The Security Council welcomes the creation of the office of an independent ombudsman for human rights in Tajikistan with the help of the Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe and expresses the hope that his activities will contribute to a lessening of tensions.

“The Security Council commends the tireless efforts of the Secretary-General’s former Special Envoy in Tajikistan Mr. Piriz-Ballon. It understands that his successor will be appointed promptly and expresses the hope that the new Special Envoy will begin without delay the preparation of the next phase of the continual round of the Inter-Tajik talks which should be convened as soon as possible.”

At the 3665th meeting, held on 21 May 1996 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“The situation in Tajikistan and along the Tajik-Afghan border

“Letter dated 16 May 1996 from the Permanent Representative of Tajikistan to the United Nations addressed to the President of the Security Council (S/1996/354)”

The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representative of Tajikistan, at his request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Council’s provisional rules of procedure.

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1996/25):

“The Security Council condemns the recent violations of the Tehran cease-fire agreement of 17 September 1994 (S/1994/1102, annex I), in particular the planned and organized offensive by the armed Tajik opposition in the Tavildara region. It strongly deplores the loss of life of civilians and of members of the Commonwealth of Independent States Collective Peace-keeping Forces as a result of acts of violence. It affirms that such acts are totally unacceptable.

“The Security Council expresses its grave concern that all such actions further aggravate the already serious humanitarian situation in Tajikistan. It demands the immediate cessation of the offensive actions and acts of violence.

“The Security Council reaffirms its commitment to the sovereignty and territorial integrity of the Republic of Tajikistan and to the inviolability of its borders.

“The Security Council emphasizes its support for the extension of the cease-fire agreement for the whole duration of the inter-Tajik talks, and notes that the Islamic Revival Movement of Tajikistan has agreed to extend the cease-fire, albeit only for a further three months. It calls upon the parties to demonstrate their commitment to peace by strict compliance with the cease-fire and other obligations which they have assumed, as well as with the relevant resolutions of the Security Council. It also reminds the parties that the mandate of the United Nations Mission of Observers in Tajikistan is subject to the proviso that the cease-fire agreement remains in force and that the parties continue to be committed to an effective cease-fire, to national reconciliation and to the promotion of democracy.

“The Security Council commends the personnel of the Mission for their contribution under difficult circumstances. It expresses its concern at the restrictions placed upon the Mission by the parties and calls upon them, in particular the Government of Tajikistan, to ensure the safety and freedom of movement of the personnel of the United Nations and other international organizations.

“The Security Council calls upon both parties to resolve their differences over the functioning of the Joint Commission, including the issue of security guarantees for Commission members, and to recommence the operations of the Commission as soon as possible.

“The Security Council is concerned that the worsening humanitarian situation makes it all the more urgent to obtain the required resources and calls upon Member States and others concerned to respond promptly in support of the humanitarian relief efforts of the United Nations and other international organizations.

“The Security Council invites the Secretary-General and his Special Representative to continue their efforts aimed at the earliest possible resumption of the inter-Tajik talks and calls upon the countries and regional organizations acting as observers at those talks to render all possible support to those efforts.”

“Eleventh progress report of the Secretary-General on the United Nations Observer Mission in Liberia (S/1995/473)”

The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representative of Liberia, at his request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Council’s provisional rules of procedure.

The Council commenced the voting procedure.

Before the vote, statements were made by the representatives of Nigeria, Indonesia, Botswana, China, Honduras and Rwanda.

Decision: At the 3549th meeting, on 30 June 1995, draft resolution S/1995/521 was adopted unanimously as resolution 1001 (1995).

Resolution 1001 (1995) reads as follows:

“The Security Council,

“Recalling its resolutions 788 (1992) of 19 November 1992, 813 (1993) of 26 March 1993, 856 (1993) of 10 August 1993, 866 (1993) of 22 September 1993, 911 (1994) of 21 April 1994, 950 (1994) of 21 October 1994, 972 (1995) of 13 January 1995 and 985 (1995) of 13 April 1995, “Welcoming the recent summit meeting of heads of State and Government of the Committee of Nine on Liberia of the Economic Community of West African States, in Abuja, Nigeria, from 17 to 20 May 1995, “Noting that a further concerted and harmonized effort by all concerned, including the States members of the Economic Community of West African States, would be helpful to advance the peace process, “Concerned that the Liberian parties have so far failed to install the Council of State, re-establish an effective ceasefire and take concrete steps towards the implementation of the other provisions of the Accra Agreement,

“Deeply concerned also at the continuing inter- and intra-factional fighting in parts of Liberia, which has further worsened the plight of the civilian population, particularly in rural areas, as well as affected the ability of humanitarian agencies to provide relief,

“4. Urges that the Liberian parties use this period to make serious and substantial progress towards the implementation of the Akosombo Agreement (S/1994/1174) and the Accra Agreement (S/1995/7) and specifically to accomplish the following steps:

“5. Declares its intention, after consideration of the report of the Secretary-General, not to renew the mandate of the Mission on 15 September 1995, unless the steps in paragraph 4 above are complied with by that date;

“6. Declares its readiness, if significant progress in the peace process in Liberia regarding the steps in paragraph 4 above is achieved by 15 September 1995, to consider restoring the Mission to its full strength with appropriate adjustment of its mandate and the relationship with the Economic Community of West African States Monitoring Group to enable these two operations to carry out their respective functions more effectively, as well as to consider other aspects of post-conflict peace-building in Liberia;

“7. Urges the Ministers of the Committee of Nine of the Economic Community of West African States as authorized by their heads of State and Government at the Abuja Summit of 17 to 20 May 1995, to reconvene a meeting of the Liberian parties and political leaders as soon as possible in order to finally resolve the outstanding issues of political settlement;

“8. Urges Member States in the meantime to provide additional support for the peace process in Liberia by contributing to the United Nations Trust Fund for Liberia and by providing financial, logistical and other assistance in support of the troops participating in the Economic Community of West African States Monitoring Group in order to enable it to deploy fully and to carry out its mandate, particularly with respect to encampment and disarmament of the Liberian factions;

“9. Requests the Secretary-General, in this regard, to continue his efforts to obtain financial and logistical resources from Member States, and urges those States which have pledged assistance to fulfil their commitments;

“10. Reminds all States of their obligations to comply strictly with the embargo on all deliveries of weapons and military equipment to Liberia imposed by resolution 788 (1992) and to bring all instances of violations of the arms embargo before the Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 985 (1995);

“11. Reaffirms the continued necessity for the Economic Community of West African States Monitoring Group and the Mission to cooperate in fulfilling their respective mandates and, to this end, urges the Economic Community of West African States Monitoring Group to enhance its cooperation with the Mission at all levels to enable the Mission to discharge its mandate;

The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representative of Liberia, at his request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Council’s provisional rules of procedure.

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1996/16):

“The Security Council expresses its grave concern at the outbreak of fighting in Monrovia and the rapidly deteriorating situation throughout Liberia. This new outbreak of factional fighting, the harassment and abuse of the civilian population and humanitarian and relief workers, threatens the peace process and raises serious doubts about the commitment of the factions to its implementation.

“The Council reminds all parties of their responsibility fully to respect international humanitarian law with regard to the civilian population and to ensure the safety of United Nations and other international personnel, and calls upon them to take immediate steps to this end. The Council calls on all parties to fulfil their obligation to respect the inviolability of diplomatic personnel and property.

“The Council expresses its deep concern at the failure of the Council of State and the faction leaders to demonstrate the political will and determination required for implementation of the Abuja Agreement. Unless Liberia’s political leaders immediately show by concrete positive actions a reaffirmation of their commitment to the Abuja Agreement and fully honour their obligation to re-establish and maintain the ceasefire, they risk losing the support of the international community. The Council underscores the personal responsibility of Liberia’s leaders in this regard.

“The Council reaffirms its support for the Abuja Agreement as the only existing framework for resolving Liberia’s political crisis and the crucial role of the Economic Community of West African States in bringing the conflict to an end.

“The Council calls on the Liberian National Transitional Government and the Liberian parties to work with the Economic Community of West African States Monitoring Group immediately to disengage all forces, re-establish peace and law and order in Monrovia and an effective and comprehensive ceasefire throughout the country. The Council calls on the parties, in particular ULIMO-J, to release all hostages without harm. It further calls upon the parties to return all captured weapons and equipment to the Economic Community of West African States Monitoring Group.

“The Council reminds all States of their obligation to comply strictly with the embargo on all deliveries of weapons and military equipment to Liberia imposed by resolution 788 (1992) and to bring all instances of violations of the arms embargo before the Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 985 (1995).

“The Council declares its intention, based on the progress made by the Liberian parties in implementing the steps set out above, and after consideration of the report of the Secretary-General on developments in Liberia, to determine what further measures may be appropriate regarding the future United Nations presence in Liberia.”

“The situation in Liberia”

The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representative of Liberia, at his request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Council’s provisional rules of procedure.

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1996/22):

“The Security Council expresses once again its grave concern at the deteriorating situation in Liberia. The Council strongly deplores the wanton killing and atrocities committed against innocent civilians by the forces of the warring factions. The escalating violence among the factions in violation of the Abuja Agreement puts the peace process at grave risk.

“The Council calls upon the parties immediately to cease fighting, to observe the ceasefire and to return Monrovia to a safe haven under the protection of the Economic Community of West African States Monitoring Group. It expresses its support for the efforts of the Economic Community of West African States, including the role of the Economic Community of West African States Monitoring Group, to bring this conflict to an end.

The Council reminds all States of their obligation to comply with the embargo on all deliveries of weapons and military equipment to Liberia imposed by resolution 788 (1992).

“The Council stresses the importance it attaches to the Economic Community of West African States summit meeting to be held in Accra on 8 May 1996, and urges the leaders of the Liberian factions to reaffirm by concrete positive actions their commitment to the Abuja Agreement.”

Resolution 1056 (1996) reads as follows:

“The Security Council,

“Reaffirming all its previous resolutions on the question of Western Sahara, “Having considered the report of the Secretary-General of 8 May 1996 (S/1996/343), “Noting the views expressed by the Government of Morocco as set out in the report of the Secretary-General and in the memorandum attached to the letter addressed to the Secretary-General dated 10 May 1996 (S/1996/345),

“6. Supports the proposal of the Secretary-General, in the context of the settlement plan, to maintain a political office to continue the dialogue with the parties and the two neighbouring countries and to facilitate any other effort that could help set the parties on a course towards an agreed formula for the resolution of their differences, and encourages the Secretary-General to consider ways of strengthening the role of this office;

“7. Urges the two parties to demonstrate without further delay the political will, cooperation and flexibility necessary to permit the resumption and early completion of the identification process and the implementation of the settlement plan, notes with satisfaction that the parties have respected the ceasefire, which is an integral part of the settlement plan, and calls upon them to continue to do so;

“Underlining the importance the Council attaches to efforts to eliminate the threat posed by unexploded landmines in a number of States and the humanitarian nature of demining programmes,

“Acting under Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations,

“Decides that, notwithstanding the restrictions imposed in paragraph 13 of resolution 918 (1994), appropriate amounts of explosives intended exclusively for use in established humanitarian demining programmes may be supplied to Rwanda upon application to and authorization by the Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 918 (1994).”

“Progress report of the Secretary-General on the United Nations Assistance Mission for Rwanda (S/1995/678)”

The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representative of Zaire, at his request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Council's provisional rules of procedure.

Resolution 1011 (1995) reads as follows:

“The Security Council,

“Emphasizing that the uncontrolled circulation of arms, including to civilians and refugees, is a major cause of destabilization in the Great Lakes region,

“Welcoming the proposal of the Government of Zaire to establish an international commission under United Nations auspices to investigate reports of arms supplies to former Rwandese Government Forces, “Recognizing that the registration and marking of weapons are of considerable assistance in monitoring and enforcing restrictions on the illicit deliveries of weapons,

“Noting with great concern reports of military preparations and increasing incursions into Rwanda by elements of the former regime and underlining the need for effective measures to ensure that Rwandan nationals currently in neighbouring countries, including those in camps, do not undertake military activities aimed at destabilizing Rwanda or receive arms supplies, in view of the great likelihood that such arms are intended for use within Rwanda,

“Stressing the need for representatives of all sectors of Rwandan society, excluding those political leaders suspected of planning and directing the genocide in 1994, to begin talks in order to reach an agreement on a constitutional and political structure to achieve lasting stability,

“Taking note of the letter dated 5 July 1995 from the Permanent Representative of Rwanda to the United Nations addressed to the President of the Security Council (S/1995/547), requesting urgent action to lift the restrictions on the sale or supply of arms and matériel to the Government of Rwanda to ensure the security of the Rwandan population,

“Welcoming the improvement in the working relations between the Government of Rwanda and the Mission and recalling the mandate of the Mission, as adjusted in resolution 997 (1995), in particular to help achieve national reconciliation, “Recalling that the prohibition on the delivery of arms and matériel to Rwanda was originally aimed at stopping the use of such arms and equipment in the massacres of innocent civilians,

“Taking note of the Council’s decision in its resolution 997 (1995) to reduce the force level of the Mission, and reaffirming that the security of that country is the primary responsibility of the Government of Rwanda,

“Deeply concerned by the situation in Rwanda’s prisons and judicial system, particularly overcrowding, the lack of judges, detention of minors and elderly prisoners, and absence of speedy judicial or administrative review of charges, and, in this respect, welcoming renewed efforts by the United Nations and donor countries, in coordination with the Government of Rwanda, to initiate, on an urgent basis, measures to improve this situation,

“Underlining the need for increased efforts by the Government of Rwanda in the promotion of a climate of stability and trust in order to facilitate the return of Rwandan refugees in neighbouring countries,

“1. Commends the efforts of the Secretary-General and his Special Envoy in pursuing regional responses to the problem of illicit arms supplies in the region, and encourages the Secretary-General to continue his consultations in this regard;

“2. Requests the Secretary-General, as proposed in paragraph 45 of his report (S/1995/678), to make recommendations to the Security Council, as soon as possible, on the establishment of a Commission mandated to conduct a full investigation to address allegations of arms flows to former Rwandese Government Forces in the Great Lakes region of Central Africa;

“5. Requests the Secretary-General to report to the Council within one month of the adoption of the present resolution on his efforts for the preparation and convening, at the earliest possible time, of the Regional Conference on Security, Stability and Development, as well as for the convening of a regional meeting to address the problems facing the repatriation of refugees;

“6. Calls upon the Government of Rwanda to continue its efforts to create an atmosphere of trust and confidence for the safe return of refugees and take further steps to resolve the humanitarian problems in its prisons and to expedite disposition of the charges against those detained;

“B

“Acting under Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations,

“7. Decides that, with immediate effect and until 1 September 1996, the restrictions imposed by paragraph 13 of resolution 918 (1994) shall not apply with regard to the sale or supply of arms and related matériel to the Government of Rwanda through named points of entry on a list to be supplied by that Government to the Secretary-General, who shall promptly notify all States Members of the United Nations of the list;

“8. Decides also that on 1 September 1996 the restrictions imposed by paragraph 13 of resolution 918 (1994) on the sale or supply of arms and related matériel to the Government of Rwanda shall terminate, unless the Council decides otherwise after its consideration of the second report of the Secretary-General referred to in paragraph 12 below;

“9. Further decides, with a view to prohibiting the sale and supply of arms and related matériel to non-governmental forces for use in Rwanda, that all States shall continue to prevent the sale or supply, by their nationals or from their territories or using their flag vessels or aircraft, of arms and related matériel of all types, including weapons and ammunition, military vehicles and equipment, paramilitary police equipment and spare parts, to Rwanda, or to persons in the States neighbouring Rwanda if such sale or supply is for the purpose of the use of such arms or matériel within

Rwanda, other than to the Government of Rwanda as specified in paragraphs 7 and 8 above;

“10. Decides that no arms or related matériel sold or supplied to the Government of Rwanda may be resold to, transferred to, or made available for use by, any State neighbouring Rwanda, or person not in the service of the Government of Rwanda, either directly or indirectly;

“11. Also decides that States shall notify the Committee established pursuant to resolution 918 (1994) of all exports from their territories of arms or related matériel to Rwanda, that the Government of Rwanda shall mark and register and notify the Committee of all imports made by it of arms and related matériel, and that the Committee shall report regularly to the Council on notifications so received;

“12. Requests the Secretary-General to report to the Council within six months of the date of adoption of the present resolution, and again within twelve months, regarding, in particular, the export of arms and related matériel referred to in paragraph 7 above, on the basis of the reports submitted by the Committee established pursuant to resolution 918 (1994);

F. Consideration at the 3569th meeting (23 August 1995) and presidential statement

At the 3569th meeting, held on 23 August 1995 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“Letter dated 18 August 1995 from the Secretary-General addressed to the Prime Minister of the Republic of Zaire (S/1995/723)”

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1995/41):

“The Security Council views with deep concern the forcible repatriation of Rwandan and Burundian refugees by the Government of Zaire and the increasingly tense situation in the region.

“The Council takes note of the letter dated 17 August 1995 from the Government of Zaire to the Secretary-General (S/1995/722) and the Secretary-General’s reply dated 18 August 1995 (S/1995/723) in which he urges the Government of Zaire to continue to provide assistance to Rwandan and Burundian refugees.

“The Council considers that Zaire and the other States which have accepted refugees from Rwanda and Burundi make an important contribution, in spite of the considerable difficulties created for them thereby, to peace and stability in the region. Their contribution is of special importance in view of the genocide which took place in Rwanda and the possibility of further bloodshed in Burundi. The Council also notes the commitment of the Government of Rwanda to take the necessary steps to facilitate the safe return of its nationals as soon as possible and encourages it to continue its efforts in order to implement its undertakings in this respect.

“The Council calls upon the Government of Zaire to stand by its humanitarian obligations regarding refugees, including, inter alia, those under the Convention relating to the Status of Refugees of 1951, and to reconsider and halt its declared policy of the forcible repatriation of refugees to Rwanda and Burundi.

“The Council supports the decision by the Secretary-General to send the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees to the region to engage in urgent discussions with the Government of Zaire and neighbouring States with a view to resolving the situation. It encourages all Governments in the region to cooperate with the High Commissioner to achieve the voluntary and orderly repatriation of refugees. It also calls upon the international community to provide all possible assistance to help care for the refugees.”

J. Consideration at the 3588th meeting (17 October 1995) and presidential statement

At the 3588th meeting, held on 17 October 1995 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“The situation concerning Rwanda

“Progress report of the Secretary-General on the United Nations Assistance Mission for Rwanda (S/1995/848)”

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1995/53):

“The Security Council has considered the report of the Secretary-General of 7 October 1995 on the United Nations Assistance Mission for Rwanda (S/1995/848).

“The Council welcomes progress made by the Government of Rwanda in the reconciliation process, including the integration of more than 2,000 members of troops of former Rwandese Government Forces into the Rwandese Patriotic Army. The Council calls upon the Government of Rwanda to intensify its contacts with all sectors of Rwandan society, except with those directly responsible for the genocide. The Council reiterates its concern at reports about continuing cross-border infiltrations from neighbouring countries which have a destabilizing effect within Rwanda. The Council also reiterates its concern at the danger for peace and stability in the Great Lakes region which would be caused by uncontrolled arms flows and, in this context, reaffirms the relevant provisions of its resolution 1013 (1995). The Council condemns all acts of violence in Rwanda. The Council welcomes the fact that the Government of Rwanda has voluntarily and without delay initiated an investigation into the killing of civilians at Kanama and expects that prosecution of those responsible will follow.

“The Council calls again upon all States to act in accordance with the conclusions of the summit meeting of the leaders in the region at Nairobi in January 1995 and the recommendations by the Regional Conference on Assistance to Refugees, Returnees and Displaced Persons in the Great Lakes Region, held at Bujumbura from 15 to 17 February 1995. The Council welcomes recent efforts to improve relations among the States in the region, which should help pave the way for the proposed Regional Conference on Security, Stability and Development. In this regard, the Council supports the efforts of the Special Envoy of the Secretary-General to the Great Lakes region for the preparation and convening of such a conference. It requests the Secretary-General to submit his report on the results of the first round of consultations of the Special Envoy in the region as soon as possible.

“The Council reaffirms the important role the Mission has played in Rwanda and the region. In this respect, the Council underlines its commitment to the Mission which, inter alia, assists the Government of Rwanda in facilitating the voluntary return and resettlement of refugees and has made available to the Rwandan authorities its engineering and logistics capacity. The Council underlines the fact that the Mission can effectively implement its current mandate only if it has an adequate force level and sufficient means. The Council stands ready to study carefully any further recommendations that the Secretary-General might make on the issue of force reductions in relation to the fulfilment of the mandate of the Mission.

“The Council reaffirms its view that genuine reconciliation as well as long-lasting stability in the region as a whole cannot be attained without the safe, voluntary and organized return to their country of all Rwandan refugees. In this respect, the Council welcomes the joint efforts of Rwanda, neighbouring countries and the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees to speed up the voluntary return of refugees through, inter alia, the work of the Tripartite Commissions. The Council underlines the fact that, in order to foster the process of national reconciliation, an effective and credible national judiciary has to be established. In this respect, it welcomes the appointment of the members of the Rwandan Supreme Court. The Council further underlines that the International Criminal Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Genocide and Other Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of Rwanda and Rwandan Citizens Responsible for Genocide and Other Such Violations Committed in the Territory of Neighbouring States between 1 January and 31 December 1994 should begin its proceedings as soon as possible. The Council calls upon Member States to comply with their obligations with regard to cooperation with the International Tribunal in accordance with resolution 955 (1994). It urges once more all States to arrest and detain persons suspected of genocide and other serious violations of international humanitarian law in accordance with resolution 978 (1995). The Council underlines the necessity for the Tribunal to be fully financed, as a matter of priority, and for continued access to the trust fund established for the Tribunal. The Council continues to support the work of human rights monitors in Rwanda in cooperation with the Rwandan Government.

“The Council reaffirms its concern at the appalling situation in the Rwandan prisons. In this respect, it welcomes measures initiated by the Department of Humanitarian Affairs of the Secretariat, in coordination with the international community and the Government of Rwanda, to alleviate the intolerable conditions in Rwandan prisons. It calls upon the international community to continue its assistance in this regard and encourages the Rwandan Government to continue its efforts to improve the situation in the prisons. The Council underlines the importance of parallel action by the Rwandan Government to restore the Rwandan judicial system and requests the international community to assist the Rwandan Government in this urgent task.

“The Council underlines the fact that sound economic foundations are also vital for achieving lasting stability in Rwanda. In this respect, it welcomes the increased commitments and funds pledged for the Government’s programme of national reconciliation and socio-economic rehabilitation and recovery following the mid-term review of the Geneva Round-Table Conference, and calls upon the international community to continue to support Rwanda’s rehabilitation process.

“The Council will remain seized of the matter.”

At the 3656th meeting, held on 23 April 1996 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“The situation concerning Rwanda

“Letter dated 13 March 1996 from the Secretary-General addressed to the President of the Security Council (S/1996/195)”

The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representatives of Burundi, Rwanda and Zaire, at their request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Council’s provisional rules of procedure.

The President drew attention to the text of a draft resolution (S/1996/298) that had been prepared in the course of the Council’s prior consultations.

The Council began its consideration of the item and heard statements by the representatives of Rwanda, Burundi and Zaire.

The Council then commenced the voting procedure.

Before the vote, statements were made by the representatives of Indonesia, the Russian Federation, the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, Guinea-Bissau, Botswana, Italy, the Republic of Korea, Egypt and China.

Decision: At the 3656th meeting, on 23 April 1996, draft resolution S/1996/298 was adopted unanimously as resolution 1053 (1996).

Resolution 1053 (1996) reads as follows:

“The Security Council,

“Recalling all its previous resolutions on the situation in Rwanda, in particular its resolutions 918 (1994) of 17 May 1994, 997 (1995) of 9 June 1995, 1011 (1995) of 16 August 1995 and 1013 (1995) of 7 September 1995,

“Having considered the letter dated 13 March 1996 from the Secretary-General to the President of the Security Council (S/1996/195) and the report of the International Commission of Inquiry established under resolution 1013 (1995) annexed to that letter, as well as the interim report of the Commission of Inquiry dated 17 January 1996 (S/1996/67, annex), “Expressing its support for the Tunis Declaration of the heads of State of the Great Lakes region of 18 March 1996, “Expressing once again its grave concern at allegations of the sale and supply of arms and related matériel to former Rwandese Government Forces in violation of the embargo imposed under its resolutions 918 (1994), 997 (1995) and 1011 (1995), and underlining the need for Governments to take action to ensure the effective implementation of the embargo, “Commending the members of the Commission of Inquiry for the excellent investigation they have conducted,

“Welcoming the assistance given to the Commission of Inquiry by some Governments, “Noting with concern the continuing lack of full cooperation the Commission of Inquiry has received from other Governments, “Gravely concerned by the finding of the Commission of Inquiry that certain Rwandan elements are receiving military training to conduct destabilizing raids into Rwanda, “Deeply disturbed by the strong evidence presented by the Commission of Inquiry leading to the conclusion that it is highly probable that a violation of the arms embargo occurred, in particular by the sale of arms which took place in Seychelles in June 1994 and the subsequent two shipments of arms to Goma, Zaire, from Seychelles destined for former Rwandese Government Forces,

“Noting that the Commission of Inquiry received strong indications from its sources that aircraft are continuing to land at Goma and Bukavu with arms for former Rwandese Government Forces, and that senior figures among those forces are still actively raising money apparently for the purpose of funding an armed struggle against Rwanda, “Further noting that the Commission of Inquiry has not yet been able to investigate thoroughly these allegations of continuing violations of the arms embargo, “Reaffirming the need for a long-term solution to the refugee and related problems in the Great Lakes States, “Reaffirming also the importance of terminating radio broadcasts which spread hate and fear in the region, and emphasizing the need for States to assist the countries of the region in terminating such broadcasts as stated by the Cairo Declaration on the Great Lakes Region of 29 November 1995 (S/1995/1001, annex),

“1. Reaffirms the importance it attaches to the work of the Commission of Inquiry, to the investigations it has conducted to date, and to continued effective implementation of the relevant Council resolutions;

“2. Requests the Secretary-General to maintain the Commission of Inquiry on the basis set out in paragraph 91 (c) of the report of the Commission of Inquiry (S/1996/195, annex) to follow up its earlier investigations and to stand ready to pursue any further allegations of violations, especially of current and expected arms shipments;

“3. Expresses its determination that the prohibition on the sale or supply of arms and related matériel to non-governmental forces for use in Rwanda should be implemented fully in accordance with resolution 1011 (1995);

“4. Calls upon States in the Great Lakes region to ensure that their territory is not used as a base for armed groups to launch incursions or attacks against any other State in violation of principles of international law and the Charter of the United Nations;

“5. Urges all States, in particular those in the region, to intensify their efforts to prevent military training and the sale or supply of weapons to militia groups or former Rwandese Government Forces, and to take the steps necessary to ensure the effective implementation of the arms embargo, including by creation of all necessary national mechanisms for implementation;

“6. Encourages States of the Great Lakes region to ensure the effective implementation of the Tunis Declaration of the heads of State of the Great Lakes region of 18 March 1996;

“7. Requests the Secretary-General to consult with States neighbouring Rwanda, in particular Zaire, on appropriate measures, including the possible deployment of United Nations observers in the airfields and other transportation points in and around border crossing points, for the purpose of better implementation of the arms embargo and deterrence of the shipment of arms to former Rwandese Government Forces in violation of Council resolutions;

“8. Expresses concern at the lack of response by certain States to the Commission’s inquiries, and calls upon those States that have not yet done so to cooperate fully with the Commission in its inquiries and to investigate fully reports of their officials and nationals suspected of violating the relevant Council resolutions;

“9. Calls upon States, in particular those whose nationals have been implicated by the report of the Commission of Inquiry, to investigate the apparent complicity of their officials or private citizens in the purchase of arms from Seychelles in June 1994, and in other suspected violations of the relevant Council resolutions;

“10. Further calls upon States to make available to the Commission of Inquiry the results of their investigations, and to cooperate fully with the Commission of Inquiry, including by providing to the Commission of Inquiry at any time any access it requests to airfields and to witnesses, in private and without the presence of officials or representatives of any Government;

“11. Encourages States to make voluntary contributions to the Trust Fund for Rwanda, established by the Secretary-General, to support the work of the Commission of Inquiry, and to contribute through the Secretary-General equipment and services to the Commission of Inquiry;

“12. Requests the Secretary-General to submit a report to the Council on the implementation of this resolution by 1 October 1996;

“13. Reiterates its concern that the uncontrolled illegal flows of arms and related matériel in violation of Council resolutions would pose a threat to peace and stability in the Great Lakes region, and declares its willingness to consider further measures in this regard;

“14. Decides to remain seized of the matter.”

Following the vote, statements were made by the representatives of France, Germany, Honduras and the United States of America.

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1995/55):

“The Security Council welcomes the report of the Secretary-General of 6 November 1995 on the United Nations Mission in Haiti (S/1995/922), issued pursuant to resolution 1007 (1995).

“The Council commends the Mission on the substantial progress it has made towards fulfilling its mandate, as set out in resolution 940 (1994), to assist the Government of Haiti in sustaining a secure and stable environment, protecting international personnel and key installations, establishing the conditions for holding elections and creating a new professional police force. The Council commends the Secretary-General, his Special Representative, and other dedicated personnel of the United Nations who have contributed to this effort.

“The Council also commends the Government of Haiti for holding local and legislative elections in a peaceful and non-violent environment, and notes the recent convocation of the special session of the National Assembly and its approval of the new Cabinet and plan of government. The Council notes with satisfaction the role of the Mission and the joint United Nations/Organization of American States International Civilian Mission in assisting the Haitian authorities with the electoral process.

“The Council emphasizes that the continued engagement and commitment of all Haitian parties is necessary to the successful organization of free, fair and peaceful presidential elections. Consistent with the objectives of Security Council resolutions 940 (1994) and 1007 (1995), the Council welcomes the announcement by the provisional Electoral Council of presidential elections scheduled for 17 December 1995 that should allow a transition of power to a duly elected successor before the scheduled termination of the Mission on 29 February 1996. The holding of presidential elections on schedule is a crucial step in consolidating long-lasting democracy in Haiti and ensuring a smooth transition of government. The Council calls upon all political parties in Haiti to participate in the forthcoming elections and to contribute actively to maintain the secure and stable conditions necessary for their conduct.

“The Council notes with concern recent instances of violence in Haiti and calls for respect for the rule of law, national reconciliation and cooperation.

“The Government and people of Haiti bear the primary responsibility for Haiti’s political, economic and social reconstruction. The Council underlines its firm support for the progress Haiti has already made in this regard. The Council emphasizes that a sustained commitment by the international community is indispensable for long-term peace and stability in Haiti. In this regard the Council encourages the Haitian Government to continue its dialogue with the international financial institutions.

“The Council shares the view of the Secretary-General that the establishment of a professional police force capable of maintaining law and order throughout the country is central to Haiti’s long-term stability. As the end of the mandate of the Mission approaches, attention should be focused on the selection and training of the Haitian National Police supervisors and on interested Member States providing the police force with the necessary equipment.

“The Council also supports the efforts of the Secretary-General to streamline the Mission, including the civilian police component.

“The Council expresses its confidence that the Special Representative of the Secretary-General, the United Nations Mission in Haiti and the United Nations/Organization of American States International Civilian Mission will continue to assist the Government and people of Haiti. It notes in particular the useful role played by the Organization of American States and the valuable cooperation with Haiti of interested Member States on a bilateral basis and stresses the importance of continuing such cooperation. The Council requests that the Secretary-General, in consultation with the Friends of Haiti and the Haitian authorities, report to the Council, at the appropriate time, on next steps in the areas of security, law enforcement and humanitarian assistance, including by United Nations specialized agencies and programmes, which the international community may take to help Haiti achieve a long-term future that is secure, stable and free.”

At the 3586th meeting, held on 12 October 1995 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“The situation in Angola

“Report of the Secretary-General on the United Nations Angola Verification Mission (UNAVEM III) (S/1995/842)”

The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representative of Angola, at his request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Council’s provisional rules of procedure.

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1995/51):

“The Security Council welcomes the Secretary-General’s report of 4 October 1995 (S/1995/842) on the United Nations Angola Verification Mission III pursuant to paragraph 21 of Security Council resolution 1008 (1995) of 7 August 1995.

“The Security Council has noted the positive developments in Angola since the Secretary-General’s report of 17 July 1995 (S/1995/588). The Council is encouraged by the meetings in Franceville and Brussels between President Dos Santos and Mr. Savimbi, which provided the opportunity to discuss the critical issues and reach agreement on consolidation of the peace process. These meetings, particularly the round table in Brussels, provided important reassurance to the international community. The Council welcomes the continued commitment of both parties to the process of dialogue. The Council commends the efforts of the Secretary-General and his Special Representative, of the observer States to the Angolan peace process and of States in the region to help in carrying forward the process.

“The Security Council notes with satisfaction the progress in the implementation of the Lusaka Protocol (S/1994/1441, annex), including the reduction of ceasefire violations, the disengagement of forces, the enhanced cooperation between the parties and the Verification Mission, the signing of the status-of-forces agreement, the provision of logistic facilities for the Mission and the conclusion of the joint declaration on the free circulation of persons and goods. The Council also welcomes the ongoing deployment of the support units of the Verification Mission and stresses the importance of a timely deployment of the infantry battalions of the Verification Mission. The Council stresses the importance of an independent UNAVEM radio and urges the Government of Angola to provide, without delay, the facilities to allow it to operate.

“The Security Council none the less remains concerned at delays in the peace process, in particular in respect of quartering of the União Nacional para a Independência Total de Angola and the rapid reaction police, demining, disarmament, the return of the Angolan Armed Forces to barracks and the formation of the new armed forces as well as the repatriation of mercenaries. The Council underscores the peril that may result from further delays. The Council is also deeply concerned at allegations of renewed laying of mines and demands that all parties refrain from such actions.

“The Security Council emphasizes that continuing cooperation between the parties is essential if a sustained cessation of hostilities is to take hold. In this regard, the Council calls on the parties to refrain from troop movements or military activities that might create tension or lead to renewed hostilities.

“The Security Council is concerned about the continuing complaints of human rights violations and endorses the decision of the Joint Commission to inscribe human rights in the agenda of all its regular sessions.

“The Security Council wishes to emphasize that post-peacekeeping elements can make an important contribution to a viable long-term peace. The Council notes the linkage between political and economic well-being and the need to ensure that displaced people and refugees are able to return to their places of origin. The Council reaffirms the Secretary-General’s call for a comprehensive coordinated and integrated effort on the part of all relevant international organizations to help to rebuild the Angolan economic infrastructure. The Council requests Member States to continue to support the ongoing humanitarian activities in Angola. It welcomes the commitments made at the Round-Table Conference, held in Brussels in September 1995 and urges those that have made pledges to fulfil their commitments as soon as possible.

“The Security Council will continue to monitor closely the situation in Angola and looks forward to future reports of the Secretary-General.”

F. Consideration at the 3598th meeting (28 November 1995) and presidential statement

At the 3598th meeting, held on 28 November 1995 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“The situation in Angola”

The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representative of Angola, at his request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Council’s provisional rules of procedure.

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1995/58).

“The Security Council welcomes the joint communiqué issued by the Government of Angola and the União Nacional para a Independência Total de Angola on 13 November 1995 (S/1995/991) in which they reaffirmed their commitment to the peace process. The Council is pleased to note that some of the steps necessary to carry out the provisions of the Lusaka Protocol (S/1994/1441, annex) have been taken recently, including the resumption of the military talks in Luanda, and the movement of the first combatants of the União Nacional para a Independência Total de Angola to quartering areas on 20 November 1995, the first anniversary of the signing of the Lusaka Protocol. The Council underlines the need for the quartering process to be completed as soon as possible.

“The Security Council, however, notes that despite these positive steps there continue to be ceasefire violations, importation of weapons, restrictions on freedom of movement, and the presence of mercenaries. The Council stresses that much remains to be done urgently to implement fully the Lusaka Protocol, including strict observance of the ceasefire, the continuation of the quartering process, the quartering of the rapid reaction police, the return of the Angolan Armed Forces to defensive positions, and the resolution of questions regarding the modalities of military integration. The Council calls upon the Government of Angola and the União Nacional para a Independência Total de Angola to continue to cooperate with the United Nations Angola Verification Mission III and to respect fully the status and security of international personnel.

“The Security Council will follow developments in Angola closely and looks forward to receiving the comprehensive report of the Secretary-General on the situation in Angola by 8 December 1995.”

G. Communication received on 21 December 1995 and report of the Secretary-General dated 7 December 1995

Letter dated 21 December 1995 (S/1995/1052) from the representative of Angola addressed to the President of the Security Council.

H. Consideration at the 3614th meeting (21 December 1995) and presidential statement

At the 3614th meeting, held on 21 December 1995 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“The situation in Angola

“Report of the Secretary-General on the United Nations Angola Verification Mission (UNAVEM III) (S/1995/1012)”

The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representative of Angola, at his request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Council’s provisional rules of procedure.

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1995/62):

“The Security Council has considered the report of the Secretary-General of 7 December 1995 (S/1995/1012) on the United Nations Angola Verification Mission III pursuant to paragraph 21 of Security Council resolution 1008 (1995) of 7 August 1995.

“The Security Council reiterates its concern at the slow progress in implementation of the provisions of the Lusaka Protocol. The Council stresses the importance of full implementation of the political and all other aspects of the peace process. It underlines that several important tasks that were to have been resolved in the early stages of the peace process remain incomplete, including the exchange of detailed military information, the release of all prisoners, the redeployment of those government troops near quartering areas of the União Nacional para a Independência Total de Angola and the final resolution of the issue of mercenaries. In this respect, the Council welcomes the recent announcement by the Government of Angola that it will terminate the contract and repatriate the personnel of the firm involved and will release all remaining prisoners.

“The Security Council notes that the deployment of Verification Mission troops is nearly complete and that four quartering areas are prepared to receive troops. The Council expresses its disappointment at the slow pace at which the quartering process has proceeded. It calls upon the União Nacional para a Independência Total de Angola and the Government of Angola to fulfil their commitments regarding the expeditious quartering and demobilization of former combatants, the quartering of the rapid reaction police and the return of the Angolan Armed Forces to the nearest barracks.

“The Security Council expresses deep concern at the delays in establishing modalities for the integration of the armed forces, which is vital for the process of national reconciliation. The Council notes with dismay the series of disruptions in the military talks between the parties.

“It urges the parties to continue the military talks without interruption and to conclude an equitable and practicable agreement without further delay. The Council underlines that such an agreement should give particular attention to the expeditious completion of the demobilization and integration of former combatants. It recognizes that the prompt and complete exchange of military information is vital to the success of these talks and urges the parties to provide the information required by the Lusaka Protocol without further delay.

“The Security Council is gravely concerned by continued violations of the ceasefire and military offensives, in particular events in the north-west. The Council calls on both parties to refrain from military activities or troop movements, which lead to increased tensions and resumed hostilities, and to implement without delay the disengagement plan being prepared by the Verification Mission.

“The Security Council deplores the recent threat to the safety of personnel of the Verification Mission. The Council reminds the parties, in particular the União Nacional para a Independência Total de Angola, that they must take the steps necessary to ensure the safety and security of all Verification Mission and other international personnel.

“The Security Council expresses regret that radio UNAVEM is not yet operational. The Council calls upon the Government of Angola to facilitate its immediate establishment. It also calls upon both parties to cease the dissemination of hostile propaganda.

“The Security Council is concerned at delays in implementing mine-clearance programmes planned by the United Nations and by Member States, and calls upon the Government of Angola to facilitate issuance of the necessary authorizations to relevant personnel. The Council calls upon the Government of Angola and the União Nacional para a Independência Total de Angola to intensify their individual and joint demining efforts. It underlines that the opening of roads within Angola, including the clearance of mines and the restoration of bridges, is vital not only to the peace process and the complete deployment of the Verification Mission but also to the effective delivery of humanitarian assistance and future peace-building efforts. The Council is gravely concerned at the reports of remining in violation of the Lusaka Protocol.

“The Security Council emphasizes that Angolans themselves bear ultimate responsibility for restoring peace and stability in their country. The Council stresses that concrete actions are urgently needed from the parties to put the peace process on an irreversible course. It notes that continued support for the Verification Mission will depend on the extent to which the parties demonstrate their political will to achieve a lasting peace.

“The Security Council notes the important role played by the Special Representative of the Secretary-General and by the three observer countries in the promotion of the peace process in Angola and calls upon them to further contribute appropriately to the implementation of the Lusaka Protocol within the agreed time framework and to assist the Verification Mission in the successful fulfilment of its tasks.

“The Security Council requests the Secretary-General to update it on the progress of the Angolan peace process and the deployment and activities of the Verification Mission at least on a monthly basis.”

L. Consideration at the 3657th meeting (24 April 1996) and presidential statement

At the 3657th meeting, held on 24 April 1996 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“The situation in Angola

“Report of the Secretary-General on the United Nations Angola Verification Mission (UNAVEM III) (S/1996/248 and Add.1)”

The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representative of Angola, at his request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Council’s provisional rules of procedure.

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1996/19):

“The Security Council has considered the report of the Secretary-General of 4 April 1996 on the United Nations Angola Verification Mission III (S/1996/248 and Add.1) submitted pursuant to paragraph 21 of Security Council resolution 1045 (1996) of 8 February 1996.

“The Security Council notes that some progress has been achieved during the past two months in the implementation of the Lusaka Protocol, although it has been limited and has not fulfilled the hopes generated by the meeting between President dos Santos and Mr. Savimbi in Libreville on 1 March 1996. The Council stresses the importance it attaches to the full implementation of the Protocol. The Council reminds President dos Santos and Mr. Savimbi of their commitments and urges them to take the necessary actions to move the peace process forward.

“The Security Council notes that the União Nacional para a Independência Total de Angola has quartered more than 20,000 of its forces, but expresses concern over delays in the quartering of the troops of the União Nacional para a Independência Total de Angola and urges it to move expeditiously to achieve full quartering of its troops. The Council expresses concern about the quality of weapons surrendered by the União Nacional para a Independência Total de Angola and urges it to fulfil its commitment to turn over all of its arms, ammunition and military equipment as the quartering process continues. The Council reiterates that the quartering process is a crucial component of the peace process and stresses the need for quartering to be credible and fully verifiable. The Council expresses its concern at the statements made by Mr. Savimbi on 13 and 27 March 1996. In this context, the Council urges all Angolan leaders to consider carefully the effect of public statements on the climate of confidence necessary to nurture the peace process. It also urges the União Nacional para a Independência Total de Angola to release all remaining prisoners.

“The Security Council recognizes with satisfaction the progress by the Government of Angola in the implementation of its commitments under the Lusaka Protocol and the current timetable and encourages the Government to continue this progress. The Council emphasizes the importance of completion of the calendar of actions for April, including, inter alia, the continuation of the pull-back of government forces from areas near the quartering sites of the União Nacional para a Independência Total de Angola, the return of the rapid reaction police to barracks, the resolution of the question of amnesty for officials of the União Nacional para a Independência Total de Angola, and the adoption of a plan to disarm the civilian population, as well as the quartering of the troops of the União Nacional para a Independência Total de Angola. The Council encourages the two parties to complete the integration of the União Nacional para a Independência Total de Angola into the Angolan armed forces.

“The Security Council also encourages the Government to grant the Verification Mission the requisite facilities for the establishment of an independent United Nations radio.

“The Security Council stresses its concern at the extensive presence of land-mines throughout Angola and expresses support for the efforts of the United Nations, the Government and non-governmental organizations to address this problem. The Council urges the Government and the União Nacional para a Independência Total de Angola to destroy their stockpiles of anti-personnel land-mines. It encourages them to make a meaningful public gesture towards destruction of land-mines, which could have a positive effect on public confidence and the free circulation of people and goods.

“The Security Council notes with concern credible reports of continuing purchases and delivery of weapons to Angola and considers that such actions are contrary to paragraph 12 of its resolution 976 (1995) of 8 February 1995 and undermine confidence in the peace process. The Council reaffirms the obligation of all States to implement fully the provisions of paragraph 19 of its resolution 864 (1993) of 15 September 1993.

“The Security Council emphasizes that the ultimate responsibility for restoring peace rests with the Angolans themselves. The Council reminds the parties that extension of the mandate of the Verification Mission will be based, to a large part, on progress by the two parties towards meeting the goals set by the Lusaka Protocol.

“The Security Council condemns the incident on 3 April 1996 which resulted in the death of two Verification Mission personnel, the wounding of a third and the death of a humanitarian assistance official and reiterates the importance it attaches to the safety and security of Verification Mission and humanitarian assistance personnel. The Council notes the cooperation offered by the Angolan Government and the União Nacional para a Independência Total de Angola with the investigation by the Verification Mission of this deplorable incident.

“The Security Council reiterates its gratitude to the Special Representative of the Secretary-General, the staff of the Verification Mission and the three observer countries, whose unflagging service to the cause of peace has been outstanding. The Council will continue to monitor the situation in Angola closely and requests the Secretary-General to continue to keep it informed of progress in the Angolan peace process.”

“The situation in Georgia

“Report of the Secretary-General concerning the situation in Abkhazia, Georgia (S/1996/284)”

The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representative of Georgia, at his request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Council's provisional rules of procedure.

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1996/20):

"The Security Council has considered the interim report of the Secretary-General concerning the situation in Abkhazia, Georgia, of 15 April 1996 (S/1996/284). It has also read with appreciation the letter of the Government of Georgia (S/1996/165) and the proposals on the political status of Abkhazia contained therein.

"The Council notes with deep concern the continued failure of the parties to achieve a comprehensive political settlement. It also notes the adverse impact that this failure has on the humanitarian situation and economic development in the region. It calls upon the parties, in particular the Abkhaz side, to achieve substantive progress without further delay.

"The Council reaffirms its full support for the efforts of the Secretary-General, his Special Envoy and of the Russian Federation as facilitator aimed at achieving a comprehensive political settlement of the conflict, including on the political status of Abkhazia, respecting the sovereignty and territorial integrity of Georgia. The Council stresses that the primary responsibility for achieving a comprehensive political settlement rests upon the parties themselves.

"The Council welcomes the efforts undertaken by the members of the Commonwealth of Independent States as set out in S/1996/74, annex IV, in support of such a comprehensive political settlement.

"The Council remains deeply concerned at the continued obstruction of the return of the refugees and displaced persons by the Abkhaz authorities, which is totally unacceptable.

"The Council expresses its support for the Secretary-General's efforts to find ways of improving the observance of human rights in the region, as an integral part of the work towards a comprehensive political settlement.

"The Council notes the important contribution made by the United Nations Observer Mission in Georgia and the Collective Peacekeeping Forces of the Commonwealth of Independent States to stabilization of the situation in the zone of conflict. The Council recalls its encouragement to Member States to make contributions, in cash or kind, to the voluntary fund in support of the implementation of the Agreement on a Cease-fire and Separation of Forces and/or humanitarian aspects including demining. It welcomes the contributions mentioned in the report of the Secretary-General.

"The Council is, however, deeply concerned at the deterioration in security conditions in the Gali region, which has a negative effect on the ability of the Observer Mission to meet its mandated tasks. The Council condemns mine laying in the Gali region, which has resulted in loss of life, including of a military observer of the Mission. Such mine laying should cease. The Council calls on the parties to take all measures in their power to prevent it. The Council stresses that the international community's ability to assist depends on the full cooperation of the parties, especially the fulfilment of their obligations regarding the safety and freedom of movement of international personnel.

"The Council invites the Secretary-General to continue to keep it informed of the situation."

D. Consideration at the 3616th meeting (5 January 1996) and presidential statement

At the 3616th meeting, held on 5 January 1996 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“The situation in Burundi

“Letter dated 29 December 1995 from the Secretary-General addressed to the President of the Security Council (S/1995/1068)”

The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representative of Burundi, at his request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Council’s provisional rules of procedure.

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1996/1):

“The Security Council has considered the letter of 29 December 1995 from the Secretary-General to the President of the Council on developments in Burundi (S/1995/1068). The Council shares the Secretary-General’s deep concern at the situation in Burundi, which has been characterized by daily killings, massacres, torture and arbitrary detention. It condemns in the strongest terms those persons responsible for such actions, which must cease immediately. It encourages all States to take the measures deemed necessary to prevent such persons from travelling abroad and receiving any kind of support. It reiterates its profound concern about radio stations which incite hatred and acts of genocide and encourages Member States and others concerned to cooperate in the identification and dismantling of them. The Council calls upon all concerned in Burundi to exercise maximum restraint and to refrain from all acts of violence. It reiterates that all who commit or authorize the commission of serious violations of international humanitarian law are individually responsible for such violations and should be held accountable. In this context it stresses the importance it attaches to the work of the International Commission of Inquiry established pursuant to its resolution 1012 (1995) of 28 August 1995, and undertakes to study carefully the letter from the Secretary-General dated 3 January 1996 containing an interim report on that work (S/1996/8).

“The Council is gravely concerned at recent attacks on personnel of international humanitarian organizations, which have led to the suspension of essential assistance to refugees and displaced persons and to the temporary withdrawal of international personnel. The Council welcomes the Secretary-General’s decision to ask the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees to visit Burundi to discuss with the Burundi authorities steps that might be taken to defuse the situation. It underlines that the authorities in Burundi are responsible for the security of personnel of international humanitarian organizations and of the refugees and displaced persons there and calls upon the Government of Burundi to provide adequate security to food convoys and humanitarian personnel.

“The Council welcomes the assumption of his functions by the new Special Representative of the Secretary-General for Burundi and calls on all concerned to support his efforts. It commends the work of the Office of the Special Representative of the Secretary-General in seeking to promote dialogue and national reconciliation in Burundi, as well as the role played there by the Organization of African Unity. It welcomes the decision of the Organization of African Unity in Addis Ababa on 19 December 1995 to extend the mandate of its mission in Burundi for another three months and to strengthen the civilian component of the mission. The Council also welcomes the outcome of the Cairo Conference of Heads of State of the Great Lakes Region on 29 November 1995, supports the work of the facilitators appointed by it, and emphasizes once again the importance it attaches to all States acting in accordance with the recommendations contained in the Cairo Declaration as well as those adopted at the Regional Conference held in Bujumbura in February 1995. It stresses the importance of continued attention by the international community as a whole to the situation in Burundi and encourages Member States to intensify contacts and visits.

“The Council notes the proposals referred to in the Secretary-General’s letter of 29 December 1995. It will consider these and other proposals he may submit in the light of the reports on the mission of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees and from his Special Representative in Burundi. It also requests the Secretary-General to consider what role United Nations personnel in the region and other support personnel might play in Burundi.

“The Council reaffirms its support for the Convention on Governance of 10 September 1994, which constitutes the institutional framework for national reconciliation in Burundi and for the institutions of Government established in line with it. It calls once again upon all political parties, military forces and elements of civil society in Burundi fully to respect and implement the Convention on Governance and to give their continued support to the institutions of Government established in line with it.

“The Council will remain seized of this matter.”

“The situation in Burundi

“Letter dated 12 April 1996 from the Secretary-General addressed to the President of the Security Council (S/1996/313)”

The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representative of Burundi, at his request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Council’s provisional rules of procedure.

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1996/21):

“The Security Council has taken note of the letter dated 12 April 1996 from the Secretary-General to the President of the Council on the present situation in Burundi (S/1996/313), in response to the request to the Secretary-General in resolution 1049 (1996) to keep the Council informed on the situation.

“The Council is deeply concerned at the recent degeneration of security conditions and political cooperation in Burundi. The Council condemns all acts of violence. The Council is equally concerned at reported statements calling for the arming of civilians, which could lead to grave consequences. The dramatic increase in violence throughout the country already severely inhibits humanitarian aid and could have a negative effect on the donors’ capacity to implement development assistance in support of the search by the people of Burundi for reconciliation and rehabilitation.

“The Council urges the authorities and all parties in Burundi to set aside their differences and demonstrate the necessary cohesion, unity and political will for settlement of the conflict by peaceful means. The Council calls upon all Burundians to renounce the use of violence and to engage in a comprehensive dialogue to ensure a peaceful future for the people of Burundi.

“The Council is deeply concerned at the widespread purchase and use of weapons by Burundians, in particular the laying of landmines.

“The Council looks forward to the recommendations of the Secretary-General in the report which it requested by 1 May 1996 on the progress towards commencement of the National Debate and other initiatives for comprehensive political dialogue and national reconciliation. The Council extends its full support for and confidence in the efforts of the Special Representative of the Secretary-General, and those of former President Nyerere and other envoys to facilitate negotiations to resolve the present crisis.

“The Council requests the Secretary-General, in accordance with paragraph 13 of resolution 1049 (1996), to expedite consultations with Member States concerned and the Organization of African Unity, as appropriate, on contingency planning both for the steps that might be taken to support a comprehensive dialogue and for a rapid humanitarian response in the event of widespread violence or serious deterioration in the humanitarian situation in Burundi.

“The Council underlines its commitment to follow events in Burundi closely and resolves to consider further all relevant options for an appropriate response by the international community upon receipt of the impending report of the Secretary-General.”

K. Communication dated 8 May 1996 and report of the Secretary-General dated 3 May 1996

Report of the Secretary-General dated 3 May 1996 (S/1996/335) submitted pursuant to Security Council resolution 1049 (1996), describing aspects of the deteriorating situation in Burundi.

L. Consideration at the 3664th meeting (15 May 1996) and presidential statement

At the 3664th meeting, held on 15 May 1996 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“The situation in Burundi

“Report of the Secretary-General on the situation in Burundi (S/1996/335)”

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1996/24):

“The Security Council has considered the report of the Secretary-General on the situation in Burundi, dated 3 May 1996 (S/1996/335) submitted pursuant to resolution 1049 (1996).

“The Council is gravely concerned at the continued deterioration of the security situation in Burundi, in particular at reports of a downward spiral of violence which has resulted in further large-scale killings in Buhoro and Kivyuka, and at the increasing flow of refugees from Burundi. The Council is deeply concerned that relief organizations have been prevented from delivering vital humanitarian and development assistance in Burundi, and at the suffering which this imposes on the people of Burundi. It calls on the parties and all concerned to refrain from any action that could aggravate the problem of refugees.

“The Council strongly condemns any use of violence and emphasizes its conviction that a lasting settlement of the situation in Burundi can only be found through peaceful means. The Council calls on the parties to engage in a comprehensive political dialogue aimed at achieving national reconciliation in Burundi. The Council urges once again the authorities and all parties concerned in Burundi to set aside their differences, renounce the use of force and demonstrate a firm political will for a prompt settlement of the conflict.

“The Council stresses the importance of the commencement of the National Debate provided for in the Convention on Governance, as an appropriate mechanism for a wide-ranging political dialogue in which all parties to the conflict should participate without any preconditions. The Council reaffirms its support for the convening of the Regional Conference on Peace, Security and Development in the Great Lakes Region and calls upon all the States concerned to render their cooperation for the convening of the conference.

“The Council reiterates its full support for the ongoing efforts of former President Nyerere to facilitate negotiations and political dialogue to resolve the crisis in Burundi and looks forward to a successful outcome of the upcoming meeting in Mwanza, United Republic of Tanzania, on 22 May 1996. The Council calls upon the parties to make full use of the meeting to achieve progress towards national reconciliation. It also supports the efforts of the Secretary-General and his Special Representative to that end.

“The Council emphasizes the importance of the continued cooperation of the United Nations with the Organization of African Unity, the European Union and other interested countries and organizations in coordination with former President Nyerere aimed at achieving the objective of a comprehensive political dialogue between the parties in Burundi. In this regard, the Council expresses its support for the efforts of the Organization of African Unity and its observer mission and calls upon all States to contribute generously to the Organization of African Unity Peace Fund in order to enable the Organization to increase the size of the mission and to extend its mandate beyond July 1996.

“The Council welcomes the endorsement by the Secretary-General of the conclusions of the technical mission providing for United Nations radio broadcasts in Burundi and looks forward to being kept informed by him of progress made in the implementation of their recommendations.

“The Council reiterates the importance it attaches to the contingency planning called for in paragraph 13 of resolution 1049 (1996), and notes the consultations which have already taken place. In the light of recent developments, it requests the Secretary-General and Member States concerned to continue to facilitate, as a matter of urgency, contingency planning for a rapid humanitarian response in the event of widespread violence or a serious deterioration in the humanitarian situation in Burundi. It also encourages the Secretary-General further to pursue planning for steps that might be taken to support a possible political agreement.

“The Council reminds all parties of their responsibilities for restoring peace and stability in Burundi, and recalls its readiness, as set out in resolution 1040 (1996), to consider the adoption of further measures should the parties fail to demonstrate the necessary political will for a peaceful solution to the crisis. The Council will remain seized of the matter.”

The situation in Sierra Leone

A. Report of the Secretary-General dated 21 November 1995

Report of the Secretary-General dated 21 November 1995 (S/1995/975), covering the political, security, economic and humanitarian situation in Sierra Leone during the period since his good offices were formally requested by the Government of Sierra Leone in November 1994.

B. Consideration at the 3597th meeting (27 November 1995) and presidential statement

At the 3597th meeting, held on 27 November 1995 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“The situation in Sierra Leone

“Report of the Secretary-General on the situation in Sierra Leone (S/1995/975)”

The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representative of Sierra Leone, at his request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Council’s provisional rules of procedure.

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1995/57):

“The Security Council has considered the Secretary-General’s report of 21 November on the situation in Sierra Leone (S/1995/975). It is deeply concerned at the conflict in that country, and at the suffering resulting from it, in particular that of the nearly two million internally displaced Sierra Leoneans. It calls for an immediate end to the fighting.

“The Council expresses its appreciation to the Secretary-General for his offer of good offices in Sierra Leone and urges the Revolutionary United Front to take advantage of that offer, thus enabling both parties to enter into negotiations. It thanks the Special Envoy of the Secretary-General for his efforts to that end, in close coordination with the Organization of African Unity, the Commonwealth, the Economic Community of West African States, and other organizations and neighbouring States supporting the negotiations and the process of democratization in Sierra Leone, and welcomes the Secretary-General’s decision that his Special Envoy’s mission should continue for the time being.

“The Council stresses the importance it attaches to a coordinated international effort to alleviate the humanitarian situation in Sierra Leone. It welcomes the Secretary-General’s efforts in this regard and his initiative in preparing, in collaboration with the Government of Sierra Leone, an action plan for the demobilization and reintegration of combatants.

“The Council underlines the need for generous humanitarian assistance in a situation in which nearly half the population of the country have been internally displaced, and calls upon Member States to provide such assistance. The Council commends those humanitarian agencies active in Sierra Leone. The Council deeply deplores attacks on humanitarian convoys and demands that those responsible cease such actions immediately.

“The Council welcomes the programme of transition to democratic constitutional rule set by the Government of Sierra Leone, which is crucial to the restoration of peace and stability in that country. It expresses its strong support for the work of the Interim National Electoral Commission in preparing for the elections to be held on 26 February 1996. It welcomes the assistance being given by the United Nations to the Commission at the request of the Government of Sierra Leone, and calls upon Member States to provide the fullest possible material and financial support to the Commission in order to ensure the success of the elections, with the broadest possible participation.

“The Council urges the Secretary-General to continue to monitor closely the situation in Sierra Leone.”

C. Communication dated 6 February 1996

Letter dated 6 February 1996 (S/1996/91) from the representative of Italy addressed to the Secretary-General, transmitting the text of a statement issued on 24 January 1996 by the Presidency of the European Union.

D. Consideration at the 3632nd meeting (15 February 1996) and presidential statement

At the 3632nd meeting, held on 15 February 1996 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“The situation in Sierra Leone”

The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representative of Sierra Leone, at his request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Council’s provisional rules of procedure.

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, she had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1996/7):

“The Security Council welcomes the results of the meeting of the National Consultative Conference on 12 February 1996 that overwhelmingly supported the decision to maintain 26 February 1996 as the date of the elections. The Council also welcomes the renewed promise of the Government of Sierra Leone, through the Chairman of the National Provisional Ruling Council, to abide by the will of the people expressed through the Conference to hold the elections as scheduled. The Council notes that the Chairman of the Interim National Electoral Commission has confirmed that all the necessary technical arrangements are in place for elections to proceed.

“The Council reiterates its belief that the holding of free and fair elections as scheduled is of critical importance to Sierra Leone’s transition to democratic constitutional rule. Any delay in the elections or interruption in this process is likely to erode international donor support for Sierra Leone. It is also likely to greatly increase the potential for further instability and violence, with devastating consequences for the people of Sierra Leone.

“The Council cautions all groups and individuals in Sierra Leone not to attempt to disrupt through violence or intimidation the electoral process which the great majority of the people of Sierra Leone support. The Council calls upon the Government to fulfil its undertaking to ensure a safe and free environment for the elections.

“The Council urges all parties to end the violence in Sierra Leone. The Council welcomes the initial contacts between the Government and the Revolutionary United Front and calls upon the Revolutionary United Front to renew its ceasefire and to enter into a full dialogue for peace without any conditions.

“The Council expresses its continued concern about the humanitarian situation and suffering of the people resulting from the conflict in Sierra Leone. The Council calls on Member States to continue to provide humanitarian assistance to address this problem.

“The Council commends the efforts of the Secretary-General to assist the conduct of the elections, and in particular the establishment of the Joint International Observer Group. It also commends the work of the Special Envoy of the Secretary-General to support the democratic transition and to facilitate peace negotiations between the Government of Sierra Leone and the Revolutionary United Front. The Council appreciates the important role of the Organization of African Unity and others, including States neighbouring Sierra Leone, in attempting to bring peace to that country.

“The Council requests the Secretary-General to continue to monitor the situation in Sierra Leone and to keep the Council informed of all significant developments.”

E. Consideration at the 3643rd meeting (19 March 1996) and presidential statement

At the 3643rd meeting, held on 19 March 1996 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“The situation in Sierra Leone”

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1996/12):

“The Security Council welcomes the Parliamentary and Presidential elections held in Sierra Leone on 26 and 27 February 1996 and the second round of Presidential elections held on 15 March. It congratulates the people of Sierra Leone on the courage and determination they have shown in proceeding with the elections despite difficulties and disruptions, and pays tribute to all those involved in the success of the elections, in particular the Interim National Electoral Commission and its Chairman. The Council stresses the importance it attaches to a peaceful transition to civilian rule. It welcomes the commitment by the Chairman of the National Provisional Ruling Council to hand over authority by 31 March 1996 and calls upon all concerned to cooperate fully with the newly elected President and Parliament.

“The Council notes that the Joint International Observer Group, which monitored the first round of elections, was impressed by the ‘overwhelming desire on the part of the people of Sierra Leone to exercise their democratic right in casting a ballot for the parties and candidates of their choice’. They have now done so, and it is incumbent on all concerned to help them to consolidate the gains that have been made. The Council is of the view that the circumstances created by the successful conclusion of the elections in Sierra Leone require redoubled efforts to end the fighting in that country. It commends the efforts of the Special Envoy of the Secretary-General and others, in particular the Government of Côte d’Ivoire, to that end. It reiterates its call to all parties to end the violence. It calls upon the Revolutionary United Front to accept the outcome of the election, maintain the ceasefire and enter into a full dialogue for peace, without any conditions.

“The Council calls upon the international community to provide generous assistance to help in resolving the humanitarian problems caused by the conflict in Sierra Leone, and to assist the Government and people of that country in the task of reconstruction that now faces them.

“The Council requests the Secretary General to continue to monitor the situation in Sierra Leone and to keep the Council informed of significant developments.”

4. Consideration at the 3645th meeting (28 March 1996) and presidential statement

At the 3645th meeting, held on 28 March 1996 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“An Agenda for Peace: peacekeeping”

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1996/13):

“The Security Council has reviewed the arrangements for consultation and exchange of information with troop-contributing countries, which were established by the statement of its President made on behalf of the Council on 4 November 1994 (S/PRST/1994/62). The Council has given careful consideration to the views expressed on this question in its debate under the item ‘An Agenda for Peace: peacekeeping’ in its 3611th meeting on 20 December 1995, as well as to the views expressed in debates in the General Assembly.

“The Council has noted the wish expressed in these debates that arrangements for consultation and exchange of information with troop-contributing countries should be improved. The Council shares this wish. It considers it essential for troop-contributing countries to be heard. It notes that many of the concerns expressed would be met if the arrangements set out in the statement of its President of 4 November 1994 were fully implemented. It is also of the view that those arrangements can be strengthened further as set forth below.

“The Council will therefore follow in future the procedures here set out:

“(a) Meetings will be held as a matter of course between members of the Council, troop-contributing countries and the Secretariat for the purpose of consultations and the exchange of information and views; the meetings will be chaired by the Presidency of the Council supported by a representative of the Secretariat;

“(b) The meetings will be held as soon as practicable and in good time before the Council takes decisions on the extension or termination of, or significant changes in, the mandate of a particular peacekeeping operation;

“(c) When the Council considers establishing a new peacekeeping operation, meetings will, unless it proves to be impracticable, be held with any prospective troop contributors who have already been approached by the Secretariat and who have indicated that they may be willing to contribute to the operation;

“(d) The President of the Council will, in the course of informal consultations of members of the Council, report the views expressed by participants at each meeting with troop-contributing or prospective troop-contributing countries;

“(e) The existing practice of inviting to these meetings Member States which make special contributions to peacekeeping operations other than troops — that is, contributions to trust funds, logistics and equipment — will continue;

“(f) The monthly tentative forecast of work of the Council made available to Member States will include an indication of the expected schedule of such meetings for the month;

“(g) Ad hoc meetings may be convened in the event of unforeseen developments in a particular peacekeeping operation which could require action by the Council;

“(h) These meetings will be in addition to those convened and chaired by the Secretariat for troop contributors to meet with Special Representatives of the Secretary-General or Force Commanders, or to discuss operational matters concerning particular peacekeeping operations, to which members of the Council will also be invited;

“(i) Background information and an agenda will be circulated by the Secretariat to the participants well in advance of each of the various meetings referred to above; members of the Council may also circulate information as appropriate;

“(j) Interpretation services in all the official languages of the Organization will continue to be available; translation of written documents will continue to be available, if possible in advance of the meetings;

“(k) The time and venue of each meeting should, where possible, appear in advance in the Journal of the United Nations;

“(l) The Council will append to its annual report to the General Assembly information about these meetings.

“The Council recalls that the arrangements described above are not exhaustive. They do not preclude consultations in a variety of forms, including informal communication between the Council President or its members and troop-contributing countries and, as appropriate, with other countries especially affected, for example, countries from the region concerned.

“The Council will continue to keep arrangements for consultations and the exchange of information and views with troop contributors and prospective contributors under review and stands ready to consider further measures and new mechanisms to enhance further the arrangements in the light of experience.” (See also chap. 25, sect. B.)

Report of the Secretary-General dated 19 January (S/1996/42) submitted in response to the Security Council's request for a written report on recent developments in Somalia and pursuant to the statement by the President of the Council of 6 April 1995 (S/PRST/1995/15), covering the developments since his report of 28 March 1995 (S/1995/231).

B. Consideration at the 3620th meeting (24 January 1996) and presidential statement

At the 3620th meeting, held on 24 January 1996 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“The situation in Somalia

“Report of the Secretary-General on the situation in Somalia (S/1996/42)”

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1996/4):

“The Security Council has considered the report of the Secretary-General on the situation in Somalia dated 19 January 1996 (S/1996/42) and is deeply concerned about the absence of any credible progress towards national reconciliation. It calls upon all Somali political leaders and parties to return to an inclusive process of consultation and negotiation aimed at national reconciliation leading to the establishment of a broad-based national government.

“The Council welcomes with appreciation the efforts of the Organization of African Unity, the Organization of the Islamic Conference, the League of Arab States, the European Union and neighbouring States in promoting national dialogue in the search for a solution to the Somali crisis. These efforts demonstrate the commitment of the international community not to abandon the people of Somalia. It reaffirms that the people of Somalia bear ultimate responsibility for achieving national reconciliation and restoring peace. In this respect, the Council urges the leaders of Somali factions to reject violence and place the interests of the country and people above their personal differences and political ambitions.

“The Council also welcomes and supports the Secretary-General's intention to maintain the United Nations Political Office for Somalia. It stresses the importance of its maintaining close cooperation with the regional organizations, monitoring developments in Somalia and continuing contacts with Somali factions. It looks forward to the return of the United Nations Political Office for Somalia to Somalia as soon as circumstances permit.

“The Council expresses deep concern at the continuing conflict. The resulting insecurity, banditry and general lawlessness increase the suffering of the civilian population. The Council condemns the harassment, beatings, abduction and killings of personnel of international humanitarian organizations, and underlines the responsibility of all parties in Somalia for ensuring the safety and security of humanitarian and other international personnel. This atmosphere of insecurity has regrettably forced the United Nations agencies to relocate international personnel thus hindering the smooth delivery of much needed humanitarian assistance.

“The Council commends the valiant efforts of United Nations and international humanitarian agencies and their Somali personnel for the courage and determination to render assistance to the people of Somalia. The Council encourages Member States to continue to provide humanitarian assistance in order to avoid a further deterioration of the current situation.

“The Council considers the uninterrupted delivery of humanitarian assistance to be a crucial factor in the overall security and stability of Somalia. In this respect, the closure of Mogadishu main seaport and other transportation facilities severely aggravates the present situation and poses a potential major impediment to future emergency deliveries. The Council calls upon the Somali parties and factions to open those facilities unconditionally.

“The Council reminds all States of their obligation to implement fully the general and complete embargo imposed by paragraph 5 of resolution 733 (1992) on all deliveries of weapons and military equipment to Somalia. In this respect it calls on all States to refrain from any actions which might exacerbate the situation in Somalia.

“The Council requests the Secretary-General to continue to keep it informed about developments in Somalia. The Council remains seized of the matter.”

At the 3631st meeting, held on 15 February 1996 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“The situation in Afghanistan”

The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representative of Afghanistan, at his request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Council’s provisional rules of procedure.

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, she had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1996/6):

“The Security Council deeply deplores the continuation of armed hostilities in Afghanistan, which have brought death and destruction to the people and property of the country and threaten the peace and security of the region.

“The Council is particularly concerned about the recent intensification of shelling and air attacks in and around the capital city of Kabul and the blockade of the city, which has prevented the delivery of foodstuffs, fuel and other humanitarian items to its population.

“The Council calls on the parties involved to end the hostilities forthwith and not to obstruct the delivery of humanitarian aid and other needed supplies to the innocent civilians of the city. In this regard, the Council commends the efforts of the United Nations, the International Committee of the Red Cross and other humanitarian agencies in Afghanistan, which are working under the most trying circumstances, and the airlift of food supplies from Peshawar to Kabul, and urges the international community to continue its support of those life-saving efforts.

“The Council is deeply concerned that the continued conflict in Afghanistan provides fertile ground for terrorism, arms transfers and drug trafficking, which destabilize the whole region and beyond. It calls on the leaders of the Afghan parties to put aside their differences and to halt such activities.

“The Council reaffirms its full support for the efforts of the United Nations Special Mission in Afghanistan to bring about a peaceful solution to the conflict through the establishment of a fully representative, broad-based, authoritative council acceptable to all Afghans. It calls upon all Afghans to cooperate fully with the Special Mission as it works towards this goal.

“The Council calls on all States in a position to do so to take steps to promote peace and stability in Afghanistan, in particular by urging the parties to the conflict to cooperate fully with the United Nations Special Mission. It also calls on all States to refrain from interfering in the internal affairs of Afghanistan and to prevent the flow to the Afghan parties of weapons and other supplies that can fuel the fighting.

“The Council urges the captors of the members of the crew of the Russian aircraft in Kandahar to release them immediately and without any preconditions.

“The Council reaffirms its commitment to the full sovereignty, independence, territorial integrity and national unity of Afghanistan. It reaffirms its readiness to assist the Afghan people in their efforts to return peace and normalcy to their country, and it encourages all States, as well as the Organization of the Islamic Conference, the Non-Aligned Movement and others, to support the efforts of the United Nations Special Mission to the same end.

“The Council will remain actively seized of the situation in Afghanistan.”

B. Consideration at the 3642nd meeting (19 March 1996) and presidential statement

At the 3642nd meeting, held on 19 March 1996 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“The situation between Iraq and Kuwait”

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1996/11):

“The Security Council has noted with growing concern that the incident described in the letter of 9 March 1996 from the Executive Chairman of the Special Commission to the President of the Security Council (S/1996/182) and the further incident on 11 March 1996 in which an inspection team was again not allowed immediate and unconditional access to a site designated by the Commission under its resolution 687 (1991) were followed by further such incidents on 14 and 15 March 1996. In all of these cases access was subsequently granted only after unacceptable delays.

“The Council reiterates its full support for the Special Commission in the conduct of its inspections and the other tasks entrusted to it by the Council.

“The Council notes the letter of 17 March 1996 to its President from the Deputy Prime Minister of Iraq (S/1996/204). It recalls that, under paragraph 9 (b) (i) of section C of Security Council resolution 687 (1991), Iraq is required to permit ‘immediate on-site inspection of Iraq’s biological, chemical and missile capabilities, based on Iraq’s declarations and the designation of any additional locations by the Special Commission itself’. By its resolution 707 (1991), the Council also expressly demanded that Iraq ‘allow the Special Commission, the International Atomic Energy Agency and their inspection teams immediate, unconditional and unrestricted access to any and all areas, facilities, equipment, records and means of transportation which they wish to inspect’. The obligation was furthermore confirmed in the Commission’s plan for ongoing monitoring and verification which was approved by the Security Council in resolution 715 (1991); in this context the Council recalls the notes from the Secretary-General of 21 July 1993 (S/26127) and 1 December 1993 (S/26825).

“The Council considers that Iraq’s delays in permitting the inspection team recently in Iraq access to the sites concerned constitute clear violations by Iraq of the provisions of resolutions 687 (1991), 707 (1991) and 715 (1991). The Council demands that the Government of Iraq allow the Special Commission inspection teams immediate, unconditional and unrestricted access to all sites designated by the Commission for inspection in accordance with the relevant resolutions of the Council.”

Resolution 1051 (1996) reads as follows:

“The Security Council,

“Reaffirming its resolution 687 (1991) of 8 April 1991, and in particular section C thereof, its resolution 707 (1991) of 15 August 1991 and its resolution 715 (1991) of 11 October 1991 and the plans for ongoing monitoring and verification approved thereunder,

“Recalling the request in paragraph 7 of its resolution 715 (1991) to the Committee established under resolution 661 (1990), the Special Commission and the Director General of the International Atomic Energy Agency to develop in cooperation a mechanism for monitoring any future sales or supplies by other countries to Iraq of items relevant to the implementation of section C of resolution 687 (1991) and other relevant resolutions, including resolution 715 (1991) and the plans approved thereunder, “Having considered the letter of 7 December 1995 (S/1995/1017) to the President of the Council from the Chairman of the Committee established under resolution 661 (1990), annex I of which contains the provisions for the mechanism for export/import monitoring called for in paragraph 7 of resolution 715 (1991), “Recognizing that the export/import monitoring mechanism is an integral part of ongoing monitoring and verification by the Special Commission and the International Atomic Energy Agency, “Recognizing that the export/import mechanism is not a regime for international licensing, but rather for the timely provision of information by States in which companies are located which are contemplating sales or supplies to Iraq of items covered by the plans for ongoing monitoring and verification and will not impede Iraq’s legitimate right to import or export, for non-proscribed purposes, items and technology necessary for the promotion of its economic and social development,

“Acting under Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations,

“1. Approves, pursuant to the relevant provisions of its resolutions 687 (1991) and 715 (1991), the provisions for the monitoring mechanism contained in annex I of the aforementioned letter of 7 December 1995 (S/1995/1017), subject to the terms of this resolution;

“2. Approves also the general principles to be followed in implementing the monitoring mechanism contained in the letter of 17 July 1995 from the Chairman of the Special Commission to the Chairman of the Committee established under resolution 661 (1990) which is contained in annex II of the aforementioned letter of 7 December 1995 (S/1995/1017);

“3. Affirms that the mechanism approved by this resolution is without prejudice to and shall not impair the operation of existing or future non-proliferation agreements or regimes on the international or regional level including arrangements referred to in resolution

687 (1991), nor shall such agreements or regimes impair the operation of the mechanism;

“4. Confirms, until the Council decides otherwise under its relevant resolutions, that requests by other States for sales to Iraq or requests by Iraq for import of any item or technology to which the mechanism applies shall continue to be addressed to the Committee established under resolution 661 (1990) for decision by that Committee in accordance with paragraph 4 of the mechanism;

“5. Decides, subject to paragraphs 4 and 7 of this resolution, that all States shall:

“(a) Transmit to the joint unit constituted by the Special Commission and the Director General of the International Atomic Energy Agency under paragraph 16 of the mechanism the notifications, with the data from potential exporters, and all other relevant information when available to the States, as requested in the mechanism on the intended sale or supply from their territories of any items or technologies which are subject to such notification in accordance with paragraphs 9, 11, 13, 24, 25, 27 and 28 of the mechanism;

“(b) Report to the joint unit, in accordance with paragraphs 13, 24, 25, 27 and 28 of the mechanism, any information they may have at their disposal or may receive from suppliers in their territories of attempts to circumvent the mechanism or to supply Iraq with items prohibited to Iraq under the plans for ongoing monitoring and verification approved by resolution 715 (1991), or where the procedures for special exceptions laid down in paragraphs 24 and 25 of the mechanism have not been followed by Iraq;

“6. Decides that the notifications required under paragraph 5 above shall be provided to the joint unit by Iraq, in respect of all items and technologies referred to in paragraph 12 of the mechanism, as from the date agreed upon between the Special Commission and the Director General of the International Atomic Energy Agency and Iraq, and in any event not later than sixty days after the adoption of this resolution;

“7. Decides that the notifications required under paragraph 5 above shall be provided to the joint unit by all other States as from the date the Secretary-General and the Director General of the International Atomic Energy Agency, after their consultations with the members of the Council and other interested States, report to the Council indicating that they are satisfied with the preparedness of States for the effective implementation of the mechanism;

“8. Decides that the information provided through the mechanism shall be treated as confidential and restricted to the Special Commission and the International Atomic Energy Agency, to the extent that this is consistent with their respective responsibilities under resolution 715 (1991), other relevant resolutions and the plans for ongoing monitoring and verification approved under resolution 715 (1991);

“9. Affirms, if experience over time demonstrates the need or new technologies so require, that the Council would be prepared to review the mechanism in order to determine whether any changes are required and that the annexes to the plans for ongoing monitoring and verification approved under resolution 715 (1991), which identify the items and technologies to be notified under the mechanism, may be amended in accordance with the plans, after appropriate consultations with interested States and, as laid down in the plans, after notification to the Council;

“10. Decides also that the Committee established under resolution 661 (1990) and the Special Commission shall carry out the functions assigned to them under the mechanism, until the Council decides otherwise;

“11. Requests the Director General of the International Atomic Energy Agency to carry out, with the assistance and cooperation of the Special Commission, the functions assigned to him under the mechanism;

“12. Calls upon all States and international organizations to cooperate fully with the Committee established under resolution 661 (1990), the Special Commission and the Director General of the International Atomic Energy Agency in the fulfilment of their tasks in connection with the mechanism, including supplying such information as may be sought by them in implementation of the mechanism;

“13. Calls upon all States to adopt as soon as possible such measures as may be necessary under their national procedures to implement the mechanism;

“14. Decides that all States shall, not later than 45 days after the adoption of this resolution, be provided by the Special Commission and the Director General of the International Atomic Energy Agency with information necessary to make preparatory arrangements at the national level prior to the implementation of the provisions of the mechanism;

“15. Demands that Iraq meet unconditionally all its obligations under the mechanism approved by this resolution and cooperate fully with the Special Commission and the Director General of the International Atomic Energy Agency in the carrying out of their tasks under this resolution and the mechanism by such means as they may determine in accordance with their mandates from the Council;

“16. Decides to consolidate the periodic requirements for progress reports under its resolutions 699 (1991), 715 (1991) and this resolution and to request the Secretary-General and the Director General of the International Atomic Energy Agency to submit such consolidated progress reports every six months to the Council, commencing on 11 April 1996;

“Noting with concern the incidents on 11 and 12 June 1996, reported to members of the Council by the Executive Chairman of the Special Commission, when access by a Special Commission inspection team to sites in Iraq designated for inspection by the Commission was excluded by the Iraqi authorities, “Emphasizing the importance the Council attaches to full compliance by Iraq with its obligations under resolutions 687 (1991), 707 (1991) and 715 (1991) to permit immediate, unconditional and unrestricted access to the Special Commission to any site which the Commission wishes to inspect,

H. Consideration at the 3674th meeting (14 June 1996) and presidential statement

At the 3674th meeting, held on 14 June 1996 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“The situation between Iraq and Kuwait”

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1996/28):

“The Security Council condemns the failure of Iraq to comply with its resolution 1060 (1996) of 12 June 1996 by refusing access to sites designated by the Special Commission on 13 June 1996. Coming after the denial of access on 11 and 12 June 1996, this new dimension of non-compliance marks a serious step backwards in Iraq’s cooperation with the Special Commission. The Council considers that these events constitute a clear and flagrant violation of its resolutions 687 (1991), 707 (1991) and 715 (1991).

“The Council reiterates its full support for the Special Commission in the conduct of its inspections and the other tasks entrusted to it by the Council. The Council rejects attempts by Iraq to impose conditions on the conduct of inspections by the Special Commission.

“The Council demands once again that Iraq comply with the relevant resolutions of the Council and, in particular, allow the inspection teams of the Special Commission immediate, unconditional and unrestricted access to any and all areas, facilities, equipment, records and means of transportation which they wish to inspect.

“The Council requests the Chairman of the Special Commission to visit Baghdad as soon as possible with a view to securing immediate, unconditional and unrestricted access to all sites which the Special Commission wishes to inspect, and to engage in a forward-looking dialogue on other issues under the Commission's mandate. It further requests the Chairman to report immediately afterwards on the results of his visit and on the impact of Iraqi policies on the mandate and work of the Special Commission."

Letter dated 15 June 1996 from the representative of Iraq addressed to the President of the Security Council, transmitting the findings of an inquiry into the incident that occurred on 14 June 1996 involving the Iraqi military and the Special Commission aerial inspection team.

Signature of the African Nuclear-Weapon-Free Zone Treaty (the Treaty of Pelindaba)

A. Consideration at the 3651st meeting (12 April 1996) and presidential statement

At the 3651st meeting, held on 12 April 1996 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“Signature of the African Nuclear-Weapon-Free Zone Treaty (the Treaty of Pelindaba)”

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1996/17):

“The Security Council notes with deep satisfaction the signature of the African Nuclear-Weapon-Free Zone Treaty (the Treaty of Pelindaba) on 11 April 1996 at Cairo, and notes further the adoption of the Cairo Declaration on that occasion.

“This historic event marks a successful formalization of the commitment undertaken 32 years ago when the leaders of Africa adopted in July 1964 at Cairo the pioneering resolution of the First Ordinary Session of the Assembly of Heads of State and Government of the Organization of African Unity, which declared Africa a denuclearized zone.

“The Council considers that the signing of the Treaty by more than 40 African countries, as well as the signing of the relevant protocols to the Treaty by the majority of the nuclear-weapons States, constitute important steps towards the effective and early implementation of the Treaty. To that end it emphasizes the importance of early ratification of the Treaty with a view to securing its rapid entry into force.

“The Council, reaffirming the statement made by its President on behalf of members of the Council at the meeting held at the level of Heads of State and Government on 31 January 1992 (S/23500) that the proliferation of all weapons of mass destruction constitutes a threat to international peace and security, considers that the signature of the African Nuclear-Weapon-Free Zone Treaty constitutes an important contribution by the African countries to the maintenance of international peace and security.

“The Council seizes this occasion to encourage such regional efforts, and stands ready to support efforts on the international and regional level aimed at achieving the universality of the nuclear non-proliferation regime.”

B. Communications dated 12 April 1996

Letter dated 12 April 1996 (S/1996/276) from the representative of Egypt addressed to the Secretary-General, transmitting the text of the Declaration adopted on the occasion of the signature on 11 April 1996 at Cairo of the African Nuclear-Weapon-Free Zone Treaty (the Treaty of Pelindaba).

Letter dated 12 April (S/1996/290) from the representative of Italy addressed to the Secretary-General, transmitting a statement by the Presidency of the European Union on the African Nuclear-Weapon-Free Zone Treaty.

“The fiftieth anniversary of the United Nations”

The Council began its consideration of the item and heard a statement by the Secretary-General.

Statements were made by the Minister for Foreign Affairs of Indonesia, the Minister for Foreign Affairs of Honduras, the Deputy Chancellor and Minister for Foreign Affairs of Germany, the Minister for Foreign Affairs of France, the Vice-Premier and Minister for Foreign Affairs of China, the Minister for Foreign Affairs of Botswana, the Minister for Foreign Affairs, International Trade and Worship of Argentina, the Secretary of State of the United States of America, the Secretary of State for Foreign and Commonwealth Affairs of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, the Minister for Foreign Affairs of the Russian Federation, the Minister for Foreign Affairs of Nigeria, the First Deputy Minister for Foreign Affairs of the Czech Republic, the representatives of Rwanda and Oman, and by the President, speaking in her capacity as the Minister for Foreign Affairs of Italy.

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, she had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1995/48):

“The Security Council has met on 26 September 1995, at the level of Foreign Ministers, to commemorate the Fiftieth Anniversary of the United Nations and to exchange views on the challenges which the Security Council faces.

“Since its establishment the Security Council has played a crucial role in the maintenance of international peace and security on which development and cooperation among nations are based. The past few years in particular have been ones of momentous change, bringing fresh hope and new challenges. Operations mandated by the Council have assisted in the restoration of peace and stability to countries long-plagued by war. Although such operations have largely been successful, there are areas where success has not been achieved. The Council must continue to spare no effort in working for the maintenance of international peace and security, and build upon its experience of past and existing operations.

“The Security Council recognizes that the challenges facing the international community demand a resolute response, based on the principles and purposes of the Charter of the United Nations. The members of the Security Council consider that the United Nations must be strengthened and revitalized to help meet these challenges. They take note of the conclusions of the Working Group of the General Assembly on the Question of Equitable Representation on and Increase in the Membership of the Security Council and other Matters Related to the Security Council, inter alia, that the Council should be expanded, and that its working methods should continue to be reviewed, in a way that further strengthens its capacity and effectiveness, enhances its representative character and improves its working efficiency and transparency; and that important differences on key issues continue to exist. The Council also believes that effective use should be made of instruments for preventive action, and the Organization’s capacity to conduct effective peace-keeping operations should continue to be improved. The Council will continue to attach utmost importance to the safety and security of all who serve under the United Nations flag in the field.

“The members of the Security Council reaffirm their commitment to the collective security system of the Charter. On the solemn occasion of the Fiftieth Anniversary of the United Nations, the Council, along with other United Nations bodies, commemorates what has been achieved so far, but also commits itself once again to the maintenance of international peace and security for which it has primary responsibility, and to working to save succeeding generations from the scourge of war.”

At the 3593rd meeting, held in public on 13 November 1995 in accordance with the decision taken in June 1993 (S/26015), the Security Council considered its draft report to the General Assembly covering the period from 16 June 1994 to 15 June 1995.

Security Council documentation and working methods and procedure

A. Documentation of the Security Council and related matters

In a note dated 24 January 1996, the President of the Security Council stated the following:

“As part of the efforts to improve the documentation of the Security Council, the members of the Council have again reviewed the list of matters of which the Security Council is seized (S/1996/15). The Council has decided to remove the following matters from the list: items Nos. 3, 4, 57 and 125.

“The members of the Council will continue to review from time to time the list of matters of which the Security Council is seized.

“The above decision has been taken after extensive consideration and appropriate consultation by the Informal Working Group of the Security Council concerning the Council’s documentation and other procedural questions.

“Neither the removal of a matter from the list of matters of which the Security Council is seized nor its retention carries any implication for the substance of the matter. The Council may at any time decide to include any matter in the agenda of a meeting of the Council, whether or not it is included in the list.”

In a note dated 24 January 1996, the President of the Security Council stated that all members of the Council had indicated their agreement with the following proposals:

“The Chairman of each Committee should give an oral briefing to interested Members of the United Nations after each meeting, in the same way as the President of the Security Council now gives oral briefings following informal consultations of Council members;

“The Chairman of each Committee should be asked to bring to the attention of its members and of the Members of the United Nations the improvements in procedures of the Committees which were agreed to by the members of the Council on 29 March and 31 May 1995 (see S/1995/234 and S/1995/438).”
