Introduction

The present report, covering the period from 16 June 1996 to 15 June 1997, is submitted to the General Assembly by the Security Council in accordance with Article 24, paragraph 3, and Article 15, paragraph 1, of the Charter of the United Nations. It is the fifty-second annual report of the Security Council to the General Assembly. These reports are circulated as Supplement No. 2 to the Official Records of each regular session of the General Assembly.

As in previous years, the report is intended as a guide to the activities of the Security Council during the period covered. It should be noted, in this connection, that in December 1974 the Council decided to make its report shorter and more concise, without changing its basic structure (see Official Records of the Security Council, Twenty-ninth Year, Supplement for October, November and December 1974, document S/11586). Moreover, in January 1985, the Council agreed, in keeping with the spirit of its 1974 decision, to discontinue the practice of summarizing documents addressed to the President of the Council or to the Secretary-General and circulated as documents of the Council and instead simply to indicate the subject matter of those documents which related to the procedure of the Council (see Resolutions and Decisions of the Security Council, 1985, part II, document S/16913).

During the period under review, the Council adopted a number of additional measures in connection with the ongoing rationalization of its documentation and other procedures (see part II, chap. 28 below). Measures relating to the format, adoption and timely submission of the report (S/26015) had already been implemented in the previous reports. Accordingly, the appendices listing resolutions and presidential statements provide cross-references to the relevant chapter, section and subsection of the report for each resolution and presidential statement (see appendices V and VI).

In August 1996, the Council established procedures for the deletion of matters that had not been considered by the Council in the preceding five years from the list of matters of which the Council is seized (S/1996/603* and S/1996/704).

Other procedural measures related to the question of providing information to States not members of the Council were introduced in July 1993, March 1994, March 1995, May 1995 and January 1996. In July 1993, the Council decided to make available to all Member States the tentative forecast of the programme of work of the Council for each month (S/26176). In March 1994, it decided that the draft resolutions in their provisional form would be made available for collection by States not members of the Council (S/1994/230). In March 1995, the Council decided that, in order to make the procedures of the sanctions committees more transparent, the introduction to the annual report should contain more information about each Committee's activities (S/1995/234) and, in January 1996, it decided that the Chairman of each Committee should give an oral briefing to interested Members of the United Nations after each meeting, in the same way as the President of the Security Council gives oral briefings following informal consultations of Council members (S/1996/54). In order to bring about transparency and increased consultations in matters relating to peacekeeping operations, the Council decided in March 1996 to further strengthen a number of measures on consultations and exchange of information with troop-contributing countries (S/PRST/1996/13).

The present report therefore reflects the foregoing decisions of the Security Council.

In June 1997, the Council, taking into account views expressed on the existing format of its annual report, approved new measures aimed at enhancing the analytical nature of the report for future years. As set out in the note by the President of the Security Council of 12 June 1997 (S/1997/451), in relation to each subject dealt with by the Council, the report will include, as background, a descriptive list of the decisions, resolutions and presidential statements of the Council for the one-year period preceding the period covered; for the period covered by the report, a description in chronological order of the consideration by the Council of the matter in question and of actions taken by the Council on that item, including descriptions of the decisions, resolutions and presidential statements, and a list of communications received by the Council and reports of the Secretary-General; factual data, including dates of formal meetings and informal consultations at which a subject was discussed; information regarding the work of the subsidiary organs of the Council, including the sanctions committees; information regarding the documentation and working methods and procedures of the Council; matters brought to the attention of the Council but not discussed by it during the period covered; appendices as in the present report, but also the full texts of all resolutions, decisions and presidential statements adopted or voted upon by the Council during the year in question; and information about meetings with troop-contributing countries. There will also be attached, as an addendum to the report, brief assessments on the work of the Council, which representatives who have completed their functions as President of the Security Council may wish to prepare, under their own responsibility and following consultations with members of the Council for the month during which they presided and which should not be considered as representing the views of the Council. The members of the Council will continue to consider and to review ways to improve the Council's documentation and procedure, including the provision of special reports as referred to in Article 24, paragraph 3, of the Charter of the United Nations.

With respect to the membership of the Security Council during the period under review, it will be recalled that the General Assembly, at the 39th plenary meeting of its fifty-first session, on 21 October 1996, elected Costa Rica, Japan, Kenya, Portugal and Sweden to fill the vacancies resulting from the expiration, on 31 December 1996, of the terms of office of Botswana, Germany, Honduras, Indonesia and Italy.

During the year under review, the Council held 115 formal meetings, adopted 52 resolutions and issued 54 statements by the President. In addition, the Council members held consultations of the whole, totalling some 342 hours. The Council considered over 105 reports of the Secretary-General and reviewed and processed more than 1,214 documents and communications from States and regional and other intergovernmental organizations.

The present report consists of 4 parts and 10 appendices:

Part IV lists communications on matters brought to the attention of the Security Council but not discussed at formal meetings of the Council during the period covered. They are arranged in chronological order based on the date of receipt of the first communication on each item.

Work of the subsidiary organs of the Security Council:

Subsidiary organs of the Security Council active during the period under review were as follows:

- (a) Security Council Committee established by resolution 661 (1990) concerning the situation between Iraq and Kuwait

The Committee established by resolution 661 (1990) concerning the situation between Iraq and Kuwait is mandated by the Security Council to ensure the effective implementation of the provisions contained in relevant resolutions concerning sanctions against Iraq, particularly resolutions 661 (1990), 665 (1990), 666 (1990), 669 (1990), 670 (1990), 687 (1991), 692 (1991), 700 (1991), 706 (1991), 707 (1991), 712 (1991), 715 (1991), 773 (1992), 778 (1992), 806 (1993), 833 (1993), 899 (1994) and 986 (1995). According to the guidelines of the Committee for the conduct of its work, adopted on 17 August 1990, all decisions are taken by consensus.

Pursuant to the note by the President of the Security Council of 29 March 1995 (S/1995/234), the Committee submitted its report to the Security Council (S/1996/700), covering its major activities during the past few years.

As called for by Security Council resolution 986 (1995), the Committee developed, in close coordination with the Secretary-General, expedited procedures as necessary to implement the arrangements in paragraphs 1, 2, 6, 8, 9 and 10 of that resolution. At its 142nd meeting, held on 8 August 1996, the Committee adopted the procedures to be employed by it in the discharge of its responsibilities as required by paragraph 12 of resolution 986 (1995) (S/1996/636). Paragraph 1 of resolution 986 (1995), under which States are authorized to permit the import of petroleum and petroleum products originating in Iraq, came into force at 0001 Eastern Standard Time on 10 December 1996 following the submission on 9 December 1996 of the Secretary-General's report to the President of the Security Council pursuant to paragraph 13 of that resolution (S/1996/1015).

On 11 March 1997, the Committee submitted a report to the Security Council (S/1997/213) pursuant to paragraph 12 of resolution 986 (1995), in which the Committee was requested to report to the Council, 90 days after the date of entry into force of paragraph 1 of that resolution, on the implementation of the arrangements in the paragraphs referred to above. The Committee, further, adopted some points of understanding on 5 March, 1 April and 14 May 1997 on the implementation of resolution 986 (1995). On 30 May 1997, the Committee submitted another report (S/1997/417) on the implementation of those arrangements prior to the end of the initial 180-day period pursuant to paragraph 12 of resolution 986 (1995). On 4 June 1997, the Security Council adopted resolution 1111 (1997), by which it decided that the provisions of resolution 986 (1995), except those contained in paragraphs 4, 11 and 12 of that resolution, should remain in force for another period of 180 days beginning at 0001 hours Eastern Daylight Time on 8 June 1997.

During the period covered by the present report, the Committee held a number of informal meetings at the expert level to discuss issues related to the sanctions regime, including the issue of the implementation of resolution 986 (1995).

The Security Council, pursuant to paragraphs 21 and 28 of resolution 687 (1991), conducted six reviews of the sanctions against Iraq.

The bureau of the Committee, as elected at the Committee's first meeting of each year, consists of a Chairman and two Vice-Chairmen. The Chairman is elected in his or her personal capacity for the calendar year, while two delegations are elected to provide the Vice-Chairmen for the year. For 1996, the bureau consisted of H.E. Mr. Tono Eitel (Germany) as Chairman, with Botswana and Poland as Vice-Chairmen; for the period in 1997 covered by the present report, H.E. Mr. António Monteiro (Portugal) served as Chairman, with Guinea-Bissau and Poland as Vice-Chairmen of the Committee.

(b) Governing Council of the United Nations Compensation Commission

During the period under review the Governing Council of the United Nations Compensation Commission held three regular sessions (twenty-first to twenty-third) and one special session, its sixth. It held seven plenary meetings in the course of which it acted on a number of items related to the different claims categories. Decisions taken include:

Category A

The Governing Council approved the sixth instalment of category A claims:

Number of claims	Amount recommended (United States dollars)
80,456	319,730,500

Category C

The Governing Council approved the following instalments of category C claims:

Number of claims	Amount recommended (United States dollars)
Third instalment:
64,065	323,776,505.21
Fourth instalment:
70,558	637,643,444.35

Category E

The Governing Council approved an award of US$ 610,048,547 for the claim of the Kuwait Oil Company for the cost of extinguishing the oil-well fires (the well blowout control claim).

The secretariat of the Commission, acting pursuant to Governing Council decision 17 (S/AC.26/Dec.17 (1994)), made available US$ 144,019,945 to 63 Governments and one international organization for distribution to 57,636 successful claimants whose claims were resolved in the first instalment of Category A (departure from Iraq or Kuwait) and category C (individual losses up to $100,100) claims. The payments, which consist of initial amounts of up to $2,500 for each successful claimant, were made on 12 March 1997. The funding for the payments came from a 30 per cent share of the revenue derived from the sale of Iraqi petroleum under the "oil-for-food" mechanism of Security Council resolution 986 (1995).

With the extension by resolution 1111 (1997) of the relevant provisions of resolution 986 (1995) for another period of 180 days as from 8 June 1997, it was anticipated that sufficient funds would have accumulated in the Compensation Fund by October 1997 to permit the payment of approximately US$ 560 million to over 224,000 successful claimants whose claims were resolved in the second instalments of categories A and C.

(c) Security Council Special Commission established pursuant to paragraph 9 (b) (i) of resolution 687 (1991)

The Special Commission established pursuant to paragraph 9 (b) (i) of resolution 687 (1991) is mandated by the Security Council to supervise the destruction, removal or rendering harmless of all Iraqi chemical and biological weapons, stocks of agents, related subsystems and components, all research, development, support and manufacturing facilities, as well as all ballistic missiles with a range greater than 150 kilometres and related major parts, and repair and production facilities.

The Special Commission also continued the programme of political-level meetings between its Chairman and the Deputy Prime Minister of Iraq, designed to give impetus to the resolution of issues identified in the June 1996 Joint Programme of Action which is fundamental to completing the task. The Commission has continued its efforts to verify Iraq's declarations containing its full, final and complete disclosures, submitted to the Commission in June and July of 1996.

In an attempt to break the stalemate, the Special Commission decided to change the established pattern of work, whereby Iraq provided declarations on the disposition of its proscribed weapons, to one where the Commission would assist Iraq by indicating the areas which caused concern and outlining what Iraq must do to satisfy the Commission's concerns. This process of presentations made by the Chairman and international experts has led to a clearer understanding on the Iraqi side, at the political level, of what it is required to do. Some results were achieved, particularly in the chemical and missile fields, although problems remained, especially in the biological area.

The implementation of the export/import monitoring mechanism for Iraq established by resolution 1051 (1996) has continued. The mechanism, which is a key layer in the Special Commission's ongoing monitoring and verification system, became fully effective on 1 October 1996. It is proving to be a useful tool in ensuring Iraq's compliance with its obligations.

The Special Commission's financial requirements, a perennial problem, were covered during 1996 by voluntary contributions from some Member States. The situation has now been put on an even keel following the implementation of resolution 986 (1995), which, inter alia, provides the Commission with adequate financing. The Commission has also acquired additional office space which should make it more effective and allow it to take on new staff to fulfil assignments previously frozen because of inadequate secure space at Headquarters.

Member States have continued to render significant assistance to the Special Commission in the implementation of its mandate through the provision of services in kind, such as personnel, equipment, facilities and analytical support. This support, essential to the effective implementation of the Commission's mandate, is appreciated by the Organization. The contributions of Bahrain and Chile are particularly noteworthy.

In May 1997, the Secretary-General accepted the resignation of Ambassador Rolf Ekéus from the post of Executive Chairman of the Special Commission to allow him to return to the service of his country. The Secretary-General paid high tribute to him for the determination and skill with which he handled a very delicate mission and for the substantial progress made in implementing an especially difficult mandate.

(d) Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 724 (1991) concerning Yugoslavia

During the period under review, the Committee established pursuant to resolution 724 (1991) continued to implement its mandate as modified by the Security Council. It held one formal meeting, on 19 September 1996. Following the receipt by members of the Council of the reports of the Secretary-General dated 13 and 17 June 1996

(S/1996/433 and S/1996/442) on the implementation of annex 1-B (Agreement on Regional Stabilization) of the Dayton Peace Agreement, the Chairman of the Committee informed all States, by a note verbale dated 18 June 1996, that the arms embargo had been terminated, in accordance with paragraph 1 of resolution 1021 (1995). By resolution 1074 (1996), adopted on 1 October 1996, the Security Council decided, inter alia, to terminate, with immediate effect, the measures referred to in paragraph 1 of resolution 1022 (1995) against the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia and the Bosnian Serb party. In paragraph 6 of resolution 1074 (1996), the Council also decided to dissolve the Committee upon finalization of its report. On 15 November 1996, the Committee adopted its final report (S/1996/946), which was transmitted to the President of the Council on the same day. The report gave a concise account of the main activities of the Committee from January 1993 until the termination of the sanctions regime on 1 October 1996 and included observations and recommendations.

At its 142nd meeting, on 19 September 1996, the Committee discussed the report of the Copenhagen round table on United Nations sanctions in the case of the former Yugoslavia, which was hosted by Denmark, under the auspices of the Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe, on 24 and 25 June 1996. The Committee expressed its appreciation for the report and on 24 September 1996 transmitted it to the Council (S/1996/776).

For 1996, the Committee's bureau consisted of H.E. Juan Somavía (Chile) as Chairman, with the delegations of Guinea-Bissau and the Republic of Korea providing the Vice-Chairmen.

(e) Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 748 (1992) concerning the Libyan Arab Jamahiriya

By resolution 748 (1992), adopted on 31 March 1992, the Security Council imposed a regime of mandatory sanctions against the Libyan Arab Jamahiriya relating to various aspects of air links with, the supply of arms and military weapons to, reductions and restriction of the activities of the diplomatic and consular missions of, and restrictions on known or suspected terrorists nationals of the Libyan Arab Jamahiriya. For 1996, the bureau of the Committee established pursuant to resolution 748 (1992) consisted of H.E. Mr. Zbigniew Maria Wlosowicz (Poland) as Chairman, with the delegations of Germany and the Republic of Korea providing the two Vice-Chairmen. For 1997, the bureau consisted of H.E. Mr. Zbigniew Maria Wlosowicz (Poland) as Chairman, with the delegations of Portugal and the Republic of Korea providing the two Vice-Chairmen. During the period under review, the Committee held eight meetings and handled over 95 incoming communications relating to various aspects of the implementation of the mandatory sanctions. Sixty-seven of those communications contained requests for exemptions, on humanitarian grounds, from the air embargo imposed by resolutions 748 (1992) and 883 (1993) against the Libyan Arab Jamahiriya, of which 63 were approved and 4 have been placed on hold.

At its 69th meeting, held on 5 July 1996, the Committee considered two notes verbales dated 27 June 1996 and 28 June 1996, respectively, from the Permanent Missions of Egypt and the Libyan Arab Jamahiriya to the United Nations concerning the flights of a Libyan-registered aircraft from Tripoli to Cairo on 22 June 1996 (transporting the head of State of the Libyan Arab Jamahiriya to the Arab Summit Conference) and back to Tripoli on 23 June 1996. The Committee decided that the flights on 22 and 23 June, in disregard of resolution 748 (1992), were serious violations of that resolution. The Committee demanded that the Libyan Arab Jamahiriya refrain from any further such violations. If a further violation occurred, it would consider recommendations to the Security Council, in accordance with paragraph 9 (c) of resolution 748 (1992), on ways to increase the effectiveness of the measures contained in that resolution (SC/6241).

The Security Council considered on several occasions (in informal consultations) a letter dated 22 July 1996 (S/1996/588) from the Permanent Representative of the Libyan Arab Jamahiriya to the United Nations addressed to the President of the Security Council, providing reasons for the travel by the Libyan head of State. On 30 July 1996, the President of the Council recalled the terms of resolution 748 (1992) and of the statement made on 5 July by the Chairman of the Committee established pursuant to resolution 748 (1992), indicating that, if further violations occurred, the Committee would consider ways to increase the effectiveness of the measures contained in that resolution.

On 29 January 1997, at its 3734th meeting, the Security Council indicated, through a statement read by its President (S/PRST/1997/2), that the announcement by the Libyan authorities that Libyan Arab Airways would resume international flights out of the Libyan Arab Jamahiriya immediately (S/1997/52) was incompatible with resolution 748 (1992), which prohibits all international flights to and from that country. The Council also took note of reports that a Libyan-registered aircraft had flown from Tripoli to Accra on 21 January 1997, in apparent violation of resolution 748 (1992), and asked the Committee to follow up on the matter. At its 73rd meeting, held on 3 February 1997, the Committee considered action pursuant to the presidential statement.

By a note verbale dated 5 March 1997, Egypt requested the Committee's approval for 45 flights of Egypt Air from Cairo to Tripoli and Benghazi and on to Jeddah, and an equal number of return flights, for the purpose of transporting Libyan pilgrims to perform the Hajj. The Committee approved the Egyptian request, with certain conditions (SC/6343).

On 4 April 1997, at its 3761st meeting, in a statement by the President (S/PRST/1997/18), the Security Council cited the flight on 29 March 1997 of a Libyan-registered aircraft from Tripoli to Jeddah as a clear violation of the sanctions regime and called on the Libyan Arab Jamahiriya to refrain from any further violations. On 11 April 1997, the Committee approved the text of a note verbale to be addressed to all Member States, as called for in the presidential statement.

During informal consultations of the whole on 13 May 1997, the Security Council considered reports of flights carrying the Libyan head of State and his entourage to the Niger and to and from Nigeria on 9 and 10 May 1997, in violation of resolution 748 (1992). The Council decided to refer the matter to the Committee so that it might ascertain the facts and report back to the Council.

The Committee met on 15 and 19 May 1997 and decided that (1) the aforementioned unauthorized flights by the Libyan head of State took place; and (2) they constituted a breach of the sanctions regime. The Committee also took due note of the contents of the communications addressed to its Chairman by the Libyan Arab Jamahiriya, the Niger and Nigeria on the matter. On 20 May 1997, the Chairman briefed the Security Council on the above decisions. At the 3777th meeting of the Security Council, held on 20 May 1997, the President made a statement on behalf of the Council concerning the incident (S/PRST/1997/27). The Council, inter alia, took note with concern of reports of the flights in question, which were in violation of resolution 748 (1992), requested the Committee to follow up the matter directly with the representatives of the Libyan Arab Jamahiriya, the Niger and Nigeria, and called upon all States to fulfil their obligations under resolution 748 (1992).

During the period under review, the Security Council conducted three reviews of the sanctions. On those occasions, the members found that conditions did not exist for modifying the regime of sanctions established by the Council in paragraphs 3 to 7 of resolution 748 (1992). So far, the Security Council has undertaken 15 such reviews.

(f) Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 751 (1992) concerning Somalia

The Committee established pursuant to resolution 751 (1992) is mandated to ensure the effective implementation of the general and complete embargo, imposed by resolution 733 (1992), on all deliveries of weapons and military equipment to Somalia.

For 1996, the bureau of the Committee consisted of H.E. Mr. Park Soo Gil (Republic of Korea) as Chairman, with the delegations of Egypt and Honduras providing the two Vice-Chairmen. For 1997, the bureau consists of H.E. Mr. Park Soo Gil (Republic of Korea) as Chairman, with the delegations of Costa Rica and Egypt providing the two Vice-Chairmen. During the period under review the Committee held two meetings.

In the light of concerns expressed by members of the Security Council during informal consultations held in September 1996 on the critical nature of developments in Somalia, the Committee met to review measures for enhancing its effectiveness in implementing the arms embargo against Somalia. Pursuant to a decision taken at that meeting, on 23 September 1996, an appeal in the form of a press release was addressed to Governments, national and international organizations and individuals for information relating to violations or alleged violations of the arms embargo against Somalia (SC/6268). Further, a note verbale was sent to all States reminding them of their obligations under the relevant Council resolutions and urging them to provide the Committee with information on any violations or suspected violations of the arms embargo against Somalia.

On 7 January 1997, the Committee submitted to the Council its report for 1996 (S/1997/16).

(g) International Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law in the Territory of the Former Yugoslavia

By mid-1996, the International Tribunal had become fully operational and was able to dedicate itself thoroughly to its mandated functions. Consequently, the second half of 1996 and the first of 1997 witnessed the intensification of its core prosecution and investigation tasks, and an increase in trial activities.

As at 1 May 1997, the International Tribunal had issued 18 indictments, involving 74 suspects, while 8 are being held in custody in the Tribunal's detention facilities. The latest indictee, Zlatko Aleksovski, was turned over to the Tribunal by the Croatian authorities on 28 April 1997. On 17 June 1996, the Tribunal ordered the release of one indictee after the Prosecutor had dropped all charges against him.

The first judgement of the International Tribunal, in the case against Duško Tadić, which had started on 7 May 1996, was delivered on 7 May 1997. Out of a total of 31 charges, the accused was found guilty on 11 counts of persecution and beatings, and not guilty on 20 counts, involving 11 counts of murder. This judgement constituted the first determination by an international tribunal of individual guilt or innocence in connection with serious violations of international humanitarian law. The sentencing procedure — a separate procedure under the Tribunal's rules of procedure — will begin in the near future.

On 29 November 1996, the Tribunal had handed down its first sentence, in the case against Dražen Erdemović. The accused had pleaded guilty to the charges brought against him and was sentenced to 10 years imprisonment.

As at 30 May 1997, one case was being heard in the first instance, involving four accused persons, namely Zejnil Delalić, Hazim Delić, Esad Landžo and Zdravko Mucić (the Čelebići case), and appellate proceedings in the Erdemović trial have also begun. The case of Tihofil Blaškić, in which numerous preliminary motions have already been heard in the course of 1996 and 1997, will commence on 24 June 1997. It is also expected that an appeals motion will be filed in the Tadić case before July 1997. Pre-trial hearings are being held in the case of Mr. Aleksovski, whose trial is expected to commence in the second half of 1997.

From 28 June to 8 July 1996, a hearing was held in the case against Radovan Karadžić and Ratko Mladić under Rule 61 of the Tribunal's Rules of Procedure and Evidence, which allows the issuance of an international arrest warrant if the personal service of the indictment to the accused has not been effected and the accused failed to appear before the Tribunal. Subsequent to that hearing, the Tribunal issued international arrest warrants against both individuals. By a letter dated 11 July 1996, the President of the Tribunal, Judge Antonio Cassese, notified the Security Council of the failure to execute the previous arrest warrants.

From 16 to 18 April 1997, a hearing was held to address the question whether the Tribunal had the authority to restrain the sovereignty of States by enjoining a State, or any of its high officials, under the threat of sanctions, to surrender to the court material believed to be of evidentiary value. The decision of the Tribunal is yet to be issued.

Following the resignation of Justice Richard Goldstone effective 1 October 1996, and pursuant to Security Council resolution 1047 (1996), Justice Louise Arbour (Canada) assumed her functions as the new Prosecutor for the International Tribunal.

The judges of the Tribunal held two plenary sessions at The Hague (eleventh session, 24 and 25 June 1996; twelfth session, 2 and 3 December 1996). The judges heard reports by both the President and the officials of the Registry, and adopted further amendments to the Tribunal's Rules of Procedure and Evidence.

On 20 May 1997, the General Assembly elected 11 judges for a four-year term beginning on 17 November 1997. Of the 11 judges currently holding office, eight had submitted their candidacy for re-election. Five of the current judges and six new judges were elected by the General Assembly.

(h) Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 864 (1993) concerning the situation in Angola

The Committee established pursuant to resolution 864 (1993) is mandated to ensure the effective implementation of the mandatory sanctions imposed by that resolution against the União Nacional para a Independência Total de Angola (UNITA) relating to the sale or supply of arms and related matériel of all types, including weapons and ammunition, military vehicles, equipment and spare parts, as well as petroleum and petroleum products. For 1996, the bureau of the Committee consisted of H.E. Mr. Nabil Elaraby (Egypt) as Chairman, with the delegations of Honduras and Indonesia providing the two Vice-Chairmen. For 1997, the bureau consists of H.E. Mr. Nabil Elaraby (Egypt) as Chairman, with the delegations of Costa Rica and Japan providing the two Vice-Chairmen. During the period under review the Committee held one meeting.

On 14 January 1997, the Committee submitted its report for 1996 to the Council (S/1997/33).

(i) Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 918 (1994) concerning Rwanda

The Committee established pursuant to resolution 918 (1994) is mandated to ensure the effective implementation of the mandatory measures imposed by that resolution relating to the sale or supply to Rwanda of arms and related matériel of all types, including weapons and ammunition, military vehicles and equipment, paramilitary police equipment and spare parts. For 1996, the bureau of the Committee consisted of H.E. Mr. Nugroho Wisnumurti (Indonesia) as Chairman, with the delegations of Botswana and Italy providing the two Vice-Chairmen. For 1997, the bureau consists of H.E. Mr. Hisashi Owada (Japan) as Chairman, with the delegations of Kenya and Sweden providing the two Vice-Chairmen. During the reporting period, the Committee held one meeting and dealt with four communications concerning the sanctions imposed against Rwanda.

On 1 September 1996, the restrictions imposed by paragraph 13 of resolution 918 (1994) relating to the sale or supply of arms and related matériel to the Government of Rwanda were terminated, in accordance with paragraph 8 of Council resolution 1011 (1995). However, all States are required to continue to implement those restrictions in respect of the sale or supply of arms and related matériel to non-governmental forces, or to persons in neighbouring States, for use in Rwanda. A statement to this effect was issued by the Chairman, on behalf of the Committee, on 11 September 1996 (SC/6265).

Until the termination on 1 September 1996 of the above-mentioned restrictions against the Government of Rwanda, the Committee, as required by paragraph 11 of Council resolution 1011 (1995), continued to report to the Council on notifications received from States on exports of arms or related matériel to Rwanda as well as notifications of imports of arms and related matériel made by the Government of Rwanda. In this connection, during the period under review, one notification received by the Committee was reported to the Council (S/1996/697).

On 7 January 1997, the Committee submitted its report for 1996 to the Council (S/1997/15).

(j) International Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of Rwanda and Rwandan Citizens Responsible for Such Violations Committed in the Territory of Neighbouring States

By 16 June 1997, 23 persons had been indicted by the Prosecutor in 14 different indictments for crimes falling under the jurisdiction of the Tribunal. Twelve of the indictees have been arrested in Belgium, Cameroon, Côte d'Ivoire, Kenya, Switzerland and Zambia, and have been transferred to the Tribunal's detention facilities at Arusha, United Republic of Tanzania. One indictee has been arrested in the United States of America and is currently awaiting transfer to the Tribunal's detention facilities. The remaining 10 indictees are still at large.

Two suspects have been arrested in Cameroon pursuant to a request by the Prosecutor pending presentation and confirmation of an indictment from the Prosecutor and subsequent transfer to the Tribunal's detention facilities.

Three trials are currently in process. On 9 January 1997, in Trial Chamber 1 at the Tribunal's seat in Arusha, the trial began of Jean Paul Akayesu, a former bourgmestre in Taba Commune in Rwanda. A second trial was begun on 18 March 1997 in Trial Chamber 1, that of Georges Rutaganda, a former businessman in Kigali and second Vice-President of the Interahamwe, the youth wing of the political party MRND (Mouvement révolutionnaire national pour le développement). The third trial, begun in Trial

Chamber 2 on 9 April 1997, is of Clement Kayishema, the former prefect in Kibuye, and Obed Ruzindana, a former businessman in Kibuye. In the course of these trials, the Trial Chambers have issued a number of important orders and decisions relating to the proceedings.

At the third plenary session of the two Trial Chambers in Arusha and the Appeals Chamber in The Hague, held at The Hague from 1 to 5 July 1996, the judges adopted a number of amendments to the Rules of Procedure and Evidence. At their fourth plenary session, held at Arusha from 2 to 6 June 1997, the judges adopted further amendments to the Rules of Procedure and Evidence and also amended the Directive on Assignment of Defence Counsel. At the same session, the judges re-elected Judge Laity Kama as President of the Tribunal and Judge Yakov A. Ostrovsky as Vice-President. Two newly elected Judges of the Appeals Chamber, Judge Gabrielle Kirk McDonald and Judge Lal. C. Vohrah, were officially sworn in during the fourth session as members of the Appeals Chamber of the Tribunal and made a solemn declaration in the presence of the Registrar, who represented the Secretary-General.

In response to a request by the General Assembly, the Office of Internal Oversight Services conducted an audit and investigation of the Tribunal during October and November 1996. In reviewing the records of the Tribunal, the Office became aware of serious operational deficiencies in the management of the Tribunal. In its report of 6 February 1997 (A/51/789), the Office put forward 26 recommendations for improvement of the conditions, most of which have been implemented or are in the process of being implemented. Furthermore, the Deputy Prosecutor, Mr. Honore Rakotomanana, and the Registrar, Mr. Andronico O. Adede, were replaced. In their place, the Secretary-General appointed Mr. Bernard Hacho Muna as Deputy Prosecutor and Mr. Agwu U. Okali as Registrar.

(k) Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 985 (1995) concerning Liberia

The Committee established pursuant to resolution 985 (1995) is mandated to ensure the effective implementation of the general and complete embargo, imposed by resolution 788 (1992), on all deliveries of weapons and military equipment to Liberia. For 1996, the bureau of the Committee consisted of H.E. Mr. Gerardo Martinez Blanco (Honduras) as Chairman, with the delegations of Indonesia and Italy providing the two Vice-Chairmen. For 1997, the bureau consists of H.E. Mr. Fernando Berrocal Soto (Costa Rica) as Chairman, with the delegations of Japan and Sweden providing the two Vice-Chairmen. During the period under review the Committee held one meeting.

On 31 December 1996, the Committee submitted its report for 1996 to the Council (S/1996/1077).

Part I

Questions considered by the Security Council under its responsibility for the maintenance of international peace and security

Chapter 1 The situation in Cyprus

A. Communications dated 17 and 21 June 1996 and reports of the Secretary-General dated 25 and 27 June 1996

Letter dated 17 June 1996 (S/1996/443 and Corr.1) from the representative of Turkey addressed to the Secretary-General, and enclosures.

Letter dated 21 June (S/1996/457) from the representative of Cyprus addressed to the Secretary-General.

Report of the Secretary-General dated 25 June on his mission of good offices in Cyprus (S/1996/467) submitted pursuant to Security Council resolution 1032 (1995), providing an assessment of his efforts towards reaching a settlement of the situation in Cyprus.

Addendum dated 27 June (S/1996/411/Add.1) to the report of the Secretary-General dated 7 June 1996 on the United Nations operation in Cyprus (S/1996/411 and Corr.1).

B. Consideration at the 3675th meeting (28 June 1996) and adoption of resolution 1062 (1996)

At the 3675th meeting, held on 28 June 1996 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“The situation in Cyprus

“Report of the Secretary-General on the United Nations operation in Cyprus (S/1996/411 and Corr.1 and Add.1)

“Report of the Secretary-General on his mission of good offices in Cyprus (S/1996/467)”

The President drew attention to the text of a draft resolution (S/1996/477) that had been prepared in the course of the Council's prior consultations, which he put to the vote.

Decision: At the 3675th meeting, on 28 June 1996, draft resolution S/1996/477 was adopted unanimously as resolution 1062 (1996).

Resolution 1062 (1996) reads as follows:

“The Security Council,

“Welcoming the report of the Secretary-General of 7 June 1996 on the United Nations operation in Cyprus (S/1996/411 and Corr.1 and Add.1), “Welcoming also the report of the Secretary-General of 25 June 1996 on his mission of good offices in Cyprus (S/1996/467), “Taking note of the recommendation in his report of 7 June 1996 that the Security Council extend the mandate of the United Nations Peacekeeping Force in Cyprus,

“Noting that the Government of Cyprus has agreed that in view of the prevailing conditions in the island it is necessary to keep the Force in Cyprus beyond 30 June 1996,

“Reaffirming its earlier relevant resolutions on Cyprus, and in particular resolutions 186 (1964) of 4 March 1964, 939 (1994) of 29 July 1994 and 1032 (1995) of 19 December 1995, “Reiterating its concern that there has been no progress towards a final political solution, and agreeing with the assessment of the Secretary-General that the negotiations have been at an impasse for too long,

“Regretting that no progress has been made in introducing measures to prohibit along the ceasefire lines live ammunition or weapons other than those which are hand-held and to prohibit the firing of weapons within sight or hearing of the buffer zone, or in extending the 1989 unmanning agreement,

“Expressing concern about the restrictions placed upon the freedom of movement of the Force in the northern part of the island, as described in paragraph

27 of the report of the Secretary-General of 7 June 1996,

“1. Decides to extend the mandate of the United Nations Peacekeeping Force in Cyprus for a further period ending on 31 December 1996;

“2. Welcomes the appointment of Mr. Han Sung-Joo as the new Special Representative of the Secretary-General for Cyprus and calls upon both parties to cooperate fully with him in his efforts to facilitate a comprehensive settlement of the Cyprus problem;

“3. Deplores the tragic incident involving the fatal shooting of a Greek Cypriot National Guardsman inside the United Nations buffer zone on 3 June 1996, as well as the hindering by Turkish Cypriot soldiers of Force personnel attempting to assist the National Guardsman and investigate the incident, as documented in the report of the Secretary-General of 7 June 1996;

“4. Expresses serious concern about the continuing modernization and upgrading of military forces in the Republic of Cyprus, the excessive levels of military forces and armaments and the lack of progress towards a significant reduction in the number of foreign troops in the Republic of Cyprus, urges once again all concerned to commit themselves to such a reduction and to a reduction in defence spending in the Republic of Cyprus to help restore confidence between the parties and as a first step towards the withdrawal of non-Cypriot forces as described in the set of ideas (S/24472, annex), stresses the importance of eventual demilitarization of the Republic of Cyprus as an objective in the context of an overall comprehensive settlement, and calls upon the Secretary-General to continue to promote efforts in this direction;

“5. Expresses serious concern also about recent military exercises in the region, including overflights in the airspace of Cyprus by military fixed-wing aircraft, which have increased tension;

“6. Calls upon the military authorities on both sides:

“(a) To respect the integrity of the United Nations buffer zone, ensure that no further incidents occur along the buffer zone, prevent hostile actions, including live fire against the Force, grant the Force complete freedom of movement and extend their full cooperation to the Force;

D. Consideration at the 3728th meeting (23 December 1996) and adoption of resolution 1092 (1996)

At the 3728th meeting, held on 23 December 1996 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“The situation in Cyprus

“Report of the Secretary-General on the United Nations operation in Cyprus (S/1996/1016 and Add.1)

“Report of the Secretary-General on his mission of good offices in Cyprus (S/1996/1055)”

The President drew attention to the text of a draft resolution (S/1996/1062) that had been prepared in the course of the Council's prior consultations, which he put to the vote.

Decision: At the 3728th meeting, on 23 December 1996, draft resolution S/1996/1062 was adopted unanimously as resolution 1092 (1996).

Resolution 1092 (1996) reads as follows:

“The Security Council,

“Welcoming the report of the Secretary-General of 10 December 1996 on the United Nations operation in Cyprus (S/1996/1016 and Add.1), “Welcoming also the report of the Secretary-General of 17 December 1996 on his mission of good offices in Cyprus (S/1996/1055),

“Noting that the Government of Cyprus has agreed that in view of the prevailing conditions in the island it is necessary to keep the United Nations Peacekeeping Force in Cyprus beyond 31 December 1996,

“Reaffirming its earlier relevant resolutions on Cyprus, and in particular resolutions 186 (1964) of 4 March 1964, 939 (1994) of 29 July 1994 and 1062 (1996) of 28 June 1996,

“Gravely concerned by the deteriorating situation in Cyprus and by the fact that intercommunal tensions on the island have escalated and, over the last six-month period, violence along the ceasefire lines has reached a level not seen since 1974 as stated in the report of the Secretary-General of 10 December 1996, “Concerned also at the increased use of and threat to use violence against the personnel of the Force, “Noting the beginning of indirect discussions through the Force Commander between the military authorities of both sides on measures aimed at reduction of military tensions, “Reiterating its concern that negotiations on a final political solution have been at an impasse for too long,

“1. Decides to extend the mandate of the United Nations Peacekeeping Force in Cyprus for a further period ending on 30 June 1997;

“2. Deplores the violent incidents of 11 and 14 August, 8 September and 15 October 1996, which resulted in the tragic deaths of three Greek Cypriot civilians and one member of the Turkish Cypriot Security Forces, as well as injuries to civilians and Force personnel, in particular the unnecessary and disproportionate use of force by the Turkish/Turkish Cypriot side, as well as the largely passive role played by the Cypriot police in response to civilian demonstrations;

“3. Reminds both sides of their obligation to prevent acts of violence directed against Force personnel, particularly those involving firearms, which inhibit the Force from carrying out its mandated responsibilities, and demands that they ensure the Force complete freedom of movement and extend their full cooperation to the Force;

“4. Emphasizes the need to maintain law and order and, in this context, demands that both parties prevent unauthorized incursions into the buffer zone, and respond immediately and responsibly to any demonstrations which violate the buffer zone and any demonstrations near the buffer zone that might lead to an increase in tensions;

“5. Calls upon the parties to accept as a package, without delay or preconditions, the reciprocal measures proposed by the Force, namely: (a) to extend the 1989 unmanning agreement to other areas where the two sides remain in close proximity to each other; (b) to prohibit loaded weapons along the ceasefire lines; and (c) to adopt a code of conduct, based on the concept of minimal force and proportional response, to be followed by troops on both sides along the ceasefire lines, and expresses its disappointment that no progress has been made towards implementing these measures thus far;

“6. Further calls upon the military authorities on both sides:

“(a) To clear all minefields and booby-trapped areas inside the buffer zone without further delay, as requested by the Force;

“(b) To cease military construction in the immediate vicinity of the buffer zone;

“(c) To refrain from any military exercises along the buffer zone;

“7. Reiterates grave concern about the excessive levels of military forces and armaments in the Republic of Cyprus and the rate at which they are being expanded, upgraded and modernized, including by the introduction of sophisticated weaponry, as well as the lack of progress towards a significant reduction in the number of foreign troops in the Republic of Cyprus, which threaten to raise tensions both on the island and in the region and complicate efforts to negotiate an overall political settlement;

“8. Calls again upon all concerned to commit themselves to a reduction in defence spending and a reduction in the number of foreign troops in the Republic of Cyprus to help restore confidence between the parties and as a first step towards the withdrawal of non-Cypriot forces as described in the set of ideas (S/24472, annex), stresses the importance of eventual demilitarization of the Republic of Cyprus as an objective in the context of an overall comprehensive settlement, and calls upon the Secretary-General to continue to promote efforts in this direction;

“9. Expresses continuing concern about military exercises in the region, including overflights in the airspace of Cyprus by military fixed-wing aircraft, which have markedly increased political tension on the island and undermined efforts towards achieving a settlement;

“10. Reiterates that the status quo is unacceptable and stresses its support for the Secretary-General's mission of good offices and the importance of the concerted efforts to work with the Secretary-General towards an overall comprehensive settlement;

“11. Welcomes the efforts of the Secretary-General's Special Representative, and of those working in support, to prepare the ground for open-ended direct negotiations in the first half of 1997 between the leaders of the two Cypriot communities in order to secure an overall settlement;

“12. Calls upon the parties to cooperate with the Special Representative to that end, as well as with his intensified preparatory work in the first months of 1997 with the objective of clarifying the main elements of an overall settlement;

“13. Underlines that the success of this process will require the creation of genuine mutual confidence on both sides and the avoidance of actions which increase tension, and calls upon the leaders of both communities to create a climate of reconciliation and confidence;

“14. Reaffirms its position that a Cyprus settlement must be based on a State of Cyprus with a single sovereignty and international personality and a single citizenship, with its independence and territorial integrity safeguarded, and comprising two politically equal communities as described in the relevant Security Council resolutions, in a bicomunal and bizonal federation, and that such a settlement must exclude union in whole or in part with any other country or any form of partition or secession;

“15. Welcomes the continuous efforts by the Force to implement its humanitarian mandate in respect of Greek Cypriots and Maronites living in the northern part of the island, and Turkish Cypriots living in the southern part, and regrets that there has been no further progress on the implementation of recommendations arising out of the humanitarian review undertaken by the Force in 1995;

“16. Welcomes the continuing efforts of the United Nations and others in the international community to promote bicomunal events, regrets the obstacles which have been placed in the way of such contacts, and strongly urges all concerned, and especially the Turkish Cypriot community leadership, to lift all obstacles to such contacts;

“17. Reaffirms that the decision of the European Union concerning the opening of accession negotiations with Cyprus is an important new development that should facilitate an overall settlement;

“18. Requests the Secretary-General to keep under review the structure and strength of the Force with a view to its possible restructuring, and to present any new considerations he may have in this regard;

“19. Requests the Secretary-General to submit a report by 10 June 1997 on the implementation of this resolution;

“20. Decides to remain actively seized of the matter.”

2. Consideration at the 3677th meeting (3 July 1996) and presidential statement

At the 3677th meeting, held on 3 July 1996 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“The situation in Croatia

“Further report on the situation of human rights in Croatia pursuant to Security Council resolution 1019 (1995) (S/1996/456)”

The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representative of Croatia, at his request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Council's provisional rules of procedure.

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1996/29):

“The Security Council has considered the further report of the Secretary-General of 21 June 1996 (S/1996/456) submitted pursuant to its resolution 1019 (1995) on Croatia.

“The Council is deeply concerned at the failure by the Croatian Government to take sufficient measures to safeguard the rights of the local Serb population and to ensure their safety and well-being. The Council is also deeply concerned at the Croatian Government's failure to promote conditions, including satisfactory procedures, facilitating the return of all Croatian Serbs who wish to do so. The Council strongly deplores such failure to act.

“The Council notes that the Croatian Government has begun to cooperate with international human rights mechanisms, and that it has considered various initiatives for the protection of minority rights. Nevertheless the Council underlines that the Croatian Government must undertake determined and sustained efforts to ensure respect for and protection of the rights of Croatian Serbs and to provide for their safeguarding in the legal and constitutional framework of the Republic of Croatia, including by the reactivation of the relevant articles of its Constitutional Law. The Council reminds the Croatian Government that its obligation to promote respect for and protection of such rights cannot be made conditional upon other factors, including upon political negotiations with the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia.

“The Council expects the Croatian Government to take steps forthwith to comply with the demands contained in its resolution 1019 (1995) and in its statements of 8 January (S/PRST/1996/2), 23 February (S/PRST/1996/8) and 22 May 1996 (S/PRST/1996/26).

“The Council reiterates that all States must cooperate fully with the International Tribunal and its organs established pursuant to its resolution 827 (1993). It notes the cooperation by the Croatian Government with the International Tribunal to date, and reminds the Croatian Government of its obligation to execute arrest warrants in respect of any person in its territory indicted by the Tribunal. The Council calls upon the Croatian Government, with due respect to the sovereignty, territorial integrity and political independence of Bosnia and Herzegovina, to use its influence with the Bosnian Croat leadership to ensure their cooperation with the Tribunal.

“The Council will continue to follow this issue closely. It requests the Secretary-General to keep it regularly informed on measures taken by the Croatian Government in the light of this statement, and to report in any case no later than 1 September 1996.”

3. Consideration at the 3678th meeting (3 July 1996) and presidential statement

At the 3678th meeting, held on 3 July 1996 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“The situation in Croatia

“Report of the Secretary-General pursuant to Security Council resolution 1043 (1996) (S/1996/472 and Add.1)”

The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representative of Croatia, at his request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Council's provisional rules of procedure.

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1996/30):

“The Security Council, in accordance with paragraph 6 of resolution 1037 (1995), has considered the report of the Secretary-General of 26 June 1996 (S/1996/472) submitted pursuant to this resolution on the United Nations Transitional Administration for Eastern Slavonia, Baranja and Western Sirmium.

“The Council notes that the implementation of the Basic Agreement on the Region of Eastern Slavonia, Baranja and Western Sirmium (S/1995/951, annex), signed on 12 November 1995 (the Basic Agreement), is proceeding according to the timetable established by this Agreement. In particular it notes with appreciation that the demilitarization proceeded smoothly and was completed on 20 June 1996. It expresses its satisfaction at the cooperation that both parties have shown in this respect. It calls upon both sides to refrain from any action that might raise tension and to continue to cooperate closely with the Transitional Administration on all aspects of the Basic Agreement to maintain peace and security in the region. It expresses its readiness to consider favourably the extension of the mandate of the United Nations military observers in the Transitional Administration as recommended in the report.

“The Council expresses its satisfaction with the work already achieved by the Transitional Administration, in particular through its operational joint implementation committees, for the re-establishment of normal conditions of life for all the inhabitants of the region. The Council welcomes the efforts now in train to begin the return of displaced persons and refugees to their homes in the region. It notes that it is equally important that persons who fled from their homes in Western Slavonia and elsewhere in Croatia, in particular in the Krajina, should be permitted to return to their homes of origin. The Council calls upon both parties to cooperate fully with the Transitional Administration in that respect.

“The Council recalls the statement of its President of 22 May 1996 (S/PRST/1996/26). The Council regrets that the Government of the Republic of Croatia has not yet taken steps to adopt a comprehensive amnesty law concerning all persons who, either voluntarily or by coercion, served in the civil administration, military or police forces of the local Serb authorities in the former United Nations Protected Areas, with the exception of those who committed war crimes as defined in international law.

The Council urges that this action should be taken as soon as possible and calls on the Croatian Government to cooperate with the Transitional Administration to that end.

“The Council expresses its concern at the worsening economic situation in the region, particularly since the closure in April of the Djeletovci oilfields, which constitute the region's most important economic resource, and at the subsequent lack of revenue available to the local administration to meet salaries and other operating costs of the region. The Council urges the Government of the Republic of Croatia to cooperate closely with the Transitional Administration to identify and provide funding for the local administration and public services. It also underlines the importance of economic development in stabilizing the region.

“The Council expresses its support for the efforts of the Transitional Administration to establish and train a Transitional Police Force which will have the primary responsibility for the maintenance of law and order, operating under the authority of the Transitional Administrator and monitored by the United Nations civilian police. The Council also supports the efforts of the Transitional Administration and the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees to facilitate mine clearing for humanitarian purposes. It calls upon States and others concerned urgently to contribute in support of such activities.

“The Council commends the Transitional Administrator and all the personnel of the Transitional Administration for the impressive results they have achieved so far and expresses its full support for them.

“The Council will remain seized of the matter.”

4. Communications dated 9 and 10 July 1996

Letter dated 10 July (S/1996/539) from the representative of Croatia addressed to the Secretary-General.

5. Consideration at the 3681st meeting (15 July 1996) and adoption of resolution 1066 (1996)

6. Consideration at the 3686th meeting (30 July 1996) and adoption of resolution 1069 (1996)

At the 3686th meeting, held on 30 July 1996 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“The situation in Croatia

“Report of the Secretary-General pursuant to Security Council resolution 1043 (1996) (S/1996/472 and Add.1)”

The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representative of Croatia, at his request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Council's provisional rules of procedure.

The President drew attention to the text of a draft resolution (S/1996/601) that had been prepared in the course of the Council's prior consultations, which he put to the vote.

Decision: At the 3686th meeting, on 30 July 1996, draft resolution S/1996/601 was adopted unanimously as resolution 1069 (1996).

Resolution 1069 (1996) reads as follows:

“The Security Council,

“Recalling its resolution 1037 (1996) of 15 January 1996 establishing the United Nations Transitional Administration for Eastern Slavonia, Baranja and Western Sirmium and its resolution 1043 (1996) of 31 January 1996 authorizing the deployment of military observers as part of the Transitional Administration,

“2. Decides to remain seized of the matter.”

7. Communications received between 2 and 12 August 1996 and report of the Secretary-General

Letter dated 2 August 1996 (S/1996/632) from the Secretary-General addressed to the President of the Security Council, expressing concern about the difficulties faced by UNTAES in securing funding for the operation of existing local administrative structures in its area of operation.

Report of the Secretary-General dated 5 August on UNTAES (S/1996/622) submitted pursuant to Security Council resolution 1037 (1996), requesting the Security Council to consider the possibility of indicating its intention to extend the mandate of UNTAES by up to a further 12 months to enable it to complete its tasks.

Note by the Secretary-General dated 12 August (S/1996/648), transmitting the text of the Agreement on Interim Co-financing of Public Services on the Territory Administered by UNTAES by the Government of the Republic of Croatia, concluded on 8 August 1996 by the Government of Croatia and UNTAES.

8. Consideration at the 3688th meeting (15 August 1996) and presidential statement

At the 3688th meeting, held on 15 August 1996 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“The situation in Croatia

“Report of the Secretary-General on the United Nations Transitional Administration for Eastern Slavonia, Baranja and Western Sirmium (S/1996/622)

“Letter dated 2 August 1996 from the Secretary-General addressed to the President of the Security Council (S/1996/632)

“Note by the Secretary-General (S/1996/648)”

The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representative of Croatia, at his request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Council's provisional rules of procedure.

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1996/35):

“The Security Council has considered the report of the Secretary-General of 5 August 1996 (S/1996/622) on the United Nations Transitional Administration for Eastern Slavonia, Baranja and Western Sirmium and the letter from the Secretary-General of 2 August 1996 (S/1996/632) concerning the funding of the existing local administrative structures in the area of operations of the Transitional Administration.

“The Council welcomes the progress made by the Transitional Administration in implementing the Basic Agreement on the Region of Eastern Slavonia, Baranja and Western Sirmium (S/1995/951, annex) signed on 12 November 1995 (the Basic Agreement), and in promoting the full and peaceful reintegration of the region of Eastern Slavonia into the Republic of Croatia. It stresses that the restoration and maintenance of the multi-ethnic character of Eastern Slavonia are important to international efforts to maintain peace and stability in the region of the former Yugoslavia as a whole. It reminds both parties of their obligation to cooperate with the Transitional Administration. It underlines the importance of economic rehabilitation of the region, the establishment of a Transitional Police Force and the return of displaced persons and refugees to their homes in the region, as well as the importance of the promotion by the Government of Croatia of the return of displaced persons and refugees to their homes of origin elsewhere in the Republic of Croatia. It further underlines the importance of the holding of elections in accordance with the Basic Agreement, once the necessary conditions have been established.

“The Council reminds the Government of Croatia of its responsibility to cooperate with the Transitional Administration and to create conditions conducive to maintaining stability in the region. It calls on the Government of Croatia to take the necessary action without further delay.

“The Council recalls the statements of its President of 22 May (S/PRST/1996/26) and 3 July 1996 (S/PRST/1996/30) and again urges the Government of Croatia to adopt a comprehensive amnesty law concerning all persons who, voluntarily or by coercion, served in the civil administration, military or police forces of the local Serb authorities in the former United Nations Protected Areas, with the exception of those who committed war crimes as defined in international law. The Council notes with concern that the amnesty law and the action subsequently taken by the Government of Croatia, as described by the Secretary-General in his report of 5 August, have been insufficient to create confidence among the local Serb population in Eastern Slavonia. The Council notes the general agreement reached by President Tudjman and President Milosevic in Athens on 7 August 1996 that a general amnesty is an indispensable condition for the safe return of refugees and displaced persons. It expects this agreement to be followed up by corresponding concrete measures.

“The Council notes with appreciation the agreement reached by the Government of Croatia and the Transitional Administration on issues relating to the funding of public services on the territory administered by the Transitional Administration (S/1996/648, annex). It notes, however, that this funding is not sufficient to cover all the costs of such services and it expects further funding to be made available by the Government of Croatia urgently and without conditions. It stresses the importance of ensuring a functioning civil administration so as to maintain stability in the region and help ensure the fulfilment of the mission objectives of the Transitional Administration. The Council, having regard to its resolution 1037 (1996), also reminds the Government of Croatia of the need to contribute towards the costs of the operation of the Transitional Administration.

“The Council recalls that the Basic Agreement provides for a transitional period of 12 months which may be extended at most to another period of the same duration if so requested by one of the parties. It stresses the importance it attaches to the Transitional Administration being able to complete its mandated tasks, including the organization of elections as provided for in the Basic Agreement, promptly and in full. These tasks are, as the Secretary-General notes, the building blocks for the difficult process of reconciliation. To that end, the Council affirms its readiness to consider, at an appropriate time, extending the duration of the mandate of the Transitional Administration, on the basis of the Basic Agreement, its resolution 1037 (1996) and a recommendation from the Secretary-General.

“The Council expresses its appreciation to the Transitional Administrator and his staff, and reaffirms its full support for the efforts of the Transitional Administrator.

“The Council will remain seized of the matter.”

9. Communications received between 29 August and 16 September 1996 and reports of the Secretary-General dated 23 and 28 August 1996

Further report of the Secretary-General dated 23 August 1996 on the situation of human rights in Croatia (S/1996/691) submitted pursuant to Security Council resolution 1019 (1995) and the presidential statement of 3 July 1996 (S/PRST/1996/29), providing information on the progress of measures taken by the Government of Croatia to implement Security Council resolutions 1009 (1995) and 1019 (1995) to the beginning of August 1996.

Report of the Secretary-General dated 28 August on UNTAES (S/1996/705) submitted pursuant to Security Council resolution 1037 (1996).

Letter dated 29 August (S/1996/706) from the representative of Yugoslavia addressed to the Secretary-General, transmitting the text of the Agreement on Normalization of Relations between the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia and the Republic of Croatia, signed at Belgrade on 23 August 1996.

Letter dated 11 September (S/1996/744) from the representative of Croatia addressed to the Secretary-General, transmitting the text of the Agreement on Normalization of Relations between the Republic of Croatia and the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia, signed at Belgrade on 23 August 1996.

Letter dated 16 September (S/1996/763) from the President of the International Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of the Former Yugoslavia since 1991 addressed to the President of the Security Council, informing the Council of the decision rendered on 13 September 1996 by the Trial Chamber of the Tribunal in the proceedings against Ivica Rajić.

10. Consideration at the 3697th meeting (20 September 1996) and presidential statement

At the 3697th meeting, held on 20 September 1996 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“The situation in Croatia

“Further report on the situation of human rights in Croatia pursuant to Security Council resolution 1019 (1995) (S/1996/691)”

The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representative of Croatia, at his request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Council's provisional rules of procedure.

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1996/39):

“The Security Council has considered the report of the Secretary-General of 23 August 1996 (S/1996/691), submitted pursuant to Security Council resolution 1019 (1995) on Croatia.

“The Council notes progress in the humanitarian and human rights situation in some areas. The Council regrets, however, that many of its previous requests have not been complied with by the Government of Croatia. Numerous incidents threatening the population in the formerly Serb-controlled areas are a continuing source of concern and could jeopardize the prospects for peaceful and substantial reintegration of refugees and displaced persons in Croatia.

“The Council commends the Agreement between the Republic of Croatia and the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia, signed in Belgrade on 23 August 1996, and expects the commitments contained therein to be implemented.

“The Council recognizes steps taken by the Government of Croatia to reintegrate refugees and displaced persons into Croatia but urges the Government to expand its programme to accelerate the return of all such persons without preconditions or delay. The Council urges the Government of Croatia also to expand its humanitarian relief efforts, especially as winter approaches.

“The Council in the statement of its President of 3 July 1996 (S/PRST/1996/30) highlighted the need for adoption of a comprehensive amnesty law, in cooperation with the United Nations Transitional Administration for Eastern Slavonia, Baranja and Western Sirmium. Since the report of the Secretary-General of 23 August 1996 which found no substantial progress in this regard since passage of the Government of Croatia’s amnesty law of 17 May 1996, the Republic of Croatia on 20 September 1996 enacted a new amnesty law. The Council welcomes this development as a step towards addressing the concerns outlined in the statement of the President on 3 July 1996 and emphasizes that such a law must be implemented without delay and in a fair and equitable manner, with full respect for the rights of the individual. The Council will follow such implementation closely. The Council notes that a comprehensive new amnesty law and its equitable application are also vital elements in preparing for elections in Eastern Slavonia and important factors in the successful completion of the mandate of the Transitional Administration.

“Despite some positive developments, the Council is deeply concerned that residents of the Krajina and Western Slavonia continue to suffer from inadequate security, including the danger of theft or assault at any time. The Council also notes with concern attacks and threats against those engaged in humanitarian relief activities and human rights monitoring in the area. In particular it deplores the reported involvement of Croatian uniformed military and police officials in acts of looting and harassment.

“The Council urges the Croatian authorities to act immediately to improve the security situation in those regions. It urges that Croatian officials ensure that members of the military and police refrain from criminal and other unacceptable behaviour, and increase their efforts to protect the human rights of all persons present in Croatia, including the Serb population.

“The Council welcomes the recommendations made by the Secretary-General in his report for specific action which must be taken to improve the human rights situation in the Republic of Croatia, inter alia, in the framework of the Basic Agreement on the Region of Eastern Slavonia, Baranja and Western Sirmium (S/1995/951, annex), as part of the peace process towards a comprehensive political settlement in the region. In this context, the Council calls upon the Government of Croatia to expand investigations of crimes committed against the Serb population in 1995. The Council again calls upon the Government of Croatia to rescind its decision of September 1995 suspending certain constitutional provisions affecting the rights of national minorities, principally Serbs.

“The Council reminds the Government of Croatia of its obligation to cooperate with the International Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia and, in particular, to execute the arrest warrants issued by the Tribunal regarding individuals under Croatian jurisdiction, including prominent accused persons known or believed to be in areas under its control, and to transfer to the Tribunal all indicted persons. In this context, the Security Council deplores the failure to date of the Republic of Croatia to execute the arrest warrants issued by the Tribunal against individuals indicted by the Tribunal, in particular the Bosnian Croats referred to in the letter of 16 September 1996 from the President of the Tribunal to the President of the Council (S/1996/763), and calls for the execution of those arrest warrants without delay.

“The Council recalls that no individual should be arrested and detained on the territory of the former Yugoslavia for serious violations of international humanitarian law until and unless the International Tribunal has reviewed the case and agreed that the warrant, order or indictment meets international legal standards.

“The Council will remain seized of the matter and requests that the Secretary-General continue to report on the situation, in any case no later than 10 December 1996.”

14. Consideration at the 3727th meeting (20 December 1996) and presidential statement

At the 3727th meeting, held on 20 December 1996 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“The situation in Croatia

“Further report on the situation of human rights in Croatia pursuant to Security Council resolution 1019 (1995) (S/1996/1011 and Corr.1)”

The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representative of Croatia, at his request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Council's provisional rules of procedure.

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1996/48):

“The Security Council has considered the report of the Secretary-General of 5 December 1996 (S/1996/1011 and Corr.1), submitted pursuant to Security Council resolution 1019 (1995) on Croatia.

“The Council acknowledges notable progress in the humanitarian situation, in particular measures taken by the Government of Croatia to meet the most urgent humanitarian needs of the Croatian Serb population.

“Although the security situation has improved slightly, the Security Council, however, expresses its concern at continued acts of harassment, looting and physical attacks against Croatian Serbs and, in particular, involvement by Croatian uniformed military and police officials in a number of those incidents. It calls upon the Government of Croatia to intensify its efforts to improve the security situation and to ensure adequate security conditions for the local Serb population including the urgent re-establishment of a functioning court system in the former sectors North and South.

“The Council is deeply concerned that in spite of its previous requests there has been little progress on the issue of the return of the Croatian Serb refugees and urges the Government of Croatia to adopt a comprehensive approach in order to facilitate the return of refugees originating from Croatia to their homes of origin throughout Croatia. It deplores the continued failure by the Government of Croatia to safeguard effectively their property rights, especially the situation where many of those Serbs who have returned to the former sectors have been unable to regain possession of their properties. The Council calls upon the Government of Croatia to apply immediately proper procedures to the question of property rights and to stop all forms of discrimination against the Croatian Serb population in the provision of social benefits and reconstruction assistance.

“The Council is deeply concerned at reports that the new amnesty law is not being implemented in a fair and equitable manner. It underlines that equitable application of that law is vital for building confidence and promoting reconciliation in Croatia as well as for the peaceful reintegration of the region of Eastern Slavonia, Baranja and Western Sirmium.

“The Council stresses the importance of the commitments undertaken by the Government of Croatia in relation to the Council of Europe, including its signature of the Framework Convention for the Protection of National Minorities and expects that the Government of Croatia will implement those commitments fully and without delay.

“The Council reiterates its call upon the Government of Croatia to cooperate fully with the International Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia and to conduct investigations into and the prosecution of all persons accused of serious violations of international humanitarian law, especially those committed in the course of military operations in 1995.

“The Council will remain seized of the matter and requests that the Secretary-General continue to report on the situation, in any case no later than 10 March 1997.”

18. Consideration at the 3737th meeting (31 January 1997) and presidential statement

At the 3737th meeting, held on 31 January 1997 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“The situation in Croatia

“Letter dated 21 January 1997 from the Secretary-General addressed to the President of the Security Council (S/1997/62)”

The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representative of Croatia, at his request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Council's provisional rules of procedure.

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1997/4):

“The Security Council has considered the letter of the Secretary-General of 21 January 1997 (S/1997/62) concerning developments with respect to the United Nations Transitional Administration for Eastern Slavonia, Baranja and Western Sirmium, and welcomes his evaluation.

“The Council welcomes the letter of 13 January 1997 (S/1997/27, annex) from the Government of Croatia on the completion of the peaceful reintegration of the region under the Transitional Administration, which guarantees the local Serb community representation and a voice at various levels of local, regional and national government, provides for a limited deferment of military service, and affirms the intention of the Government of Croatia to provide the local Serb population with the protection of their legal and civil rights under Croatian law. The Council calls upon the Government of Croatia to implement fully the commitments contained in that letter and the oral guarantees made by Croatian officials to the Transitional Administration as specified in the letter of the Secretary-General of 21 January 1997 (S/1997/62).

“The Council also notes the letter of 16 January 1997 from the local Serb Executive Council and Regional Assembly on this matter (S/1997/64, annex).

“The Council recalls the statement of its President of 15 August 1996 (S/PRST/1996/35) and again underlines the importance of the holding of elections, the organization of which is the responsibility of the Transitional Administration, in accordance with the Basic Agreement on the Region of Eastern Slavonia, Baranja and Western Sirmium (S/1995/951, annex) signed on 12 November 1995. The Council shares the view of the Transitional Administrator that the rights and guarantees outlined in the letter from the Government of Croatia, if fully implemented, constitute a solid basis for the holding of elections simultaneously with nationwide elections in Croatia, and offer substantial progress towards the completion of the process of peaceful reintegration of the region. In this context, the Council emphasizes that the holding and certification of elections, upon a decision by the Transitional Administration, within the envisaged time-frame will only be possible if the Croatian authorities fulfil their obligations with respect to the completion of the issuance of citizenship and identity documents for all eligible voters and relevant technical documents, and provide all information as required by the Transitional Administration for certification of the elections. The Council underlines the need for full cooperation by the local Serbs.

“The Council reiterates the importance of confidence-building measures which could benefit residents of the region beyond the expiration of the mandate of the Transitional Administration. In this regard, it encourages the Croatian authorities to maintain the present demilitarized status of the region.

“The Council reaffirms the importance of effectively implementing the rights of all residents in the region to equal treatment with respect to housing, access to reconstruction grants and loans, and to property compensation, as guaranteed by Croatian law. It reiterates the right of all refugees and displaced persons to return to their places of origin. It also reiterates the right of residents of a State to choose freely where they wish to live. The upholding of these principles is of vital importance for the stability of the region. In this connection, it strongly encourages the Government of Croatia to reaffirm its obligations under the provisions of the Croatian Constitution, Croatian law, and the Basic Agreement, to treat all its citizens equally regardless of their ethnicity.

“The Council stresses that the restoration of the multi-ethnic character of Eastern Slavonia is important to international efforts to maintain peace and stability in the region of former Yugoslavia as a whole. The Council encourages the Croatian Government to take such steps as are needed to promote goodwill, build confidence, and provide assurances of a safe, secure and stable environment to all people in the region. These steps should include full implementation of its law on amnesty, full cooperation with the International Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia, improved cooperation with respect to local Serbs who wish to return to other areas of Croatia, full compliance with the Basic Agreement, and full cooperation with the Transitional Administration and other international organizations. The Council welcomes the commitments by the Government of Croatia with regard to the establishment of a Joint Council of Municipalities, Council of the Serb ethnic community, and with respect to educational and cultural autonomy of the Serb population and other minorities in the region. The Council notes the reassurances of the Croatian authorities that applications for a second period of deferment of military service for local Serbs will be considered in a positive manner.

“The Council condemns the incident that occurred at Vukovar on 31 January 1997 and that resulted in the death of a Transitional Administration peacekeeper and injuries to other Transitional Administration personnel.

“The Council calls upon both sides to cooperate in good faith on the basis of the Basic Agreement. It also calls upon them to continue to cooperate with the Transitional Administrator and with the Transitional Administration in order to ensure the success of the process of reintegration. It calls upon the international community to support fully this endeavour.

“The Council expresses its appreciation to the Transitional Administrator and his staff, and reaffirms its full support for them.

“The Council will remain actively seized of the matter.”

19. Communications received between 14 February and 5 March 1997 and reports of the Secretary-General

20. Consideration at the 3746th meeting (7 March 1997) and presidential statement

At the 3746th meeting, held on 7 March 1997 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

The President of the Security Council stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1997/10):

“The Security Council has considered the report of the Secretary-General of 24 February 1997 (S/1997/148) on the United Nations Transitional Administration for Eastern Slavonia, Baranja and Western Sirmium and recent developments in that region. It recalls the statement by its President of 31 January 1997 (S/PRST/1997/4) and reiterates its call on the parties to cooperate fully with the Transitional Administration and the Transitional Administrator.

“The Council shares the observation contained in the report of the Secretary-General that, with the full cooperation of the parties, 13 April 1997 is a realistic and achievable date for the holding of free and fair elections in the region.

“The Council underlines that it is in the best interests of the members of the Serb community to collect their citizenship documents, to participate fully in those elections, and to take part in Croatian political life as equal citizens on the basis of the implementation of the rights and guarantees contained in the letter of 13 January 1997 from the Government of Croatia (S/1997/27, annex). The Council deplores disruptive activities by some elements of the Serb community in the region creating an atmosphere of political agitation and uncertainty. It calls upon all residents of the region to follow wise leadership, to stay in the region, and to take up their future as citizens of the Republic of Croatia.

“The Council stresses that the holding of the elections will also depend on the readiness of the Government of Croatia to meet all preconditions, including the issuance of documents, provision of data and timely completion of the technical arrangements required for certification. The Council acknowledges the encouraging progress the Government of Croatia is making in this respect. It is, however, concerned that implementation of these procedures has been uneven. The Council urges the Government of Croatia to redouble its efforts to ensure the completion of the necessary technical preparations for the holding of elections.

“The Council strongly urges the Croatian Government to issue, as a gesture towards reassuring the Serb community, formal public confirmation of the oral guarantees made to the Transitional Administration as specified by the Secretary-General in his letter of 21 January 1997 (S/1997/62) and to reaffirm its obligations as referred to in paragraphs 28 and 29 of the report of the Secretary-General. It also calls upon the Government of Croatia to apply its amnesty law fairly and consistently to all persons subject to its jurisdiction. The Council stresses that, to a large measure, the long-term success of peaceful reintegration will be determined by the commitment of the Government of Croatia to reconciliation and to ensuring that those Serbs who are currently resident in the region will enjoy equal rights as Croatian citizens.

“The Council shares the serious concern, as stated in the report of the Secretary-General, that no progress has been made concerning the future of displaced persons in the region and the establishment of equal treatment with respect to housing, access to reconstruction grants and loans and property compensation, in accordance with the Basic Agreement on the Region of Eastern Slavonia, Baranja and Western Sirmium (S/1995/951, annex) and Croatian law. The Council reaffirms the right of all refugees and displaced persons to return to their homes of origin throughout the Republic of Croatia and to live there in conditions of security. It welcomes the proposal elaborated by the Transitional Administration and the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees concerning the return of displaced persons and urges the Government of Croatia to pursue discussions on that proposal without delay, to cooperate closely with the Transitional Administration and the High Commissioner in implementation, and to make a clear and unambiguous public statement and undertake concrete actions confirming the equal rights of all displaced persons regardless of their ethnicity.

“The Council welcomes the commitment by the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia and the Republic of Croatia to make progress in their bilateral relations, in particular with respect to the permanent demilitarization of the border region and the abolition of the visa regime, which would constitute a major contribution to local confidence-building and the stabilization of the region.

“The Council recalls its resolution 1079 (1996) of 15 November 1996 and expresses its intention to consider recommendations, to be submitted by the Secretary-General as soon as possible after the successful holding of elections, concerning the further United Nations presence consistent with the fulfilment of the Basic Agreement.

“The Council requests the Secretary-General to keep it regularly informed of the situation. It will remain actively seized of the matter.”

21. Consideration at the 3753rd meeting (19 March 1997) and presidential statement

At the 3753rd meeting, held on 19 March 1997 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“The situation in Croatia

“Further report of the Secretary-General on the situation of human rights in Croatia pursuant to Security Council resolution 1019 (1995) (S/1997/195)”

The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representative of Croatia, at his request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Council's provisional rules of procedure.

The President of the Security Council stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1997/15):

“The Security Council has considered the report of the Secretary-General of 5 March 1997 (S/1997/195) on Croatia, submitted pursuant to Security Council resolutions 1009 (1995) and 1019 (1995). It also recalls the statement by its President of 20 December 1996 (S/PRST/1996/48).

“The Council remains deeply concerned that, although the Government of Croatia maintains that it has deployed the necessary number of police officers, Croatian Serbs continue to live in conditions of serious insecurity throughout the areas which had been designated United Nations Protected Areas and were known as Sectors West, North and South, particularly in the area of former Sector South around Knin. It calls upon the Government of Croatia to take further steps to restore a climate of law and order in those areas.

“The Council welcomes the fact that difficult living conditions for remaining Serbs have been considerably eased during recent months by intensive humanitarian programmes conducted by international organizations. In this context, it calls upon the Government of Croatia to assume fully its responsibilities, in cooperation with all relevant international organizations, to ensure that the social and economic situation of all inhabitants in the former sectors improves.

“The Council expresses its concern that there continues to be little progress with regard to the return of Croatian Serb displaced persons and refugees to the areas. It calls upon the Government of Croatia to accelerate its efforts to improve conditions of personal and economic security, to remove bureaucratic obstacles to the rapid issue of documentation to all Serb families and to resolve promptly the property issue, by a return of property or just compensation, in order to facilitate the return of Croatian Serbs to the former sectors.

“The Council calls upon the Government of Croatia to remove uncertainty about the implementation of its amnesty law, in particular by finalizing without delay the list of war crime suspects on the basis of existing evidence and in strict accordance with international law, and to put an end to arbitrary arrests, particularly of Serbs returning to Croatia.

“The Council recalls the obligations of Croatia arising from relevant universal human rights instruments to which it is a party. It welcomes the commitments undertaken by the Government of Croatia in relation to the Council of Europe, including its signature of the Framework Convention for the Protection of National Minorities, and expects that the Government of Croatia will implement those commitments fully.

“The Council is concerned that the Government of Croatia continues to withhold its full cooperation with the International Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia. It underlines the obligation of the Government of Croatia in accordance with resolution 827 (1993) to respond promptly and in full to all requests from the International Tribunal. It also calls upon the Government of Croatia to conduct investigations into and the prosecution of persons accused of serious violations of international humanitarian law, especially those committed in the course of military operations in 1995.

“The Council stresses the importance of the effective implementation of the measures outlined in the paragraphs above for promoting confidence and reconciliation in Croatia as well as for the peaceful reintegration of the region of Eastern Slavonia, Baranja and Western Sirmium. In this context, the Council requests the Secretary-General to continue to keep it informed on a regular basis and to report again on the humanitarian and human rights situation in Croatia within his report to be submitted by 1 July 1997 as referred to in paragraph 6 of resolution 1079 (1996).”

23. Consideration at the 3772nd meeting (25 April 1997) and presidential statement

At the 3772nd meeting, held on 25 April 1997 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“The situation in Croatia

“Report of the Secretary-General on the United Nations Mission in Prevlaka (S/1997/311)”

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1997/23):

“The Security Council has considered the report of the Secretary-General of 14 April 1997 (S/1997/311) concerning the United Nations Mission of Observers in Prevlaka and expresses its disappointment at the general lack of improvement in the situation in Prevlaka.

“The Council is concerned by the assessment of the Secretary-General that, while the situation generally has been stable, several developments have led to an increase in tension in the area. The Council is particularly concerned by the descriptions in the report of continuing violations of the demilitarization regime, including movements of heavy weapons and of special police of the Republic of Croatia, and the entry by a navy missile boat of the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia into the demilitarized zone, in disregard of the concerns and requests previously expressed by the Council.

“The Council calls upon the parties to refrain from provocative actions of all kinds, to cease violations of the demilitarized zone and to cooperate fully with the United Nations military observers.

“The Council also notes the observations in the report of the Secretary-General about the lack of any progress towards adopting the practical options proposed to the parties by the United Nations military observers in May 1996, as referred to in the report of the Secretary-General of 31 December 1996 (S/1996/1075), to improve the safety and security of the area. The Council reiterates its call upon both parties to adopt these practical options with a view to their early implementation, to remove landmines from areas patrolled by the military observers, and to stop their interference with the freedom of movement of the military observers and with the implementation of the mandate of the observers.

“The Council calls upon the Republic of Croatia and the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia to resolve the disputed issue of Prevlaka through bilateral negotiations pursuant to the Agreement on Normalization of Relations, signed by them in Belgrade on 23 August 1996, and in the spirit of the Charter of the United Nations and good-neighbourly relations.

“The Council emphasizes its confidence in and support for the work of the United Nations military observers. It expresses its appreciation to the military observers and to the Member States who have provided personnel and other forms of support.

“The Council will remain seized of the matter.”

25. Consideration at the 3775th meeting (8 May 1997) and presidential statement

At the 3775th meeting, held on 8 May 1997 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“The situation in Croatia

“Letter dated 29 April 1997 from the Secretary-General addressed to the President of the Security Council (S/1997/343)”

The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representative of Croatia, at his request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Council's provisional rules of procedure.

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1997/26):

“The Security Council welcomes the letter of the Secretary-General of 29 April 1997 (S/1997/343), which conveys the conclusions of the Transitional Administrator regarding the successful holding of the elections in the region of Eastern Slavonia, Baranja and Western Sirmium in the Republic of Croatia beginning on 13 April 1997, under the direction of the United Nations Transitional Administration for Eastern Slavonia, Baranja and Western Sirmium.

“The Council shares the assessment of the Transitional Administrator that the holding of these elections has been an essential step for further progress in the peaceful reintegration of the region and marks an important milestone for the legitimate representation of the local population in the Croatian constitutional and legal system. It urges early formation of the newly elected bodies of local government and prompt and full implementation of the undertakings contained in the Basic Agreement (S/1995/951, annex) and the letter from the Government of Croatia of 13 January 1997 (S/1997/27, annex), including the establishment of the Joint Council of Municipalities and the appointment of local Serbs to the guaranteed positions in the parliamentary and administrative structures of Croatia.

“The Council underlines the Transitional Administrator's finding that no intimidation, violence or electoral improprieties were observed or reported before, during or after the elections. The Council welcomes the goodwill and sense of cooperation demonstrated by the parties to the process.

“The Council emphasizes the importance of the two-way return of all displaced persons in Croatia, as well as the right of residents of a State to choose freely where they wish to live. In this context, it welcomes the Agreement of the Joint Working Group on the Operational Procedures of Return (S/1997/341, annex). It urges the Government of Croatia strictly to implement this Agreement. The Council calls upon both sides to cooperate in good faith on the basis of the Basic Agreement and stresses the need to respect human rights, including rights of persons belonging to minorities, throughout the country, in order to ensure the success of the process of reintegration.

“The Council expresses its appreciation to the Transitional Administration and to those elements of the international community, including observers from the Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe, the Council of Europe and members of the diplomatic community, whose efforts made possible the successful holding of elections. The Council commends the Transitional Administration for resolving technical difficulties by taking decisive actions, which contributed significantly to the successful holding of the elections.

“The Council looks forward to the recommendations of the Secretary-General, in the light of the parties' progress towards fulfilling the Basic Agreement, for the further United Nations presence in Eastern Slavonia, Baranja and Western Sirmium, possibly a restructured Transitional Administration, consistent with the fulfilment of the Basic Agreement, for the six-month period beginning from 16 July 1997, in accordance with its resolution 1079 (1996).”

2. Consideration at the 3687th meeting (8 August 1996) and presidential statement

At the 3687th meeting, held on 8 August 1996 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“The situation in Bosnia and Herzegovina

“Letter dated 9 July 1996 from the Secretary-General addressed to the President of the Security Council (S/1996/542)

“Letter dated 11 July 1996 from the President of the International Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of the Former Yugoslavia since 1991 addressed to the President of the Security Council (S/1996/556)”

The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representative of Bosnia and Herzegovina, at his request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Council's provisional rules of procedure.

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1996/34):

“The Security Council has considered the report of the High Representative for the implementation of the Peace Agreement on Bosnia and Herzegovina annexed to the letter of 9 July 1996 from the Secretary-General to the President of the Council (S/1996/542).

“The Council expresses its full support for the conclusions reached at the Peace Implementation Council in Florence, Italy, on 13 and 14 June 1996 (S/1996/446, annex). It stresses the importance of the forthcoming elections in Bosnia and Herzegovina, to be carried out in accordance with the General Framework Agreement for Peace in Bosnia and Herzegovina and the annexes thereto (collectively the Peace Agreement) (S/1995/999, annex), which will allow for the establishment of the common institutions and which will be an important milestone for normalization in Bosnia and Herzegovina. It calls upon the parties to ensure the prompt functioning of these institutions after the elections. It supports the preparatory work done in this regard.

“The Council expects the parties to increase their efforts towards the maintenance and further enhancement of conditions necessary to ensure democratic elections, as provided for in article I of annex 3 of the Peace Agreement, and to abide fully by the results of those elections. In that context, the Council stresses the importance of the agreement reached by the Bosniac and Bosnian Croat leaderships in Mostar and facilitated by the European Union Administration of Mostar that has at last secured Bosnian Croat participation in a unified city administration in Mostar on the basis of the election results of 30 June 1996. The Council expects the Bosniac and Bosnian Croat leaderships in Mostar to implement this agreement fully and without delay, and stresses that failure to do so would seriously undermine crucial efforts to ensure lasting peace and stability in Bosnia and Herzegovina. It expresses its full support for the international organizations which are currently working in Mostar, and in particular for the European Union Administration of Mostar, and calls on both leaderships to cooperate fully with the European Union Administration of Mostar. It calls on the Government of the Republic of Croatia, which bears a special responsibility in this context, to continue to use its influence on the Bosnian Croat leadership to ensure full compliance with its obligations. The Council will continue to follow closely the situation in Mostar.

“The Council underlines that the continued lack of progress in transferring authority and resources to the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina is a potential danger for the peace implementation process. The Council calls upon the Federation partners to accelerate their efforts for the establishment of a fully functioning Federation, which is an essential prerequisite for peace in Bosnia and Herzegovina.

“The Council notes with particular concern the conclusions of the report of the High Representative on the implementation of the human rights provisions of the Peace Agreement that the parties are not implementing their commitments in respect of human rights, and that this failure is impeding the return of refugees. It condemns all acts of ethnic harassment. It calls upon the parties to the Peace Agreement to take immediately the measures identified in the report to stop the trend of ethnic separation in the country and in its capital, Sarajevo, and to preserve their multi-cultural and multi-ethnic heritage. The Council deeply regrets the undue delay in implementing measures regarding, inter alia, the development or creation of new independent media and the preservation of property rights, and calls upon each party to implement them immediately. The Council is ready to consider further reports by the Office of the High Representative on all aspects of the implementation of the Peace Agreement, including those mentioned above.

“The Council stresses that, under the Peace Agreement, persons indicted by the International Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia who have failed to comply with an order to appear before the Tribunal may not stand as a candidate or hold any appointive, elective or other public office in the territory of Bosnia and Herzegovina. Any continued holding of such an office is unacceptable. In this context the Council notes the fact that, as a first step, Radovan Karadžić, after officially handing over his executive powers in Republika Srpska on 30 June 1996, agreed on 19 July 1996 to cease definitively all political and official activities, thus facilitating the electoral process in Bosnia and Herzegovina. The Council expects this undertaking to be implemented fully and in good faith, and will closely monitor further developments.

“The Council stresses that all States and concerned parties have an obligation, in accordance with resolution 827 (1993) of 25 May 1993, other relevant resolutions and the Peace Agreement, to cooperate fully with the International Tribunal and to comply without exception with requests for assistance or orders issued by a trial chamber. The Council has considered the letter from the President of the International Tribunal of 11 July 1996 (S/1996/556), which referred to the conclusion of the Trial Chamber of the International Tribunal regarding the failure to execute the warrants of arrest issued against Radovan Karadžić and Ratko Mladić due to the refusal of the Republika Srpska and the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia to cooperate with the Tribunal. It condemns this failure to execute these arrest warrants. The Council notes the recent visit by the delegation from the Republika Srpska to the International Tribunal in The Hague for the purpose of discussing all aspects of cooperation with the Tribunal, and expects that cooperation with the Tribunal to bring to justice all persons indicted will be realized. The Council condemns the failure to date of the Bosnian Croat leadership and the Croatian Government to comply with the orders of the International Tribunal regarding several persons indicted for war crimes. The Council demands the full cooperation of all parties concerned in the immediate execution of all warrants of arrest and the transfer to the Tribunal of all persons indicted, in accordance with article 29 of the statute of the Tribunal. The Council further condemns any attempt to challenge the authority of the International Tribunal. The Council underlines the importance of the obligations undertaken by the parties to the Peace Agreement to cooperate fully with the International Tribunal and stresses that failure to arrest and transfer persons indicted by the Tribunal is a violation of these obligations. The Council stresses that compliance with the requests and orders of the International Tribunal constitutes an essential aspect of implementing the Peace Agreement, as provided by previous resolutions; the Council is ready to consider the application of economic enforcement measures to ensure compliance by all parties with their obligations under the Peace Agreement.

“The Council condemns any threat or act of violence directed against international personnel in Bosnia and Herzegovina, in particular those directed against personnel belonging to the International Police Task Force on the territory of the Republika Srpska. It condemns also the obstacles put in the way of forensic investigations carried out by international organizations on the territory of the Republika Srpska as well as on the territory of the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina. It calls upon all parties to lift those obstacles and to ensure full freedom of movement and safety for all international personnel.

“The Council reiterates its full support for the High Representative and for all international organizations currently working in Bosnia and Herzegovina for the implementation of the Peace Agreement. The Council stands ready to consider the need for further action in order to continue and consolidate the efforts made for full implementation of the Peace Agreement. The Council welcomes all initiatives which will lead to a greater degree of stability and cooperation in the whole region.”

At the 3701st meeting, held on 10 October 1996 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“The situation in Bosnia and Herzegovina”

The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representative of Bosnia and Herzegovina, at his request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Council's provisional rules of procedure.

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1996/41):

“The Security Council has considered, in the light of its resolution 1034 (1995) of 21 December 1995, the current situation with regard to the investigation of violations of international humanitarian law in the areas of Srebrenica, Žepa, Banja Luka and Sanski Most as well as in the areas of Glamoc, Ozren and elsewhere throughout the territory of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

“The Council recalls the report of the Secretary-General of 27 November 1995 (S/1995/988).

“The Council expresses deep concern about the very little progress achieved so far in these investigations and strongly appeals to all the parties of Bosnia and Herzegovina to make every effort to identify the fate of the missing persons, both for humanitarian and legal purposes.

“The Council is concerned that endeavours by the relevant international authorities to identify the fate of the missing by inter alia carrying out exhumations has met with limited success largely due to obstruction by Republika Srpska. It notes with concern that the fate of only a few hundred missing persons has been so far established.

“The Council welcomes the recent visit by the delegation from Republika Srpska to the International Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia in The Hague and expresses hope that this visit marks a turning point in relations between Republika Srpska and the International Tribunal and will facilitate cooperation with regard to investigations conducted by personnel of the International Tribunal.

“The Council condemns all attempts to obstruct the investigations or to destroy, alter, conceal or damage any related evidence. The Council stresses again the obligations of all the parties to cooperate fully and unconditionally with the relevant international authorities and among themselves with respect to such investigations and reminds the parties of their commitment under the General Framework Agreement for Peace in Bosnia and Herzegovina and the annexes thereto (collectively the Peace Agreement) (S/1995/999, annex).

“The Council reaffirms that the violations of international humanitarian law throughout the territory of Bosnia and Herzegovina as described in resolution 1034 (1995) must be fully and properly investigated. The Council reiterates that all States and concerned parties have an obligation, in accordance with resolution 827 (1993) of 25 May 1993, other relevant resolutions and the Peace Agreement, to cooperate fully with the International Tribunal and to comply without exception with requests for assistance or orders issued by a trial chamber. The Council expresses again its support for the endeavours of the international agencies and authorities involved in these investigations and invites them to pursue and intensify their efforts. It encourages Member States to continue to provide the necessary financial and other support.

“The Council will continue to follow this issue closely. It requests the Secretary-General to keep it regularly informed on progress reached in the investigation of the violations of international humanitarian law referred to in the report mentioned above.”

The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representative of Bosnia and Herzegovina, at her request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Council's provisional rules of procedure.

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1997/12):

"The Security Council has considered the letter of 7 March 1997 and its annex from the Secretary-General to the President of the Security Council concerning the incident on 10 February 1997 involving a violent assault against a group of civilians attempting to visit a graveyard in West Mostar in the presence of the International Police Task Force, in which one person died and others were wounded (S/1997/201).

"The Council notes that the participants in the meeting on 12 February 1997 referred to in the letter from the Secretary-General agreed inter alia to request the International Police Task Force to conduct an investigation into that incident, to accept and endorse that report in full, and to draw the necessary conclusions concerning the arrest, bringing to trial and dismissal from office of those found responsible for instigating or participating in violent acts.

"The Council fully supports the conclusions drawn from the report of the International Police Task Force by the Office of the High Representative and fully supported by the Task Force, the Commander of the Stabilization Force in Bosnia and Herzegovina and the members of the Contact Group.

"The Council strongly condemns the involvement by West Mostar police officers in the violent assault on 10 February 1997 as referred to in the report of the International Police Task Force annexed to the letter of 7 March 1997 from the Secretary-General to the President of the Security Council (S/1997/204).

"The Council also condemns the failure of the local police to provide protection to civilians subject to inter-ethnic attacks which occurred throughout Mostar both before and after the incident on 10 February 1997, and stresses the importance it attaches to preventing such incidents in the future.

"The Council takes note of the announced suspension of some of the police officers identified in the report of the International Police Task Force but remains deeply concerned by the failure to date of the responsible authorities to take all the necessary steps to implement the conclusions drawn from that report. It strongly condemns attempts by those authorities to place conditions upon the arrest and prosecution of the police officers identified in the report as having fired upon the group of civilians.

"The Council demands that the responsible authorities, notably in West Mostar, immediately implement the conclusions drawn from the report of the International Police Task Force, and in particular suspend all relevant police officers and arrest and prosecute them without further delay. It also calls upon the responsible authorities to investigate all police officers involved in the incident.

"The Council requests the Secretary-General to keep it informed of the situation. It will remain actively seized of the matter."

“The situation in Angola”

The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representative of Angola, at her request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Council's provisional rules of procedure.

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1997/3):

“The Security Council expresses its deep concern at the delay in the formation of a Government of Unity and National Reconciliation as a result of the failure of the União Nacional para a Independência Total de Angola to meet the timetable established by the Joint Commission in the context of the Lusaka Protocol (S/1994/1441, annex).

“The Council also notes with concern the slow pace of implementation of the remaining military aspects of the peace process, in particular the demobilization and integration of soldiers of the União Nacional para a Independência Total de Angola into the Angolan Armed Forces.

“The Council takes note of the conclusions of the meeting of the Joint Commission on 23 January 1997, according to which the Government of Angola and the União Nacional para a Independência Total de Angola agreed to postpone the inauguration of the Government of Unity and National Reconciliation beyond 25 January 1997, the União Nacional para a Independência Total de Angola agreed to ensure that all of its National Assembly deputies and the members of the future Government of Unity and National Reconciliation designated by the União Nacional para a Independência Total de Angola would be in Luanda on 12 February 1997 and the Government of Angola agreed to set a date for the inauguration of the Government of Unity and National Reconciliation immediately following the arrival of the deputies of the União Nacional para a Independência Total de Angola.

“The Council calls upon the parties to implement this agreement strictly and to form the Government of Unity and National Reconciliation without any linkages and without further delay. Failure to implement this agreement could jeopardize the peace process and lead the Security Council to consider appropriate measures, as indicated in relevant Security Council resolutions, against those responsible for the delays.

“The Council emphasizes that the ultimate responsibility for restoring peace rests with the Angolans themselves. The Council reminds the União Nacional para a Independência Total de Angola and the Government of Angola that the international community can only provide assistance if progress is achieved in the peace process and that it will consider a United Nations presence in Angola after the expiration of the mandate of the United Nations Angola Verification Mission III in this context.

“The Council expresses its appreciation to the Special Representative of the Secretary-General and the three observer countries for their efforts to assist the parties in Angola in advancing the peace process.

“The Council will continue to monitor closely the implementation of the Joint Commission agreement.

“The Council will remain seized of the matter.”

At the 3707th meeting, held on 22 October 1996 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“The situation in Georgia

“Report of the Secretary-General pursuant to Security Council resolution 1065 (1996) (S/1996/644)

“Report of the Secretary-General concerning the situation in Abkhazia, Georgia (S/1996/843)”

The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representative of Georgia, at his request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Council's provisional rules of procedure.

The President drew attention to the text of a draft resolution (S/1996/866) submitted by France, Germany, the Russian Federation, the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and the United States of America.

The Council commenced the voting procedure.

Before the vote, a statement was made by the representative of China.

Decision: At the 3707th meeting, on 22 October 1996, draft resolution S/1996/866 received 14 votes in favour (Botswana, Chile, Egypt, France, Germany, Guinea-Bissau, Honduras, Indonesia, Italy, Poland, Republic of Korea, Russian Federation, United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, United States of America) to none against, with 1 abstention (China), and was adopted as resolution 1077 (1996).

Resolution 1077 (1996) reads as follows:

“The Security Council,

“Recalling its resolutions 937 (1994) of 21 July 1994, 1036 (1996) of 12 January 1996 and 1065 (1996) of 12 July 1996, “Having considered the reports of the Secretary-General of 1 July 1996 (S/1996/507 and Add.1) and 9 August 1996 (S/1996/644), “Reiterating its full support for the sovereignty and territorial integrity of Georgia within its internationally recognized borders,

“1. Welcomes the report of the Secretary-General of 1 July 1996, and in particular its paragraph 18, and decides that the Office referred to in this report shall form part of the United Nations Observer Mission in Georgia, under the authority of the Head of Mission, consistent with the arrangements described in paragraph 7 of the report of the Secretary-General of 9 August 1996;

“2. Requests the Secretary-General to continue close cooperation with the Government of Georgia in determining the priorities of the programme referred to in the above-mentioned reports of the Secretary-General and close consultation in its implementation;

“3. Further requests the Secretary-General to pursue the necessary follow-up arrangements with the Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe.”

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1996/43):

“The Security Council has considered the report of the Secretary-General concerning the situation in Abkhazia, Georgia, of 10 October 1996 (S/1996/843). It has also taken note of the letter from the Permanent Representative of Georgia to the President of the Council of 8 October 1996 (S/1996/835).

“The Council notes with deep concern that no significant progress has yet been achieved towards a comprehensive political settlement of the conflict, including on the political status of Abkhazia, respecting the sovereignty and territorial integrity of Georgia within its internationally recognized borders.

“The Council reaffirms its full support for an active role of the United Nations, with the assistance of the Russian Federation as facilitator, aimed at achieving a comprehensive political settlement. In the context of the recent visit to the region of the Special Envoy of the Secretary-General, the Council requests the Secretary-General to undertake further efforts and make proposals to reinvigorate the stalled peace process.

“The Council stresses that the primary responsibility for achieving such reinvigoration of the peace process rests upon the parties themselves and calls on them, in particular the Abkhaz side, to resume discussions and to reach substantive progress in the negotiations.

“The Council is deeply concerned by the deterioration of the situation in the Gali region and its negative impact on the ability of the United Nations Observer Mission in Georgia to meet its mandated tasks. The Council condemns mine laying and other threats referred to in the Secretary-General's report against the Observer Mission and the collective peacekeeping force of the Commonwealth of Independent States. The Council calls on both parties to take all the necessary steps to prevent all such acts.

“The Council calls on both parties to respect the Moscow Agreement of 14 May 1994 on a Ceasefire and Separation of Forces (S/1994/583 and Corr.1, annex I) and expresses its concern at the violations referred to in the Secretary-General's report, in particular the serious violations which recently occurred in the restricted weapons zone.

“The Council stresses that the international community's ability to assist depends on the full cooperation of the parties, especially the fulfilment of their obligations regarding the safety and freedom of movement of international personnel.

“The Council is deeply concerned at the announcement made by the Abkhaz side that so-called parliamentary elections would be held on 23 November 1996. The holding of such elections would only be possible after the determination through negotiations of the political status of Abkhazia respecting the sovereignty and territorial integrity of Georgia within its internationally recognized borders, within the framework of a comprehensive political settlement, and with the guaranteed possibility of full participation for all refugees and displaced persons. The Council notes that conditions for holding such elections are not met at present. It calls on the Abkhaz side to call off these elections and further calls on both sides to refrain from any action that could heighten tension.

“The Council remains deeply concerned at the continued obstruction of the return of the refugees and displaced persons by the Abkhaz authorities, which is totally unacceptable.

“The Council welcomes the good cooperation between the Observer Mission and the peacekeeping force and their efforts to promote stabilization of the situation in the zone of conflict.

“The Council requests the Secretary-General to continue to keep it closely informed of the situation.”

“The Security Council has considered the report of the Secretary-General concerning the situation in Abkhazia, Georgia, of 25 April 1997 (S/1997/340). It has also taken note of the letter of the Permanent Representative of the Russian Federation to the Secretary-General of 1 April 1997 (S/1997/268) and of the letter of the Permanent Representative of Georgia to the President of the Security Council of 28 April 1997 (S/1997/339).

It fully supports, in particular, the intention of the Secretary-General to convene a meeting with both sides to map out the areas where concrete political progress can be made. The Council condemns the acts of violence which have led to the loss of life of members of the peacekeeping force. It welcomes the intention of the Secretary-General to continue to make every effort to build upon the positive results recently achieved in order to improve the safety of the military observers and the operational effectiveness of the Observer Mission.

“The Council reminds the parties of their obligation to ensure the safety and freedom of movement of the Observer Mission and the peacekeeping force and, in particular, to prevent the laying of mines.

“The Council also welcomes the continued efforts by the United Nations agencies and humanitarian organizations to address the urgent needs of those suffering most from the consequences of the conflict in Abkhazia, Georgia, in particular internally displaced persons, and encourages further contributions to that end. It also reiterates its encouragement to States to contribute to the voluntary fund in support of the implementation of the Agreement on a Ceasefire and Separation of Forces (S/1994/583 and Corr.1, annex I) and/or for humanitarian aspects, including demining, as specified by donors.

The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representative of Burundi, at his request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Council's provisional rules of procedure.

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1996/31):

“The Security Council is gravely concerned at recent information on political developments in Burundi. It strongly condemns any attempt to overthrow the present legitimate Government by force or coup d'état.

The Council condemns the massacres of civilians including more than 300 women, children and elderly men in Bugendana commune in Gitega province. The Council calls upon all parties to the conflict in Burundi to cease immediately any acts of violence and to cooperate fully with all those who are seeking to bring an end to the vicious cycle of violence. The President made a statement.

At the 3693rd meeting, held on 30 August 1996 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“Demining in the context of United Nations peacekeeping”

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1996/37):

“The Security Council has reviewed the issue of demining in the context of United Nations peacekeeping and has given careful consideration to the views expressed in the open debate under the item ‘Demining in the context of United Nations peacekeeping’ at its 3689th meeting, on 15 August 1996.

“The Council, bearing in mind its responsibilities with regard to United Nations peacekeeping, notes that the widespread indiscriminate use of anti-personnel mines in areas of United Nations peacekeeping operations poses serious impediments to such operations and to the safety of United Nations and other international personnel. Against this background, the Council states the following:

“1. Operational demining should be, wherever appropriate, an important element and an integral part of peacekeeping mandates. This will facilitate the implementation of those mandates and better enable the Secretary-General to allocate appropriate resources towards achieving their objectives.

“2. The early deployment of mine clearance units will often be important to the effectiveness of a peacekeeping operation. The Council encourages the Special Committee on Peacekeeping Operations to examine options for achieving such early deployment. It also encourages Member States to examine whether and in what form they might be able to help in this respect.

“3. The tasks of, on the one hand, operational mine clearance during peacekeeping operations, which is the responsibility of the Department of Peacekeeping Operations, and, on the other hand, longer-term humanitarian mine-clearance activities, which fall under the responsibility of the Department of Humanitarian Affairs, are different. The Council is, however, aware of linkages and complementarities between different elements of conflict resolution as well as of the need to ensure a smooth transition from demining as a peacekeeping requirement to demining as part of peace-building in a follow-up phase.

“The Council, thus, is of the opinion that coordination and a clear delineation of responsibilities between the two Departments as well as with regard to other United Nations agencies dealing with demining could be further improved so as to avoid duplication of effort and to guarantee a coherent and integrated approach towards the whole range of short and long-term demining needs. With particular reference to paragraph 51 of the report of the Special Committee on Peacekeeping Operations of 7 May 1996 (A/51/130), the Council requests the Secretary-General to intensify his efforts aiming in this direction.

“The Council emphasizes the importance of coordination by the United Nations of activities related to mine clearance in the context of United Nations peacekeeping, including those by regional organizations, in particular in the areas of information and training.

“4. The primary responsibility for demining in the context of United Nations peacekeeping lies with parties responsible for the laying of mines. Parties to a conflict must desist from further mine laying once a peacekeeping operation is established. They are also obliged to facilitate humanitarian and military demining efforts by providing detailed maps and other relevant information on those mines that have already been laid by them and by contributing financially or otherwise to their removal.

“5. The international community should intensify, multilaterally or bilaterally, its efforts in assisting those parties to a conflict which have shown their readiness to cooperate with mine clearance, mine awareness and training programmes in the context of United Nations peacekeeping operations. In this connection, the Council welcomes the establishment by the Secretary-General of a United Nations Voluntary Trust Fund for Demining as a necessary and timely mechanism to channel funding to humanitarian demining operations.

“The Council appeals to all States to contribute to this Fund as well as to other voluntary funds set up by the Secretary-General for certain peacekeeping operations which contain demining elements.

“6. Demining activities should, as much as possible, make use of the appropriate modern mine-clearance technologies and specialized equipment and focus on the creation and strengthening of local demining capabilities; training programmes should attach particular importance to this aspect. Where this would be of benefit to the operational effectiveness of a peacekeeping operation, consideration should also be given to including provision for the training of a local demining capability in mandates of peacekeeping operations.

“The Council encourages the Special Committee on Peacekeeping Operations, given its responsibility for a comprehensive review of the whole question of peacekeeping operations, to continue and intensify its considerations of the operational demining aspects of peacekeeping operations. These considerations might include an analysis of mine-clearance experience in previous peacekeeping operations.

“The Council is of the view that the elements outlined in this statement are not exhaustive. The Council will thus keep this issue under review in the context of the establishment of peacekeeping operations and the consideration of specific mandates.”

3. Communication dated 13 January 1997

Letter dated 13 January (S/1997/45) from the representative of Indonesia addressed to the Secretary-General, transmitting the texts of the final communiqué and resolutions adopted by the Conference of Ministers for Foreign Affairs of the Organization of the Islamic Conference at the twenty-fourth session, held in Jakarta from 9 to 13 December 1996.

D. Security of United Nations operations

Consideration at the 3750th meeting (12 March 1997) and presidential statement

At the 3750th meeting, held on 12 March 1997 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“Security of United Nations operations”

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1997/13):

“The Security Council recalls its resolution 868 (1993) of 29 September 1993 and expresses its grave concern at the recent increase in attacks and the use of force against United Nations and other personnel associated with United Nations operations, as well as personnel of international humanitarian organizations, including murder, physical and psychological threats, hostage taking, shooting at vehicles and aircraft, mine-laying, looting of assets and other hostile acts. The Council is also gravely concerned at attacks on and violations of United Nations premises. The Council is concerned that these attacks and the use of force have in some instances been carried out by certain groups with the deliberate goal of disrupting negotiating processes, international peacekeeping activities and hampering humanitarian access.

“The Council reiterates its condemnation of such acts. It emphasizes the unacceptability of any acts endangering the safety and security of United Nations and associated personnel, as well as personnel of international humanitarian organizations. The Council urges all Member States and others concerned to prevent and bring to an end all such acts. It stresses that the perpetrators of such acts bear responsibility for their actions and should be prosecuted.

“The Council reaffirms the importance of ensuring the safety and security of United Nations and associated personnel as well as the inviolability of United Nations premises which are essential to the continuation and successful implementation of United Nations operations. In this context it emphasizes that the host country and others concerned must take all appropriate steps to ensure the safety and security of United Nations personnel and premises. It reiterates that the cooperation of all Member States and others concerned is indispensable for the mandates of United Nations operations to be carried out and demands that they respect fully the status of United Nations and associated personnel.

“The Council supports all efforts effectively to promote and protect the safety and security of United Nations and associated personnel. In this context the Council recalls the Convention on the Safety of United Nations and Associated Personnel, adopted by the General Assembly in its resolution 49/59 of 9 December 1994.

“The Council pays tribute to all military, police and civilian staff of the United Nations and other personnel associated with United Nations operations, as well as personnel of international humanitarian organizations, for their courageous efforts to achieve peace and to alleviate the suffering of the people living in conflict areas.”

“Letter dated 9 January 1996 from the Permanent Representative of Ethiopia to the United Nations addressed to the President of the Security Council concerning the extradition of the suspects wanted in the assassination attempt on the life of the President of the Arab Republic of Egypt in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, on 26 June 1995 (S/1996/10)

“Report of the Secretary-General pursuant to Security Council resolution 1054 (1996) (S/1996/541 and Add.1, 2 and 3)”

The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representative of the Sudan, at his request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Council's provisional rules of procedure.

The President drew attention to the text of a draft resolution (S/1996/664) submitted by Botswana, Egypt and Guinea-Bissau.

The Council heard a statement by the representative of the Sudan.

The Council commenced the voting procedure.

Before the vote, statements were made by the representatives of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, the United States of America, the Russian Federation, Indonesia, the Republic of Korea, China, Italy, Botswana and Guinea-Bissau.

Resolution 1070 (1996) reads as follows:

“The Security Council,

“Recalling its resolutions 1044 (1996) of 31 January 1996 and 1054 (1996) of 26 April 1996, “Having considered the report of the Secretary-General of 10 July 1996 (S/1996/541 and Add.1, 2 and 3),

“Taking note of the letters dated 31 May 1996 (S/1996/402), 24 June 1996 (S/1996/464) and 2 July 1996 (S/1996/513) from the Permanent Representative of the Sudan to the United Nations, “Taking note also of the letter dated 10 July 1996 (S/1996/538) from the Permanent Representative of Ethiopia to the United Nations, “Gravely alarmed at the terrorist assassination attempt on the life of the President of the Arab Republic of Egypt, in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, on 26 June 1995, and convinced that those responsible for that act must be brought to justice,

“Taking note that the statements of the Central Organ of the Organization of African Unity Mechanism for Conflict Prevention, Management and

Resolution of 11 September 1995, and of 19 December 1995 (S/1996/10, annexes I and II) considered the attempt on the life of President Mubarak as aimed not only at the President of the Arab Republic of Egypt, and not only at the sovereignty, integrity and stability of Ethiopia, but also at Africa as a whole,

“Regretting the fact that the Government of the Sudan has not yet complied with the requests of the Central Organ of the Organization of African Unity set out in those statements,

“Taking note of the continued efforts of the Organization of African Unity to ensure Sudan's compliance with the requests of the Central Organ of the Organization of African Unity, and regretting that the Government of the Sudan has not responded adequately to the efforts of the Organization of African Unity, “Deeply alarmed that the Government of the Sudan has failed to comply with the requests set out in paragraph 4 of resolution 1044 (1996) as reaffirmed in paragraph 1 of resolution 1054 (1996), “Reaffirming that the suppression of acts of international terrorism, including those in which States are involved is essential for the maintenance of international peace and security,

“Determining that the non-compliance by the Government of the Sudan with the requests set out in paragraph 4 of resolution 1044 (1996) as reaffirmed in paragraph 1 of resolution 1054 (1996) constitutes a threat to international peace and security,

“Determined to eliminate international terrorism and to ensure the effective implementation of resolutions 1044 (1996) and 1054 (1996), and, to that end, acting under Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations,

“1. Demands once again that the Government of the Sudan comply fully and without further delay with the requests set out in paragraph 4 of resolution 1044 (1996) as reaffirmed in paragraph 1 of resolution 1054 (1996);

“2. Notes the steps taken by some Member States to give effect to the provisions set out in paragraph 3 of resolution 1054 (1996), and requests those States that have not yet done so to report to the Secretary-General as soon as possible on the steps they have taken to that end;

“3. Decides that all States shall deny aircraft permission to take off from, land in or overfly their territories if the aircraft is registered in the Sudan, or owned, leased or operated by or on behalf of Sudan Airways or by any undertaking, wherever located or organized, which is substantially owned or controlled by Sudan Airways, or owned, leased or operated by the Government or public authorities of the Sudan, or by an undertaking, wherever located or organized, which is substantially owned or controlled by the Government or public authorities of the Sudan;

“4. Further decides that it shall, ninety days after the date of adoption of the present resolution, determine the date of entry into force of the provisions set out in paragraph 3 above and all aspects of the modalities of its implementation, unless the Council decides before then, on the basis of a report presented by the Secretary-General on the compliance of the Sudan with the demand in paragraph 1 above;

“5. Requests the Secretary-General, by 15 November 1996, to submit a report on the compliance of the Sudan with the provisions of paragraph 1 above;

B. Consideration at the 3691st meeting (23 August 1996) and presidential statement

At the 3691st meeting, held on 23 August 1996 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“The situation between Iraq and Kuwait”

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1996/36):

“The Security Council, on the eve of the planned visit to Baghdad by the Executive Chairman of the Special Commission, strongly reaffirms its full support for the Special Commission in the conduct of its inspections and the other tasks entrusted to it by the Council. The Council reiterates the importance it attaches to full compliance by Iraq with the relevant resolutions of the Council. It underlines the important role of the Special Commission's inspection teams and demands once again that they be given immediate, unconditional and unrestricted access to any and all areas, facilities, equipment, records and means of transportation which they wish to inspect, and Iraqi officials whom they wish to interview, so that the Special Commission may fully discharge its mandate.

“In this context, the Council remains gravely concerned at the failure by Iraq to comply fully with its resolution 1060 (1996) of 12 June 1996 and with other resolutions of the Council dealing with the Special Commission. The denial by Iraq, on repeated occasions, of immediate, unconditional and unrestricted access to sites which they wished to inspect and the attempts made by the Government of Iraq to impose conditions on the conduct of interviews with Iraqi officials by the Special Commission constitute a gross violation of its obligations under resolutions 687 (1991), 707 (1991) and 715 (1991). The Council notes that these actions also contradict commitments made by the Government of Iraq in its Joint Statement of 22 June 1996 with the Special Commission, and urges the Government of Iraq to respect these commitments. The Council reminds the Government of Iraq that only full compliance with its obligations under the relevant resolutions will enable the Executive Chairman of the Special Commission to present his report in accordance with section C of resolution 687 (1991). The Council will continue to consider how best to ensure Iraq's full compliance.

"The Council requests the Executive Chairman to report to it on the results of his visit."

D. Consideration at the 3729th meeting (30 December 1996) and presidential statement

At the 3729th meeting, held on 30 December 1996 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“The situation between Iraq and Kuwait”

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1996/49):

“The Security Council notes that the Special Commission and the Government of Iraq previously agreed that the investigation of unilateral destruction of proscribed items is a fundamental area to accelerate the verification of the Iraqi Declarations. In this regard, the Council deplores the refusal by Iraq to allow the Special Commission to remove approximately 130 missile engines from Iraq for analysis by a team of international experts under the Special Commission. The Council notes that such action complicates the implementation by the Special Commission of its mandate.

“The Council reaffirms that a full accounting for Iraq's missiles with a range greater than 150 kilometres is a necessary prerequisite to enable the Special Commission to report that Iraq has complied with the requirements of section C of resolution 687 (1991) of 3 April 1991. The Council fully supports the intention of the Special Commission to carry out thoroughly the examination and analysis in the missile area, either on the basis of dispatching international teams of experts to Iraq or examining the relevant items abroad.

“The Council reminds the Government of Iraq of its obligation to comply with the provisions of the relevant resolutions and the need to cooperate fully with the Special Commission in order to enable it to report that the requirements of section C of resolution 687 (1991) are met. In this perspective, the Council affirms that Iraq is required to allow the Special Commission to remove the missile engines from its territory. The Council welcomes any proposal from Member States to offer their national facilities to the Special Commission in order to enable it to conduct the necessary analysis, if and when the Special Commission deems it necessary.

“The Council strongly reaffirms its full support for the Special Commission in the conduct of its mandate under the relevant resolutions of the Council. The Council reaffirms the right and privileges of the Special Commission as stated in its previous relevant resolutions and in particular its resolutions 687 (1991), 707 (1991) and 715 (1991).”

At the 3768th meeting, held on 16 April 1997 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“The situation between Iraq and Kuwait”

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1997/21):

“The Security Council has considered the case of an Iraqi aircraft which flew from Baghdad to Jeddah, Saudi Arabia, on 9 April 1997 and then departed.

“The Government of Iraq, in a letter dated 3 February 1997, had requested clearance from the Committee established pursuant to resolution 661 (1990) for the release of 50 million dollars from the frozen Iraqi assets being held in Saudi Arabia, Bahrain and the United Arab Emirates to cover pilgrimage costs and requested the agreement of the Committee for flights by Iraqi Airways to transport those pilgrims to Jeddah during the holy pilgrimage season.

“The Committee answered in a letter dated 3 March 1997 that it would be in a better position to consider the release of the frozen Iraqi funds if a request was submitted by a country which was willing to release such funds to meet the pilgrimage costs.

“The Government of Iraq proceeded with this particular flight without specific consultation with the Committee. Such consultation would have allowed the Committee to consider the matter and to determine whether the flight required Committee approval under the relevant resolutions.

“The Council draws to the attention of Member States their obligations under resolutions 661 (1990), 670 (1990) and other relevant resolutions.

“The Council underlines its respect for the obligation of Muslims to perform the Hajj pilgrimage.”

“The situation in Tajikistan and along the Tajik-Afghan border

“Progress report of the Secretary-General on the situation in Tajikistan (S/1997/56)”

The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representative of Tajikistan, at his request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Councils provisional rules of procedure.

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1997/6):

“The Security Council has considered the progress report of the Secretary-General on the situation in Tajikistan of 21 January 1997 (S/1997/56), submitted pursuant to paragraph 6 of Security Council resolution 1089 (1996) of 13 December 1996.

“The Council welcomes the signing in Moscow on 23 December 1996 by the President of Tajikistan and the leader of the United Tajik Opposition of the Agreement (S/1996/1070, annex I), including the protocol on the Commission on National Reconciliation (S/1996/1070, annex II), and notes the progress made in the inter-Tajik talks in Tehran, in particular the signing of the protocol on refugees (S/1997/56, annex III). It believes that these agreements, provided they are carried out as written, represent a qualitative change for the better and give a new impetus to efforts aimed at achieving national reconciliation. The Council urges the parties to honour and implement consistently and in good faith the agreements already reached, in particular in the course of negotiating future agreements. It also urges them to make further substantive progress at the next rounds of the inter-Tajik talks.

“The Council notes with satisfaction that the ceasefire has been generally observed by the parties since December 1996 and calls upon them to maintain it scrupulously for the whole duration of the inter-Tajik talks in accordance with their obligations and commitments.

“The Council commends the efforts of the Special Representative of the Secretary-General and calls upon the parties to cooperate fully with him in continuing the inter-Tajik talks. The Council also commends the efforts of the United Nations Mission of Observers in Tajikistan in fulfilling its mandate.

“The Council calls upon the parties to ensure the safety and the freedom of movement of the personnel of the United Nations, the collective Peacekeeping Forces of the Commonwealth of Independent States and other international personnel in Tajikistan.

“The Council strongly condemns the attacks on and kidnapping of international personnel, in particular those of the United Nations Mission of Observers in Tajikistan, the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees and the International Committee of the Red Cross, and others and demands the immediate release of all those taken hostage. It stresses the inadmissibility of kidnapping and any other mistreatment of United Nations personnel and supports the efforts of the Secretary-General to ensure that the essential security requirements of the Mission are met.

“In this context the Council expresses satisfaction at the efforts by and cooperation between the Mission, the Russian Federation and the parties to resolve the hostage crisis.

“The Council considers it necessary for the United Nations to continue vigorous support for the political process in Tajikistan. It takes note of the request from the parties to the United Nations Mission of Observers in Tajikistan to extend the necessary assistance in the implementation of the Moscow Agreement and to cooperate closely with the Commission on National Reconciliation in its activities. The Council accepts the Secretary-General's recommendation not to change the nature and size of the United Nations presence in Tajikistan at this stage. It requests the Secretary-General to keep the situation under review and to submit in due course his recommendations with regard to the United Nations presence in Tajikistan in the light of the progress in implementation of the inter-Tajik agreements and bearing in mind the request for assistance by the parties contained in the Moscow Agreement and the tasks and functions that would be required to provide such assistance.

At the 3766th meeting, held on 16 April 1997 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“The situation in Afghanistan”

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1997/20):

“The Security Council has considered the report of the Secretary-General of 16 March 1997 concerning the situation in Afghanistan (S/1997/240). It has also considered the views expressed at its 3765th meeting, on 14 and 15 April 1997, on the subject.

“The Council expresses its grave concern at the continued fighting in Afghanistan and its intensification in recent months. It reiterates that the continuation of the conflict threatens to destabilize the region and prevents steps towards the formation of a fully representative and broad-based government able to address effectively Afghanistan's acute social and economic problems.

“The Council calls upon the Afghan parties to cease immediately all hostile actions and to enter into sustained negotiations. The Council strongly believes that a negotiated settlement is the only solution to the long-standing conflict in this country.

“The Council fully supports the United Nations efforts to facilitate national reconciliation in Afghanistan. It is convinced that the United Nations must continue to play the central role in assisting the warring Afghan factions to engage in a fully-fledged negotiating process on the basis of Security Council resolution 1076 (1996) and General Assembly resolution 51/195. The Council welcomes the activities of the United Nations Special Mission to Afghanistan and supports further efforts by the Secretary-General to give a new impetus to its work. In this context it welcomes the holding by the Special Mission of intra-Afghan working group meetings in Islamabad but regrets that these efforts have not yet achieved positive results.

“The Council deeply regrets that many important provisions of Security Council resolution 1076 (1996) of 22 October 1996 and General Assembly resolution 51/195 of 17 December 1996 remain unimplemented. It calls upon all Afghan parties, in particular the Taliban, to abide by these resolutions, to cooperate fully with the Special Mission and to participate in serious and honest negotiations through the good offices of the Special Mission. The Council urges interested countries to coordinate their activities with those of the Special Mission and to refrain from supporting one Afghan party against another.

“The Council welcomes the convening by the Secretary-General of a meeting of concerned countries on 16 April 1997, following the earlier meeting held in New York on 18 November 1996.

“The Council takes note of the intention of the Secretary-General to consult the Afghan parties and all those concerned on the advisability of an intra-Afghan meeting at some stage and requests him to put forward a concrete plan if and when he decides that it will contribute to the peace process.

“The Council again calls upon all States to end immediately the supply of arms and ammunition to all parties to the conflict in Afghanistan.

“The Council reiterates its concern that the continuation of the conflict in Afghanistan provides a fertile ground for terrorism and drug trafficking which destabilize the region and beyond, and calls upon the leaders of the Afghan parties to halt such activities.

“The Council is deeply concerned at the worsening of the humanitarian situation including the displacement of the civilian population. It is also deeply concerned at the discrimination against women and other violations of human rights and of international humanitarian law in Afghanistan. The Council deplores the mistreatment of personnel of international humanitarian organizations, which inhibits the international community's ability to respond to Afghanistan's pressing humanitarian needs.

“The Council welcomes the convening of an International Forum on Assistance to Afghanistan at Ashgabat on 21 and 22 January 1997 and the forthcoming meeting of the Afghanistan Support Group at Geneva on 21 April 1997. It encourages all States and international organizations to continue to extend all possible humanitarian assistance, which should be distributed equitably throughout the country.

“The Council will remain seized of the matter and requests the Secretary-General to continue to keep it regularly informed of the situation in Afghanistan.”

B. Consideration at the 3708th meeting (1 November 1996) and presidential statement

At the 3708th meeting, held on 1 November 1996 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“The situation in the Great Lakes region

“Letters dated 14 and 24 October 1996 from the Secretary-General addressed to the President of the Security Council (S/1996/875 and S/1996/878)”

The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representative of Zaire, at his request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Council's provisional rules of procedure.

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1996/44):

“The Security Council is gravely concerned at the deteriorating situation in the Great Lakes region, in particular eastern Zaire, and at the effect which the continued fighting is having on the inhabitants of the region, and condemns all acts of violence. It underlines the urgent need for a comprehensive and coordinated response by the international community to prevent any further escalation of the crisis there.

“The Council calls for an immediate ceasefire and a complete cessation of all fighting in the region. The Council calls on all States to respect the sovereignty and territorial integrity of neighbouring States in accordance with their obligations under the Charter of the United Nations. In this connection, it urges all parties to refrain from the use of force as well as cross-border incursions and to engage in a process of negotiation.

“The Council, in the light of the letters from the Secretary-General to the President of the Council (S/1996/875 and S/1996/878) and the information received from the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees and the Assistant Secretary-General for Human Rights regarding the situation in eastern Zaire, is particularly concerned at the humanitarian situation and the resulting large-scale movements of refugees and displaced persons. It fully supports the efforts of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees and humanitarian agencies to alleviate the suffering. It calls on all parties in the region to allow humanitarian agencies and non-governmental organizations to deliver humanitarian assistance to those in need and to ensure the safety of all refugees, as well as the security and freedom of movement of all international humanitarian personnel. It underlines the urgent need for the orderly voluntary repatriation and resettlement of refugees and the return of displaced persons, which are crucial elements for the stability of the region.

“The Council agrees with the Secretary-General that the situation in eastern Zaire constitutes a serious threat to the stability of the Great Lakes region. It is convinced that the complex problems at issue can only be resolved through early and substantive dialogue. The Council urges the Governments of the region to pursue such a dialogue without further delay in order to defuse the tension. The Council calls upon all States in the region to create the conditions necessary for the speedy and peaceful resolution of the conflict, and to desist from any acts that may further exacerbate the situation. In this context, the Council welcomes all regional efforts aimed at defusing tension in the region, in particular the announcement of the meeting of regional leaders scheduled for 5 November 1996 in Nairobi, Kenya.

“The Council fully supports the initiative of the Secretary-General to dispatch to the Great Lakes region a Special Envoy to consult with all concerned in order to establish the facts relating to the present conflict; to develop as a matter of urgency a plan to defuse tension and establish a ceasefire; to promote a process of negotiation; and to submit advice on the mandate to be given to a United Nations Special Representative, including on the size and structure of a United Nations political presence, which, in consultation with the Governments and parties concerned, will be established in the Great Lakes region. The Council also considers that the Special Envoy should be provided with adequate staff and logistic resources to carry out his mission. The Council also expresses the hope that the mediation efforts of the Organization of African Unity and the European Union will complement those of the Special Envoy of the Secretary-General. The Council calls upon all Governments and parties concerned to cooperate fully with the mission of the Special Envoy and to contribute to the search for a comprehensive solution to the problems facing the people of the Great Lakes region. Given the urgency of the situation, the Council expresses the hope that the Special Envoy will travel as soon as possible to the region and provide early information on the situation there.

“The Council reiterates that the present situation in eastern Zaire underlines the need to organize a conference on peace, security and development in the Great Lakes region under the auspices of the United Nations and the Organization of African Unity. To this end, it calls on the Secretary-General to ask his Special Envoy to promote the convening and to encourage the adequate preparation of such a conference on an urgent basis.

“The Council will remain seized of the matter.”

At the 3771st meeting, held on 24 April 1997 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“The situation in the Great Lakes region”

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1997/22):

“The Security Council is increasingly alarmed at the deterioration of the situation in Zaire and at the humanitarian consequences this is having on the refugees, displaced persons and other affected civilian inhabitants. It expresses its deep concern at the lack of progress in efforts to bring about a peaceful and negotiated settlement of the conflict in Zaire.

“The Council once again underlines the obligation of all concerned to respect the relevant rules of international law, including those of international humanitarian law.

“The Council is dismayed by the continued lack of access being afforded by the Alliance of Democratic Forces for the Liberation of Congo/ Zaire to United Nations and other humanitarian relief agencies, and by the recent acts of violence which have hampered the delivery of humanitarian assistance. It reiterates the statement of its President of 4 April 1997 (S/PRST/1997/19) and in particular calls in the strongest terms upon the Alliance of Democratic Forces for the Liberation of Congo/ Zaire to ensure unrestricted and safe access by all humanitarian relief agencies so as to allow the immediate provision of humanitarian aid to those affected, and to guarantee the safety of humanitarian relief workers, refugees, displaced persons and other affected civilian inhabitants in the areas which the Alliance of Democratic Forces for the Liberation of Congo/Zaire controls.

“The Council also expresses its concern at the obstruction of the repatriation plan of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees for eastern Zaire. It calls upon the Alliance of Democratic Forces for the Liberation of Congo/ Zaire and the Government of Rwanda to cooperate fully and without delay with the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees to enable the early implementation of the plan.

“The Council is particularly alarmed by reports of massacres and other serious violations of human rights in eastern Zaire. In this context, it calls upon the Alliance of Democratic Forces for the Liberation of Congo/Zaire and others concerned in the region to cooperate fully with the recently established United Nations investigative mission by ensuring unimpeded access to all areas and sites under investigation, as well as the security of the members of the mission.

“The Council reiterates its full support for the United Nations five-point peace plan, which it endorsed in its resolution 1097 (1997) of 18 February 1997. It calls for an immediate cessation of hostilities and calls upon the Government of Zaire and the Alliance of Democratic Forces for the Liberation of Congo/Zaire to engage seriously and fully in the search for a speedy political solution to the problems in Zaire, including transitional arrangements leading to the holding of democratic and free elections with the participation of all parties. In this context, it calls upon the President of Zaire and the leader of the Alliance of Democratic Forces for the Liberation of Congo/Zaire to meet as soon as possible.

“The Council warmly commends the efforts of the joint United Nations/Organization of African Unity Special Representative for the Great Lakes region. It calls upon all States, in particular those in the region, to support these efforts and to refrain from any action that would further exacerbate the situation in Zaire.

“The Council reaffirms once again the importance of holding an international conference on peace, security and development in the Great Lakes region under the auspices of the United Nations and the Organization of African Unity.

“The Council expresses its gratitude to the Secretary-General for keeping it informed of developments in the Great Lakes region, and requests him to continue to do so on a regular basis.

“The Council will remain seized of the matter.”

“The situation in the Great Lakes region”

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1997/24):

“The Security Council reaffirms the statement of its President of 24 April 1997 (S/PRST/1997/22) and welcomes the recent agreement by the President of Zaire and the leader of the Alliance of Democratic Forces for the Liberation of Congo/Zaire on a time and venue for a meeting to discuss a peaceful and negotiated settlement of the conflict in Zaire. It reiterates its full support for the United Nations five-point peace plan, which it endorsed in its resolution 1097 (1997) of 18 February 1997, calls for an immediate cessation of hostilities, and especially calls for both parties to reach a rapid agreement on peaceful transitional arrangements leading to the holding of democratic and free elections with the participation of all parties.

“The Council notes the commitment by the leader of the Alliance of Democratic Forces for the Liberation of Congo/Zaire to allow United Nations and other humanitarian agencies access to refugees in eastern Zaire in order to provide humanitarian assistance and to implement the repatriation plan of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees, including the use of both airports in Kisangani. It also notes his commitment to be flexible regarding the duration of the repatriation operation, which should move ahead as quickly as possible. It expresses concern at reports of obstruction of humanitarian assistance efforts, but notes that humanitarian access has improved recently. It calls on the Alliance of Democratic Forces for the Liberation of Congo/Zaire to abide by these commitments and to enable the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees repatriation plan to be implemented without conditions or delay.

“The Council also expresses its deep concern regarding the continuing reports of massacres, other atrocities and violations of international humanitarian law in eastern Zaire. In this context, it reiterates its call upon the Alliance of Democratic Forces for the Liberation of Congo/Zaire and others concerned in the region to cooperate fully with the recently established United Nations investigative mission by ensuring unimpeded access to all areas and sites under investigation, as well as the security of the members of the mission. It attaches great importance to the commitment of the leader of the Alliance of Democratic Forces for the Liberation of Congo/Zaire to take appropriate action against members of the Alliance of Democratic Forces for the Liberation of Congo/Zaire who violate the rules of international humanitarian law concerning the treatment of refugees and civilians.

At the 3734th meeting, held on 29 January 1997 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Security Council included the following item in its agenda without objection:

“Letters dated 20 and 23 December 1991, from France, the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and the United States of America (S/23306, S/23307, S/23308, S/23309 and S/23317)”

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1997/2):

“The Security Council notes with concern the letter of 17 January 1997 from the Secretary of the General People's Committee for Foreign Liaison and International Cooperation of the Libyan Arab Jamahiriya addressed to the President of the Security Council, announcing that Libyan Arab Airways would resume international flights out of the Libyan Arab Jamahiriya immediately (S/1997/52). The Council considers the position expressed in the letter of 17 January 1997 to be incompatible with Security Council resolution 748 (1992). Resolution 748 (1992) does not prohibit overflights of Libyan territory. Paragraph 4 (a) of the resolution does, however, prohibit all international flights to and from the Libyan Arab Jamahiriya. The Security Council would consider any such flights to be a violation of the terms of resolution 748 (1992).

“The Council takes note of the reports that a Libyan-registered aircraft, in apparent violation of resolution 748 (1992), flew from Tripoli, Libyan Arab Jamahiriya, to Accra, Ghana, on 21 January 1997, where it landed and from where it later departed. The Council has requested the Committee established pursuant to resolution 748 (1992) to follow up this matter. The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make the following statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/1997/18):

“On 29 March 1997, a Libyan-registered aircraft flew from Tripoli, Libyan Arab Jamahiriya, to Jeddah, Saudi Arabia. The Security Council considers this clear violation of Council resolution 748 (1992) of 31 March 1992 as totally unacceptable and calls on the Libyan Arab Jamahiriya to refrain from any further such violations. It recalls that arrangements have been made consistent with resolution 748 (1992) in order to fly Libyan pilgrims to perform the Hajj. The Council has requested the Committee established pursuant to resolution 748 (1992) to follow up this matter directly with the representatives of the Libyan Arab Jamahiriya, the Niger and Nigeria. The Council calls upon all States to fulfil their obligations under resolution 748 (1992) in the event that aircraft flights originating in the Libyan Arab Jamahiriya seek to land in their territory.

“The Council takes note of the letters from the Permanent Representative of the Libyan Arab Jamahiriya dated 16 May 1997 (S/1997/373), and from the Permanent Representative of the Niger, dated 13 May 1997, and the note verbale from the Permanent Representative of Nigeria, dated 15 May 1997.
