General discussion

A. Calendar of conferences and meetings

11. At its opening meeting, held on 7 September 2021, the Committee considered the section of the report of the Secretary-General on the pattern of conferences containing information on the cycle of meetings and conferences (A/76/80, sect. II.A).

12. In that regard, the Committee reviewed and adopted the draft calendar of conferences and meetings of the United Nations for 2022 as contained in A/AC.172/2021/L.2.

Requests for exceptions to section I, paragraph 7, of General Assembly resolution 40/243

13. At the same meeting, the Committee considered the sections of the report of the Secretary-General on the pattern of conferences containing information on the requests received for exceptions to section I, paragraph 7, of General Assembly resolution 40/243, by which the Assembly decided that no subsidiary organ of the Assembly might meet at United Nations Headquarters during a regular session of the Assembly unless explicitly authorized by the Assembly (A/76/80, sect. II.A, and supplementary information,<sup>2</sup> sect. I.A).

Conclusions and recommendations

14 The Committee agreed to requests from five meeting bodies to meet during the main part of the seventy-sixth session of the General Assembly, on the understanding that all such meetings would be allocated conference services on an “if available” basis, in such a way that the work of the General Assembly and its main committees is not impeded.

Intersessional departures

15. 17. Since the issuance of the report on the pattern of conferences, the Committee received an additional request from the Heads of National Drug Law Enforcement Agencies, Europe to postpone its fourteenth meeting until 2022 because of the continuing pandemic situation. The Committee approved the additional request by silence procedure in August 2021.

B. Utilization of conference-servicing resources

18. At its opening meeting, on 7 September 2021, the Committee on Conferences considered the sections of the report containing an analysis of the utilization of conference-servicing resources by United Nations organs (A/76/80, sect. II.B, and supplementary information, sects. I.C and D).

Discussion

19. One representative noted that the Department for General Assembly and Conference Management had contributed to the continued functioning of the United Nations during the pandemic and highlighted that the new reality had increased the number of informal virtual and hybrid meetings.

C. Enhancing integrated global management, leveraging technology and measuring the quality of conference services

20. At the same meeting, the Committee considered the sections of the report concerning innovations in meetings services in 2020 (A/76/80, sect. II.F), new developments in documents management (ibid., sect. III.G) and enhancing integrated global management and measuring the quality of conference services (ibid., sect. VI).

D. Matters related to documentation and publications

21. At the same meeting, the Committee considered the sections of the report concerning matters related to documentation and publications (A/76/80, sect. III, and supplementary information, sect. II).

E. Matters related to language services

22. Also at the same meeting, the Committee considered the section of the report concerning matters related to language services (A/76/80, sect. III).

Discussion

23. One representative commended the Department for the innovations it had introduced in 2020, including the provision of International Sign interpretation on a fully remote basis for the first time, which was an important step towards ensuring accessibility.

24. The representative of another delegation noted that the work of the Department's language services had been adversely affected by the austerity measures introduced by the Secretary-General, which had made it difficult to recruit new staff and impossible to have recourse to external assistance. The selection of new translators and interpreters was now under way; however, there was no guarantee that the liquidity situation would not be repeated. The only way of helping the Department to fulfil its mandate in financially difficult times would be to exempt it from any austerity measures.

25. With regard to the use of remote simultaneous interpretation, the views of staff members, who worked in extreme conditions and often put their health at risk, should be taken into account.

26. Since 2020, Member States had characterized multilingualism as either a core or a fundamental value of the Organization. Language services could not receive adequate temporary assistance during the pandemic, and this had added to the difficulties faced by the services.

Chapter IV

Adoption of the report and proposed dates for the organizational and substantive sessions in 2022

27. At its closing meeting on 13 September, the Committee adopted the report and the proposed dates for its organizational and substantive sessions for 2022 so that the dates would be included in the calendar of conferences and meetings.

30. Notes the decrease in the rate of room utilization of the conference centre of the Economic Commission for Africa and the ongoing efforts aimed at improving the conference facilities at the Commission;

31. Looks forward to receiving the comprehensive proposal aimed at addressing the deteriorating conditions and the limited capacity of the conference services facility at the United Nations Office at Nairobi;

32. Recognizes the proactive efforts of the Secretary-General to identify ways to enhance efficiency and effectiveness in conference services, commends the Department for General Assembly and Conference Management for its innovative approaches in providing technical secretariat support and in managing meetings and documents, and encourages the Department to continue its efforts to preserve the high quality of its services while achieving efficiencies;
