

---

Open-ended working group on reducing space threats through norms, rules and principles of responsible behaviours
Geneva, 2022- 2023List of other international organizations, commercial actors and civil society organizations attending the open-ended working group, in accordance with resolution 76/231

1. American Society of International Law
2. Australian Centre for Space Governance
3. Canadian Pugwash Group
4. Center for Cyber Security and International Relations Studies
5. Centre for International Governance Innovation
6. Center for Space Governance
7. Centre for Humanitarian Dialogue
8. DiploFoundation
9. European Space Policy Institute
10. EuroSpaceHub
11. Fondation pour la recherche stratégique
12. Geneva Centre for Security Policy
13. Hague Institute for Global Justice
14. INHR
15. Institute of Political Studies in Bordeaux
16. International Astronautical Federation
17. International Institute for Strategic Studies
18. International Organization for Standardization
19. Intersputnik International Organization of Space Communications
20. KU Leuven
21. MAAT
22. Northstar Earth & Space
23. Project Ploughshares
24. Secure World Foundation
25. St. Thomas University, Atlantic Human Rights Centre
26. Stockholm International Peace Research Institute

27. United First Nations Planetary Defense
  28. Université de Tours
  29. University of Cambridge, Centre for the Study of Existential Risk
  30. Women's International League for Peace and Freedom
  31. World Future Council
  32. World Welfare Association
-