International governmental and non-governmental organizations invited to sessions of UNCITRAL and its working groups

Note by the Secretariat

1. The Commission may wish to recall that, from its forty-fourth session to fiftieth session, in 2011 to 2017, it heard oral reports by the Secretariat about intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations invited to sessions of UNCITRAL.¹ At its forty-eighth session, in 2015, it requested the Secretariat, when presenting its oral report on the topic of organizations invited to sessions of UNCITRAL, to provide comments on the manner in which invited organizations fulfilled the criteria applied by the Secretariat in making its decision to invite non-governmental organizations.² At its forty-ninth session, in 2016, the Commission welcomed the detailed and informative report presented by the Secretariat pursuant to that request.³ At its fiftieth session, in 2017, the Commission requested the Secretariat to provide information about intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations invited to sessions of UNCITRAL in writing for future sessions.⁴ This note is presented pursuant to that request and covers the period since the start of the fifty-third session of UNCITRAL (Vienna, online, 6–17 July 2020 and 14–18 September 2020) up to the date of this note.

2. Criteria and procedures for inviting intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations to sessions of UNCITRAL and its working groups may be found on the UNCITRAL website at <https://uncitral.un.org/en/about/faq/methods>.

² Ibid., Seventieth Session, Supplement No. 17 (A/70/17), para. 280.

³ Ibid., Seventy-first Session, Supplement No. 17 (A/71/17), para. 290.

⁴ Ibid., Seventy-second Session, Supplement No. 17 (A/72/17), para. 364.

3. Since the Commission's fifty-third session, in 2020, no new intergovernmental organization (IGO) has been added in the list of IGOs invited to sessions of UNCITRAL and its working groups.

4. The UNCITRAL secretariat considered that the following non-governmental organizations (NGOs), which had requested to be invited to sessions of UNCITRAL and its working groups, met the eligibility criteria and has therefore added them to the list of NGOs invited to sessions of UNCITRAL and its working groups (listed in the chronological order of their application):⁵ Max Planck Institute for Comparative Public Law and International Law (www.mpil.de); Chamber of Commerce of the United States of America (www.uschamber.com/international-affairs-division); Ukrainian Arbitration Association (www.arbitration.kiev.ua); Allerhand Institute (www.allerhand.pl); and The Israeli Institute of Commercial Arbitration (www.borerut.com).

5. Other amendments were made in that list to reflect changes in the name of organizations⁶ and the status of invitation to working groups of an organization.⁷

6. The following NGOs, both from Paraguay, also requested to be invited to sessions of UNCITRAL and its working groups: Centro de Derecho Empresarial and Centro de Estudios de Derecho Marítimo. The UNCITRAL secretariat considered that they did not meet the eligibility criteria since they were not found to be international in membership and focus and, therefore, it has not granted their requests.

7. In addition to the NGOs listed as being invited to Working Group III (ISDS Reform) in the list of NGOs invited to sessions of UNCITRAL and its working groups, the Secretariat considered that some additional NGOs and other entities could make useful contributions to the work of that Working Group at the current stage of its deliberations. Because of the academic or trade union nature of those NGOs and other entities or because their expertise and experience are only remotely relevant to other areas of UNCITRAL's work, the Secretariat was not in the position to place them in the list of NGOs invited to sessions of UNCITRAL and its working groups. They were placed on an ad hoc list of additional NGOs and other entities invited to Working Group III while it is working on issues of ISDS reform (see the table below). The need for inviting them to future sessions of the Working Group is assessed by the Secretariat according to the needs of the Working Group at a given time.⁸ Those additional NGOs and other entities are not invited to annual sessions of UNCITRAL or considered for invitation to other UNCITRAL working groups. They may however be considered for invitation to annual sessions of the Commission at which instrument(s) related to ISDS reform will be discussed.

⁶ Council of Notariats of the European Union/Conseil de Notariats de l'Union Européenne (CNUE) changed its name in Notaries of Europe/Notaires d'Europe (see #81); Queen Mary College, University of London changed its name to Queen Mary University of London (see entry #223).

⁷ Jerusalem Arbitration Center (JAC, former #181) was removed from the list since it no longer exists.

⁸ In its assessment, the Secretariat takes account of the evolving mandate of the Working Group and the need to achieve a balanced representation at the sessions of the major viewpoints or interests in the relevant fields from all areas and regions of the world. It also has to take into account the logistical challenges in seeking to accommodate all entities interested to attend sessions of the Working Group. In particular, the limited capacity of the conference room assigned to the Working Group session may require the Secretariat to exercise its discretion in selecting those NGOs and other entities best meeting the criteria for invitation.
