

VII. STATUS OF UNCITRAL TEXTS

Status of Conventions: note by the Secretariat (A/CN.9/325) [Original: English]

1. At its thirteenth session the Commission decided that it would consider, at each of its sessions, the status of conventions that were the outcome of work carried out by it.^a

2. The present note is submitted pursuant to that decision. The annex hereto sets forth the state of signatures, ratifications, accessions and approvals as of 16 May 1989 to the following conventions: Convention on the Limitation Period in the International Sale of Goods (New York, 1974); Protocol amending the Convention on the Limitation Period in the International Sale of Goods (Vienna, 1980); United Nations Convention on the Carriage of Goods by Sea, 1978 (Hamburg); United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods (Vienna, 1980); and Convention on the Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards (New York, 1958). The latter Convention, which has not emanated from the work of the Commission, has been included because of the close interest of the Commission in it, particularly in connection with the Commission's work in the field of international commercial arbitration. In addition, the annex sets forth those jurisdictions that have enacted legislation based on the UNCITRAL Model Law on International Commercial Arbitration.

3. Since the most recent report in this series showing the status of conventions as of 19 February 1988 (A/CN.9/304), the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods has received four additional ratifications or accessions (Australia, Denmark, German Democratic Republic, Norway), the United Nations Convention on the Carriage of Goods by Sea, 1978 ("Hamburg Rules") has received two additional ratifications or accessions (Nigeria, Sierra Leone), and the Convention on the Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards has received seven additional ratifications or accessions (Algeria, Antigua and Barbuda, Argentina, Bahrain, Dominica, Kenya, Peru). In addition, legislation based on the UNCITRAL Model Law on International Commercial Arbitration has been enacted in Australia, Nigeria, in the Canadian Provinces of Ontario and Saskatchewan and in the State of California (U.S.A.). Both the Convention on the Limitation Period in the International Sale of Goods and the Protocol amending that Convention entered into force on 1 August 1988.

4. The names of the States that have ratified or acceded to the conventions since the preparation of the last report are underlined.

Declarations and reservations

(Excludes territorial declarations and certain other reservations and declarations of a political nature)

¹State will apply the Convention to recognition and enforcement of awards made in the territory of another Contracting State.

²State will apply the Convention only to differences arising out of legal relationships whether contractual or not which are considered as commercial under the national law.

³With regard to awards made in the territory of non-contracting States, State will apply the Convention only to the extent to which these States grant reciprocal treatment.

⁴The Government of Canada has declared that Canada will apply the Convention only to differences arising out of legal relationships, whether contractual or not, which are considered as commercial under the laws of Canada, except in the case of the Province of Quebec where the law does not provide for such limitation.

⁵State will not apply the Convention to differences where the subject matter of the proceedings is immovable property situated in the State, or a right in or to such property.

⁶State will apply the Convention only to those arbitral awards which were adopted after the coming of the Convention into effect.

⁷The present Convention should be construed in accordance with the principles and rules of the National Constitution in force or with those resulting from reforms mandated by the Constitution.

6. UNCITRAL Model Law on International Commercial Arbitration (1985)

Legislation based on the UNCITRAL Model Law on International Commercial Arbitration has been enacted in Australia, Canada (by the Federal Parliament and by the Legislatures of all Provinces and Territories), Cyprus, Nigeria and the State of California (United States of America).
