United Nations Commission on International Trade Law

Thirty-ninth session
New York, 19 June-7 July 2006

Status of conventions and model laws*

Note by the Secretariat

1. At its thirteenth session, in 1980, the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL) decided¹ that it would consider, at each of its sessions, the status of conventions that were the outcome of work carried out by it.
2. The present note sets forth the status of the conventions and model laws emanating from the work of the Commission. It also shows the status of the Convention on the Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards,² which, although adopted prior to the establishment of the Commission, is closely related to the work of the Commission in the area of international commercial arbitration.
3. This note indicates the changes since 9 May 2005, when the last report in this series (A/CN.9/583) was issued. States that have become parties to a convention or have enacted legislation based on a model law since the preparation of the last report are shown in bold letters in the respective list.
4. The information contained herein relating to the UNCITRAL conventions and model laws is current up to 29 May 2006. Regularly updated treaty information after the issuance of this document may be obtained by referring to the UNCITRAL home page on the Internet (<http://www.uncitral.org>) or, alternatively, by contacting the unit of the Secretariat that discharges the depositary functions of the Secretary-General in respect of multilateral treaties: Treaty Section, Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations Headquarters (<http://www.un.org/Depts/Treaty/>) (tel.: (+1-212) 963-5472; fax: (+1-212) 963-3693; e-mail: treaty@un.org).

* The submission of this document was delayed to ensure the timeliness of the information contained therein.

^a The Convention was concluded in equally authentic Chinese, English, French, Russian and Spanish texts. On 11 August 1992, the Secretary-General, in accordance with a request of UNCITRAL, circulated a proposal for the adoption of an authentic Arabic text of the Convention. No objections having been raised, the Arabic text was deemed adopted on 9 November 1992 with the same status as that of the other authentic texts referred to in the Convention.

^b The Convention was signed by the former German Democratic Republic on 14 June 1974 and ratified by it on 31 August 1989 and entered into force on 1 March 1990.

^c In accordance with article XI of the Protocol, the contracting parties to the amended Convention are considered to be also contracting parties to the unamended Convention in relation to any contracting party to the unamended Convention not yet a contracting party to the 1980 Protocol, unless the depositary is notified to the contrary.

^f Succession.

^g The former Czechoslovakia signed the Convention on 29 August 1975 and deposited an instrument of ratification on 26 May 1977, with the Convention entering into force for the former Czechoslovakia on 1 August 1988. On 28 May and 30 September 1993, respectively, Slovakia and the Czech Republic deposited instruments of succession with effect from 1 January 1993, the date of succession of both States.

^h Declarations and reservations. Upon signature, Norway declared, and confirmed upon ratification, that, in accordance with article 34, the Convention would not govern contracts of sale where the seller and the buyer both had their relevant places of business within the territories of the Nordic States (i.e. Denmark, Finland, Iceland, Norway and Sweden).

ⁱ The Russian Federation continues, as from 24 December 1991, the membership of the former Union of Soviet Socialist Republics (USSR) in the United Nations and maintains, as from that date, full responsibility for all the rights and obligations of the USSR under the Charter of the United Nations and the multilateral treaties deposited with the Secretary-General.

^j The former Yugoslavia acceded to the Convention on 27 November 1978. On 12 March 2001, the former Federal Republic of Yugoslavia declared the following:

“The Government of the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia, having considered [the Convention], succeeds to the same and undertakes faithfully to perform and carry out the stipulations therein contained as from April 27, 1992, the date upon which the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia assumed responsibility for its international relations.”

^a The text of the Convention, as amended, has been established by the Secretary-General, as provided for by article XIV of the Protocol.

^b The German Democratic Republic was a participant by virtue of its accession on 31 August 1989 to the Protocol of 11 April 1980.

^c In accordance with its article VIII, paragraph 1, the Protocol is open for accession by all States.

In accordance with article VIII, paragraph 2, of the Protocol, accession to the Protocol by any State that is not a contracting party to the unamended Convention shall have the effect of accession to the amended Convention, subject to the provisions of article XI of the Protocol.

In accordance with article X of the Protocol, ratification of or accession to the unamended Convention after the entry into force of the Protocol shall also constitute a ratification of or accession to the amended Convention if the State notifies the depositary accordingly.

^d For information on which States listed above are parties to the 1980 amending Protocol, contact the Treaty Section, which performs the functions of the depositary in respect of the Protocol (see para. 4 above).

^e Accession.

^f Czechoslovakia was a participant to the Convention and the Protocol by virtue of its accession to the Protocol on 5 March 1990.

^g Declarations and reservations. Upon accession, Czechoslovakia and the United States of America declared that, pursuant to article XII, they did not consider themselves bound by article I.

^a Accession.

^b The former Czechoslovakia signed the Convention on 6 March 1979. On 28 May and on 2 June 1993, respectively, Slovakia and the Czech Republic deposited their instruments of succession to the signature and the Czech Republic deposited its instrument of ratification on 23 June 1995. The Czech Republic, upon ratification, withdrew the declaration, referred to in footnote c, that had been made by the former Czechoslovakia, and lodged the declaration referred to in the second paragraph of that footnote.

^c Declarations and reservations (excludes other reservations and declarations of a political nature). Upon signature, the former Czechoslovakia declared in accordance with article 26 the formula for converting the amounts of liability referred to in paragraph 2 of that article into the Czechoslovak currency and the amount of the limits of liability to be applied in the territory of Czechoslovakia as expressed in the Czechoslovak currency.

The Czech Republic declared that limits of carrier's liability in the territory of the Czech Republic adhered to the provision of article 6 of the Convention.

^a Declarations and reservations. This State declared, in accordance with articles 12 and 96 of the Convention, that any provision of article 11, article 29, or part II of the Convention that allowed a contract of sale or its modification or termination by agreement or any offer, acceptance or other indication of intention to be made in any form other than in writing, would not apply where any party had its place of business in its territory.

^b Accession.

^c Succession.

^d Declarations and reservations. Upon accession, Canada declared that, in accordance with article 93 of the Convention, the Convention would extend to Alberta, British Columbia, Manitoba, New Brunswick, Newfoundland and Labrador, Nova Scotia, Ontario, Prince Edward Island and the Northwest Territories. (Upon accession, Canada declared that, in accordance with article 95 of the Convention, with respect to British Columbia, it would not be bound by article 1, paragraph (b), of the Convention. In a notification received on 31 July 1992, Canada withdrew that declaration.) In a declaration received on 9 April 1992, Canada extended the application of the Convention to Quebec and Saskatchewan. In a notification received on 29 June 1992, Canada extended the application of the Convention to the Yukon Territory. In a notification received on 18 June 2003, Canada extended the application of the Convention to the Territory of Nunavut.

^e Declarations and reservations. Upon approving the Convention, China declared that it did not consider itself bound by subparagraph (b) of paragraph 1 of article 1 and article 11, nor the provisions in the Convention relating to the content of article 11.

^f Approval.

^g Upon succeeding to the Convention, Croatia has decided, on the basis of the Constitutional Decision on Sovereignty and Independence of the Republic of Croatia of 25 June 1991 and the Decision of the Croatian Parliament of 8 October 1991 and by virtue of succession of the Socialist Federal Republic of Yugoslavia in respect of the territory of Croatia, to be considered a party to the Convention with effect from 8 October 1991, the date on which Croatia severed all constitutional and legal connections with the Socialist Federal Republic of Yugoslavia and took over its international obligations.

^h The former Czechoslovakia signed the Convention on 1 September 1981 and deposited an instrument of ratification on 5 March 1990, with the Convention entering into force for the former Czechoslovakia on 1 April 1991. On 28 May and 30 September 1993, respectively, Slovakia and the Czech Republic deposited instruments of succession, with effect from 1 January 1993, the date of succession of both States.

ⁱ Declarations and reservations. This State declared that it would not be bound by paragraph 1 (b) of article 1.

^j Declarations and reservations. Upon ratifying the Convention, Denmark, Finland, Norway and Sweden declared, in accordance with article 92, paragraph 1, that they would not be bound by part II of the Convention ("Formation of the Contract"). Upon ratifying the Convention, Denmark, Finland, Norway and Sweden declared, pursuant to article 94, paragraph 1, and article 94, paragraph 2, that the Convention would not apply to contracts of sale where the parties have their places of business in Denmark, Finland, Iceland, Sweden or Norway.
