The Article 2.c. of the Draft Model law stipulates that “Judgment means any decision whatever it may be called, issued by a court or administrative authority, provided an administrative decision has the same effect as a court decision. For the purposes of this definition, a decision includes a decree or order, and a determination of costs and expenses by the court. An interim measure of protection is not to be considered a judgment for the purposes of this Law.”

The Permanent Mission, in this context, declares hereby that the judgment in Turkish legislation, is limited by the decisions issued only by a court authority. Decisions of the administrative authorities in Member States, by no means, are recognized as a “judgment” according to Turkish national law.
