5. Human rights bodies and mechanisms

Human Rights Council Advisory Committee

82. In its resolution 37/23, the Human Rights Council requested the Advisory Committee to conduct a study on the role of technical assistance and capacity-building in fostering mutually beneficial cooperation in promoting and protecting human rights and to submit a report thereon to the Council before its forty-third session. The Council will consider the report of the Advisory Committee thereon (A/HRC/43/31) (see para. 64 above).

83. Pursuant to Human Rights Council resolutions 31/22, 34/11 and 40/4, the Advisory Committee conducted a comprehensive research-based study on the impact of flow of funds of illicit origin and the non-repatriation thereof to the countries of origin on the enjoyment of human rights, including economic, social and cultural rights, with a special emphasis on the right to development, with a view to compiling relevant best practices and main challenges, and to make recommendations on tackling those challenges based on the best practices in question. Further to the decisions adopted by the Council on 6 July 2018 and on 27 September 2019 to endorse the request of the Advisory Committee to extend the deadline for the submission of the study, the Council will have before it the report of the Advisory Committee on its study on utilizing non-repatriated illicit funds with view to supporting the achievement of the Sustainable Development Goals (A/HRC/43/66) (see para. 73 above).

The contribution of the Human Rights Council to the prevention of human rights violations

84. In its resolution 38/18, the Human Rights Council decided to convene two intersessional seminars with States and other relevant stakeholders on the contribution that the Council can make to the prevention of human rights violations and requested the Chair-Rapporteur of the two seminars to submit a report for consideration by the Council at its forty-third session. The Council will consider the report of the Chair-Rapporteur of the two intersessional seminars on the contribution of the Council to the prevention of human rights violations, held on 9 and 10 April and on 8 October 2019 (A/HRC/43/37).

Forum on Minority Issues

85. In its resolution 19/23, the Human Rights Council decided that the Forum on Minority Issues should continue to meet annually. The Forum held its twelfth session on 28 and 29 November 2019, which focused on education, language and the human rights of minorities. The Council will consider the recommendations made by the Forum (A/HRC/43/62) (see para. 57 above).

Social Forum

86. In its resolution 38/17, the Human Rights Council decided that the Social Forum would meet for two working days in 2019 and that the meeting should focus on the promotion and protection of the rights of children and youth through education. The Council invited the 2019 Social Forum to submit a report containing the conclusions and recommendations arising from the meeting, held on 1 and 2 October 2019. The Council will consider the report of the 2019 Social Forum (A/HRC/43/63).
