23/... Negative effects of terrorism on the enjoyment of human rights

The Human Rights Council Advisory Committee,

Recalling Human Rights Council resolution 34/8 of 23 March 2017, in which the Council requested the Advisory Committee to conduct a study and prepare a report on the negative effects of terrorism on the enjoyment of all human rights and fundamental freedoms, with a particular focus on economic, social and cultural rights, including as a result of diverting foreign direct investment, reducing capital inflows, destroying infrastructure, limiting foreign trade, disturbing financial markets, negatively affecting certain economic sectors and impeding economic growth, and to recommend actions to be taken by Governments, United Nations human rights mechanisms, regional and international organizations and civil society organizations in that regard, and to present the report to the Council at its thirty-ninth session, to be discussed during the interactive dialogue,

Recalling also that, at its nineteenth session, the Advisory Committee established a drafting group, currently composed of Lazhari Bouzid, Alessio Bruni (Chair), Ion Diaconu, Ludovic Hennebel, Mikhail Lebedev, José Augusto Lindgren Alves, Xinsheng Liu, Ajai Malhotra, Mona Omar (Rapporteur) and Elizabeth Salmón,

Noting that, at its thirty-eighth session, the Human Rights Council decided to extend the time for the Advisory Committee to complete the study for submission to the Council at its forty-second session,

1. Notes that the drafting group elected Mr. Bruni as Chair following the resignation of the previous chair, Ms. Karla Hananía de Varela, from the Advisory Committee;

2. Also notes that the drafting group and the Advisory Committee held meetings to discuss the topic;

3. Further notes the highly specific and complex character of the mandate requiring further thorough discussions;

4. Requests the drafting group to present a draft report on the negative impact of terrorism on the enjoyment of human rights to the Advisory Committee at its twenty-fourth session;

5. Recommends that the Human Rights Council extend the time scheduled to complete the report, and that it request the Advisory Committee to submit it to the Council at its forty-fifth session;

6. Also recommends that the Human Rights Council consider adopting the following decision:

“The Human Rights Council,

Taking note of the recommendation of the Advisory Committee relating to its mandate on the negative effects of terrorism on the enjoyment of all human rights and fundamental freedoms, with a particular focus on economic, social and cultural rights, including as a result of diverting foreign direct investment, reducing capital inflows, destroying infrastructure, limiting foreign trade, disturbing financial markets, negatively affecting certain economic sectors and impeding economic growth, pursuant to the Human Rights Council resolution 34/8 of 23 March 2017,

Requests the Advisory Committee to submit to the Human Rights Council at its forty-fifth session the report on the negative effects of terrorism on the enjoyment of all human rights and fundamental freedoms.”
