

Convinced that for the purpose of the Scientific Committee's immediate programme of work it is desirable to provide the Committee with further information on fall-out, radiation levels and radio-biological questions, and to supplement this information by a variety of activities and discussions undertaken by the United Nations, the specialized agencies, the International Atomic Energy Agency and certain non-governmental organizations,

I

Approves the recommendations of the United Nations Scientific Committee on the Effects of Atomic Radiation in connexion with the plans and suggested activities contained in its annual progress report for 1959 and in annex I thereto;

II

1. Notes the request of the Committee for further information and data of the type already contained in its comprehensive report;⁸

2. Requests the Committee, in consultation with the International Atomic Energy Agency, the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization, the World Health Organization and the World Meteorological Organization, to consider and study appropriate arrangements for the purpose of stimulating the flow of such information and data;

III

Requests the Committee also, in consultation with the World Health Organization, the International Atomic Energy Agency, the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations and the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization, to the extent relevant, and other interested organizations, to consider and study appropriate arrangements for encouraging genetic, biological and other studies, including those concerned with C¹⁴, that will elucidate the effects of radiation exposure on the health of human populations;

IV

1. Invites Governments of Member States having facilities for laboratory analysis to make known to other Governments the extent to which they are prepared, at the request of other Governments, to receive and analyse samples in accordance with the programme of work of the Committee, and to keep the Committee currently informed;

2. Invites the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, the International Atomic Energy Agency and the World Health Organization to consider and inform the Committee what assistance they might give in this connexion, making full use of their work in the field of metrology of radio-nuclides;

V

1. Expresses the hope that all concerned will continue to assist the Committee, co-operate in the consideration of the arrangements contemplated above and furnish the Committee with all relevant scientific information for collation, study and dissemination;

2. Requests the Committee to submit as soon as practicable a report on its study of such questions to the
