

its fourth session¹⁰ and Economic and Social Council resolution 1250 (XLIII) of 26 July 1967 on the programming procedures for the Technical Assistance component of the United Nations Development Programme,

Recalling its resolutions 831 B (IX) of 26 November 1954 dealing with the country programming procedures of the Expanded Programme of Technical Assistance and 2029 (XX) of 22 November 1965 on the consolidation of the Special Fund and the Expanded Programme of Technical Assistance in a United Nations Development Programme,

Approves the procedures recommended by the Governing Council of the United Nations Development Programme for the preparation, approval and implementation of the projects of the Technical Assistance component of the Programme for 1969 and future years.

2280 (XXII). Operational activities for development

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 2029 (XX) of 22 November 1965 on the consolidation of the Special Fund and the Expanded Programme of Technical Assistance in a United Nations Development Programme,

Recalling also its resolution 2093 (XX) of 20 December 1965, in which it fixed the target of $200 million for the financial resources of the United Nations Development Programme,

Taking note of the reports of the Governing Council of the United Nations Development Programme,¹¹

Having heard the statement that the Administrator of the United Nations Development Programme made to the Second Committee on 30 October 1967,¹²

Recalling the Secretary-General's suggestion in the introduction to his annual report on the work of the Organization submitted to the General Assembly at its twenty-first session¹³ and in his statement to the United Nations Pledging Conference on the United Nations Development Programme on 9 October 1967¹⁴ regarding the annual resources of the Programme,

Noting with concern the increasing disproportion between the assistance needs of the developing countries and the resources available to the United Nations Development Programme,

1. Appeals to Member States to do everything possible to increase the resources of the United Nations Development Programme, bearing in mind the target suggested by the Secretary-General in the introduction to his annual report to the General Assembly at its twenty-first session;

2. Requests the Governing Council of the United Nations Development Programme to examine the means whereby the Programme could do more to stimulate and facilitate the financing of projects which have already

2281 (XXII). Report of the Enlarged Committee for Programme and Co-ordination

The General Assembly

1. Takes note with appreciation of the report of the Enlarged Committee for Programme and Co-ordination on its first session;¹⁵

2. Requests the members of the United Nations family of organizations to continue to extend their co-operation to the Enlarged Committee.

2290 (XXII). Review of the World Food Programme

The General Assembly,

Recalling that according to the provisions of its resolution 2095 (XX) of 20 December 1965 the World Food Programme would be reviewed before each pledging conference and that, subject to the review so provided for, the next pledging conference should be convened in 1967, at which time Governments would be invited to pledge contributions for 1969 and 1970, with a view to reaching such targets as might be recommended by the General Assembly and the Conference of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations,

Noting that a review of the Programme was undertaken by the United Nations/FAO Intergovernmental Committee of the World Food Programme at its eleventh session and by the Economic and Social Council at its forty-third session,

Having considered Economic and Social Council resolution 1255 (XLIII) of 2 August 1967, as well as the recommendations contained in the report of the Intergovernmental Committee,¹⁶ and the report of the Executive Director of the World Food Programme,¹⁷

Recognizing the value of multilateral food aid both as a form of capital investment and for meeting food needs,

1. Establishes for the two years 1969 and 1970 a target for voluntary contributions of $200 million, of which not less than one third should be in cash and services, and urges States Members of the United Nations and members and associate members of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations to make every effort to ensure the full attainment of the target;

2. Requests the Secretary-General, in co-operation with the Director-General of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, to convene a pledging conference at United Nations Headquarters early in 1968;
