2845 (XXVI). Public administration and development

The General Assembly,

Taking into account its previous resolutions on the role of public administration in economic and social development, particularly resolutions 723 (VIII) of 23 October 1953, 1024 (XI) of 21 December 1956, 1256 (XIII) of 14 November 1958, 1530 (XV) of 15 December 1960, 1710 (XVI) of 19 December 1961 and 2561 (XXIV) of 13 December 1969,

Recalling Economic and Social Council resolutions 1199 (XLII) of 24 May 1967 and 1567 (L) of 6 May 1971,

Emphasizing the importance of improving public administration in order to speed up the economic and social development of the developing countries and to achieve the aims and objectives of the Second United Nations Development Decade,

Considering, therefore, that the measures needed to increase the capability and efficiency of public administration in the developing countries are indispensable for the formulation and implementation of economic and social development plans and programmes,

Recognizing the importance for developing countries of the establishment and entry into service of regional centres of administration for development, the purpose of which is to co-operate with Governments in increasing their administrative capability for the implementation of their economic and social development programmes,

Noting the existence of the African Training and Research Centre in Administration for Development and the forthcoming entry into service of the Asian Centre of Development Administration, the Centre of the Arab Organization for Administrative Sciences and the Latin American Centre of Administration for Development,

Recognizing the prompt and effective co-operation given by the United Nations Development Programme for the establishment and operation of the regional centres in Asia and Africa,

1. Draws the attention of Member States to the importance of measures to increase administrative capability for economic and social development, the desirability of making such measures an integral part of development plans at all levels, as appropriate, and the need for such measures to be adequate to enable Governments, individually and collectively, to achieve the aims of the Second United Nations Development Decade;

2. Takes note of the report of the Second Meeting of Experts on the United Nations Programme in Public Administration;⁴⁴

3. Endorses the objectives of the regional centres of administration for development to increase the administrative capability and efficiency of the developing countries in order to speed up the process of economic and social development;

4. Invites the Governing Council of the United Nations Development Programme to provide the technical and financial co-operation necessary for the establishment and operation of the Latin American Centre of Administration for Development and the Centre of the Arab Organization for Administrative Sciences in the same way in which it supported the regional centres in Africa and Asia, and further invites it to continue to provide the necessary assistance to the regional centres in Africa and Asia.

*2026th plenary meeting,
20 December 1971.*

2846 (XXVI). Question of the creation of an intergovernmental sea service

The General Assembly,

Having given preliminary consideration to the question of the creation of an intergovernmental sea service,

1. Decides to refer this question for further consideration to the Committee on the Peaceful Uses of the Sea-Bed and the Ocean Floor beyond the Limits of National Jurisdiction at its session to be held in July and August 1972;

2. Requests the Committee to report on this question to the General Assembly through the Economic and Social Council.

*2026th plenary meeting,
20 December 1971.*

2847 (XXVI). Enlargement of the Economic and Social Council

The General Assembly,

Recognizing that an enlargement of the Economic and Social Council will provide broad representation of the United Nations membership as a whole and make the Council a more effective organ for carrying out its functions under Chapters IX and X of the Charter of the United Nations,

⁴⁴ Public Administration in the Second United Nations Development Decade (United Nations publication, Sales No.: E.71.II.H.3).
