

ment Decade, includes among the goals and objectives of the Decade the encouragement of the full integration of women in the total development effort,

Drawing attention to the general objectives and minimum targets to be attained in the course of the Second United Nations Development Decade, as defined by the Commission on the Status of Women and adopted by the General Assembly in its resolution 2716 (XXV) of 15 December 1970,

Considering that, with those ends in view, the proclamation of an international women's year would serve to intensify the action required to advance the status of women,

1. Proclaims the year 1975 International Women's Year;

2. Decides to devote this year to intensified action:

(a) To promote equality between men and women;

(b) To ensure the full integration of women in the total development effort, especially by emphasizing women's responsibility and important role in economic, social and cultural development at the national, regional and international levels, particularly during the Second United Nations Development Decade;

(c) To recognize the importance of women's increasing contribution to the development of friendly relations and co-operation among States and to the strengthening of world peace;

3. Invites all Member States and all interested organizations to take steps to ensure the full realization of the rights of women and their advancement on the basis of the Declaration on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women;

4. Invites Governments that have not yet done so to ratify as soon as possible the Convention concerning Equal Remuneration for Men and Women Workers for Work of Equal Value, 1951,<sup>22</sup> adopted by the International Labour Conference at its thirty-fourth session;

5. Requests the Secretary-General to prepare, in consultation with Member States, specialized agencies and interested non-governmental organizations, within the limits of existing resources, a draft programme for the International Women's Year and to submit it to the Commission on the Status of Women at its twenty-fifth session in 1974.

3011 (XXVII). Capital punishment

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolutions 2393 (XXIII) of 26 November 1968 and 2857 (XXVI) of 20 December 1971,

Taking note of Economic and Social Council resolution 1656 (LII) of 1 June 1972,

Noting with interest that, in implementation of the aforementioned resolutions, additional information on capital punishment has been provided by several Member States,<sup>23</sup>

1. Requests the Secretary-General to prepare the report to be submitted to the Economic and Social Council at its fifty-fourth session in such a way as to update the reports on capital punishment<sup>24</sup> provided in 1962 and 1967 and to inform the Council of the progress made in collecting the information requested in paragraph 6 of General Assembly resolution 2857 (XXVI);

2. Invites the Economic and Social Council to consider at its fifty-fourth session the present situation and trends with regard to capital punishment.

3012 (XXVII). Assistance in narcotics control

The General Assembly,

Recalling that assistance to developing countries is a concrete manifestation of the will of the international community to honour the commitment contained in the Charter of the United Nations to promote the social and economic progress of all peoples,

Recalling the special arrangements made by the General Assembly under its resolution 1395 (XIV) of 20 November 1959 with a view to the provision of technical assistance in narcotics control,

Reaffirming its resolution 2719 (XXV) of 15 December 1970, in which it welcomed the establishment of the United Nations Fund for Drug Abuse Control,

Further recalling Economic and Social Council resolution 1664 (LII) of 1 June 1972, in which the Council urged States, institutions and individuals to contribute to the Fund in any form and according to their capacity,

1. Welcomes the fact that the Economic and Social Council expressed satisfaction with the successful result of the United Nations Conference to Consider Amendments to the Single Convention on Narcotic Drugs, 1961, particularly that a new article 14 bis<sup>25</sup> was adopted concerning technical and financial assistance to promote more effective execution of the provisions of the Single Convention on Narcotic Drugs, 1961;<sup>26</sup>

2. Declares that, to be more effective, the measures to fight drug abuse must be co-ordinated and universal;

3. Declares further that the fulfilment by the developing countries of their obligations under the Single Convention on Narcotic Drugs, 1961, calls for adequate technical and financial assistance from the international community.
