The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 3043 (XXVII) of 19 December 1972 in which it approved on an experimental basis the new form of presentation of the United Nations budget and a biennial budget cycle,

Having considered the Secretary-General's proposed programme budget for the biennium 1974-1975³¹ and the medium-term plan for the period 1974-1977,³²

Taking into account the views expressed by the Committee for Programme and Co-ordination in its report on its fourteenth session,³³

Taking note of Economic and Social Council resolution 1801 (LV) of 7 August 1973 and the comments and proposals in chapter XXV, section A, of the report of the Council on the work of its fifty-fourth and fifty-fifth sessions,³⁴

Recalling Economic and Social Council resolution 1768 (LIV) of 18 May 1973 and bearing in mind the consideration being given by the Council to the rationalization of its methods, work and structure, and recalling also General Assembly resolution 3172 (XXVIII) of 17 December 1973 concerning the holding of a special session of the Assembly devoted to development and international economic co-operation,

Taking note also of the views of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions as contained in its first report³⁵ on the proposed programme budget for the biennium 1974-1975, in particular that the existing machinery of intergovernmental and expert organs concerned with formulating, reviewing and approving programmes and budgets should be reappraised,
