3216 (XXIX). Fourth session of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 1995 (XIX) of 30 December 1964 and Trade and Development Board decision 113 (XIV) of 13 September 1974,[9]

Bearing in mind the invitation of the Government of Kenya to hold the fourth session of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development at Nairobi,

1. Accepts with appreciation the invitation of the Government of Kenya;

2. Decides that the fourth session of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development will be held at Nairobi in May/June 1976 for a period not exceeding four weeks.

3217 (XXIX). United Nations Institute for Training and Research

The General Assembly,

Recalling its previous resolutions relating to the United Nations Institute for Training and Research, particularly resolution 3064 (XXVIII) of 9 November 1973, and the resolutions of the Economic and Social Council on the same subject,

1. Takes note of the report of the Executive Director of the United Nations Institute for Training and Research;[10]

2. Notes with satisfaction the increasing effectiveness of the Institute in the discharge of its responsibilities;

3. Invites the Institute to organize its work in the sphere of economic and social research and training within its field of competence, taking full account of the Declaration and the Programme of Action on the Establishment of a New International Economic Order;[11]

4. Expresses the hope that the Institute will have greater and wider financial support.

3241 (XXIX). Economic co-operation among developing countries

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 3177 (XXVIII) of 17 December 1973 on economic co-operation among developing countries,

Reaffirming the provisions of paragraph 4 of that resolution concerning the role of the specialized agencies and other organizations of the United Nations system in promoting economic co-operation among developing countries,

Recognizing that collective self-reliance and growing co-operation among developing countries will further strengthen their role in the new international economic order,

Noting the Action Programme for economic co-operation among non-aligned and other developing countries, adopted by the Conference of Foreign Ministers of Non-Aligned Countries, held at Georgetown from 8 to 12 August 1972, and reaffirmed at the Fourth Conference of Heads of State or Government of Non-Aligned Countries,[12] held at Algiers from 5 to 9 September 1973,

Mindful also of the determination of the non-aligned and other developing countries to provide, by self-reliance and joint efforts and through mutual solidarity and assistance, the necessary conditions for their independent and accelerated economic and political development,

1. Takes note of the report of the Secretary-General;[13]

2. Endorses Trade and Development Board decision 121 (XIV) of 13 September 1974 on trade expansion, economic co-operation and regional integration among developing countries;[14]

3. Urges the specialized agencies and other organizations within the United Nations system to provide continuing support for the promotion of economic co-operation among developing countries in accordance with paragraph 4 of General Assembly resolution 3177 (XXVIII);

4. Requests the Secretary-General to report to the General Assembly at its thirtieth session on the contribution made by the specialized agencies and other organizations within the United Nations system in promoting economic co-operation among developing countries.

3242 (XXIX). Economic and social assistance for Honduras

The General Assembly,

Noting that the Committee of the Whole of the Economic Commission for Latin America held its ninth extraordinary session at United Nations Headquarters on 21 and 22 October 1974 for the purpose of considering the short-term, medium-term and long-term international co-operation which, within the framework of the United Nations, could be given to Honduras for the reconstruction of the country following the disaster which struck it between 18 and 20 September 1974,

Bearing in mind the report on the magnitude of the economic and social impact of the destruction suffered by Honduras, prepared by the secretariat of the Eco-
