

3. Requests the Special Committee at its next session:

(a) To accord priority to its work on the proposals regarding the question of the maintenance of international peace and security, with a view to listing and examining all proposals, including those relating to the functioning of the Security Council;

(b) To consider proposals made by Member States on the question of rationalization of existing procedures of the United Nations and, subsequently, any proposals under other topics;

4. Further requests the Special Committee, in the light of the progress it has achieved concerning the question of the peaceful settlement of disputes, to continue its work on this question with a view to developing and recommending a means of bringing the work to an appropriate conclusion on the basis of the list prepared by the Committee in accordance with General Assembly resolution 33/94;

5. Also requests the Special Committee to continue the elaboration of the draft Manila declaration on the peaceful settlement of international disputes with a view to submitting it for consideration to the General Assembly at its thirty-sixth session;

6. Requests the Special Committee to be mindful of the importance of reaching general agreement whenever it has significance for the outcome of its work;

7. Urges members of the Special Committee to participate fully in its work in fulfilment of the mandate entrusted to it;

8. Invites Governments to submit or to bring up to date, if they deem it necessary, their observations and proposals in accordance with General Assembly resolution 3499 (XXX);

9. Requests the Secretary-General to render all assistance to the Special Committee, including the provision of summary records;³⁴

10. Requests the Secretary-General to give high priority to the preparation and publication of the supplements to the Repertoire of the Practice of the Security Council and the Repertory of Practice of United Nations Organs in order to bring those publications up to date as quickly as possible and to submit a progress report on the matter to the General Assembly at its thirty-sixth session;

11. Requests the Special Committee to submit a report on its work to the General Assembly at its thirty-sixth session;

12. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its thirty-sixth session the item entitled "Report of the Special Committee on the Charter of the United Nations and on the Strengthening of the Role of the Organization".

35/165. Report of the Committee on Relations with the Host Country

The General Assembly,

Having considered the report of the Committee on Relations with the Host Country,³⁵

³⁴ See sect. VIII, resolution 35/10 B, para. 2 (e).

³⁵ Official Records of the General Assembly, Thirty-fifth Session, Supplement No. 26 (A/35/26).

Recalling Article 105 of the Charter of the United Nations, the Convention on the Privileges and Immunities of the United Nations³⁶ and the Agreement between the United Nations and the United States of America regarding the Headquarters of the United Nations,³⁷

Recalling further that the problems related to the privileges and immunities of the missions accredited to the United Nations, the security of the missions and the safety of their personnel are of great importance and concern to the Member States, as well as the primary responsibility of the host country,

Having noted with deep concern the recent increase in acts of terrorism against the premises and personnel of missions accredited to the United Nations, noting the assurances given by the competent authorities of the host country and recognizing that effective measures should be taken in view of recent developments, in particular to avoid any acts violating the security of missions and the safety of their personnel,

Expressing its sympathy for the victims of the acts of terrorism perpetrated against accredited missions and their personnel,

1. Endorses the recommendations of the Committee on Relations with the Host Country contained in paragraph 31 of its report;³⁵

2. Strongly condemns the acts of terrorism perpetrated against missions accredited to the United Nations and their personnel;

3. Requests the Secretary-General to remain actively engaged in all aspects of host country relations with the United Nations, in particular with regard to the need for effective measures to be taken by the host country in view of recent developments, and to follow developments in these areas in co-operation with the Chairman of the Committee on Relations with the Host Country;

4. Requests the Committee on Relations with the Host Country to continue its work, in conformity with General Assembly resolution 2819 (XXVI) of 15 December 1971;

5. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its thirty-sixth session the item entitled "Report of the Committee on Relations with the Host Country".

35/166. Consolidation and progressive development of the principles and norms of international economic law relating in particular to the legal aspects of the new international economic order

The General Assembly,

Bearing in mind that, in accordance with the Charter of the United Nations, the General Assembly is called upon to initiate studies and make recommendations for the purpose of encouraging the progressive development of international law and its codification,

Recalling its resolutions 3201 (S-VI) and 3202 (S-VI) of 1 May 1974, containing the Declaration and the Programme of Action on the Establishment of a New International Economic Order, 3281 (XXIX) of 12 December 1974, containing the Charter of Economic ³⁶ Resolution 22 A (I).

³⁷ Resolution 169 (II).

Rights and Duties of States, and 3362 (S-VII) of 16 September 1975 on development and international economic co-operation,

Recalling its resolution 34/150 of 17 December 1979, entitled "Consolidation and progressive development of the principles and norms of international economic law relating in particular to the legal aspects of the new international economic order",

Noting the report of the Secretary-General³⁸ and the views submitted by some Governments in response to resolution 34/150,

Recognizing the urgent need for a systematic and progressive development of the principles and norms of international law relating to the new international economic order,

1. Requests the United Nations Institute for Training and Research:

(a) To prepare a list of the existing and evolving principles and norms of international law relating to the new international economic order concerning the economic relations among States, international organizations and other entities of public international law, and the activities of transnational corporations, as contained, inter alia, in the following texts:

- (i) Declaration on Principles of International Law concerning Friendly Relations and Co-operation among States in accordance with the Charter of the United Nations;³⁹
- (ii) Declaration and Programme of Action on the Establishment of a New International Economic Order;⁴⁰
- (iii) Charter of Economic Rights and Duties of States;⁴¹
- (iv) General Assembly resolution 3362 (S-VII) of 16 September 1975 on development and international economic co-operation;
- (v) International Development Strategy for the Third United Nations Development Decade;⁴²
- (vi) Set of Multilaterally Agreed Equitable Principles and Rules for the Control of Restrictive Business Practices;⁴³
- (vii) Final Acts of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development⁴⁴ and declarations adopted by all United Nations conferences relevant to the new international economic order;

(b) To prepare an analytical study, on the basis of the list referred to in subparagraph (a) above, on the progressive development of the principles and norms of international law relating to the new international economic order;

(c) To complete the study referred to in subparagraphs (a) and (b) above in time for the Secretary-

35/167. Observer status of national liberation movements recognized by the Organization of African Unity and/or by the League of Arab States

The General Assembly,

Bearing in mind the resolution of the United Nations Conference on the Representation of States in Their Relations with International Organizations relating to the observer status of national liberation movements recognized by the Organization of African Unity and/or by the League of Arab States,⁴⁵

Noting that the Vienna Convention on the Representation of States in Their Relations with International Organizations of a Universal Character⁴⁶ regulates only the representation of States in their relations with international organizations,

Taking into account the current practice of inviting the above-mentioned national liberation movements to participate as observers in the sessions of the General Assembly, specialized agencies and other organizations of the United Nations system and in the work of the conferences held under the auspices of such international organizations,

Convinced that the participation of the national liberation movements referred to above in the work of international organizations helps to strengthen international peace and co-operation,

Desirous of ensuring the effective participation of the above-mentioned national liberation movements as observers in the work of international organizations and of regulating, to that end, their status and the facilities, privileges and immunities necessary for the performance of their functions,
