2. The Secretary-General shall provide and direct the staff required by the Meeting of the States Parties and its committees. The Secretariat shall make all arrangements relating to meetings and, generally, perform all other work which the Meeting of the States Parties may require.
3. The Government of the Host Country may request the Secretary-General of the United Nations to appoint an official to act as Executive Secretary of the Meeting of States Parties.

CHAPTER V. DECISION-MAKING

Promotion of general agreement

Rule 13

The Meeting of the States Parties shall make every effort to reach general agreement on matters of substance.

Voting rights

Rule 14

Each State Party participating at the Meeting of the States Parties shall have one vote.

Quorum

Rule 15

The presence of representatives of 30 of the participating States Parties shall be required for any decision to be taken.

Majority required

Rule 16

1. Decisions of the Meeting of the States Parties on all matters of substance shall be taken by a two-thirds majority of the representatives of States Parties present and voting.
2. Decisions of the Meeting of the States Parties on matters of procedure shall be taken by a majority of the representatives of States Parties present and voting.
3. If the question arises whether a matter is one of procedure or of substance, the President of the Meeting of the States Parties shall rule on the question. An appeal against this ruling shall be put to the vote immediately and the President's ruling shall stand unless overruled by a majority of the representatives of States Parties present and voting.

Special procedures

Rule 17

Decisions concerning destruction of anti-personnel mines in mined areas in accordance with Article 5 of the Convention and facilitation and clarification of compliance in accordance with Article 8 of the Convention shall be made according to the provisions of those Articles.

Meaning of the expression "representatives of States Parties present and voting"

Rule 18

For the purpose of these rules, the phrase "representatives of States Parties present and voting" means representatives of States Parties present and casting an affirmative or negative vote. Representatives who abstain from voting shall be considered as not voting.

Method of voting

Rule 19

The Meeting of the States Parties shall normally vote by show of hands or by standing, but any representative may request a roll-call. The roll-call shall be taken in the English alphabetical order of the names of the States participating in the Meeting of the States Parties, beginning with the delegation whose name is drawn by lot by the President.

Conduct during voting

Rule 20

The President shall announce the commencement of voting, after which no representative shall be permitted to intervene until the result of the vote has been announced, except on a point of order in connection with the process of voting.

Explanation of vote

Rule 21

The President may permit representatives to explain their votes. The President may limit the time to be allowed for such explanations.

Elections

Rule 22

All elections shall be held by secret ballot unless, in the absence of any objection, the Meeting of the States Parties decides to proceed without taking a vote on an agreed candidate.

Rule 23

1. If, when one person or one delegation is to be elected, no candidate obtains in the first ballot a majority of the representatives present and voting, a second ballot restricted to the two candidates obtaining the largest number of votes shall be taken. If in the second ballot the votes are equally divided, the President shall decide between the candidates by drawing lots.

2. In the case of a tie in the first ballot among three or more candidates obtaining the largest number of votes, a second ballot shall be held. If a tie results among more than two candidates, the number shall be reduced to two by lot and the balloting, restricted to them, shall continue in accordance with the preceding paragraph.

Rule 24

When two or more elective places are to be filled at one time under the same conditions, those candidates, not exceeding the number of such places, obtaining in the first ballot a majority of the representatives present and voting shall be elected. If the number of candidates obtaining such majority is less than the number of persons or delegations to be elected, there shall be additional ballots to fill the remaining places, the voting being restricted to the candidates obtaining the greatest number of votes in the previous ballot, to a number not more than twice the places remaining to be filled; provided that, after the third inconclusive ballot, votes may be cast for any eligible person or delegation. If three such unrestricted ballots are inconclusive, the next three ballots shall be restricted to the candidates who obtained the greatest number of votes in the third of the unrestricted ballots, to a number not more than twice the places remaining to be filled, and the following three ballots thereafter shall be unrestricted, and so on until all the places have been filled.

Equally divided votes

Rule 25

If a vote is equally divided on matters other than elections, the proposal, amendment or motion shall be regarded as rejected.

General rights of observers

Rule 26

Observers:

- (a) May not participate in decision-making;
- (b) May not make any procedural motion or request, raise points of order or appeal against a ruling of the President.

The President may limit the time to be allowed to speakers under this rule.
