Note verbale dated 21 June 2019 from the Permanent Mission of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela, in its capacity as President of the Conference on Disarmament, addressed to the secretariat of the Conference on Disarmament and requesting registration and distribution of the document entitled “Draft Programme of work for the 2019 session” under the symbol (CD/WP.620/Rev.2) as an official document of the 2019 session of the Conference on Disarmament

The Permanent Mission of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela to the United Nations Office and other International Organizations in Geneva, presents its compliments to the honourable Secretariat of the Conference on Disarmament (CD), and has the honour to refer to the 2019 session of the Conference on Disarmament.

In this regard, the Permanent Mission of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela, acting in its capacity as President of the Conference on Disarmament, requests that the document entitled "Draft Programme of work for the 2019 session", under the symbol (CD/WP.620/Rev2), should be registered and distributed as an official document of the 2019 session of the Conference on Disarmament.

The Permanent Mission of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela to the United Nations Office and other International Organizations in Geneva avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the honourable Secretariat of the Conference on Disarmament (CD), the assurances of its highest consideration.

Draft Programme of Work for the 2019 session

Submitted by the President

1. Convinced that the Conference on Disarmament, as the single multilateral disarmament negotiating forum of the international community, has the primary role in substantive negotiations on priority questions of disarmament, by the First Special Session of the General Assembly devoted to Disarmament (SSOD-I);
2. Recognizing also the need to conduct multilateral negotiations with the aim of reaching agreement on concrete issues;
3. Recalling, in this respect, that the Conference on Disarmament has a number of urgent and important issues for negotiation to achieve disarmament goals;
4. In pursuance of its agenda, and given the mandate conferred to the Conference on Disarmament by the first special session of the General Assembly devoted to disarmament, and the necessity to conserve the nature of this forum;
5. Recalling paragraph 28 of its rules of procedure which calls on the Conference to establish its programme of work on the basis of its agenda, and Noting that it provides its Member States with a platform to engage in negotiations, on the basis of the rule of consensus
6. Taking into account the several proposals tabled for the programme of work of the Conference, and the interest in seeing the Conference return to substantive work;
7. Noting the work of the Subsidiary Bodies established by decisions CD/2119 of 19 February 2018, and CD/2126 of 27 March 2018, and the Report of the Conference on Disarmament to the General Assembly of the United Nations contained in document CD/2149 of 14 September 2018;
8. Aiming at promoting multilateralism and enhancing the inclusiveness, effectiveness and authority of the Conference as the single multilateral disarmament negotiating forum;
9. The Conference decides:
  - (a) Under agenda item 1, entitled “Cessation of the nuclear arms race and nuclear disarmament”, to negotiate with a view to reaching agreement on elements of legally binding instruments and additional measures, in accordance with the mandate of the CD;
  - (b) Under agenda Item 2, entitled “Prevention of nuclear war, including all related matters”, to negotiate with a view to reaching agreement on elements of legally binding instruments, including a ban on the production of fissile material for nuclear weapons and other explosive devices, on the basis of document CD/1299 and the mandate contained therein; dealing with all questions relevant for this purpose, in accordance with the mandate of the CD;
