Ms. Tendayi Achiume, Special Rapporteur on contemporary forms of racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance

Mr. David Fine, Global Head of McKinsey's Public and Social Sector Practice

Interactive discussion

The dialogues will be interactive and multi-stakeholder in nature. There will be no prepared list of speakers. The order of speakers for the interactive debate for each dialogue will be determined on a first-come, first-served basis, bearing in mind equitable geographical distribution while allowing for some flexibility, with priority given to States according to the level of representation, followed by intergovernmental organizations and other entities, associate members of regional commissions, specialized agencies, funds and programmes of the United Nations, non-governmental organizations and other relevant actors. In order to provide for maximum participation, interventions should not exceed three minutes.

Representatives of States are invited to indicate to the Secretariat Ms. Sangeeta Sharma (e-mail sharma7@un.org) with a copy to Mr. Vincent Wilkinson (e-mail wilkinsonv@un.org) if they will be represented in the dialogues at the level of Head of State or Government or at ministerial level.

Concept notes on the dialogues will be made available on the Conference website (http://www.un.org/en/conf/migration/about-conference.shtml)

^{*} At the request of the host country

The list of speakers for the plenary meetings, "General debate", is now open. Requests for inscription from the States Members of the United Nations and members of specialized agencies that have observer status with the General Assembly for the general debate should be sent through the e-Speakers portal at (http://delegate.un.int). The list of speakers for the general debate will be established on a first-come, first-served basis, with the customary protocol that ensures that Heads of State or Government speak first, followed by other heads of delegation. Delegations are reminded that interventions in the plenary meetings should be limited to five minutes, on the understanding that this will not preclude the distribution of more extensive texts.

All delegations prior to delivery of the statement are kindly requested to email a copy of their statement to GCmigration@un.org, indicating in the subject line, "Statement and Name of Country or Organization". Where possible, statements should be provided one day in advance of delivery or at least 3 hours before delivery of statement.

In addition to representatives of States participating in the Conference and that of the European Union, representatives of the following may, in accordance with resolution 72/244 and 72/308, and time permitting, make a statement in the general debate: (a) intergovernmental organizations and other entities that have received a standing invitation from the General Assembly to participate in the capacity of observer in the sessions and work of all international conferences convened under its auspices (rule 60 of the provisional rules of procedure); (b) associate members of regional commissions (rule 61); (c) specialized agencies and related organizations (rule 62); (d) other intergovernmental organizations (rule 63); and (e) interested United Nations organs (rule 64). These representatives may contact the Secretariat (c/o Ms. Mary Muturi, e-mail: muturi@un.org) to be inscribed in the list of speakers.

[Note: The summaries of the 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th plenary meetings and the Dialogue 1 entitled "Promoting action on the commitments of the Global Compact for Safe, Orderly and Regular Migration" of the Intergovernmental Conference to Adopt the Global Compact for Safe, Orderly and Regular Migration will be published in the Conference website (click here) and a link will be made available in the Journal of the United Nations, at Headquarters.]

Intergovernmental Conference to Adopt the Global Compact for Safe, Orderly and Regular Migration (10 - 11 December 2018)

Delegations are requested to inform the Secretariat, as soon as possible, of any changes of their level of participation in the Conference (e-mail muturi@un.org).

Side event ■ [webcast]

Announcements

Election of the Vice-Presidents of the Conference

A letter dated 9 October 2018 from the Secretariat addressed to the Chairs of the regional groups requested the nomination of interested candidates (three candidates per regional group, except the African States which is to nominate two candidates) for the election of Vice-Presidents of the Intergovernmental Conference to Adopt the Global Compact for Safe, Orderly and Regular Migration. The Chairs of the regional groups who have not yet communicated their nominations are requested to do so as soon as possible. Communications and inquires may be addressed to the focal point, Ms. Mary Muturi (e-mail: muturi@un.org).

Credentials for representatives

Delegations are reminded that in accordance with rule 3 of the provisional rules of procedure of the Intergovernmental Conference to Adopt the Global Compact for Safe, Orderly and Regular Migration, credentials of representatives and names of alternate representatives and advisers should be addressed to the Secretary-General of the United Nations and delivered to the United Nations Office of Legal Affairs, located at the Secretariat building, room S-01, as soon as possible. The credentials should be issued either by the Head of State or Government or by the Minister for Foreign Affairs or, in the case of the European Union, by the President of the European Commission.

General information

More details on the information below are available in document A/CONF.231/INF.1.

Security screening

Every effort is being made to ensure that security screening for access to the Conference venue is smooth and fast, but some delays may be unavoidable. All participants are encouraged to arrive early, to avoid bringing large items, and to prepare for screening when approaching the metal detectors.

Information for participants

A note by the secretariat containing information for participants has been issued as document A/CONF.231/INF/1.

Documentation

For all conference documentation, including the Journal, please visit the Conference website (click here).

Distribution of official documents

The official documentation of the Conference will be issued in Arabic, Chinese, English, French, Russian and Spanish. The main document counter for delegations will be located at the back of the Plenary Hall at the Conference venue. Distribution of official documents will be limited to one set per delegation and delegations are encouraged to bring their own mobile devices loaded with pre-session documentation. Print-on-demand service will be provided for those delegations needing extra hard copies.

Circulation of written statements

There will be no circulation of statements in hard copy. Delegations are required to bring 20 copies of their statement to the Meeting Servicing Assistant desk in the meeting room. Delegations wishing to have their statement posted on the Conference website are encouraged to e-mail their statement to the secretariat one day in advance, if possible, or at least three hours before deliver, to the following e-mail address: GCmigration@un.org, indicating in the subject line, "Statement and Name of delegation".

Arrangements for bilateral meetings

For bilateral meetings among States at the Head of State or Government level or at the ministerial level, 10 booths, each with a maximum capacity of 14 participants, will be available in the plenary building during the Conference. An electronic reservation system will be activated through gMeets (https://icms.un.org/uc/) on 3 December 2018 for delegations to submit reservations electronically. Delegations requiring information regarding bilateral meeting reservation procedures and login credentials should send an email to emeetsm@un.org, with copy to abes@un.org and manalilik@un.org, and with "BILATS-GCM" written in the subject line.

The date and time of the bilateral meeting and the name of the other delegation participating in the meeting should be specified in the request submitted in the system. Reservations will be accepted for periods of 20 minutes in duration, on the hour and half hour. To prevent double booking, only the delegation initiating the bilateral meeting should submit the request.

Final confirmation of booth assignments will be provided one day prior to the meeting. Depending on the programme, every effort will be made to keep consecutive appointments of the same delegation in the same booth. Service hours will be from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. on 10 and 11 December 2018, except for 9 to 10.30 a.m. on 10 December during the opening of the Conference.

Live webcast coverage

The United Nations webcast services will provide live and on-demand coverage of the plenary meetings, the dialogues and press conferences at http://webtv.un.org, in English and the original language of the speaker.

Prepared and published in Marrakech by the Department for General Assembly and Conference Management.
