

7 November 2018

Original: English

Group of Governmental Experts to consider the role of verification in advancing nuclear disarmament

Second session

Geneva, 12-16 November 2018

Draft Indicative Programme of Work

GE.18-18780(E)

* 1 8 1 8 7 8 0 *

Please recycle

	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
AM	Opening of the meeting Chair's introductory remarks Adoption of the draft indicative programme of work Presentation by the IAEA General exchange of views	"What?" – continued	"How?" – continued	"Who?" – continued	Possible recommendations – continued
PM	"What?" – How the issue of verification in nuclear disarmament has evolved. Experts are invited to make reference to the communication from the Chair and the papers submitted by the experts.	"How?" – Discussion on the presentations heard during the first and second session and potential lessons. Experts are invited to make reference to the communication from the Chair and the papers submitted by the experts.	"Who?" – Arrangements that would need to be in place for nuclear disarmament verification (support functions, capacity building, post-GGE, etc). Experts are invited to make reference to the communication from the Chair and the papers submitted by the experts.	Possible recommendations	Sum-up of the session Next steps