II. Substantive and procedural issues

A. Organization of work of the Preparatory Committee

10. With regard to the chairing of the various sessions of the Preparatory Committee and the presidency of the 2026 Review Conference, an understanding had been reached among delegations, according to which a representative of the Group of Western European and Other States should be proposed to chair the first session, a representative of the Group of Eastern European States should be proposed to chair the second session, a representative of the Group of Non-Aligned States Parties to the Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons should be proposed to chair the third session and a representative of the Group of Non-Aligned States Parties to the Treaty should be proposed for the presidency of the 2026 Review Conference. All groups were encouraged to propose the representatives for the chairing of the various sessions of the Preparatory Committee and for the presidency of the 2026 Review Conference at their earliest possible convenience.

11. Pursuant to that understanding, Ambassador Jarmo Viinanen, Ambassador for Arms Control, Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Finland, as the representative of the Group of Western European and Other States, was proposed to chair the first session. At its 1st meeting, on 31 July, the Preparatory Committee elected Ambassador Viinanen by acclamation to serve as Chair of the first session.

12. At its 1st meeting, on 31 July, the Preparatory Committee adopted the following agenda (NPT/CONF.2026/PC.I/2):

1. Opening of the session.
2. Election of the Chair.
3. Adoption of the agenda.
4. General debate on issues related to all aspects of the work of the Preparatory Committee.

5. Statements by non-governmental organizations.
6. Preparatory work for the review of the operation of the Treaty in accordance with article VIII, paragraph 3, of the Treaty, in particular, consideration of principles, objectives and ways to promote the full implementation of the Treaty, as well as its universality, including specific matters of substance related to the implementation of the Treaty and Decisions 1 and 2, as well as the resolution on the Middle East, adopted in 1995; the Final Document of the 2000 Review Conference; and the conclusions and recommendations for follow-on actions adopted at the 2010 Review Conference.
7. Organization of work of the Preparatory Committee:
 - (a) Election of officers;
 - (b) Dates and venues for further sessions;
 - (c) Methods of work:
 - (i) Decision-making;
 - (ii) Participation;
 - (iii) Working languages;
 - (iv) Records and documents.
8. Report on the results of the session to the next session of the Preparatory Committee.
9. Organization of the 2026 Review Conference:
 - (a) Dates and venue;
 - (b) Draft rules of procedure;
 - (c) Election of the President and other officers;
 - (d) Appointment of the Secretary-General;
 - (e) Provisional agenda;
 - (f) Financing of the Review Conference, including its Preparatory Committee;
 - (g) Background documentation;
 - (h) Final document(s).
10. Adoption of the final report and recommendations of the Preparatory Committee to the Review Conference.
11. Any other matters.
13. Furthermore, the Preparatory Committee took note of the indicative timetable (NPT/CONF.2026/PC.I/INF/3) as well as the summarized indicative timetable (NPT/CONF.2026/PC.I/INF/4).
14. In the course of the discussion on the organization of work of the Preparatory Committee, the following decisions were taken:

(a) Election of officers

Pursuant to the understanding referred to in paragraph 10 above, Ambassador Akan Rakhmetullin, Permanent Representative of Kazakhstan to the United Nations, as the representative of the Group of Eastern European States, was nominated to chair the second session. At its 1st meeting, on 31 July, the Committee elected by acclamation Ambassador Rakhmetullin to serve as Chair of the second session;

(b) Dates and venues for further sessions

At its 1st meeting, the Committee decided that it would hold its second session from 22 July to 2 August 2024 in Geneva;

(c) Methods of work

(i) Decision-making

At its 1st meeting, the Committee decided to make every effort to adopt its decisions by consensus. In the event that a consensus could not be reached, the Committee could then take decisions in accordance with the rules of procedure of the tenth Review Conference of the Parties to the Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons, which would be applied mutatis mutandis;

(ii) Participation

At its 1st meeting, the Committee decided that representatives of States not parties to the Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons should be allowed, upon request, to attend as observers the meetings of the Committee other than those designated closed meetings, to be seated in the Committee behind their countries' nameplates and to receive documents of the Committee. They should also be entitled to submit documents to the participants in the Committee. No State not party to the Treaty attended the meetings of the Committee as an observer;

The Committee decided that representatives of specialized agencies and international and regional intergovernmental organizations should be allowed, upon request, to attend as observers the meetings of the Committee other than those designated closed meetings, to be seated in the Committee behind their organizations' nameplates and to receive documents of the Committee. They should also be entitled to submit, in writing, their views and comments on questions within their competence, which may be circulated as documents of the Committee. Furthermore, the Committee decided, based on the agreement at the third session of the Preparatory Committee for the tenth Review Conference, which would be applied mutatis mutandis, that specialized agencies and international and regional intergovernmental organizations be invited to make oral presentations to the Committee upon the decision of the Committee, on a case-by-case basis. Accordingly, the following specialized agencies and international and regional intergovernmental organizations were represented as observers at the meetings of the Committee: the Agency for the Prohibition of Nuclear Weapons in Latin America and the Caribbean, the African Commission on Nuclear Energy, the Brazilian-Argentine Agency for Accounting and Control of Nuclear Materials, the European Union, the International Committee of the Red Cross, the Inter-Parliamentary Union, the League of Arab States, the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, the Organisation for the Prohibition of Chemical Weapons, the Preparatory Commission for the Comprehensive Nuclear-Test-Ban Treaty Organization, the International Atomic Energy Agency and the United Nations Institute for Disarmament Research;

The Committee decided that representatives of non-governmental organizations (NGOs) should be allowed, upon request, to attend the meetings of the Committee other than those designated closed, to be seated in the designated area, to receive documents of the Committee and, at their own expense, to make written material available to the participants in the Committee's work. The Committee shall also allocate a meeting to NGOs to address each session of the Committee. Accordingly, representatives of 71 NGOs attended the meetings of the Committee (NPT/CONF.2026/PC.I/INF/5);

(iii) Working languages

At its 1st meeting, the Committee decided to use Arabic, Chinese, English, French, Russian and Spanish as its working languages;

(iv) Records and documents

At its 1st meeting, the Committee decided that summary records would be provided, at each session, for the Committee's opening meetings, the general debate and the closing meetings. There would be records of decisions taken at the other meetings.

15. The Preparatory Committee set aside five meetings for a general debate on issues related to all aspects of the work of the Committee, in the course of which 92 statements were made. The statements are reflected in the summary records of those meetings (NPT/CONF.2026/PC.I/SR.1, NPT/CONF.2026/PC.I/SR.2, NPT/CONF.2026/PC.I/SR.3, NPT/CONF.2026/PC.I/SR.4, NPT/CONF.2026/PC.I/SR.5 and NPT/CONF.2026/PC.I/SR.6). Furthermore, in accordance with the decision adopted at its 1st meeting, the Committee invited the representatives of the Agency for the Prohibition of Nuclear Weapons in Latin America and the Caribbean, the Brazilian-Argentine Agency for Accounting and Control of Nuclear Materials, the Preparatory Commission for the Comprehensive Nuclear-Test-Ban Treaty Organization and the Organisation for the Prohibition of Chemical Weapons to make statements at the general debate.

16. At its 5th meeting, on 2 August, the Committee heard 16 statements by NGOs.

17. The Committee held a total of 10 meetings for substantive discussion under agenda item 6.

18. The discussion was structured according to an indicative timetable (NPT/CONF.2026/PC.I/INF/3), which allocated equal time for the consideration of three clusters of issues and three specific blocs of issues.

19. The Committee considered the following three clusters of issues based on the allocation of items to the Main Committees of the tenth Review Conference (NPT/CONF.2020/1, annex V):

(a) Implementation of the provisions of the Treaty relating to the non-proliferation of nuclear weapons, disarmament and international peace and security (articles I and II and preambular paragraphs 1 to 3; article VI and preambular paragraphs 8 to 12; article VII, with specific reference to the main issues considered in this cluster); security assurances (Security Council resolutions 255 \(1968\) and 984 \(1995\); effective international arrangements to assure non-nuclear-weapon States against the use or threat of use of nuclear weapons);

(b) Implementation of the provisions of the Treaty relating to the non-proliferation of nuclear weapons, safeguards and nuclear-weapon-free zones (article III and preambular paragraphs 4 and 5, especially in their relationship to article IV and preambular paragraphs 6 and 7; articles I and II and preambular paragraphs 1 to 3 in their relationship to articles III and IV; article VII);

(c) Implementation of the provisions of the Treaty relating to the inalienable right of all parties to the Treaty to develop research, production and use of nuclear energy for peaceful purposes without discrimination and in conformity with articles I and II (articles III (3) and IV, preambular paragraphs 6 and 7, especially in their relationship to article III (1), (2) and (4) and preambular paragraphs 4 and 5; article V); other provisions of the Treaty.

20. The Committee considered the following three specific blocs of issues:

- (a) Nuclear disarmament and security assurances;
- (b) Regional issues, including with respect to the Middle East and the implementation of the 1995 resolution on the Middle East;
- (c) Peaceful uses of nuclear energy and other provisions of the Treaty.

21. The Committee also considered the effectiveness of the strengthened review process.

B. Organization of the 2026 Review Conference

22. The Preparatory Committee, in conformity with its task to prepare for the 2026 Review Conference, took the following actions:

- (a) Financing of the Review Conference, including its Preparatory Committee

At its 1st meeting, on 31 July 2023, the Committee decided to request the Secretariat to provide for its second session an estimate of the costs of the 2026 Review Conference of the Parties to the Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons, including its Preparatory Committee;

- (b) Nomination of the provisional Secretary-General of the 2026 Review Conference

At its 1st meeting, on 31 July 2023, the Committee decided to invite the Secretary-General of the United Nations, in consultation with the members of the Preparatory Committee, to nominate an official to act as provisional Secretary-General of the 2026 Review Conference, a nomination which would later be confirmed by the Conference itself.

C. Documentation

23. During the session, the Committee had before it the following documents:
