Annex

Terms of reference of the Security Council mission to Afghanistan

1. The members of the Security Council have decided to send a mission to Afghanistan. The visit will take place from 31 October to 7 November 2003. The mission will visit Kabul, Herat, Kandahar and Mazar-i-Sharif.
2. The mission has the following objectives:
 - To underscore the international community's unwavering commitment to the peace and reconstruction process in Afghanistan and to promote further international and regional support to this end.
 - To review the progress achieved so far and to encourage the Afghan Transitional Administration to further strengthen the implementation of the Bonn Agreement, inter alia, with respect to security sector reform, disarmament, demobilization and reintegration, and the election process.
 - To observe the operations of the United Nations Assistance Mission in Afghanistan (UNAMA), including its role in assisting the Afghan Transitional Administration in preparing for the elections and in implementing the constitution and in coordinating all United Nations activities.
 - To observe the operations of the International Security Assistance Force in Afghanistan (ISAF), to discuss ways to improve the security situation and to expand the authority of the Afghan Transitional Administration throughout the country, and, in this context, to obtain a fuller understanding of the role of the provincial reconstruction teams.
 - To review the humanitarian and human rights situation, in particular with regard to women, children, refugees and internally displaced persons, and to assess the status of rehabilitation and reconstruction efforts.
 - To review the implementation of the Kabul Declaration on Good Neighbourly Relations of 22 December 2002.
 - To convey a strong message to regional and factional leaders about the need to reject all violence, condemn extremist, terrorist and illegal drug activities, ensure public order and safety, promote inter-ethnic reconciliation and support the implementation of the Bonn Agreement and fully cooperate with the Afghan Transitional Administration in line with the agreement of 22 May 2003 and UNAMA to these ends.
