4. The Committee will assist the Security Council in conducting an interim review of the mandate of the Executive Directorate by 31 December 2019, in accordance with resolution 2395 (2017).

A. Monitoring, promoting and facilitating the implementation of Security Council resolutions 1373 (2001), 1624 (2005) and 2178 (2014) and the tasks conferred in resolutions 1963 (2010), 2129 (2013), 2133 (2014), 2185 (2014), 2195 (2014), 2220 (2015), 2242 (2015), 2253 (2015), 2309 (2016), 2322 (2016), 2331 (2016), 2341 (2017), 2354 (2017), 2368 (2017), 2370 (2017), 2388 (2017), 2395 (2017) and 2396 (2017)

5. The Committee and its Executive Directorate will collaborate actively with Member States to monitor, promote and facilitate the implementation of resolutions 1373 (2001), 1624 (2005) and 2178 (2014) and to implement the tasks conferred in resolutions 1963 (2010), 2129 (2013), 2133 (2014), 2185 (2014), 2195 (2014), 2220 (2015), 2242 (2015), 2253 (2015), 2309 (2016), 2322 (2016), 2331 (2016), 2341 (2017), 2354 (2017), 2368 (2017), 2370 (2017), 2388 (2017), 2395 (2017) and 2396 (2017), bearing in mind that the Executive Directorate operates as a special political mission under the policy guidance of the Committee, that the neutral, expert assessment of the implementation of resolutions 1373 (2001), 1624 (2005) and 2178 (2014) and other relevant resolutions is the core function of the Executive Directorate and that the analysis and recommendations from those assessments are an invaluable aid to Member States in identifying and addressing gaps in implementation and capacity.

6. The Committee will continue to take stock of the implementation efforts of Member States with respect to resolutions 1373 (2001) and 1624 (2005) through the use of the two assessment tools, namely, the overview of implementation assessment and the detailed implementation survey. The Committee will consider information provided by the Executive Directorate regarding its work on updating the assessment tools, taking into account the requirements set forth in resolutions 1963 (2010), 2129 (2013), 2133 (2014), 2178 (2014), 2185 (2014), 2195 (2014), 2220 (2015), 2242 (2015), 2253 (2015), 2309 (2016), 2322 (2016), 2331 (2016), 2341 (2017), 2354 (2017), 2368 (2017), 2370 (2017), 2388 (2017), 2395 (2017) and 2396 (2017).

7. The Committee will also continue to identify the challenges and needs of each Member State and region, facilitate the delivery of targeted technical assistance, promote good practices and undertake visits for the purpose of conducting assessments. In this regard, the Committee, with the support of the Executive Directorate, will determine on an annual basis a list of Member States that the Executive Directorate should request consent to visit for the purpose of conducting assessments, taking a risk-based approach that acknowledges existing gaps, emerging issues, trends, events and analysis, while also taking into account prior requests by Member States and consent previously expressed, as well as the fact that a number of Member States have never been visited. The Committee, with the support of the Executive Directorate, may decide, after the adoption of the list, on changes to its composition, as necessary, emphasizing transparency in planning for visits and producing the ensuing reports.

8. The Committee will consider information provided by the Executive Directorate on its work to strengthen the assessment process, including by considering targeted and focused follow-up visits as complements to the Executive Directorate's comprehensive assessments, using, as appropriate and bearing in mind the Executive Directorate's global mandate, a risk-based approach in response to evolving threats, shortening, insofar as possible, timelines for the drafting and review of reports, bearing in mind differences in Member State capacity, enhancing the fair and consistent application of assessment tools and, at the behest of assessed Member States, engaging with counter-terrorism experts in civil society, academia, think tanks and the private sector, including on visits to and assessments of Member States, as a complement to primary engagement with Member State actors to allow them to highlight productive counter-terrorism efforts, so that assessments are more useful, accessible and targeted to specific audiences.

9. The Chair of the Committee will invite senior officials from assessed Member States to attend relevant Committee meetings and will invite assessed Member States to coordinate with the Executive Directorate and the Office of Counter-Terrorism on the implementation of the Executive Directorate's recommendations.

10. The Committee will, within 12 months of the submission of the initial assessment report to the Committee, consider information provided by the Executive Directorate on steps taken to implement the recommendations of the assessment, bearing in mind differences in capacity and the availability of resources, as well as the need for technical assistance in the implementation of some recommendations. The Committee will further consider recommendations submitted by the Executive Directorate on the need for additional follow-up activities, as appropriate, to further the implementation of assessment recommendations, including, as appropriate, additional technical assistance.

11. The Committee will consider information provided by the Executive Directorate regarding its progress in updating the "Technical guide to the implementation of Security Council resolution 1373 (2001) and other relevant resolutions" (S/2017/716, annex), while also taking into account the requirements set out in resolution 2396 (2017) and the recommendations set forth in the guiding principles on foreign terrorist fighters (Madrid Guiding Principles) (S/2015/939, annex II) and the addendum thereto (S/2018/1177, annex) in order to reflect the additional elements prescribed in that resolution.

12. The Committee will consider information provided by the Executive Directorate on the implementation of the Madrid Guiding Principles and the addendum thereto in the light of the evolving threat of foreign terrorist fighters, in particular returnees and relocators, and their families, in accordance with resolution 2396 (2017).

13. The Committee will consider information provided by the Executive Directorate on the progress of its work on its survey tools, including the global implementation survey, the detailed implementation survey and the overview of implementation assessment, to improve their utility to Member States, donors, recipients, the Office of Counter-Terrorism and other United Nations agencies for the purpose of designing technical assistance and capacity-building support, taking into account new mandates given to the Executive Directorate in relevant resolutions, streamline the number of questions and consider the most effective use of qualitative and quantitative data.
