(c) Council Regulation (EU) 2016/682 of 29 April 2016 amending Regulation (EC) No. 329/2007, giving effect to the measures provided by the above-mentioned Council Decision (CFSP) 2016/476 of 31 March 2016;

(d) Council Decision (CFSP) 2016/849 of 27 May 2016, repealing and replacing Decision 2013/183/CFSP, including all amendments to that decision (such as Decision (CFSP) 2016/476).

2. Furthermore, the European Union imposed additional restrictive measures against DPRK. These measures are provided for in Council Decision (CFSP) 2016/849 and Council Regulation (EU) 2016/841 of 27 May 2016, as well as in Council Decision (CFSP) 2016/1341 amending Decision (CFSP) 2016/849, and Council Regulation (EU) 2016/1333 of 4 August 2016 amending Regulation (EC) No. 329/2007, providing for the designation of additional items, materials, equipment, goods and technology to which prohibitions on the transfer, procurement and provision of technical assistance also apply.

3. In addition to the common European Union measures, the Swedish authorities, within the scope of their national implementation competence, apply the Act on Certain International Sanctions (1996:95) in implementing the restrictive measures against DPRK imposed by the Security Council.
  4. The above-mentioned Council regulations are binding in their entirety and are directly applicable in all States members of the European Union, including Sweden. Council Regulation (EC) No. 329/2007, as amended, requires member States to determine the penalties applicable to infringements of its provisions. At the national level, penalties for violations of directly applicable European Union law are set out in the relevant sections of the above-mentioned Swedish legislation.
  5. Sweden also has the Military Equipment Act (1992:1300), requiring export authorization for the sale, supply, transfer or export of arms and related materiel (excluding paramilitary equipment) to third countries and authorization for the provision of brokering services and other services related to military activities. Together, Council Decision (CFSP) 2016/849 and the Military Equipment Act provide the basis for enforcing the arms embargo against DPRK.
  6. In addition, Sweden has Decree (2011:67) concerning Certain Sanctions against the Democratic People's Republic of Korea, prohibiting the procurement of arms and related materiel (including paramilitary equipment) from DPRK, as well as the sale, supply, transfer or export of paramilitary equipment to DPRK.
  7. Regarding restrictions on admissions (visa ban), the Swedish general legislation concerning aliens, Council Decision (CFSP) 2016/849 and Regulation (EC) No. 539/2001 provide the basis for the refusal of admission and the denial of requests for a visa.
