The Security Council,

Recalling its resolutions 1814 (2008) of 15 May 2008 and 1816 (2008) of 2 June 2008,

Gravely concerned by the recent proliferation of acts of piracy and armed robbery at sea against vessels off the coast of Somalia, and by the serious threat it poses to the prompt, safe and effective delivery of humanitarian aid to Somalia, to international navigation and the safety of commercial maritime routes, and to fishing activities conducted in conformity with international law,

Noting with concern that increasingly violent acts of piracy are carried out with heavier weaponry, in a larger area off the coast of Somalia, using long-range assets such as mother ships, and demonstrating more sophisticated organization and methods of attack,

Reaffirming that international law, as reflected in the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea of 10 December 1982 (“the Convention”),⁸⁰ sets out the legal framework applicable to combating piracy and armed robbery at sea, as well as other ocean activities,

Commending the contribution made by some States since November 2007 to protect the World Food Programme maritime convoys, and the establishment by the European Union of a coordination unit with the task of supporting the surveillance and protection activities carried out by some member States of the European Union off the coast of Somalia, and the ongoing planning process towards a possible European Union naval operation, as well as other international or national initiatives taken with a view to implementing resolutions 1814 (2008) and 1816 (2008),

Noting recent humanitarian reports that as many as three and a half million Somalis will be dependent on humanitarian food aid by the end of the year, and that maritime contractors for the World Food Programme will not deliver food aid to Somalia without naval warship escorts, expressing its determination to ensure long-term security of World Food Programme deliveries to Somalia, and recalling that in resolution 1814 (2008) it requested the Secretary-General to provide his support for efforts to protect World Food Programme maritime convoys,

Reaffirming its respect for the sovereignty, territorial integrity, political independence and unity of Somalia,

Taking note of the letter dated 1 September 2008 from the President of Somalia to the Secretary-General expressing the appreciation of the Transitional Federal Government to the Security Council for its assistance and expressing the willingness of the Transitional Federal Government to consider working with other States, as well as regional organizations, to provide advance notifications additional to those already provided, in accordance with paragraph 7 of resolution 1816 (2008), to combat piracy and armed robbery at sea off the coast of Somalia,

Recalling that in the statement by its President of 4 September 2008⁷⁸ it welcomed the signing of a peace and reconciliation agreement in Djibouti and commended the Special Representative of the Secretary-General for Somalia, Mr. Ahmedou Ould-Abdallah, for his ongoing efforts, and emphasizing the importance of promoting a comprehensive and lasting settlement in Somalia,

Recalling also that in the statement by its President of 4 September it took note of the parties’ request in the Djibouti agreement that the United Nations, within a period of one hundred and twenty days, authorize and deploy an international stabilization force, and looking forward to the report of the Secretary-General, due sixty days from its passage, in particular a detailed and consolidated description of a feasible multinational force, as well as a detailed concept of operations for a feasible United Nations peacekeeping operation, ⁸⁰ United Nations, Treaty Series, vol. 1833, No. 31363.

Emphasizing that peace and stability, the strengthening of State institutions, economic and social development and respect for human rights and the rule of law are necessary to create the conditions for a full eradication of piracy and armed robbery at sea off the coast of Somalia,

Determining that the incidents of piracy and armed robbery against vessels in the territorial waters of Somalia and the high seas off the coast of Somalia exacerbate the situation in Somalia which continues to constitute a threat against international peace and security in the region,

Acting under Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations,

1. Reiterates that it condemns and deplores all acts of piracy and armed robbery at sea against vessels off the coast of Somalia;

2. Calls upon States interested in the security of maritime activities to take part actively in the fight against piracy on the high seas off the coast of Somalia, in particular by deploying naval vessels and military aircraft, in accordance with international law, as reflected in the Convention;⁸⁰

3. Calls upon States whose naval vessels and military aircraft operate on the high seas and airspace off the coast of Somalia to use on the high seas and airspace off the coast of Somalia the necessary means, in conformity with international law, as reflected in the Convention, for the repression of acts of piracy;

4. Urges States that have the capacity to do so to cooperate with the Transitional Federal Government in the fight against piracy and armed robbery at sea in conformity with the provisions of resolution 1816 (2008);

5. Urges States and regional organizations, in conformity with the provisions of resolution 1814 (2008), to continue to take action to protect the World Food Programme maritime convoys, which is vital to bring humanitarian assistance to the affected populations in Somalia;

7. Calls upon States and regional organizations to coordinate their actions pursuant to paragraphs 3, 4 and 5 above;

8. Affirms that the provisions of the present resolution apply only with respect to the situation in Somalia and shall not affect the rights or obligations or responsibilities of Member States under international law, including any rights or obligations under the Convention, with respect to any situation, and underscores in particular that the present resolution shall not be considered as establishing customary international law;

9. Looks forward to the report of the Secretary-General requested in paragraph 13 of resolution 1816 (2008), and expresses its intention to review the situation with respect to piracy and armed robbery at sea against vessels off the coast of Somalia with a view, in particular upon the request of the Transitional Federal Government, to renewing the authority provided in paragraph 7 of resolution 1816 (2008) for an additional period;

Decisions

At its 6046th meeting, on 16 December 2008, the Security Council decided to invite the representatives of Denmark, Egypt, Germany, Greece (Deputy Minister for Defence), India, Japan (Parliamentary Vice-Minister for Foreign Affairs), Liberia, Norway, the Republic of Korea, Somalia (Minister for Foreign Affairs), Spain, Sweden, Turkey and Yemen to participate, without vote, in accordance with rule 37 of its provisional rules of procedure, in the discussion of the item entitled "The situation in Somalia".

At the same meeting, in response to the request dated 12 December 2008 from the Chargé d'affaires a.i. of the Permanent Mission of the Libyan Arab Jamahiriya to the United Nations addressed to the President of the Security Council, the Council also decided to extend an invitation, under rule 39 of its provisional rules of procedure, to Mr. Yahya Mahmassani, Permanent Observer for the League of Arab States to the United Nations.

At the same meeting, the Council further decided to extend an invitation, under rule 39 of its provisional rules of procedure, to Mr. Ramtane Lamamra, Commissioner for Peace and Security of the African Union, in response to the request dated 15 December 2008 from the Permanent Representative of South Africa to the United Nations addressed to the President of the Council.

Resolution 1851 (2008) of 16 December 2008

The Security Council,

Recalling its previous resolutions concerning the situation in Somalia, especially resolutions 1814 (2008) of 15 May 2008, 1816 (2008) of 2 June 2008, 1838 (2008) of 7 October 2008, 1844 (2008) of 20 November 2008 and 1846 (2008) of 2 December 2008,

Continuing to be gravely concerned by the dramatic increase in the incidents of piracy and armed robbery at sea off the coast of Somalia in the last six months, and by the threat that piracy and armed robbery at sea against vessels pose to the prompt, safe and effective delivery of humanitarian aid to Somalia, and noting that pirate attacks off the coast of Somalia have become more sophisticated and daring and have expanded in their geographical scope, notably evidenced by the hijacking of the M/V Sirius Star 500 nautical miles off the coast of Kenya and subsequent unsuccessful attempts well east of the United Republic of Tanzania,

Reaffirming its respect for the sovereignty, territorial integrity, political independence and unity of Somalia, including Somalia's rights with respect to offshore natural resources, including fisheries, in accordance with international law,

Further reaffirming that international law, as reflected in the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea of 10 December 1982,⁸⁰ sets out the legal framework applicable to combating piracy and armed robbery at sea, as well as other ocean activities,

Again taking into account the crisis situation in Somalia, and the lack of capacity of the Transitional Federal Government to interdict, or upon interdiction to prosecute pirates or to patrol and secure the waters off the coast of Somalia, including the international sea lanes and Somalia's territorial waters,

Noting the several requests of the Transitional Federal Government for international assistance to counter piracy off the coast of Somalia, including the letter dated 9 December 2008 from the President of Somalia requesting the international community to assist the Transitional Federal Government in taking all necessary measures to interdict those who use Somali territory and airspace to plan, facilitate or undertake acts of piracy and armed robbery at sea, and the letter dated 1 September 2008 from the President of Somalia to the Secretary-General expressing the appreciation of the Transitional Federal Government to the Security Council for its assistance and expressing the willingness of the Transitional Federal Government to consider working with other States and regional organizations to combat piracy and armed robbery off the coast of Somalia,

Welcoming the launching of the European Union operation Atalanta to combat piracy off the coast of Somalia and to protect vulnerable ships bound for Somalia, as well as the efforts of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and other States acting in a national capacity in cooperation with the Transitional Federal Government to suppress piracy off the coast of Somalia,

Also welcoming the recent initiatives of the Governments of Egypt and Kenya, the Special Representative of the Secretary-General for Somalia and the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime to achieve effective measures to remedy the causes, capabilities and incidents of piracy and armed robbery off the coast of Somalia, and emphasizing the need for current and future counter-piracy operations to effectively coordinate their activities,

Noting with concern that the lack of capacity, domestic legislation and clarity about how to dispose of pirates after their capture has hindered more robust international action against the pirates off the coast of Somalia and in some cases has led to pirates being released without facing justice, and reiterating that the Convention for the Suppression of Unlawful Acts against the Safety of Maritime Navigation of 10 March 1988⁸⁸ provides for parties to create criminal offences, establish jurisdiction and accept delivery of persons responsible for or suspected of seizing or exercising control over a ship by force or threat thereof or any other form of intimidation,

Welcoming the report of 20 November 2008 of the Monitoring Group on Somalia,⁸⁷ and noting the role that piracy may play in financing embargo violations by armed groups,

Determining that the incidents of piracy and armed robbery at sea in the waters off the coast of Somalia exacerbate the situation in Somalia which continues to constitute a threat to international peace and security in the region,

Acting under Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations,

1. Reiterates that it condemns and deplores all acts of piracy and armed robbery against vessels in waters off the coast of Somalia;

2. Calls upon States and regional and international organizations that have the capacity to do so to take part actively in the fight against piracy and armed robbery at sea off the coast of Somalia, in particular, consistent with the present resolution, resolution 1846 (2008) and international law, by deploying naval vessels and military aircraft and through seizure and disposition of boats, vessels, arms and other related equipment used in the commission of piracy and armed robbery at sea off the coast of Somalia, or for which there are reasonable grounds for suspecting such use;

3. Invites all States and regional organizations fighting piracy off the coast of Somalia to conclude special agreements or arrangements with countries willing to take custody of pirates in order to embark law enforcement officials (“shipriders”) from the latter countries, in particular countries in the region, to facilitate the investigation and prosecution of persons detained as a result of operations conducted under the present resolution for acts of piracy and armed robbery at sea off the coast of Somalia, provided that the advance consent of the Transitional Federal Government is obtained for the exercise of third State jurisdiction by shipriders in Somali territorial waters and that such agreements or arrangements do not prejudice the effective implementation of the Convention for the Suppression of Unlawful Acts against the Safety of Maritime Navigation;⁸⁸

4. Encourages all States and regional organizations fighting piracy and armed robbery at sea off the coast of Somalia to establish an international cooperation mechanism to act as a common point of contact between and among States, regional organizations and international organizations on all aspects of combating piracy and armed robbery at sea off the coast of Somalia; and recalls that future recommendations on ways to ensure the long-term security of international navigation off the coast of Somalia, including the long-term security of World Food Programme maritime deliveries to Somalia and a possible coordination and leadership role for the United Nations in this regard to rally Member States and regional organizations to counter piracy and armed robbery at sea off the coast of Somalia are to be detailed in a report of the Secretary-General no later than three months after the adoption of resolution 1846 (2008);

5. Also encourages all States and regional organizations fighting piracy and armed robbery at sea off the coast of Somalia to consider creating a centre in the region to coordinate information relevant to piracy and armed robbery at sea off the coast of Somalia, to increase regional capacity with the assistance of the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime to arrange effective shiprider agreements or arrangements consistent with the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea⁸⁰ and to implement the Convention for the Suppression of Unlawful Acts against the Safety of Maritime Navigation, the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime⁸⁹ and other relevant instruments to which States in the region are party, in order to effectively investigate and prosecute piracy and armed robbery at sea offences;

6. In response to the letter dated 9 December 2008 from the Transitional Federal Government, encourages Member States to continue to cooperate with the Transitional Federal Government in the fight against piracy and armed robbery at sea, notes the primary role of the Transitional Federal Government in rooting out piracy and armed robbery at sea, and decides that for a period of twelve months from the date of adoption of resolution 1846 (2008), States and regional organizations cooperating in the fight against piracy and armed robbery at sea off the coast of Somalia for which advance notification has been provided by the Transitional Federal Government to the Secretary-General may undertake all necessary measures that are appropriate in Somalia, for the purpose of suppressing acts of piracy and armed robbery at sea, pursuant to the request of the Transitional Federal Government, provided, however, that any measures undertaken pursuant to the authority of the present paragraph shall be undertaken consistent with applicable international humanitarian and human rights law;

7. Calls upon Member States to assist the Transitional Federal Government, at its request and with notification to the Secretary-General, to strengthen its operational capacity to bring to justice those who are using Somali territory to plan, facilitate or undertake criminal acts of piracy and armed robbery at sea, and stresses that any measures undertaken pursuant to the present paragraph shall be consistent with applicable international human rights law;

8. Welcomes the communiqué issued by the International Conference on Piracy around Somalia, held in Nairobi on 11 December 2008,⁹⁰ and encourages Member States to work to enhance the capacity of relevant States in the region to combat piracy, including judicial capacity;

9. Notes with concern the findings contained in the report of the Monitoring Group on Somalia of 20 November 2008 that escalating ransom payments are fuelling the growth of piracy in waters off the coast of Somalia, and that the lack of enforcement of the arms embargo established by resolution 733 (1992) of 23 January 1992 has permitted ready access to the arms and ammunition used by the pirates and driven in part the phenomenal growth in piracy;⁸⁷

10. Affirms that the authorization provided in the present resolution applies only with respect to the situation in Somalia and shall not affect the rights or obligations or responsibilities of Member States under international law, including any rights or obligations under the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea, with respect to any other situation, and underscores in particular that the present resolution shall not be considered as establishing customary international law, and affirms further that such authorizations have been provided only following the receipt of the letter dated 9 December 2008 conveying the consent of the Transitional Federal Government;

11. Affirms also that the measures imposed by paragraph 5 of resolution 733 (1992) and further elaborated upon in paragraphs 1 and 2 of resolution 1425 (2002) of 22 July 2002 shall not apply to weapons and military equipment destined for the sole use of Member States and regional organizations undertaking measures in accordance with paragraph 6 above;

12. Urges States, in collaboration with the shipping and insurance industries, and the International Maritime Organization to continue to develop avoidance, evasion and defensive best practices and advisories to take when under attack or when sailing in waters off the coast of Somalia, and further urges States to make their citizens and vessels available for forensic investigation, as appropriate, at the first port of call immediately following an act or attempted act of piracy or armed robbery at sea or release from captivity;

13. Decides to remain seized of the matter.

Adopted unanimously at the 6046th meeting.

Decision

At its 6050th meeting, on 19 December 2008, the Security Council decided to invite the representative of Somalia to participate, without vote, in accordance with rule 37 of its provisional rules of procedure, in the discussion of the item entitled:

Recalling that, as set out in resolutions 1744 (2007) and 1772 (2007), the arms embargo on Somalia does not apply to (a) weapons and military equipment, technical training and assistance intended solely for the support of or use by the African Union Mission in Somalia, and (b) supplies and technical assistance by States intended solely for the purpose of helping to develop security sector institutions, consistent with the political process set out in those resolutions and in the absence of a negative decision by the Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 751 (1992) (hereinafter referred to as “the Committee”) within five working days of receiving an advance notification of such supplies or assistance on a case-by-case basis,

Reaffirming the importance of the sovereignty, territorial integrity, political independence and unity of Somalia,

Commending the work of the Special Representative of the Secretary-General for Somalia, Mr. Ahmedou Ould-Abdallah, and reaffirming its strong support for his efforts,

Taking note of the report of the Monitoring Group of 20 November 2008 submitted pursuant to paragraph 3 (i) of resolution 1811 (2008)⁸⁷ and the observations and recommendations contained therein,

Condemning flows of weapons and ammunition supplies to and through Somalia in violation of the arms embargo as a serious threat to peace and stability in Somalia,

Reiterating its insistence that all States, in particular those in the region, should refrain from any action in contravention of the arms embargo and should take all necessary steps to hold violators accountable,

Reiterating and underscoring the importance of enhancing the monitoring of the arms embargo in Somalia through persistent and vigilant investigation into the violations, bearing in mind that strict enforcement of the arms embargo will improve the overall security situation in Somalia,

Determining that the situation in Somalia continues to constitute a threat to international peace and security in the region,

Acting under Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations,

1. Stresses the obligation of all States to comply fully with the measures imposed by resolution 733 (1992), as well as resolution 1844 (2008);

Reiterating its commitment to a comprehensive and lasting settlement of the situation in Somalia,

Further reaffirming that the Djibouti peace agreement represents the basis for a resolution of the conflict in Somalia, and stressing the importance of broad-based and representative institutions reached through a political process ultimately inclusive of all,

Determining that the situation in Somalia constitutes a threat to international peace and security in the region,

Acting under Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations,

1. Welcomes the decision of the African Union that the African Union Mission in Somalia will remain in Somalia until 16 March 2009, and requests the African Union to maintain the deployment of the Mission in Somalia and to reinforce that deployment to help to achieve the Mission's originally mandated troop strength of 8,000 troops, thereby enhancing the capability of the Mission to carry out its mandate and protect key installations in Mogadishu, including the airport, the seaport and other strategic areas;

4. Expresses its intent to establish a United Nations peacekeeping operation in Somalia as a follow-on force to the Mission, subject to a further decision of the Security Council by 1 June 2009;

5. Requests the Secretary-General to submit a report for a United Nations peacekeeping operation by 15 April 2009, to include developments in the situation in Somalia, progress towards the full deployment and strengthening of the Mission with a view to transition to a United Nations peacekeeping operation, progress in the political process and security conditions on the ground, in order to inform the Council of his assessment in advance of the decision referred to in paragraph 4 above and with a view to speedy deployment;

6. Also requests the Secretary-General, in that report, to develop recommendations on the mandate of such a United Nations peacekeeping operation, taking into account the following tasks in Mogadishu and its environs:

“International Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of the Former Yugoslavia since 1991

“Letter dated 5 December 2008 from the Secretary-General addressed to the President of the Security Council (S/2008/767)”.

Resolution 1849 (2008) of 12 December 2008

The Security Council,

Taking note of the letter dated 5 December 2008 from the Secretary-General to the President of the Security Council attaching the letter dated 26 November 2008 from the President of the International Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of the Former Yugoslavia since 1991 to the Secretary-General,¹²⁷

Recalling its resolution 1800 (2008) of 20 February 2008, by which it permitted the total number of ad litem judges appointed at any one time to the Chambers of the International Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia (“the International Tribunal”) to be increased to sixteen until 31 December 2008,

Noting that the International Tribunal currently has a total of fourteen ad litem judges assigned to cases, that three of them are assigned to a case where the judgement delivery is expected by 12 February 2009, and that the appointment of a further ad litem judge to another case expected to commence on 15 December 2008 would take the total number of ad litem judges to fifteen until 12 February 2009,

Recalling that in its resolution 1503 (2003) of 28 August 2003, it called upon the International Tribunal to take all possible measures to complete investigations by the end of 2004, to complete all trial activities at first instance by the end of 2008 and to complete all work in 2010, and that in its resolution 1534 (2004) of 26 March 2004, it emphasized the importance of fully implementing the completion strategy of the International Tribunal,

Acting under Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations,

Noting that permanent judges Iain Bonomy (United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland), Mohamed Shahabuddeen (Guyana) and Christine Van Den Wyngaert (Belgium) have resigned from the International Tribunal,

Convinced of the advisability of allowing the Secretary-General to appoint an ad litem judge additional to the twelve ad litem judges authorized by the statute of the International Tribunal, as a temporary measure, to enable the International Tribunal to assign a reserve judge to one of the trials, and taking note of the assurance by the President of the International Tribunal that this temporary measure will be within existing resources,

“International Criminal Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Genocide and Other Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of Rwanda and Rwandan Citizens Responsible for Genocide and Other Such Violations Committed in the Territory of Neighbouring States between 1 January 1994 and 31 December 1994

“Letter dated 21 November 2008 from the President of the International Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of the Former Yugoslavia since 1991 addressed to the President of the Security Council (S/2008/729)

“Letter dated 21 November 2008 from the President of the International Criminal Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Genocide and Other Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of Rwanda and Rwandan Citizens Responsible for Genocide and Other Such Violations Committed in the Territory of Neighbouring States between 1 January 1994 and 31 December 1994 addressed to the President of the Security Council (S/2008/726)”.

At the same meeting, in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Council also decided to extend invitations, under rule 39 of its provisional rules of procedure, to Judge Patrick Robinson, President of the International Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia, Judge Dennis Byron, President of the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda, Mr. Serge Brammertz, Prosecutor of the International Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia, and Mr. Hassan Bubacar Jallow, Prosecutor of the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda.

At its 6053rd meeting, on 19 December 2008, the Council considered the item entitled:

“International Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of the Former Yugoslavia since 1991

“International Criminal Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Genocide and Other Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of Rwanda and Rwandan Citizens Responsible for Genocide and Other Such Violations Committed in the Territory of Neighbouring States between 1 January 1994 and 31 December 1994”.

At the same meeting, following consultations among members of the Security Council, the President made the following statement on behalf of the Council:¹⁴⁰

“The Security Council recalls its resolution 827 (1993) of 25 May 1993, in which it established the International Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia, and its resolution 955 (1994) of 8 November 1994, in which it established the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda (“the Tribunals”) and further recalls that in its resolution 1503 (2003) of 28 August 2003, it called upon the Tribunals to take all possible measures to complete all trial activities at first instance by the end of 2008 and to complete all work in 2010 (the completion strategies) and that in its resolution 1534 (2004) of 26 March 2004, it emphasized the importance of fully implementing the completion strategies.

“The Council recalls that the Tribunals were established in particular circumstances of the former Yugoslavia and Rwanda as an ad hoc measure contributing to the restoration and maintenance of peace.

“The Council takes note of the presentations made on 12 December 2008 by the Presidents and Prosecutors of the Tribunals to the Council on the implementation of the completion strategies.”¹⁴¹

“Noting with concern that the deadline for the completion of trial activities at first instance has not been met and that the Tribunals have indicated that their work is not likely to end in 2010, the Council emphasizes that trials must be conducted by the Tribunals as quickly and efficiently as possible and expresses its determination to support their efforts toward the completion of their work at the earliest date.

“The Council reaffirms the necessity of persons indicted by the International Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia and the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda being brought to justice.

¹⁴⁰ S/PRST/2008/47.

“The Council calls upon all States, especially States where fugitives are suspected to be at large, to further intensify cooperation with and render all necessary assistance to the International Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia and the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda, as appropriate, in particular to achieve the arrest and surrender of all remaining fugitive indictees.

“The Council also reaffirms in this context that the referral of cases to competent national jurisdictions is an essential part of the completion strategies and in this regard underlines again the need for the Tribunals to concentrate their work on the prosecution and trial of the most senior leaders suspected of being most responsible for crimes within their jurisdiction, and urges the Tribunals to work with relevant national authorities to secure the transfer of cases which do not involve this level of responsibility for prosecution by competent national jurisdictions.

“The Council acknowledges the need to establish an ad hoc mechanism to carry out a number of essential functions of the Tribunals, including the trial of high-level fugitives, after the closure of the Tribunals. In view of the substantially reduced nature of these residual functions, this mechanism should be a small, temporary and efficient structure. Its functions and size will diminish over time. Its expenses will be expenses of the Organization in accordance with Article 17 of the Charter of the United Nations.

“The Council emphasizes that any such mechanism will derive its authority from a resolution of the Council and from statutes and rules of procedure and evidence based on those existing for the International Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia and the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda, modified as appropriate, and that accommodations may be needed to address the differing needs and circumstances of the International Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia and the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda.

“The Council expresses its appreciation to its Informal Working Group on International Tribunals for its work to date on the establishment of this mechanism, including through a thorough examination of which functions of the Tribunals are necessary for the administration of justice after their closure. The Council requests the Informal Working Group to continue its efforts in that regard and to concentrate on the main outstanding issues with a view to drafting as soon as possible appropriate instruments necessary for the performance of residual functions of the Tribunals.

“In order to facilitate the further work of the Informal Working Group, the Council requests the Secretary-General to present a report within 90 days on the administrative and budgetary aspects of the options for possible locations for the archives of the Tribunals and the seat of the residual mechanism, including the availability of suitable premises for the conduct of judicial proceedings by the residual mechanism, with particular emphasis on locations where the United Nations has an existing presence.

“The Council requests the Secretariat to provide the Informal Working Group with all necessary assistance, including interpretation in the six working languages of the Council.”

At its 6134th meeting, on 4 June 2009, the Council decided to invite the representatives of Bosnia and Herzegovina, Kenya, Rwanda and Serbia to participate, without vote, in accordance with rule 37 of its provisional rules of procedure, in the discussion of the item entitled:

“International Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of the Former Yugoslavia since 1991

“International Criminal Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Genocide and Other Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of Rwanda and Rwandan Citizens Responsible for Genocide and Other Such Violations Committed in the Territory of Neighbouring States between 1 January 1994 and 31 December 1994

“Letter dated 14 May 2009 from the President of the International Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of the Former Yugoslavia since 1991 addressed to the President of the Security Council (S/2009/252)

“Letter dated 14 May 2009 from the President of the International Criminal Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Genocide and Other Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of Rwanda and Rwandan Citizens Responsible for Genocide and Other Such Violations Committed in the Territory of Neighbouring States between 1 January 1994 and 31 December 1994 addressed to the President of the Security Council (S/2009/247)”.

At the same meeting, in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Council also decided to extend invitations, under rule 39 of its provisional rules of procedure, to Judge Patrick Robinson, President of the International Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia, Judge Dennis Byron, President of the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda, Mr. Serge Brammertz, Prosecutor of the International Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia, and Mr. Hassan Bubacar Jallow, Prosecutor of the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda.

The Security Council,

Recalling its resolutions and the statements by its President concerning the Democratic Republic of the Congo, in particular resolutions 1794 (2007) of 21 December 2007 and 1843 (2008) of 20 November 2008 and the statements by its President of 21 October 2008¹⁹⁹ and 29 October 2008,²⁰¹

Reaffirming its commitment to the sovereignty, territorial integrity and political independence of the Democratic Republic of the Congo,

Stressing the primary responsibility of the Government of the Democratic Republic of the Congo for ensuring security in its territory and protecting its civilians with respect for the rule of law, human rights and international humanitarian law,

Condemning the repeated offensive military actions by the Congrès national pour la défense du peuple in the past months, which have caused massive displacement of populations in North Kivu as well as cross-border movements of refugees and which have also involved the Coalition des patriotes résistants congolais and other illegal armed groups, and condemning also the attacks by the Lord's Resistance Army in Orientale Province, as well as the resumption of hostilities by illegal armed groups in Ituri,

Underlining that a major obstacle to lasting peace in the Kivus is the presence and activities of illegal armed groups on Congolese territory, including the Forces démocratiques de libération du Rwanda, as acknowledged in its resolution 1804 (2008) of 13 March 2008, which represent one of the primary causes for the conflict in the region,

Taking note of the final declaration of the Nairobi summit organized on 7 November 2008 by President Mwai Kibaki, acting Chairman of the International Conference on the Great Lakes Region, and President Jakaya Kikwete, President-in-office of the African Union, and the communiqué of the extraordinary summit of the Heads of State and Government of the Southern African Development Community, held in Sandton, South Africa, on 9 November 2008, welcoming the appointment of facilitators, including the Special Envoy of the Secretary-General for the Great Lakes Region, the former President of Nigeria, Mr. Olusegun Obasanjo, and the former President of the United Republic of Tanzania, Mr. Benjamin Mkapa, inviting these facilitators to keep the Security Council informed of their activities, and encouraging the countries of the region to maintain this high level of commitment on the crisis in the eastern part of the Democratic Republic of the Congo, and to act to assist efforts to resolve the conflict,

Recalling the joint communiqué of the Government of the Democratic Republic of the Congo and the Government of the Republic of Rwanda signed at Nairobi on 9 November 2007²⁰⁰ and the Acte d'engagement which emerged from the Conference on Peace, Security and Development in North and South Kivu, held in Goma from 6 to 23 January 2008, and reaffirming that the Goma and Nairobi processes are the appropriate framework for stabilizing the situation in the eastern part of the Democratic Republic of the Congo,

Emphasizing the responsibility of the Government of the Democratic Republic of the Congo and the Governments of the region to prevent the use of their respective territories in support of violations of the arms embargo imposed by Council resolution 1807 (2008) of 31 March 2008 or in support of activities of armed groups present in the region in accordance with the Pact on Security, Stability and Development in the Great Lakes Region, urging them to take effective measures to prevent cross-border support to any illegal armed group in the eastern region of the Democratic Republic of the Congo, and welcoming the progress made in high-level bilateral talks between the Governments of the Democratic Republic of the Congo and Rwanda,

Recalling the importance of urgently carrying out comprehensive and lasting security sector reform and of permanently disarming, demobilizing, resettling or repatriating, as appropriate, and reintegrating Congolese and foreign armed groups for the long-term stabilization of the Democratic Republic of the Congo, and the contribution made by international partners in this field,

Recognizing the link between the illegal exploitation of natural resources, the illicit trade in such resources and the proliferation of and trafficking in arms as one of the major factors fuelling and exacerbating conflicts in the Great Lakes region of Africa, and in particular in the Democratic Republic of the Congo,

Expressing its extreme concern at the deteriorating humanitarian and human rights situation, condemning in particular the targeted attacks against the civilian population, sexual violence, recruitment of child soldiers and summary executions, stressing the urgent need for the Government of the Democratic Republic of the Congo, in cooperation with the United Nations Organization Mission in the Democratic Republic of the Congo and other relevant actors, to end those violations of human rights and international humanitarian law, in particular those carried out by the militias and armed groups and by elements of the Armed Forces of the Democratic Republic of the Congo, the Congolese National Police and other security and intelligence services, and to bring the perpetrators, as well as the senior commanders under whom they serve, to justice, and calling upon Member States to assist in this regard and to continue to provide medical, humanitarian and other assistance to victims, its resolution 1674 (2006) of 28 April 2006 on the protection of civilians in armed conflict and its resolution 1612 (2005) of 26 July 2005 on children and armed conflict, and recalling the conclusions of the Security Council Working Group on Children and Armed Conflict pertaining to parties to the armed conflict of the Democratic Republic of the Congo,²⁰⁷

Condemning the continuing illicit flow of weapons within and into the Democratic Republic of the Congo, and declaring its determination to continue to monitor closely the implementation of the arms embargo and other measures set out in its resolution 1807 (2008),

Underscoring the long-term, sustainable efforts needed from the Government of the Democratic Republic of the Congo and its international partners to consolidate democracy and promote the rule of law, good governance, recovery and development,

Expressing its full support for the Mission, condemning all attacks against United Nations peacekeepers and humanitarian personnel, regardless of the perpetrators, and emphasizing that those responsible for such attacks must be brought to justice,

Recalling that the temporary increase of the capacities of the Mission authorized by its resolution 1843 (2008) aims at enabling the Mission to reorganize and, in particular, reconfigure its structure and forces and optimize their deployment, allowing the constitution of a quick-reaction capability to provide greater flexibility to deploy as needed to strengthen efforts to protect civilians and provide additional security in the eastern part of the Democratic Republic of the Congo,

Recognizing that effective coordination between the Government of the Democratic Republic of the Congo and the Mission on security matters in the areas of conflict, as well as the accelerated building of credible, cohesive and disciplined Congolese armed forces, is essential for the implementation of the mandate of the Mission,

Taking note of the fourth special report of the Secretary-General on the Mission, of 21 November 2008,²⁰⁸ and of the recommendations contained therein,

“The Council acknowledges that the implementation of resolution 1612 (2005) in situations listed in the annexes to the report of the Secretary-General has generated progress and invites the Secretary-General, where applicable, to strengthen the efforts to bring the monitoring and reporting mechanism to its full capacity in order to allow for prompt advocacy and effective response to all violations and abuses committed against children. In this regard, the Council reiterates its request to the Secretary-General to provide additional administrative support to its Working Group on Children and Armed Conflict.

The Council condemns all other violations of international law, including international humanitarian law, human rights law and refugee law, committed against children in situations of armed conflict. The Council demands that all relevant parties immediately put an end to such practices and take special measures to protect children.

“The Council expresses deep concern that civilians, in particular children, continue to account for a considerable number of casualties resulting from killing and maiming in armed conflicts, including as a result of deliberate targeting, indiscriminate and excessive use of force, indiscriminate use of landmines and cluster munitions and use of children as human shields.

“The Council further expresses deep concern about the high incidence and appalling levels of brutality of rape and other forms of sexual violence against children, girls and boys, committed in the context of and associated with armed conflict, including the use or commission of rape and other forms of sexual violence in some situations as a tactic of war.

“The Council recognizes the importance of including in the annexes to the reports of the Secretary-General on children and armed conflict those parties to armed conflict that commit acts of killing and maiming of children that are prohibited under applicable international law or acts of rape and other sexual violence against children that are prohibited under applicable international law in situations of armed conflict, and expresses its intention to continue its consideration of this issue in order to take action within three months of this date.

“The Council reiterates its call upon the parties to armed conflict listed in the annexes to the report of the Secretary-General that have not already done so to prepare and implement, without further delay, concrete time-bound action plans to halt the recruitment and use of children in violation of applicable international law, and to address all other violations and abuses committed against children and undertake specific commitments and measures in this regard, in close cooperation with the Special Representative of the Secretary-General for Children and Armed Conflict and the United Nations country-level task forces on monitoring and reporting.

“The Council expresses its concern about situations where insufficient or no progress has been made by parties listed in the annexes to the reports of the Secretary-General in halting the recruitment and use of children in violation of applicable international law, including through the preparation and implementation of concrete time-bound action plans, and reiterates its determination to ensure respect for its resolutions on children and armed conflict, making use of all the tools provided in resolution 1612 (2005), including action, as appropriate, in accordance with paragraph 9 of resolution 1612 (2005).

“The Council strongly emphasizes the need for the Member States concerned to take decisive and immediate action against persistent perpetrators of violations against children and to bring to justice those responsible for the recruitment and use of children in violation of applicable international law and other violations against children through national justice systems and, where applicable, international justice mechanisms and mixed criminal courts and tribunals, with a view to ending impunity for those committing crimes against children.

“The Council reiterates the primary responsibility of States in providing effective protection and relief to all children affected by armed conflict and calls upon them to comply with their obligations under applicable international law, including the Convention on the Rights of the Child and the Optional Protocols thereto,²²⁴ encourages States to strengthen national measures for the prevention of violations against children in armed conflict, including the recruitment and use of children and their use in hostilities in violation of applicable international law, inter alia, by enacting legislation that explicitly prohibits such recruitment and use as well as other violations, and urges States that have not yet done so to consider ratifying or acceding to the Convention and the Optional Protocols thereto.

“The Council reiterates the importance of the full, safe and unhindered access of humanitarian personnel and goods and the delivery of humanitarian assistance to all children affected by armed conflict, and stresses the importance for all, within the framework of humanitarian assistance, of upholding and respecting the humanitarian principles of humanity, neutrality, impartiality and independence.

The Council encourages the Working Group to continue its review process, to enhance its ability to follow up the implementation of its recommendations and the development and implementation of action plans to halt the recruitment and use of children, and to consider and react in a timely manner to information on situations of children and armed conflict, in collaboration with the Office of the Special Representative and the United Nations Children’s Fund. It also invites the Working Group to enhance its communication with relevant sanctions committees of the Council, including by forwarding pertinent information.

“The Council invites the Peacebuilding Commission to continue to promote child protection in post-conflict situations under its consideration.

“Given the regional dimension of some conflicts, the Council encourages Member States, United Nations peacekeeping, peacebuilding and political missions and United Nations country teams to establish appropriate strategies and coordination mechanisms for information exchange and cooperation on cross-border child protection concerns, such as the recruitment, release and reintegration of children.

“The Council recognizes the important role of education in armed conflict areas, including as a means to achieve the goal of halting and preventing the recruitment and re-recruitment of children in violation of applicable international law, and calls upon all parties concerned to continue to ensure that all children associated with armed forces and groups systematically have access to disarmament, demobilization and reintegration processes through which they can benefit, inter alia, from education.

“The Council also urges parties to armed conflict to refrain from actions that impede children’s access to education, in particular attacks or threats of attack on school children or teachers as such, the use of schools for military operations, and attacks on schools that are prohibited by applicable international law.

“For the consideration of issues pertaining to the protection of civilians in armed conflict

“Enhancing the protection of civilians in armed conflict is at the core of the work of the Security Council for the maintenance of peace and security. In order to facilitate the Council’s consideration of protection of civilians concerns in a given context, including at the time of the establishment or renewal of peacekeeping mandates, in June 2001 members of the Council suggested that an aide-memoire, listing the relevant issues, be drafted in cooperation with the Council.²⁴⁴ On 15 March 2002, the Council adopted the aide-memoire as a practical guide for its consideration of issues pertaining to the protection of civilians and agreed to review and update its contents periodically.²⁴¹ It was subsequently updated and adopted as an annex to the presidential statement of 15 December 2003.²⁴³

“This is the third edition of the aide-memoire and is based on the previous deliberations of the Council on the protection of civilians, including resolutions 1265 (1999), 1296 (2000), 1674 (2006) and 1738 (2006). It is the result of consultation between the Council and the Office for the Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs, as well as between the Office and concerned United Nations departments and agencies, and other relevant humanitarian organizations.

“The aide-memoire is intended to facilitate the Council’s consideration of issues relevant to the protection of civilians in armed conflict. To this end, it highlights primary objectives for Council action; offers, on the basis of the Council’s past practice, specific issues for consideration in meeting those objectives; and provides, in the addendum, a selection of agreed language from Council resolutions and presidential statements that refer to such concerns.

“Bearing in mind that each peacekeeping mandate has to be elaborated on a case-by-case basis, the aide-memoire is not intended as a blueprint for action. The relevance and practicality of the various measures described has to be considered and adapted to the specific conditions in each situation.

“Most frequently, civilians are caught in circumstances of dire need where a peacekeeping operation has not been established. Such situations may require urgent attention by the Council. The present aide-memoire may, therefore, also provide guidance in circumstances where the Council may wish to consider action outside the scope of a peacekeeping operation.

Asylum and non-refoulement	Recalling also the right to seek and enjoy asylum reflected in article 14 of the Universal Declaration [of Human Rights] and the non-refoulement obligation of States under the Convention relating to the Status of Refugees adopted on 28 July 1951, together with its Protocol adopted on 31 January 1967 ("the Refugees Convention and its Protocol"), and also recalling that the protections afforded by the Refugees Convention and its Protocol shall not extend to any person with respect to whom there are serious reasons for considering that he has been guilty of acts contrary to the purposes and principles of the United Nations. The decisions of [the affected State] in this regard may lead to the involuntary return of tens of thousands of people to an area that is neither safe nor prepared to receive them. The Council stresses the importance of the principle of non-refoulement set out in the 1951 Geneva Convention relating to the Status of Refugees, to which [the affected State] is a party. The Council urges [the affected State] to continue to provide asylum to all refugees regardless of their origin.	Presidential statement S/PRST/1995/49

Condemnation of illicit trade in and supply of small arms	Notes that the excessive accumulation and destabilizing effect of small arms and light weapons pose a considerable impediment to the provision of humanitarian assistance and have a potential to exacerbate and prolong conflicts, endanger [the lives of] civilians and undermine security and the confidence required for a return to peace and stability.	Resolution 1296 (2000), para. 21	See also, for example, resolution 1265 (1999), para. 17.
Call for compliance with international measures on small arms	Urges Member States, in accordance with the Programme of Action to Prevent, Combat and Eradicate the Illicit Trade in Small Arms and Light Weapons in All Its Aspects, to take effective action through, inter alia, conflict resolution and the development and implementation of national legislation, in a manner which is consistent with existing responsibilities of States under relevant international law, to control the illicit trade of small arms to parties in armed conflict that do not respect fully the relevant provisions of applicable international law relating to the rights and protection of children in armed conflict. Calls for effective international action to prevent the illegal flow of small arms into areas of conflict. Recognizes the deleterious impact of the proliferation of arms, in particular small arms, on the security of civilians, including refugees and other vulnerable populations, particularly children, and, in this regard, recalls resolution 1209 (1998) of 19 November 1998, in which, inter alia, the Council stresses the importance of all Member States, and in particular States involved in manufacturing and marketing of weapons, restricting arms transfers which could provoke or prolong armed conflicts or aggravate existing tensions or armed conflicts, and in which it urges international collaboration in combating illegal arms flows. [S]tresses the need to implement the Programme of Action to Prevent, Combat and Eradicate the Illicit Trade in Small Arms and Light Weapons in All Its Aspects and the International Instrument to Enable States to Identify and Trace, in a Timely Manner, Illicit Small Arms and Light Weapons, in order to make real progress in preventing, combating and eradicating the illicit trade in small arms and light weapons. In particular, States are encouraged to strengthen physical security and stockpile management, destroy surplus and obsolete small arms and light weapons, ensure that all small arms and light weapons are marked at the time of manufacture and import, and strengthen export and border controls and control brokering activities.	Resolution 1460 (2003), para. 7 Resolution 1318 (2000), annex, sect. Targeted and graduated measures as a response to the illicit trade in and supply of small arms	[R]eaffirms its intention to consider imposing, through country-specific resolutions, targeted and graduated measures, such as, inter alia, a ban on the export and supply of small arms and light weapons and of other military equipment and on military assistance, against parties to situations of armed conflict that are on the agenda of the Security Council and are in violation of applicable international law relating to the rights and protection of children in armed conflict.	Resolution 1612 (2005), para. 9

	Expresses its intention to consider taking appropriate steps, in accordance with the Charter of the United Nations, to address the linkages between armed conflict and terrorism, the illicit trade in precious minerals, the illicit trafficking in small arms and light weapons, and other criminal activities, which can prolong armed conflict or intensify its impact on civilian populations, including children.	Resolution 1379 (2001), para. 6
International and regional cooperation in preventing the illicit trade in and supply of small arms	[C]alls upon the countries of the region to reinforce their cooperation with the Security Council Committee and the Group of Experts ... in enforcing the arms embargo in [the affected State] and to combat cross-border trafficking in illicit small arms, light weapons and illicit natural resources as well as the movement of combatants, and reiterates its demand that [States in the region] take measures to prevent the use of their respective territories in support of the activities of armed groups present in the region.	Resolution 1653 (2006), para. 16

Resolution 1545 (2004), para. 20
Mine action and explosive remnants of war	Welcomes the continued contribution of [peacekeeping mission] to operational demining..., encourages further assistance in mine action by the United Nations to [the affected State] in support of both the continued development of its national mine action capacity and emergency demining activities... commends donor countries for supporting these efforts through financial and in-kind contributions and encourages further international contributions, takes note of the communication to [the affected State] and [peacekeeping mission] of maps and information on the location of mines, and stresses the necessity to provide [the affected State] and [peacekeeping mission] with any additional maps and records on the location of mines. The [Security] Council expresses deepest worry at the presence in very high numbers of unexploded ordnance in [region of the affected country], including cluster munitions. It deplores the death and injury of dozens of civilians, as well as of several deminers, caused by those munitions since the cessation of hostilities. Decisions

At its 6014th meeting, on 7 November 2008, the Security Council decided to invite the representative of Côte d'Ivoire to participate, without vote, in accordance with rule 37 of its provisional rules of procedure, in the discussion of the item entitled "The situation in Côte d'Ivoire".

At the same meeting, following consultations among members of the Security Council, the President made the following statement on behalf of the Council:²⁷⁰

"The Security Council notes that, as mentioned in the report of the Secretary-General of 13 October 2008,²⁶⁵ the peace process has crossed a critical milestone with the launching of the identification and voter registration operations on 15 September 2008. However, it also notes that the delays that have occurred since the launch of the identification and voter registration processes on 15 September 2008 have proven greater than expected. It notes that the Special Representative of the Secretary-General for Côte d'Ivoire indicated on 27 October 2008 that, if the elections scheduled for 30 November 2008 were delayed, they were likely to be delayed by several months, due mainly to logistical difficulties. The Council expresses its deep concern about a possible third consecutive delay since the signing of the Ouagadougou Political Agreement,²⁶⁸ which could put the entire Ivorian peace process at risk.

"The Council commends the Facilitator for convening a meeting of the Permanent Consultative Framework of the Ouagadougou Political Agreement on 10 November 2008, in order for the Ivorian political actors to address all the main difficulties of the electoral process, and, in particular, with a view to finding an agreement on the new electoral time frame. It urges all the Ivorian political actors to cooperate fully with the Facilitator, with the support of the Special Representative of the Secretary-General, and to demonstrate their political determination to fulfil the commitments made in the Ouagadougou Political Agreement and within the framework of its follow-up mechanisms.

"The Council further urges, to this end, the President of the Independent Electoral Commission, which is in charge of the organization of the elections, to share publicly this new timeline, including, in particular, the full roll-out of the identification process and certain other stages, such as the publication of the provisional and final versions of the electoral list, the production and distribution of identity and voter cards and the date of the presidential elections. It emphasizes that all political actors must pay particular attention to the accumulating logistical delay.

"The Council urges the Ivorian parties to take immediately and as a priority the concrete steps necessary to complete the identification and voter registration operations in a credible and transparent manner before the end of January 2009. It expresses its determination to bring its full support to a credible electoral process in Côte d'Ivoire, on the understanding that the presidential elections will be organized before the end of spring 2009. The Council recalls that all political parties agreed to abide by the Code of Good Conduct for Elections that they signed under the auspices of the Secretary-General on 24 April 2008.

"The Council recalls that, pursuant to resolutions 1572 (2004) and 1842 (2008), any threat to the electoral process in Côte d'Ivoire shall constitute a threat to the peace and national reconciliation process and it reaffirms its determination to impose targeted measures against any person designated by its sanctions committee concerning Côte d'Ivoire as being responsible for these threats. The Council expresses its willingness to review the sanctions regime at the latest three months after the presidential elections.

“The Council requests the Secretary-General to keep it informed of the evolution of the situation. It reaffirms its full support for the efforts of the Special Representative of the Secretary-General and his certification mandate, including the explicit certification of the electoral list. It expresses its intention to take the progress of the electoral process fully into consideration when it reviews the mandate of the United Nations Operation in Côte d’Ivoire and the French forces supporting it, before 31 January 2009.”

At its 6071st meeting, on 21 January 2009, the Council decided to invite the representative of Côte d’Ivoire to participate, without vote, in accordance with rule 37 of its provisional rules of procedure, in the discussion of the item entitled:

“The situation in Côte d’Ivoire

“Nineteenth progress report of the Secretary-General on the United Nations Operation in Côte d’Ivoire (S/2009/21)”.

At the same meeting, in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, the Council also decided to extend an invitation, under rule 39 of its provisional rules of procedure, to Mr. Choi Young-Jin, Special Representative of the Secretary-General for Côte d’Ivoire and Head of the United Nations Operation in Côte d’Ivoire.

At its 6076th meeting, on 27 January 2009, the Council decided to invite the representative of Côte d’Ivoire to participate, without vote, in accordance with rule 37 of its provisional rules of procedure, in the discussion of the item entitled:

“The situation in Côte d’Ivoire

Stressing again the importance of the international consultative organ participating in the meetings of the Evaluation and Monitoring Committee, as an observer,

Recalling its resolution 1612 (2005) of 26 July 2005 on children and armed conflict and the subsequent conclusions of the Security Council Working Group on Children and Armed Conflict pertaining to parties to the armed conflict in Côte d'Ivoire,²⁷² and expressing its deep concern that children continue to suffer from various forms of violence,

Emphasizing the importance of the continuing support of the United Nations system and the international community for strengthening the capacity of the Government of Côte d'Ivoire and of the electoral bodies to organize the electoral process,

“The Security Council recalls the statement by its President of 20 May 2008,³⁰¹ and emphasizes the critical importance of post-conflict peacebuilding as the foundation for building sustainable peace and development in the aftermath of conflict.

“The Council welcomes the report of the Secretary-General on peacebuilding in the immediate aftermath of conflict³⁰² as an important contribution towards a more effective and coherent international response to post-conflict peacebuilding. The Council also welcomes the strong commitment of the Secretary-General, expressed in the report, to improve the peacebuilding efforts of the United Nations, and urges him to pursue these objectives.

“The Council emphasizes the importance of national ownership and the need for national authorities to take responsibility as soon as possible for re-establishing the institutions of government, restoring the rule of law, revitalizing the economy, reforming the security sector, providing basic services and other key peacebuilding needs. The Council underscores the vital role of the United Nations in assisting national authorities to develop an early strategy, in close consultation with international partners, to address these priorities, and encourages international partners to align their financial, technical and political support behind this strategy.

“The Council stresses the need, in countries emerging from conflict, to draw upon and develop existing national capacities at the earliest possible stage, and the importance of rapidly deployable civilian expertise to help to achieve this, including, where appropriate, relevant expertise from the region. The Council welcomes, in this regard, the recommendation of the Secretary-General for a review to be undertaken to analyse how the United Nations and the international community can help to broaden and deepen the pool of civilian experts, giving particular attention to mobilizing capacities from developing countries and especially women.

“The Council recognizes that post-conflict situations require from the outset experienced and skilled leadership on the ground with effective support teams, and requests the United Nations to increase its efforts in this regard. The Council welcomes the efforts of the Secretary-General to enhance the authority and accountability of senior United Nations representatives in carrying out their duties and responsibilities.

“The Council emphasizes the need for the United Nations system to strengthen strategic partnerships with the World Bank and other international financial institutions, and to complete by the end of 2009 the clarification of roles and responsibilities for key peacebuilding needs and to keep these under regular review, so that the appropriate expertise is generated to achieve a timely and predictable response.

“The Council recalls its resolution 1645 (2005) and recognizes the important role of the Peacebuilding Commission in promoting and supporting an integrated and coherent approach to peacebuilding, welcomes the progress it has achieved, calls upon it to further enhance its advisory role and support for countries on its agenda and looks forward to the recommendations of the 2010 review of the Commission's founding resolutions on how its role can continue to be enhanced.

"The Council recognizes the critical importance of rapid, flexible and predictable funding for post-conflict peacebuilding. The Council urges Member States to help to achieve this, building on the recommendations contained in the report of the Secretary-General and, in particular, increasing the impact of the Peacebuilding Fund, improving donor practices to make funding faster and more flexible and making use of in-country multi-donor trust funds, which are designed to accommodate the funding requirements of donors.

"The Council reaffirms that ending impunity is essential if a society recovering from conflict is to come to terms with past abuses committed against civilians affected by armed conflict and to prevent such abuses in the future. The Council notes that justice and reconciliation mechanisms can promote not only individual responsibility for serious crimes, but also peace, truth, reconciliation and the rights of victims.

"The Council, in accordance with its resolutions 1325 (2000) and 1820 (2008), underlines the key role that women and young persons can play in re-establishing the fabric of society and stresses the need for their involvement in the development and implementation of post-conflict strategies in order to take account of their perspectives and needs.

"The Council reaffirms the role of regional and subregional organizations in the prevention, management and resolution of conflicts in accordance with Chapter VIII of the Charter of the United Nations, and the need to strengthen their capacity in post-conflict peacebuilding.

"The Council recognizes the importance of launching peacebuilding assistance at the earliest possible stage. The Council affirms the importance of early consideration of peacebuilding in its own deliberations and of ensuring coherence between peacemaking, peacekeeping, peacebuilding and development to achieve an early and effective response to post-conflict situations. The Council will strive to apply this integrated approach and requests the Secretary-General to intensify his efforts in this regard.

"The Council invites the Secretary-General to report within twelve months to the Council and the General Assembly on progress achieved in fulfilling his agenda for action to improve the peacebuilding efforts of the United Nations, taking into consideration the views of the Peacebuilding Commission."

Annex

Letter dated 7 December 2008 from Mr. Nuri Kamel al-Maliki, Prime Minister of Iraq, to the President of the Security Council

Further to our letter dated 31 December 2007 addressed to you, in which we indicated that the extension of the mandate of the Multinational Forces in Iraq (MNF-I) would be for one final time, with appreciation for the important role and efforts of those forces in assisting Iraq to achieve security and stability, and in view of the fact that Iraq has signed the Agreement between the United States of America and the Republic of Iraq on the Withdrawal of United States Forces from Iraq and the Organization of Their Activities during Their Temporary Presence in Iraq, we look forward to the ending of the mandate of MNF-I on 31 December 2008. On behalf of the Government and people of Iraq, I express my gratitude to the Governments of the States that have contributed to those forces and to the forces themselves for the services rendered during their presence in the territory, waters and airspace of Iraq.

Iraq has inherited debts and claims from the previous regime and has made great progress in settling them. However, much remains to be done, and our efforts to settle those claims and debts will require some time. Temporary support from the international community will continue to be required during the coming phase. Therefore, we hope that the international community will continue current protections and arrangements for petroleum, petroleum products and natural gas from Iraq and the proceeds thereof until such time as the Government of Iraq is able to take the measures necessary to settle those debts and claims inherited from the previous regime. Oil revenues constitute 95 per cent of Government resources, and these claims have an impact on reconstruction and the economic transformations taking place in Iraq, and consequently pose a grave threat to Iraq's stability and security and by extension to international peace and security.

The Government of Iraq recognizes the importance of the provisions of paragraph 22 of Security Council resolution 1483 (2003) ensuring that Iraq's petroleum and natural gas resources and proceeds and obligations arising from sales thereof, as well as funds deposited in the Development Fund for Iraq, shall be used for reconstruction projects and other purposes benefiting the people of Iraq. Therefore, bearing in mind the exception provided for in paragraph 27 of Security Council resolution 1546 (2004), Iraq requests that the Security Council continue to implement the provisions of paragraph 22 of Security Council resolution 1483 (2003) until 31 December 2009, including those relating to funds or other financial assets or economic resources mentioned in paragraph 23 of that resolution.

The Government of Iraq believes that the provisions of Security Council resolution 1546 (2004) relating to the deposit of proceeds into the Development Fund for Iraq will help to ensure that proceeds from Iraq's natural resources will be used for the benefit of the Iraqi people, as will the role played by the International Advisory and Monitoring Board. The Government of Iraq recognizes that the Development Fund for Iraq plays an important role in helping Iraq to reassure donors and creditors that Iraq is administering its resources and debts in a responsible manner in the service of the Iraqi people. It should be noted that Iraq is attempting, after years of isolation under the previous regime, to form a new partnership with the international community with a view to integrating its economy into those of the region and the world through the International Compact with Iraq, and its efforts were endorsed by more than 90 countries and international organizations in the Stockholm Declaration of 29 May 2008. In view of this, Iraq requests the Security Council to extend the mandates of the Development Fund for Iraq and the International Advisory and Monitoring Board for a period of 12 months, with a review of the extension to be conducted before 15 June 2009 at the request of the Government of Iraq.

The Government of Iraq affirms that it honours its obligations under Security Council resolutions and follows policies of peaceful coexistence with its neighbours conducive to the security and stability of the region. The Government of Iraq looks forward to recognition by the Security Council that major positive developments have taken place in Iraq, that the situation in Iraq is fundamentally different from that prevailing at the time of the adoption of Security Council resolution 661 (1990), and that the time has come for Iraq to regain its legal and international status prevailing prior to the adoption by the Security Council of that resolution and the subsequent sanctions imposed on it under Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations.

The Government of Iraq requests that the Security Council include this letter as an annex to the resolution currently being drafted on Iraq, and should be grateful if the President of the Security Council would circulate it to the members of the Security Council as soon as possible.

“The Security Council notes with satisfaction continued progress in the overall peace and security situation in West Africa. The Council especially welcomes positive developments in the areas of post-conflict recovery and peacebuilding, as well as improvements in governance and the rule of law.

“The Council, however, notes with deep concern the resurgence of unconstitutional changes of government and undemocratic seizures of power and, recalling the statement by its President of 5 May 2009,³¹⁹ stresses again the importance of expeditiously restoring constitutional order, including through open and transparent elections.

“The Council reiterates its primary responsibility for the maintenance of international peace and security and recalls that cooperation with regional and subregional organizations, consistent with Chapter VIII of the Charter of the United Nations, can improve collective security.

³¹⁸ S/PRST/2009/20.

³¹⁹ S/PRST/2009/11.

“The Council welcomes the continuing important efforts of the Economic Community of West African States, in synergy with the African Union, the United Nations and the wider international community, consistent with Council resolutions and decisions, to settle conflicts and promote human rights, democracy, the rule of law and constitutional order in West Africa.

“The Council also expresses its concern over the fact that the progress achieved remains fragile. The Council is concerned, in particular, by growing or emerging threats to security in West Africa, notably terrorist activities in the Sahel band, maritime insecurity in the Gulf of Guinea and illicit drug trafficking, which pose a threat to regional stability with possible impact on international security.

“The Council reaffirms the importance of addressing illicit drug trafficking and criminal activities by an approach of shared responsibility, and encourages the efforts by West African States to combat illicit drug trafficking and organized crime, especially through the Economic Community of West African States regional action plan on illicit drug trafficking and organized crime. It also commends national and international partners, such as the European Union, for their support to the Economic Community of West African States in the fight against drug trafficking in West Africa.

“The Council stresses the importance of taking into account a comprehensive strategy of conflict resolution and crisis prevention while addressing cross-border issues and regional challenges. The Council supports the regional efforts to curb the proliferation of small arms and light weapons and to achieve security sector reform.

“The Council expresses its concern at the impact of the global economic crisis on West African economies, since the region is already confronted with development challenges such as rising food insecurity, climate change adaptation and mitigation, and youth unemployment. The Council encourages the continued engagement of financial institutions and development partners to mitigate the adverse effects of the decline in economic growth and other destabilizing factors in West Africa.

“The Council recognizes and commends the important role played by the Special Representative of the Secretary-General for West Africa and the United Nations Office for West Africa in promoting and strengthening a regional and integrated approach to cross-border issues, as well as helping to consolidate peace and security, democracy and the rule of law, and requests the Secretary-General, through his Special Representative, to continue to develop further the active cooperation existing between the United Nations and regional and subregional organizations.”

³⁶⁶ The letter, which was issued as a Security Council document under the symbol S/2009/243, has been reproduced on page 34 of the present volume. The mission took place from 14 to 21 May 2009 (see S/2009/303).

At its 6065th meeting, on 14 January 2009, the Council decided to invite the representatives of Djibouti and Eritrea to participate, without vote, in accordance with rule 37 of its provisional rules of procedure, in the discussion of the item entitled:

“Peace and security in Africa

“Letter dated 11 September 2008 from the Secretary-General addressed to the President of the Security Council (S/2008/602)”.

Resolution 1862 (2009)
of 14 January 2009

The Security Council,

Affirming its strong commitment to the sovereignty, independence, territorial integrity and unity of both Djibouti and Eritrea, and recalling the importance of the principles of good-neighbourliness, non-interference and regional cooperation,

Recalling that in the statement by its President of 12 June 2008,³⁶⁷ it condemned Eritrea’s military action against Djibouti in Ras Doumeira and Doumeira Island and called upon the two parties to show maximum restraint and withdraw forces to the status quo ante,

Taking note of the letter dated 11 September 2008 from the Secretary-General to the President of the Security Council,³⁶⁸ in which he transmitted the report of the fact-finding mission that he sent following the meeting of the Council held on 24 June 2008,³⁶⁹

Expressing its deep concern that, as mentioned in the report of the fact-finding mission referred to above, Eritrea has not withdrawn its forces to the status quo ante, as called for by the Council in the statement by its President of 12 June 2008,

Reiterating its serious concern at the absence of dialogue between the two parties and at the refusal of Eritrea so far to engage in dialogue, to accept bilateral contacts, mediation or facilitation efforts by subregional or regional organizations or to respond positively to the efforts of the Secretary-General,

Noting that Djibouti has withdrawn its forces to the status quo ante and has cooperated fully with the fact-finding mission mentioned above, as well as with other missions sent by subregional and regional organizations,

Taking note of the first visit to Asmara, since the conflict of June 2008, of the Chairperson of the African Union Commission in October 2008,

Expressing its deep concern about the continuing tense border dispute between Djibouti and Eritrea and over the possible impact of the grave and unstable security situation in the Doumeira area on subregional stability and security after the serious incidents of 10 June 2008, which led to dozens of dead and wounded,

1. Urges Djibouti and Eritrea to resolve their border dispute peacefully, as a matter of priority and in a manner consistent with international law, and emphasizes that it is the primary responsibility of the parties to set up the appropriate diplomatic and legal framework to this end;

2. Reiterates its appreciation for the efforts of the Secretary-General, the African Union and the League of Arab States to engage both parties, encourages them to strengthen their efforts in this regard, and also encourages regional and subregional organizations as well as Member States that are in a position to do so to provide their assistance to this end;

³⁶⁸ S/2008/602.

³⁶⁹ See S/PV.5924.

3. Welcomes the offer of good offices made by the Secretary-General, deeply regrets that Eritrea has continuously refused to grant visas to the members of the fact-finding mission mentioned above or to receive any envoy of the Secretary-General, and welcomes the continued readiness of the Secretary-General to send a fact-finding mission or an envoy to Eritrea;

4. Also welcomes the fact that Djibouti has withdrawn its forces to the status quo ante, as called for by the Security Council in the statement by its President of 12 June 2008³⁶⁷ and as established by the fact-finding mission, and condemns the refusal of Eritrea to do so;

5. Demands that Eritrea:

(i) Withdraw its forces and all their equipment to the positions of the status quo ante, and ensure that no military presence or activity is being pursued in the area where the conflict occurred in Ras Doumeira and Doumeira Island in June 2008;

(ii) Acknowledge its border dispute with Djibouti in Ras Doumeira and Doumeira Island, engage actively in dialogue to defuse the tension and engage also in diplomatic efforts leading to a mutually acceptable settlement of the border issue;

(iii) Abide by its international obligations as a Member of the United Nations, respect the principles mentioned in Article 2, paragraphs 3, 4 and 5, and Article 33 of the Charter of the United Nations, and cooperate fully with the Secretary-General, in particular through his proposal of good offices mentioned in paragraph 3 above;

6. Also demands that Eritrea comply immediately with paragraph 5 above and, in any case, no later than five weeks after the adoption of the present resolution;

7. Requests the Secretary-General to provide to the Council a report on the evolution of the situation, on compliance by both parties with their obligations, and on his contacts with both parties and, as appropriate, with the African Union and other relevant regional organizations, no later than six weeks after the adoption of the present resolution;

8. Decides to review the situation six weeks from the adoption of the present resolution, on the basis of the report mentioned in paragraph 7 above, with a view to taking, as appropriate, a further decision;

9. Decides also to remain actively seized of the matter.

Adopted unanimously at the 6065th meeting.

³⁷⁶ See S/2002/207.

On 31 December 2008, the President of the Security Council issued the following note:³⁷⁷

“1. The present note by the President of the Security Council concerning the summary statement of matters of which the Security Council is seized (seizure statement) consolidates and revises the provisions of paragraph 49 of the annex to the note by the President dated 19 July 2006³⁷⁸ and paragraphs 5 to 7 of the note by the President dated 19 December 2007.³⁷⁹

“2. Rule 11 of the provisional rules of procedure of the Security Council provides that the Secretary-General shall communicate each week to the representatives on the Council a summary statement of matters of which the Council is seized and of the stage reached in their consideration.

“3. The practice of including an agenda item on the seizure statement once it has been adopted at a formal meeting of the Security Council will remain the same. In this connection, the members of the Council recall paragraph 2 of the annex to the note by the President of the Security Council dated 19 July 2006, which states the desirability, whenever possible, of using descriptive formulations of agenda items at the time of their initial adoption and that, when such a descriptive formulation exists, consideration may be given to subsuming earlier agenda items on the same subject under the descriptive formulation.

“4. At the end of each year, the Security Council will review the seizure statement in order to determine if the Council has concluded its consideration of any of the listed items, in particular those items that were considered for the first time that year, and whether, consequently, such items should be deleted from the seizure statement. Further, except as herein provided, any item which has not been considered by the Council during the preceding three calendar years will also be deleted.

“5. The preliminary annual summary statement issued in January of each year by the Secretary-General on matters of which the Security Council is seized will identify the items to be deleted from the list. The first seizure statement issued in March of each year will reflect the deletion of these items, unless a State Member of the United Nations notifies the President of the Security Council by the end of February of that year that it requests that an item remain on the seizure statement, in which case such item will remain on the seizure statement for one year, unless the Council decides otherwise.

“6. The deletion of an item does not imply that such an item cannot be taken up by the Security Council as and when it deems necessary in the future.

“7. The seizure statement will be presented in the format of two sections, as follows: one section comprising items which have been considered by the Security Council at a meeting during the preceding three-year period and another section comprising items which have not been considered at a meeting during the preceding three-year period but which the Council has decided to retain at the request of a Member State.

“8. The Security Council reconfirms that the first seizure statement of each month will contain a full, updated list of items of which the Council is seized. For intervening weeks, a weekly addendum to the summary statement will be issued listing only those items on which further action has been taken by the Council during the previous week or indicating that there has been no change during that period.

“9. The Security Council reconfirms that references given for each item listed in the seizure statement will be the dates when the item was first taken up by the Council at a formal meeting and the most recent formal meeting of the Council held on that item.”
