NOTE

Symbols of United Nations documents are composed of capital letters combined with figures. Mention of such a symbol indicates a reference to a United Nations document.

Documents of the Security Council (symbol S/ . . .) are normally published in quarterly Supplements of the Official Records of the Security Council. The date of the document indicates the supplement in which it appears or in which information about it is given.

The resolutions of the Security Council, numbered in accordance with a system adopted in 1964, are published in yearly volumes of Resolutions and Decisions of the Security Council. The new system, which has been applied retroactively to resolutions adopted before 1 January 1965, became fully operative on that date.

1837th MEETING

Held in New York on Monday, 18 August 1975, at 10.30 a.m.

President: Mr. Shizuo SAITO (Japan).

Present: The representatives of the following States: Byelorussian Soviet Socialist Republic, China, Costa Rica, France, Guyana, Iraq, Italy, Japan, Mauritania, Sweden, Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, United Republic of Cameroon, United Republic of Tanzania and United States of America.

Provisional agenda (S/Agenda/1837/Rev.1)

1. Adoption of the agenda.
2. Admission of new Members:
Application of the Republic of Cape Verde for admission to membership in the United Nations: note by the Secretary-General (S/11800)

Application of the Democratic Republic of Sao Tome and Principe for admission to membership in the United Nations: note by the Secretary-General (S/11804)

Application of the People's Republic of Mozambique for admission to membership in the United Nations: note by the Secretary-General (S/11805).

The meeting was called to order at 11 a.m.

Adoption of the agenda

1. The PRESIDENT: The provisional agenda for this morning's meeting is before the Council in document S/Agenda/1837/Rev.1. I should like to point out that the agenda was revised on Saturday following the receipt of the application now listed as its item 4. It appeared to me that such a procedure would correspond to the wishes expressed in the course of the informal consultations among members of the Council that took place last Friday. Accordingly, if I hear no objection I shall consider the agenda adopted.

The agenda was adopted.

Admission of new Members:

Application of the Republic of Cape Verde for admission to membership in the United Nations: note by the Secretary-General (S/11800)

Application of the Democratic Republic of Sao Tome and Principe for admission to membership in the United Nations: note by the Secretary-General (S/11804)

Application of the People's Republic of Mozambique for admission to membership in the United Nations: note by the Secretary-General (S/11805)

2. The PRESIDENT: In accordance with rule 59 of the provisional rules of procedure, the Secretary-General circulated on 13 August the application of the Republic of Cape Verde for admission to membership in the United Nations. This application is contained in document S/11800.

3. The following day, that is, on 14 August, the Secretary-General similarly circulated, in document S/11804, the application of the Democratic Republic of Sao Tome and Principe for admission to membership in the United Nations.

4. Lastly, the application of the People's Republic of Mozambique was received on Saturday, 16 August and is circulated in document S/11805.

5. In accordance with provisions of rule 59, applications shall be referred by the President of the Security Council to its Committee on the Admission of New Members unless the Security Council decides otherwise. Consequently, unless I hear a proposal to the contrary, I shall request the Committee to study these three applications and report thereon to the Council. It is of course understood that the time-limit set out in rule 59 for the submission of the Committee's report is waived ipso facto.

6. If I hear no objection, I shall take it that the Council agrees with the procedure I have just outlined.

It was so decided.

7. The PRESIDENT: In accordance with the arrangements agreed upon during the course of our prior consultations, I would request the Committee on the Admission of New Members to meet 15 minutes from now and to endeavour to prepare its report promptly in order that the Security Council may take it up this afternoon.

8. The Security Council will meet at 3 p.m. in order to take up the Committee's report on these three applications for membership.

The meeting rose at 11.10 a.m.
