The Permanent Mission of Germany to the United Nations presents its compliments to the Division for Ocean Affairs and the Law of the Sea and would be grateful if the present note verbale and its annex on financial support for the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea by the Federal Republic of Germany be circulated as a document of the Meeting of States Parties.

Annex to the note verbale dated 4 April 2012 from the Permanent Mission of Germany to the United Nations addressed to the Secretariat

Germany

Financial support for the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea by the Federal Republic of Germany

Germany is pleased to present the States parties with some information regarding its financial support for the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea based upon the headquarters agreement and its supplementary agreement. The Federal Ministry of Justice departmental budget for the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea (budget years 1997-2011) can be seen below:

Budget year	Appropriation for the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea (euros) (title group 02)
1997	3 773 181.71
1998	11 859 416.10
1999	21 133 177.32
2000	14 742 398.65
2001	444 850.19
2002	274 344.49
2003	139 879.83
2004	84 697.61
2005	80 203.87
2006	133 000.00
2007	274 043.86
2008	62 931.71
2009	88 647.55
2010	405 941.23
2011	1 675 477.16

The figures above show that since 1997, Germany has allocated a total sum of 55,172,191.28 euros to the Federal Ministry of Justice departmental budget for the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea. The figures running into the tens of millions between 1998 and 2000 result from the construction of the building for the Tribunal. The figures do not include the assessed contributions to the regular budget of the Tribunal, which are separate.
