Report of the Global Evaluation Advisory Committee on the external assessments of the evaluation function of the United Nations Entity for Gender Equality and the Empowerment of Women

The Executive Board

1. Takes note of the report of the Global Evaluation Advisory Committee on the external assessments of the evaluation function of the United Nations Entity for Gender Equality and the Empowerment of Women (UN-Women);
2. Commends UN-Women for the establishment of a strong enabling environment for evaluation, the strong performance of the independent Evaluation Office, based on the standards of independence, credibility and utility, the leadership of UN-Women in promoting gender equality and responsive evaluation through coordination efforts within the United Nations system and through partnerships, including at the country level, and for fostering innovative partnerships for the development of national evaluation capacity;
3. Emphasizes that programme countries should have greater ownership and leadership in the evaluation of all forms of assistance, welcomes the role of UN-Women in reinforcing the development of national evaluation capacity, and reiterates its request to UN-Women to continue its efforts in this regard;
4. Takes note of recommendation number 4, in paragraph 18 (a) of the report, to incorporate a separate budget line for evaluation activities to be considered by the Executive Board in the integrated budget for 2016-2017, with the aim of achieving the target of allocating 3 per cent of the programme budget thereto;
5. Requests UN-Women to protect the strong performance of the independent Evaluation Office and to continue to strengthen the utility, credibility and independence of evaluation, in addition to continuing to strengthen innovation and country-based partnerships for decentralized evaluations;
6. Also requests UN-Women to continue to demonstrate the importance of evaluation and to enhance the use of evaluation recommendations in its work;
7. Further requests UN-Women to continue to strengthen its evaluation capacities and to allocate adequate human and financial resources to the independent Evaluation Office and the overall evaluation function;
8. Requests UN-Women to continue to promote reporting against the evaluation indicator of the United Nations System-wide Action Plan on Gender Equality and the Empowerment of Women and to conduct analysis of the reports produced;
9. Also requests UN-Women to carry out an internal review of the current evaluation policy, including with regard to the independence of the evaluation function, and to report thereon within the framework of the annual report on the evaluation function, with the review to be considered by the Executive Board at its annual session of 2016.

2015/5

Structured dialogue on financing

The Executive Board

1. Takes note of the strategic brief on resource mobilization<sup>5</sup> as an element of the Entity's ongoing structured dialogue on the financing of its strategic plan, 2014-2017, and welcomes the progress made by UN-Women in that regard;

2. Notes with concern the ongoing funding gap in core resources for the 2015 budget, and encourages all countries in a position to do so to increase their voluntary contributions to UN-Women, especially to its regular resources, to ensure the full and effective implementation of the strategic plan, 2014-2017, and in order for the Entity to assist countries in achieving the internationally agreed development goals, to support the implementation of country programmes to advance national goals relating to the mainstreaming of a gender perspective and to support the full, effective and accelerated implementation of the Beijing Declaration and Platform for Action<sup>6</sup> and its review outcomes;

3. Recognizes the critical role of UN-Women in United Nations system coordination and the need for other organizations and entities of the United Nations system to support gender equality and the empowerment of women and girls, including through the system-wide action plan;

4. Requests UN-Women in the context of the structured dialogue on financing:

(a) To engage in informal dialogue with Member States, including in specially arranged interactive discussions on the margins of its annual session of each year, to ensure ongoing discussion, exchange of information and analysis of funding issues and options, taking into consideration the midterm review of the strategic plan, 2014-2017, the Economic and Social Council dialogue on the longer-term positioning of the United Nations development system and the reports of the Secretary-General on the implementation of General Assembly resolution 67/226 on the quadrennial comprehensive policy review of operational activities for development of the United Nations system, recalling the funding analysis and prior projections;

(b) To submit, in the context of the annual reporting on funding and resource mobilization, an analysis of the predictability, flexibility and alignment of resources provided for the implementation of the approved strategic plan, including funding gaps and their implications according to the integrated results and resources framework, and in that context to provide information on efforts to expand the donor base, including reporting on non-Member State donors and on the transaction costs of those efforts;

(c) To continue to respond to the evolving development opportunities to expand its partnerships with the private sector, civil society organizations, philanthropic organizations, the general public, multilateral organizations, international financial institutions and global public-private partnerships in a

2015/6

Integrated budget for the biennium 2016-2017

The Executive Board

1. Welcomes the integrated budget for the United Nations Entity for Gender Equality and the Empowerment of Women for the biennium 2016-2017,<sup>7</sup> which presents a single integrated budget that includes all budgetary categories, to complement the strategic plan, 2014-2017;

2. Takes note of the details included in the integrated budget estimates, the related report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions<sup>8</sup> and the related response of UN-Women to the report of the Committee;

3. Approves gross resources in the amount of $196.4 million for the institutional budget, to support organizational effectiveness and efficiency, and notes that those estimates include an amount of $27 million in cost recovery from other resources;

4. Notes that UN-Women has budgeted 75 per cent of the cost recovery projected in the budget for the biennium 2016-2017, recalls the principle of full cost recovery, and also recalls its decision 2013/2 of 27 June 2013, in which it requested UN-Women, in the context of the midterm reviews of its integrated budgets, in collaboration with the United Nations Development Programme, the United Nations Population Fund and the United Nations Children's Fund, to recommend adjustments to the approved cost-recovery rates, as required, to be presented to the Executive Board at its annual session of 2016;

5. Also notes the planned reduction of the ratio of the management costs of UN-Women, in line with the request made by the Executive Board in its decision 2013/6 of 18 September 2013, and in that regard requests UN-Women to actively engage in joint efforts in the United Nations development system to establish common services, including making full use of existing long-term agreements;

6. Further notes that, in the event that actual cost recovery is higher than the estimates included in the budget proposal, the additional amount may be used for management activities to allow more regular resources to be used for programme activities, requests the Under-Secretary-General/Executive Director to report to the Executive Board on its utilization in the context of the next budget proposal, and asks UN-Women to further strive for an overall reduction of the ratio of its management costs;
