Introduction

During the reporting period, the pace of the activities of the Security Council was intense, and the volume and scope of issues before it were increasing. The Council held 224 formal meetings, of which 184 were public, in addition to 22 meetings with troop-contributing countries. The Council also held consultations of the whole 192 times. In this period, the Council adopted 71 resolutions and 52 presidential statements and issued 47 statements to the press.

African issues continued to be at the forefront of the Council's agenda. The Council followed closely the developments in conflict situations in Africa, such as those in the Democratic Republic of the Congo, Côte d'Ivoire and Somalia. A mission to Africa was conducted by the Council from 14 to 21 June 2007. The Council also considered regularly post-conflict situations such as those in Burundi, Sierra Leone, the Central African Republic and Guinea-Bissau.

The Sudan, especially the Darfur issue, featured prominently on the agenda and attracted high attention from the international community. The Council maintained close consultations and engagement with the United Nations Secretariat, the African Union and the Government of the Sudan. Six resolutions were adopted, including resolution 1769 (2007) of 31 July 2007, by which the Council authorized the establishment, for an initial period of 12 months, of the African Union-United Nations Hybrid Operation in Darfur. The members of the Council welcomed the resolution and committed themselves to continuing their cooperation with the African Union and the Government of the Sudan, in order to achieve the timely deployment of the hybrid operation and solve the Darfur issue properly.

The Council continued to monitor the situation in the Middle East, including the Palestinian question, on a regular basis, including through its monthly briefings. The question of Lebanon also dominated the attention of the Council. By its resolution 1701 (2006) of 11 August 2006, the Council called for a full cessation of hostilities and emphasized the need to address urgently the causes that had given rise to the crisis. The Council followed closely the implementation of resolution 1701 (2006) and other issues concerning Lebanon, including the implementation of resolution 1559 (2004), the International Independent Investigation Commission and the Special Tribunal for Lebanon.

The Kosovo issue remained one of the high priorities on the agenda, especially as concerned the future status process. The Council considered regularly the work of the United Nations Interim Administration Mission in Kosovo, discussed the proposals for Kosovo's status settlement made by the Special Envoy of the Secretary-General, and also dispatched its mission on the Kosovo issue. However, after intense consultations on several versions of a draft resolution on the status issue, the Council was not able to reach an agreement on the draft.

General issues also constituted a large portion of the Council's work, including several thematic issues in the humanitarian and peacebuilding areas, and on cooperation between the United Nations and relevant regional organizations. Counter-terrorism and non-proliferation remained top priorities for the Council, which took a firm stand against terrorist activities and kept non-proliferation issues under close consideration. The Council also stepped up its efforts to further improve its working methods, including in the area of sanctions and with regard to documentation and other procedural questions. Meanwhile, the Council's subsidiary bodies remained active and their activities constituted an important and integral part of the Council's work.

On 9 October 2006, the Council adopted resolution 1715 (2006), by which it recommended to the General Assembly that Ban Ki-moon be appointed Secretary-General of the United Nations for a five-year term of office. On 22 December 2006, the Council adopted resolution 1733 (2006) in tribute to the outgoing Secretary-General, Kofi Annan.

In a statement delivered afterwards to the press, the Council members encouraged the authorities of the Central African Republic to organize a dialogue with all political forces and civil society in the country in order to consolidate peace and stability, and to intensify their efforts, with the help of their international partners, to fight poverty and promote sustainable economic development.

Côte d'Ivoire

On 7 August 2006, the Council adopted a presidential statement (S/PRST/2006/37) on Côte d'Ivoire. The Council affirmed its commitment to the Ivorian peace process and the road map established by the International Working Group. The Council welcomed the positive development of the peace process, including the launch of mobile courts throughout Côte d'Ivoire.

On 12 September, the Assistant Secretary-General for Peacekeeping Operations, Hédi Annabi, briefed the Council on the latest developments in Côte d'Ivoire. On 14 September, the Council unanimously adopted resolution 1708 (2006), by which the mandate of the Group of Experts monitoring the implementation of sanctions related to Côte d'Ivoire was extended until 15 December 2006.

On 25 October, at a private meeting, the Council heard a briefing by the Commissioner for Peace and Security of the African Union, Said Djinnit, on the decision taken by the African Union Peace and Security Council at its meeting in Addis Ababa on 17 October regarding the peace process in Côte d'Ivoire. The Minister for Foreign Affairs of Côte d'Ivoire, Youssouf Bakayoko, provided a statement endorsing the African Union's decision. In the consultations that followed, the Special Representative of the Secretary-General, Pierre Schori, presented the latest report of the Secretary-General on the United Nations Operation in Côte d'Ivoire (UNOCI) (S/2006/821). The High Representative for the elections, Gérard Stoudman, also briefed the Council and the Secretary-General offered his observations.

On 1 November, the Council unanimously adopted resolution 1721 (2006), by which it endorsed the decision of the African Union and stated that the provisions of the resolution were aimed at implementing fully the peace process in Côte d'Ivoire and at organizing free, open, fair and transparent elections in that country by 31 October 2007. The Council endorsed the decision of the African Union that President Laurent Gbagbo should remain Head of State as from 1 November 2006 for a new transition period not exceeding 12 months. The Council also stressed that the Prime Minister should have a mandate to implement all the provisions of the road map drawn up by the International Working Group and of the agreements concluded between the Ivorian parties.

On 12 December, during consultations of the whole, the Special Representative presented the eleventh report of the Secretary-General on UNOCI (S/2006/939). The Chairman of the Committee established pursuant to resolution 1572 (2004) concerning Côte d'Ivoire briefed the Council on the report of the Group of Experts on Côte d'Ivoire (S/2006/964).

At a formal meeting on 21 December, the President of the Council read out a statement on behalf of the Council (S/PRST/2006/58). The Council reiterated its support for the International Working Group, shared its concern at delays in the implementation of resolution 1721 (2006) and requested the Group to provide, by 1 February 2007, a detailed, updated timeline for the implementation of the peace process.

On 10 January 2007, the Council unanimously adopted resolution 1739 (2007), extending the mandate of UNOCI and the French forces supporting it until 30 June 2007.

On 9 February, in consultations of the whole, the Special Representative briefed the Council on developments in the peace process. He stressed that very little progress had been made in implementing resolution 1721 (2006) and that direct dialogue between President Gbagbo and the Secretary-General of the Forces nouvelles, Guillaume Soro, facilitated by the Economic Community of West African States (ECOWAS) could open a window of opportunity. After the consultations, the President delivered a statement to the press.

On 14 March, the Council was briefed by the Acting Special Representative, Abou Moussa, and the High Representative for the elections on the political developments in Côte d'Ivoire, in particular the Ouagadougou Agreement concluded by President Gbagbo and Guillaume Soro on 4 March 2007. On 28 March, the Council adopted a presidential statement (S/PRST/2007/8) by which it welcomed and endorsed the Ouagadougou Agreement and requested the Secretary-General to submit to it recommendations by 15 May 2007 on the role that the United Nations should play to support the implementation of the peace process.

On 18 May, the Council held a debate on Côte d'Ivoire. Djibrill Y. On 13 June, in consultations of the whole, the Chairman of the Committee established pursuant to resolution 1572 (2004) briefed the Council members on the activities of the Committee and on the recent report of the Group of Experts (S/2007/349).

On 20 June, the Council unanimously adopted resolution 1761 (2007), by which it extended until 31 October 2007 the mandate of the Group of Experts monitoring the measures imposed by the Council.

On 29 June, the Council adopted a presidential statement on Côte d'Ivoire (S/PRST/2007/25), in which it strongly condemned the attack on 29 June on an aircraft carrying the country's Prime Minister, Guillaume Soro. The Council stressed that it was critical that all parties continue to work within the framework of the Ouagadougou political agreement to settle the crisis in Côte d'Ivoire. On the same day, the Council unanimously adopted resolution 1763 (2007), by which it extended the mandate of UNOCI and the French forces until 16 July 2007.

On 11 July, in consultations of the whole, the Assistant Secretary-General for Peacekeeping Operations briefed the Council on the latest developments in the peace process in Côte d'Ivoire, especially after the attack aimed at the Prime Minister on 29 June. While commending the positive development of the peace process, the Council members urged that the Ouagadougou Agreement should be fully implemented. On 9 October 2006, at a private meeting, the Council adopted by acclamation resolution 1715 (2006), recommending that Ban Ki-moon, Minister for Foreign Affairs and Trade of the Republic of Korea, be appointed Secretary-General of the United Nations for a five-year term starting on 1 January 2007. The President of the Council addressed a letter to the President of the General Assembly informing her of this recommendation.

Tribute to the outgoing Secretary-General

On 22 December 2006, the Council adopted by acclamation resolution 1733 (2006) in tribute to the outgoing Secretary-General, Kofi Annan. The Council recognized the central role that Mr. Annan had played in guiding the Organization in the discharge of his responsibilities under the Charter of the United Nations. The Council also recognized his sustained efforts towards finding just and lasting solutions to various disputes and conflicts around the globe, and commended the reforms that he had initiated as well as the many proposals he had made on the restructuring and strengthening of the role and functioning of the United Nations system.

General issues relating to sanctions

On 8 August 2006, the Council unanimously adopted resolution 1699 (2006) on cooperation between the United Nations and the International Criminal Police Organization (INTERPOL).

On 19 December, the Council unanimously adopted resolution 1730 (2006), by which it committed itself to ensuring that fair and clear procedures would exist for placing individuals and entities on sanctions lists and for removing them, as well as for granting humanitarian exemptions, and called upon the Secretary-General to establish a focal point within the Secretariat for receiving de-listing requests.

On 21 December, the Council unanimously adopted resolution 1732 (2006), by which it welcomed the report of the Informal Working Group of the Security Council on General Issues of Sanctions

(S/2006/997) and decided that the Working Group had fulfilled its mandate to develop general recommendations on how to improve the effectiveness of United Nations sanctions. The Council took note of the best practices and methods contained in the report of the Working Group and requested the subsidiary bodies of the Council to take note of them also.

Documentation and other procedural questions

On 21 November 2006, following a recommendation of the Informal Working Group on Documentation and Other Procedural Questions, the President of the Council sent a letter to the Secretary-General (S/2006/928) requesting an updated version of the descriptive index to notes and statements issued by the Council relating to documentation and procedure for the purpose of providing greater ease of reference to this material for all States Members of the United Nations.

On 10 July 2007, the Permanent Representative of Slovakia to the United Nations, Peter Burian, presented to the Council an intermediary report in his capacity as Chairman of the Informal Working Group on Documentation and Other Procedural Questions. From January to July 2007 the Informal Working Group concentrated its efforts mainly on better and wider implementation of the note by the President of the Security Council of 19 July 2006 (S/2006/507), as well as numerous practical documentation and procedural questions arising from the Security Council's everyday work. The members of the Council expressed appreciation for the work of the Informal Working Group and their support for measures that could improve the efficiency, openness and transparency of the Council's work.

Subsidiary bodies of the Security Council

On 20 December 2006, the Council heard briefings by the five outgoing Permanent Representatives in their capacities as Chairmen of subsidiary bodies of the Council. On 18 January 2007, a note by the President (S/2007/20) was issued which set out the composition of the bureaux of all subsidiary bodies of the Council.

Work of the subsidiary bodies of the Security Council

Chapter 1

Governing Council of the United Nations Compensation Commission

The mandate of the United Nations Compensation Commission is to process claims and pay compensation for losses and damages suffered as a direct result of Iraq's unlawful invasion and occupation of Kuwait from 2 August 1990 until 2 March 1991. Funds to pay compensation are drawn from the United Nations Compensation Fund, which receives a percentage of the proceeds generated by the export sales of Iraqi petroleum and petroleum products. This percentage, originally set at 30 per cent by the Security Council under its resolution 705 (1991), is currently at 5 per cent in accordance with paragraph 21 of Council resolution 1483 (2003), which provides that 5 per cent of the proceeds of all export sales of Iraqi petroleum, petroleum products and natural gas shall be deposited into the Compensation Fund.

During the period under review, the Governing Council of the United Nations Compensation Commission held three regular sessions (sixty-first to sixty-third) and a number of informal meetings, at which it considered various issues related to the activity of the Commission and payment of compensation awards to successful claimants, including issues related to the secretariat's investigation into duplicate and other claims raising overpayment issues. The Council took a number of decisions on measures to recover the overpayments, including the requirement that all affected Governments and submitting entities must undertake best efforts to recover the overpaid amounts and return them to the Commission.

Since the conclusion of the claims processing stage in June 2005, the Commission has focused its work, with a small secretariat, on payments of awards to claimants, archiving and the follow-up programme for environmental awards established by the Council at its fifty-eighth session in December 2005 for the purpose of monitoring the use of environmental claims compensation awards. With respect to the follow-up programme, the Commission has been working to put in place the infrastructure required to implement projects funded by the environmental awards in compliance with the guidelines established for the programme by the Governing Council. This has included creating the internal administrative structure at the Commission to support technical and financial management and the tracking of the environmental awards. In addition, the Commission has been working closely with claimant Governments (the Islamic Republic of Iran, Jordan, Kuwait and Saudi Arabia) and the Government of Iraq to ensure that the guidelines are fully and properly implemented.

As from mid-2007, the secretariat was downsized into its residual format in accordance with the decision taken by the Governing Council at its fifty-eighth session to maintain the Compensation Fund under the continuing oversight of the Governing Council, assisted by a small secretariat.

During the period under review, the Commission made available a total amount of $1,517,131,433 to Governments and international organizations for distribution to successful individuals, corporations and Governments. These payments were made pursuant to decision 256, adopted by the Governing Council at its fifty-eighth session, concerning the payment mechanism and the priority of payment of the outstanding claims. Under phase 1 of the payment mechanism, which was completed in October 2006, quarterly payments were made in rounds of $2 million until completion of payments to individual claimants and payment of all claims up to the level of $65 million. Under phase 2, claimants with outstanding amounts greater than $500 million receive a maximum amount of $2 million per quarter, whereas claimants with outstanding amounts smaller than $500 million and environmental awards approved for the third, fourth and fifth instalments of category F4 environmental remediation claims receive rounds of payments of $2 million, or the unpaid balance of the award, if less, until all available amounts in the Compensation Fund have been exhausted.

The Commission has awarded total compensation in the amount of $52,383,310,390 to individuals, corporations and Governments. As at 31 July 2007, $22,516,377,078 has been made available to Governments and international organizations for payment to successful claimants.

Chapter 2

United Nations Monitoring, Verification and Inspection Commission established pursuant to paragraph 1 of resolution 1284 (1999)

The United Nations Monitoring, Verification and Inspection Commission (UNMOVIC) continued to operate with respect to those parts of its mandate it could implement outside of Iraq and maintained a degree of preparedness to resume work in Iraq. The Acting Executive Chairman gave oral briefings to the Security Council on the Commission's quarterly reports during informal consultations of the members of the Council (7 September and 5 December 2006; and 6 March and 26 June 2007). He also provided monthly briefings to successive Presidents of the Council and kept the Secretary-General and his senior staff informed of the work of UNMOVIC.

Reports

Four reports were submitted to the Council (S/2006/701, S/2006/912, S/2007/106 and S/2007/314). They included annexes concerning the analysis of chemical munitions recovered in Iraq by coalition forces since 2003; the use of indicators in the investigation of weapons of mass destruction programmes: elements for an improved missile verification system; and the issue of monitoring the production of small quantities of chemical and biological warfare agents.

Developments

In view of Iraq's plans to accede to the Convention on the Prohibition of the Development, Production, Stockpiling and Use of Chemical Weapons and on Their Destruction, the Permanent Representative of Iraq to the United Nations wrote to UNMOVIC on 18 August 2006 requesting copies of "certificates of destruction" of the chemical weapons-related material and equipment that had been destroyed under United Nations supervision, as well as a copy of the handover protocol between Iraq and the United Nations Special Commission, signed in 1994, concerning the transfer of the Muthanna chemical warfare agent production site to the custody of Iraq. The protocol provides a full account of destruction activities conducted at Muthanna from 1992 to 1994 and sets out safety and security measures to be applied at the site, and remains in force today.

On 6 September, the Permanent Representative of Iraq requested a copy of the UNMOVIC working document of 6 March 2003 concerning unresolved disarmament issues and Iraq's responses thereto.

On 7 September, the Acting Executive Chairman informed the Council of his intention to respond positively to both requests and that due care would be taken to delete any proliferation and other sensitive information from the documents. The Commission's experts prepared all relevant documents, eliminated proliferation and other sensitive information, and provided the Permanent Mission of Iraq to the United Nations with CD-ROMs covering both requests, on 15 September and 10 October, respectively. The materials submitted included a large number of destruction certificates, the handover protocol and 54 documents regarding unresolved disarmament issues. In total, over 1,200 pages of documents were provided in electronic format.

Compendium

Work continued on the editing of a final version of the compendium on Iraq's weapons of mass destruction programmes and on the production of a version from which all proliferation and other sensitive information has been removed. Tables, graphics, photographs and a list of references were added to the compendium. The database was reviewed for additional references and individual sections of the compendium were subjected to internal review and scrutiny. The sanitized version, with sensitive material appropriately redacted, was placed on the Commission's website (www.unmovic.org) late in June 2007.

Training

In the period under review, UNMOVIC conducted four training courses for its roster personnel.

The first was held at Ploiesti, Romania, from 3 to 12 October 2006. It was the second multidisciplinary technology course designed to develop a better understanding of the technologies and equipment involved in the operation of refineries and petrochemical plants and their relevance to monitoring under the UNMOVIC mandate. A total of 20 experts from 15 Member States and one UNMOVIC headquarters staff member participated in the course. The participants were able to visit a number of refinery and petrochemical complexes and to conduct a practical inspection exercise at one of the facilities.

The second course was conducted at Cologne, Germany, from 30 October to 10 November 2006. Nineteen experts from 13 Member States participated in the course, the main objective of which was to develop practical skills for the inspection and monitoring of dual-use production equipment and capabilities in the missile area. The course included familiarization visits to relevant facilities as well as a practical inspection exercise.

The third training course was held at Cordoba, Argentina, from 26 February to 8 March 2007. The main objectives of the course were (a) to develop a good technical understanding by the trainees of the technologies used in the production of solid propellant missiles, in particular the production of composite double-base propellants themselves; and (b) to improve their skills in the design of monitoring regimes for key solid propellant production sites.

The fourth training course was conducted at Doha from 9 to 21 June 2007. The course was designed to develop a better understanding of the technologies and equipment involved in the operation of refineries and petrochemical plants. Twenty-three experts attended the course from 17 Member States. As part of the training programme, the participants visited a number of refinery and petrochemical complexes and conducted practical exercises at facilities offered by the host country.

Technical visits, meetings and workshops

In September, the Acting Executive Chairman and two other staff members attended the fiftieth General Conference of the International Atomic Energy Agency in Vienna. An UNMOVIC expert attended the Sixth Review Conference of the States Parties to the Biological Weapons Convention, held at Geneva from 20 November to 8 December 2006. UNMOVIC was also represented at the eleventh session of the Conference of States Parties to the Chemical Weapons Convention, which was held at The Hague from 5 to 8 December 2006.

In August 2006, an UNMOVIC expert was invited, at no cost to the Organization, by the Nuclear, Biological and Chemical Defence School in Vienna to lecture at a course on arms control in the nuclear, biological and chemical realm. The topics were related to the biological weapons area and the UNMOVIC experience from its verification activities in Iraq.

In April 2007, at the invitation of the NGO Committee on Disarmament, Peace and Security and the Office for Disarmament Affairs, an UNMOVIC expert was invited to make a presentation on technical advances and field experiences for use in biological verification. In May, the same UNMOVIC expert was invited by the Center for Technology and Engineering of the United States Government Accountability Office to discuss and make a similar presentation in Washington, D.C.

An UNMOVIC staff member attended, at no cost to the Organization, an international meeting on the theme "Missile proliferation: new challenges and new responses", held in May at Copenhagen. The meeting marked the twentieth anniversary of the Missile Technology Control Regime. The UNMOVIC expert was invited to make a presentation on the United Nations experience in disarmament and monitoring in the missile area.

In May 2007, an UNMOVIC expert attended the ninth Symposium on Protection against Chemical and Biological Warfare Agents, held in Gothenburg, Sweden. A presentation entitled "Experience from United Nations disarmament and monitoring activities in Iraq" was made during the opening session.

UNMOVIC experts also continued to participate in technical meetings, workshops and trade events with an emphasis on keeping up with technological developments and new equipment that may have applications for monitoring and verification.

Field offices

In Baghdad, the two remaining UNMOVIC national staff, now co-located with the United Nations Assistance Mission for Iraq in the international zone, maintained the equipment that had been brought from the United Nations Canal Compound when it closed. All equipment from both the chemical and biological laboratories has been sorted, cleaned, inventoried, photographed and catalogued. Weapons artefacts were separated from other equipment and secured.

Following the redeployment of assets in Iraq, UNMOVIC has sought authority to write off or dispose of excess office equipment and communications gear, relocated to Kuwait, and equipment determined to be destroyed or missing in Iraq.

The Cyprus field office has continued to provide supervision of the Baghdad local staff. Whenever appropriate, the staff of the field office has continued to work with Customs in Larnaca facilitating shipments of other United Nations agencies and continues to support the United Nations Peacekeeping Force in Cyprus whenever necessary. The field office supported the World Food Programme and the United Nations Humanitarian Air Services in their Lebanon mission by providing equipment and office space for their daily use until 1 October 2006.

Early in 2007, UNMOVIC reduced its Cyprus field office space requirement by 50 per cent. The Acting Executive Chairman, accompanied by the Director of the Division of Information, Technical Support and Training, visited the Commission's field office from 13 to 15 December and held discussions with the Permanent Secretary of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Nicosia. They also met the Special Representative of the Secretary-General for Cyprus and the Chief Administrative Officer of the United Nations Peacekeeping Force in Cyprus. During the visit, meetings were also held with the private company that had taken over the operation of the airport at Larnaca from the Cyprus Department of Civil Aviation.

Two UNMOVIC technical experts visited the field office in Cyprus from 18 to 27 March to perform maintenance on the inspection and support equipment stored there. The experts categorized the equipment, identified obsolete equipment, and trained the field office staff in routine maintenance procedures.

Staffing

At the end of June 2007, UNMOVIC headquarters staff at the Professional level totalled 34. The staff are drawn from 19 nationalities; 7 are women. Owing to the continuing drawdown of UNMOVIC staff, the New York office has consolidated its office space, resulting in lower operating costs.

College of Commissioners

The College of Commissioners met on 20 and 21 November 2006, on 20 and 21 February and on 23 and 24 May 2007. The College reviewed the work of UNMOVIC in implementing the resolutions of the Council and provided guidance and advice to the Acting Executive Chairman. The members were also consulted on the contents of the quarterly reports to the Council and were updated on the various activities of the staff, and received briefings on a number of the assessments and findings of UNMOVIC.

On 21 November 2006, the Secretary-General proposed (S/2006/907) that Robert Witajewski (United States) be appointed to the College of Commissioners following the resignation of Francis C. Record, to which the members of the Council agreed (S/2006/908).

On 29 June, at its 5710th meeting, the Security Council considered a draft resolution by which, inter alia, it would call for the immediate termination of the mandate of UNMOVIC. The Acting Executive Chairman of UNMOVIC and the representative of the Director General of the International Atomic Energy Agency provided the members with oral reports on the status of their work prior to the vote on the draft resolution. The Permanent Representative of Iraq also made a statement. The draft resolution was adopted as resolution 1762 (2007) by 14 votes in favour, with 1 abstention.

Under the terms of resolution 1762 (2007), the Secretary-General is required to report to the Council within three months on the steps taken to ensure that the UNMOVIC archives are kept under strict control. A small team of former UNMOVIC staff is working to arrange the final disposition of the property and archives of UNMOVIC. The Council also decided that all unencumbered funds remaining in the Iraq escrow account are to be transferred to the Development Fund for Iraq not later than three months from the date of adoption of the resolution 1762 (2007).

Chapter 3 Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 751 (1992) concerning Somalia

The Committee established pursuant to resolution 751 (1992) concerning Somalia is mandated by the Security Council to oversee the implementation of the arms embargo on Somalia imposed by resolution 733 (1992) and subsequently amended by resolutions 1356 (2001) and 1425 (2002).

In 2006, the Bureau of the Committee consisted of Nassir Abdulaziz Al-Nasser (Qatar) as Chairman, the delegations of Ghana and Slovakia providing the Vice-Chairmen. In 2007, Dumisani S. Kumalo (South Africa) was elected by the Security Council as Chairman of the Committee, the delegations of Ghana and Slovakia providing the Vice-Chairmen.

During the reporting period, the Committee held nine informal meetings.

At informal consultations on 4 August 2006, the Committee considered the recommendations contained in the report of the Monitoring Group pursuant to paragraph 3 (i) of resolution 1630 (2005) (S/2006/229). The members of the Committee also held an exchange of views in the context of the presidential statement of 13 July 2006 (S/PRST/2006/31) with respect to the arms embargo, with the aim of assisting the Council in its future consideration of the matter.

At informal consultations on 6 September, the Committee heard a mid-term briefing by the Monitoring Group, re-established pursuant to Security Council resolution 1676 (2006), and, on 17 November, the Committee heard a presentation by the Monitoring Group on its report pursuant to paragraph 3 (i) of that resolution (S/2006/913), and held a preliminary exchange of views on the contents of the report.

At informal consultations on 21 November, the Committee continued its discussion of that report and also agreed to send letters to the 12 States which, according to the report, provided support to parties in Somalia in violation of the arms embargo, inviting them to participate in a future Committee meeting and to discuss the report and its findings with the Committee and the Monitoring Group.

On 29 November, the Chairman briefed the Security Council on the Committee's discussion on the final report of the Monitoring Group.

On 13 March 2007, the Committee decided to reiterate the invitations to the States mentioned in the latest report of the Monitoring Group to participate in a meeting of the Committee, and to schedule informal consultations accordingly.

On 27 April, the Committee received the mid-term briefing of the Monitoring Group, re-established pursuant to resolution 1724 (2006), and, on 27 June, the Chairman provided an account of that discussion to the Security Council, pursuant to paragraph 3 (h) of that resolution.

On 1 and 4 May, the Committee held two informal meetings with the representatives of Djibouti, Egypt, Eritrea, the Islamic Republic of Iran, the Libyan Arab Jamahiriya, Saudi Arabia and the Syrian Arab Republic in connection with the findings contained in the report of the Monitoring Group (S/2006/913).

As a result of the discussion, the Committee wrote to the Monitoring Group and requested that, in preparing its final report, it take into account the information presented by delegations who attended the discussion and by those that provided written observations. The Committee also requested the Monitoring Group, in fulfilling its mandate according to relevant resolutions, to continue providing States with adequate time and opportunities to respond and verify the information collected by the Monitoring Group. In addition, the Committee wrote to the States concerned encouraging them to cooperate with the Monitoring Group.

On 17 July, the Committee heard a presentation by the Monitoring Group on its final report (S/2007/436) and considered the recommendations contained therein.

By resolution 1766 (2007), the Security Council extended the mandate of the Monitoring Group for a period of six months.

Chapter 4

International Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of the Former Yugoslavia since 1991

From 1 August 2006 to 31 July 2007, the International Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia operated at an historic level: the Tribunal passed the benchmark figure of 100 cases completed (105 out of 161) and held, at one time, seven concurrent trials, involving 25 individuals. As a result of this unprecedented level of judicial activities, only 7 cases, involving 10 accused, are pending before the Appeals

Chamber, and only 13 accused, grouped in 8 cases, are at the pre-trial stage.

One of the pre-trial cases concerns Vojislav Šešelj, a major political leader from the former Yugoslavia. The beginning of his trial, late in November 2006, was disrupted when the accused went on a six-week hunger strike to obtain a number of facilities with a view to defending himself. The Appeals Chamber brought a legal remedy to an unacceptable life-threatening situation, and the accused eventually returned to court in March 2007.

During the reporting period, the Tribunal Chambers delivered 11 judgements, concerning 12 accused: five judgements, including two for contempt, were issued by Trial Chambers, and the Appeals Chamber settled six cases. On 30 November 2006, the Appeals Chamber for the first time imposed the maximum sentence possible (a life term) upon Stanislav Galić, a former Bosnian Serb Army commander, convicted and sentenced for his role in the campaign of sniping and shelling against civilians in Sarajevo from September 1992 to August 1994.

The increased efficiency of the Tribunal was largely due to the implementation of a number of amendments to the Rules of Procedure and Evidence. The judges adopted in September 2006 rule 92 ter, which authorizes a Trial Chamber under certain conditions to consider written statements and transcripts of witnesses in lieu of oral testimony, allowing for substantial savings of court time in multi-accused cases. Other amendments, proposed by the Working Group on Speeding up Appeals, have resulted in the shortening of time limits for the filing of appeals, the avoidance of repetitious filings, and the expediting of pre-appeal proceedings.

The newly established Trial Scheduling Working Group, chaired by the Vice-President, has also proved essential: it ensures that one or more cases are always "trial-ready" in case one trial has to be replaced with another owing to unforeseen circumstances. The constant and detailed communication between the Working Group and judges has allowed for a reasonably accurate forecast of when trials will be concluded: the Tribunal is working diligently with a view to possibly completing all trials by 2009, and all appeals within two years of the completion of the trials.

This schedule will remain tentative as long as all persons indicted by the Tribunal have not been brought to justice. Two accused, Zdravko Tolimir and Vlastimir Đorđević, were finally remanded to the Tribunal in June 2007, after having been on the run for more than two years and more than three years, respectively. Four persons indicted are still on the run, however, including Radovan Karadžić and Ratko Mladić, who were both indicted in July 1995, more than 12 years ago.

A beneficial impact on the overall workload of the Tribunal has resulted from the referral to national jurisdictions of cases involving intermediate and lower-ranked suspects. During the reporting period, the Referral Bench has cleaned its docket, disposing of the last nine motions. Only one appeal on referral is currently pending, concerning one accused. Eleven accused have been transferred to Bosnia and Herzegovina, two to the authorities of Croatia, and one to Serbia for trial before the domestic courts of those countries.

Of those cases referred, the Special War Crimes Chamber of Bosnia and Herzegovina has completed one trial, another case is at the appellate stage and a further three cases are at the pre-trial stage. The County Court of Zagreb (Croatia) opened in June 2007 the trial of the two accused referred. These trials are monitored through the Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe and non-governmental organizations: the Tribunal wishes to ensure that each case is conducted with full adherence to due process and human rights norms.

A shadow has been cast on the partnership between the Tribunal and the national jurisdictions by the escape from the custody of the Bosnia and Herzegovina authorities, in May 2007, of Radovan Stanković, an individual accused by the Tribunal and definitively convicted and sentenced to 20 years' imprisonment by the Special War Crimes Chamber. The President of the Tribunal has requested a full report from the Bosnia and Herzegovina authorities and expressed the hope that the convicted person will return to custody, as a failure to achieve this may eventually affect the referral process.

The Office of the Prosecutor has continued to hand over investigative materials to national prosecutors in the region for further investigation, and to work closely with, and to support, domestic authorities.

On 1 February 2007, the Secretary-General paid a visit to the Tribunal, and praised its work, stating that it is crucially important for international peace and security that the rule of law principle is firmly established and that an end is brought to impunity for war criminals.

Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 918 (1994) concerning Rwanda

The Committee established pursuant to resolution 918 (1994) concerning Rwanda is mandated by the Security Council to oversee the implementation of the arms embargo imposed by resolution 918 (1994) and subsequently modified by resolution 1011 (1995).

In 2006, the Bureau of the Committee consisted of César Mayoral (Argentina) as Chairman, the delegations of Greece and Qatar providing the Vice-Chairmen. For 2007, Rezlan Ishar Jenie (Indonesia) was elected by the Security Council as Chairman, the delegation of Italy providing the Vice-Chairman.

During the reporting period, the Committee held three informal consultations.

At its consultations held on 10 August and 3 November 2006, the Committee considered a letter dated 10 March 2006 from the Chairman of the Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 1533 (2004) concerning the Democratic Republic of the Congo, in which the Chairman of that Committee observed that a delivery of arms to the Government of Rwanda might require notification to the Committee under paragraph 11 of resolution 1011 (1995). On 10 November, the Chairman sent a reply to the Chairman of the Committee established pursuant to resolution 1533 (2004) in which he noted, inter alia, that the Committee was currently reviewing the notification requirement for any future arms transfer to the Government of Rwanda within the scope of paragraph 11 of resolution 1011 (1995).

At its informal consultations held on 7 March 2007, the Committee exchanged views on the advice it would offer to the Security Council regarding the notification requirement set out in paragraph 11 of resolution 1011 (1995). On 13 March, the Chairman reported to the Security Council on the Committee's recent deliberations, and the Council subsequently, by resolution 1749 (2007), terminated the notification requirement set out in paragraph 11 of resolution 1011 (1995).

On 28 December 2006, the Committee adopted its report for 2006 to the Security Council (S/2006/1049).

Chapter 6

International Criminal Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Genocide and Other Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of Rwanda and Rwandan Citizens Responsible for Genocide and Other Such Violations Committed in the Territory of Neighbouring States between 1 January and 31 December 1994

The Trial Chambers of the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda continue to operate at maximum capacity, with ongoing trials at first instance involving 22 accused in nine different cases. Of these trials, it is expected that the five single-accused cases will be completed in 2007, and significant progress is being made in the multi-accused cases. The total number of cases completed in first instance is now 27, involving 33 accused. Two trials involving five accused are at the judgement writing phase. One case has been transferred to the Netherlands. The Appeals Chamber delivered two judgements during the reporting period involving two accused, as well as numerous interlocutory decisions. The Tribunal has increasingly relied on ad litem judges for realizing the completion strategy objectives. The efficient completion of trials at the Tribunal also continues to be possible because of the contributions of highly dedicated staff.

With regard to the Office of the Prosecutor, all outstanding indictments for genocide have now been confirmed. The Prosecutor has handed 30 case files to the Government of Rwanda for prosecution before the national court. The Prosecutor, pursuant to rule 11 bis, has transferred one case to the Netherlands and has filed motions for the transfer of one case to Rwanda and two cases to France. The Prosecutor awaits Trial

Chamber decisions on the three motions. Negotiations are in progress with a number of Governments for the transfer of approximately 15 cases of the Tribunal to their national jurisdictions. The African Commission on Human and Peoples' Rights has agreed to monitor all cases transferred to African countries on behalf of the Prosecutor. The tracking of fugitives has been intensified. Six appeals, relating to three cases, were heard during the reporting period.

The Registry continues to support the judicial process by servicing the other organs of the Tribunal and the defence, and by seeking support from States and/or international institutions, inter alia to ensure the appearance of witnesses and their safety, to identify countries where convicted persons will serve their sentences and to fund activities not covered by the regular budget. In December 2006 and in July 2007, two Member States agreed to relocate one acquitted person each. Efforts to relocate the two others have continued. In line with the completion strategy of the Tribunal, the Registry (a) has stepped up all outreach activities, including capacity-building programmes for the Rwandan judiciary; (b) has participated in the definition of priorities for the legacy of the Tribunal, in conjunction with the International Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia, United Nations Headquarters and the main stakeholders, and is now applying the goals defined in a tight work schedule; and (c) has continued to provide active support in the facilitation of the trial-readiness of cases.

Chapter 7 Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 1132 (1997) concerning Sierra Leone

The Committee established pursuant to resolution 1132 (1997) concerning Sierra Leone is mandated by the Security Council to oversee the implementation of the measures imposed by resolution 1171 (1998), which consist of an arms embargo on non-governmental forces in Sierra Leone and travel restrictions on members of the former military junta and of the Revolutionary United Front as designated by the Committee.

In 2006, the Bureau of the Committee consisted of Augustine P. Mahiga (United Republic of Tanzania) as Chairman, while the delegations of Argentina and the Congo served as Vice-Chairmen. For 2007, Nassir Abdulaziz Al-Nasser (Qatar) served as Chairman, the delegations of the Congo and Panama providing the Vice-Chairmen.

During the period under review, the Committee considered and approved two requests for a waiver from the travel restrictions imposed by resolution 1171 (1998).

On 20 December 2006, at the 5601st meeting of the Security Council, the representative of the United Republic of Tanzania, on behalf of the outgoing Chairman, briefed the Council on the work of the Committee.

On 28 December, the Committee adopted its report for 2006 to the Security Council (S/2006/1043).

Chapter 8 Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 1267 (1999) concerning Al-Qaida and the Taliban and associated individuals and entities

The Committee established pursuant to resolution 1267 (1999) is mandated by the Security Council to oversee the implementation of sanctions measures, consisting of an assets freeze, travel ban and arms embargo against individuals or entities belonging to or associated with Al-Qaida or the Taliban as set out in resolutions 1267 (1999), 1363 (2001), 1373 (2001), 1452 (2002), 1455 (2003), 1526 (2004), 1617 (2005) and 1735 (2006).

In 2006, the Bureau of the Committee consisted of César Mayoral (Argentina) as Chairman, the delegations of Greece and Romania providing the Vice-Chairmen. Johan C. Verbeke (Belgium) has served as Chairman of the Committee since 1 January 2007, while the two Vice-Chairmen for 2007 have been provided by the delegations of Ghana and the Russian Federation.

During the reporting period, the Committee held 34 informal meetings.

In December 2006, by resolution 1735 (2006), the Council reiterated the existing mandatory measures: an assets freeze, a travel ban and an arms embargo. In addition, it extended the period for the consideration by the Committee of notifications of exemptions to the assets freeze and renewed for a period of 18 months the mandate of the Analytical Support and Sanctions Monitoring Team. The new provisions of that resolution, as well as those of resolution 1730 (2006), were reflected in the Committee's revised guidelines adopted on 12 February 2007.

Pursuant to resolutions 1526 (2004), 1617 (2005) and 1735 (2006), the Chairman undertook one visit to selected countries during the reporting period. From 30 June to 7 July 2007, he visited Ethiopia, Djibouti and Kenya. As a result of that visit, the Chairman was able to convey useful information on the implementation of sanctions to both the Committee and the Security Council upon his return.

On 18 September 2006, the Chairman transmitted the fifth report of the Monitoring Team to the President of the Security Council (S/2006/750). On 7 March 2007, the Chairman transmitted the sixth report of the Monitoring Team (S/2007/132). The Committee reported on its position on those reports in its own reports transmitted to the President of the Security Council on 20 December 2006 (S/2006/1047) and 24 April 2007 (S/2007/229), respectively.

In its written assessment on sanctions implementation, transmitted to the Security Council by the Chairman in a letter dated 20 December 2006 (S/2006/1046), the Committee concluded that States do make conscientious efforts to implement the sanctions measures as they realize that no State is immune to terrorism and its consequences.

Pursuant to resolution 1617 (2005), the Chairman presented his 120-day oral briefing in the Security Council on 28 September 2006, together with the Chairmen of the Committee established pursuant to resolution 1540 (2004) and the Counter-Terrorism Committee (see S/PV.5538). Pursuant to resolution 1735 (2006), the Chairman presented his 180-day oral briefing, together with the above-mentioned Chairmen, on 22 May 2007 (see S/PV.5679). Through those briefings, the Council was informed of the work of the Committee and the Monitoring Team, as well as the implementation of the sanctions measures taken by States.

During the reporting period, four States, in addition to the 147 States that had previously reported, submitted their reports on the implementation of sanctions measures in accordance with resolution 1455 (2003), while four States, in addition to the 53 States that had previously reported, submitted checklists pursuant to resolution 1617 (2005).

The Monitoring Team undertook several visits to various regions to discuss sanctions implementation with States and international organizations. The Team also held regular meetings with experts of the Counter-Terrorism Committee Executive Directorate and the group of experts of the Committee established pursuant to resolution 1540 (2004) to identify areas of convergence and overlap and to help facilitate concrete cooperation, including in the area of reporting, among the three Committees.

The Chairman submitted on 29 January 2007 the report on the work of the Committee in 2006 (S/2007/59).

On 20 July 2007, the Chairman held a public briefing, at which he informed Member States about new developments in the work of the Committee.

During the reporting period, the Committee added 12 individuals and 2 entities to the Al-Qaida section of the consolidated sanctions list and de-listed one individual. The sanctions list is available on the Committee's website at <http://www.un.org/sc/committees/1267/consolist.shtml>. The Committee also continued its cooperation with INTERPOL, with which it agreed on a revised action plan for the issuance of joint INTERPOL-Security Council special notices for listed individuals and entities. The notices can be found on the INTERPOL website, at <http://www.interpol.int/Public/NoticesUN/Default.asp>.

The Committee continued to consider notifications and requests submitted pursuant to resolution 1452 (2002) in accordance with the guidelines for the conduct of its work.

Chapter 9

Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 1373 (2001) concerning counter-terrorism

The Committee established pursuant to resolution 1373 (2001) concerning counter-terrorism, known as the Counter-Terrorism Committee, was established to monitor the implementation of that resolution. The Committee has been assisted in its work by the Counter-Terrorism Committee Executive Directorate, established by resolution 1535 (2004). On 18 December 2006, the Committee submitted a report for the Security Council's consideration (S/2006/989) as part of its comprehensive review of the Executive Directorate in accordance with the Council's decision contained in a statement by the President of 21 December 2005 (S/PRST/2005/64).

The Committee was chaired by Ellen Margrethe Løj (Denmark) from 1 April 2005 to 31 December 2006. During 2006, the delegations of Greece, Peru and Qatar provided the Vice-Chairmen. Since January 2007, Ricardo Alberto Arias (Panama) has served as Chairman of the Committee. During 2007, the delegations of Peru, South Africa and Qatar have provided the Vice-Chairmen. Each Vice-Chairman chairs one of the Committee's three Sub-Committees.

During the reporting period, the Committee held 20 formal meetings, 9 informal meetings and 22 Sub-Committee meetings.

Resolution 1373 (2001) sets out a comprehensive agenda of activities to counter terrorism, including steps to bring to justice perpetrators of terrorist acts and those who harbour, aid and support them. It also requires all States to cooperate on a wide range of issues relating to counter-terrorism. All States are required to report to the Committee on their implementation of resolution 1373 (2001). As at 31 July 2007, the Committee had received 799 reports from Member States and others. Those included 191 first reports and 173 second, 142 third, 111 fourth, 68 fifth and 13 sixth reports, and 91 reports pursuant to resolution 1624 (2005) from Member States. The Committee had also received 10 reports from entities other than Member States.

In July 2006, the Committee, which had been working on the basis of quarterly programmes of work, began to work on the basis of six-month programmes, covering the periods from July to December 2006 (see S/2006/607) and January to June 2007, (see S/2007/254).

In its work, the Committee has continued to move away from the issue of reporting towards the practical implementation of resolution 1373 (2001). This shift in emphasis reflected the Committee's intention to adopt a tailor-made approach for each individual State, analysing its accomplishments in implementing resolution 1373 (2001) and seeking ways and means to increase the efficiency of its engagement, including through the facilitation of technical assistance. The new approach also aimed at encouraging the States that had fallen behind with reporting to re-engage with the Committee.

To support this new approach, the Committee developed in 2006 the preliminary implementation assessment as an analytical tool designed to provide a systematic, even-handed, transparent and effective way to monitor the extent to which States had met their obligations under resolution 1373 (2001). It also aimed to improve the Committee's dialogue with States on how to move forward, including in areas where assistance might be needed, and how to facilitate the provision of such assistance. Late in 2006, the Counter-Terrorism Committee Executive Directorate commenced the preparation of the preliminary implementation assessments and related documents for each State. By 31 July 2007, the three Sub-Committees had considered 121 assessments, which the Committee intended to send to the States concerned, together with a letter outlining possible steps to enhance the implementation of resolution 1373 (2001).

The Committee has also continued to focus on ways to more readily identify technical assistance needs, in collaboration with Member States, and to facilitate the provision of appropriate assistance, including through strengthening its dialogue with potential donors and assistance providers. On 3 and 10 May 2007, the Committee considered a paper on the functioning and results of the technical assistance work carried out by the Executive Directorate and a draft action plan for the facilitation of technical assistance.

The Committee has continued, through the Executive Directorate, to conduct visits to States, with their consent, in order to engage in detailed discussions on the implementation of resolution 1373 (2001) in line with resolution 1535 (2004). Since 1 August 2006, the Committee has visited Bangladesh, India, Indonesia, Kuwait, Mali, Nigeria, Pakistan, the Philippines and Turkey. The Committee has also continued to take stock of its earlier visits and to work on improving the efficiency of its visits, including by designing a thorough follow-up process.

The Committee has continued to work to deepen its engagement and cooperation with international, regional and subregional organizations and has encouraged and assisted them with a view to improving their ability to assist their members in the implementation of resolution 1373 (2001). During the period under review, the Committee has taken particular initiatives with regard to the African, Caribbean and Pacific regions. The Committee has also begun preparations for its fifth special meeting with international, regional and subregional organizations, on the theme "Prevention of terrorist movement and effective border control", which is scheduled for 29 to 31 October 2007 in Nairobi.

The Committee has continued to act to implement its mandate under resolution 1624 (2005), that is, to include in its dialogue with Member States their efforts to implement that resolution; to work with Member States to help build capacity, including through spreading best legal practice and promoting exchange of information. The Committee has contacted all Member States in this regard and on 14 September 2006 submitted a report on the implementation of resolution 1624 (2005) to the Security Council (S/2006/737). On 7 December, the Committee conducted a preliminary discussion of Executive Directorate proposals for further action with respect to resolution 1624 (2005).

As requested in paragraph 7 of resolution 1566 (2004), the Committee has continued its work to develop a set of best practices to assist States in implementing the provisions of resolution 1373 (2001), including in relation to the financing of terrorism. On two occasions during the reporting period the Committee discussed recommendations of the Executive Directorate with respect to best practices.

The Committee has also continued to explore ways to respond to the 2005 World Summit Outcome (General Assembly resolution 60/1), in which the Security Council was encouraged to consider ways to strengthen its monitoring and enforcement role in counter-terrorism, including by consolidating State reporting requirements, taking into account and respecting the different mandates of its counter-terrorism subsidiary bodies. The Committee has continued to enhance the cooperation and coordination among those subsidiary bodies, as well as their affiliated expert groups. On three occasions during the reporting period, the Committee considered a common strategy paper for non-reporting or late submitting States that had been prepared by the Executive Directorate jointly with the Monitoring Team of the Committee established pursuant to resolution 1267 (1999) and the experts of the Committee established pursuant to resolution 1540 (2004). Meanwhile, the three counter-terrorism-related Security Council Committees continued the practice of coordinating their periodic briefings to the Council, which were held on 28 September 2006 and 22 May 2007.

In addition, during the reporting period, the Committee considered a paper prepared by the Executive Directorate on the possible role of the Committee and the Executive Directorate in the implementation of the relevant provisions of General Assembly resolution 60/288, and discussed a survey prepared by the Executive Directorate on the implementation of resolution 1373 (2001).

The Committee's website, which is maintained and updated by its Executive Directorate, is at <http://www.un.org/sc/ctc/>.

Chapter 10

Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 1518 (2003)

The Committee established pursuant to resolution 1518 (2003) is mandated by the Security Council to continue to identify, pursuant to paragraphs 19 and 23 of resolution 1483 (2003), individuals and entities whose funds, assets or economic resources should be frozen and transferred to the Development Fund for Iraq. As defined in paragraph 23 of resolution 1483 (2003), the financial sanctions apply to the previous Government of Iraq or its State bodies, corporations or agencies, as well as to senior officials of the former Iraqi regime and their immediate family members, including entities owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by them or by persons acting on their behalf or at their direction.

The Bureau of the Committee in 2006 consisted of Nana Effah-Apenteng (Ghana) as Chairman, the delegations of the Congo and Denmark providing the two Vice-Chairmen. In 2007, Nana Effah-Apenteng (Ghana) continued to serve as Chairman before passing the chairmanship to Leslie Kojo Christian (also of Ghana), while Belgium provided the Vice-Chairman.

The updated list of individuals and entities targeted by the financial sanctions is available at the Committee's website, at <http://www.un.org/sc/committees/1518/index.shtml>.

On 22 January 2007, the Committee submitted its annual report on its work in 2006 (S/2007/51).

Chapter 11 Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 1521 (2003) concerning Liberia

The Committee established pursuant to resolution 1521 (2003) concerning Liberia is mandated by the Security Council to oversee the measures imposed by that resolution and by resolution 1532 (2004), of which the following are currently in effect: the arms embargo imposed by resolution 1521 (2003) and subsequently modified by resolutions 1683 (2006) and 1731 (2006); the travel ban imposed by resolution 1521 (2003); and the assets freeze imposed by resolution 1532 (2004). Following the adoption of resolution 1689 (2006), by which the Council decided not to renew the prohibitions on the import of round logs and timber products from Liberia, and also decided to review that decision after a period of 90 days, the Council, during its review held on 20 October 2006, concluded that there was no basis for reinstating the measures on timber. By its resolution 1753 (2007), the Council decided to terminate the measures on diamonds.

In 2006, the Bureau of the Committee consisted of Ellen Margrethe Løj (Denmark) as Chairman, while the delegations of Japan and Qatar served as Vice-Chairmen. For 2007, Nassir Abdulaziz Al-Nasser (Qatar) served as Chairman, the delegations of Indonesia and South Africa providing the Vice-Chairmen.

During the period under review, the Committee held 10 informal consultations to discuss various issues relating to the sanctions regime.

The Committee conducted periodic reviews of its travel ban and assets freeze lists in December 2006 and April 2007. It removed the name of one individual from the travel ban list. The latest versions of the travel ban and assets freeze lists are available on the Committee's web page, at <http://www.un.org/sc/committees/1521/index.shtml>. The Committee also considered 12 requests for travel ban waivers under paragraph 4 (c) of resolution 1521 (2003), of which three were granted. Two extensions to the initial period of a waiver granted in the previous reporting period were also approved, owing to the exceptional circumstances described in the requests.

The Committee approved four requests, submitted in accordance with paragraph 2 (e) of resolution 1521 (2003), for exceptions to the arms embargo to allow for the equipping and training of the Liberian armed forces and police. It also approved one request, submitted in accordance with paragraph 2 (f) of resolution 1521 (2003), for the shipment of non-lethal military equipment to Liberia. In addition, the Committee approved two requests, submitted in accordance with paragraphs 2 and 3 of resolution 1689 (2006), for the equipping of vetted and trained members, respectively, of the Liberian Special Security Service and the Liberian National Police. However, the Committee was unable to accede to a sixth request for an exception to the arms embargo under resolution 1521 (2003), to permit the shooting of a film in Liberia, as the resolution did not provide for such an exception.

The Committee considered, and did not object to, a notification submitted in accordance with paragraph 2 (a) of resolution 1532 (2004) of the intention to authorize certain basic expenditures to the benefit of an individual included in the assets freeze list. It was not in a position to pronounce itself on a second request for an exception to the assets freeze, to cover basic expenses, as that request did not meet the requirements of the above-mentioned paragraph. In addition, the Committee approved one request, submitted in accordance with paragraph 2 (b) of resolution 1532 (2004), to authorize the release of hitherto frozen funds to cover the extraordinary expenses of an entity included in the assets freeze list.

At its consultations on 27 September and 17 October 2006, before the reviews called for in resolution 1689 (2006) of the Council decisions (a) not to renew the ban on timber and (b) to renew the ban on diamonds until 20 December 2006, the Committee considered two briefs on the forestry and diamond sectors in Liberia prepared by the Panel of Experts re-established by that resolution. On 20 October, as part of those reviews, the Chairman made a statement to the Council summarizing the discussions in the Committee on the two briefs.

At its consultations on 5 and 13 December, prior to the Council's next sanctions review, the Committee considered the report of the Panel of Experts under the mandate accorded to it by resolution 1689 (2006) (S/2006/976). On 19 December, as part of the sanctions review, the Chairman made a statement to the Council summarizing the activities of the Committee and the discussions held therein on the final report and recommendations of the Panel of Experts.

On 20 December, at the 5601st meeting of the Security Council, the outgoing Chairman briefed the Council on the work of the Committee.

On 28 December, the Committee adopted its report for 2006 to the Security Council (S/2006/1044).

At its informal consultations on 16 February 2007, the Committee received an informal update from the Panel of Experts, the mandate of which had been extended by resolution 1731 (2006). The members of the Committee also discussed possible future cooperation with Interpol, pursuant to resolution 1699 (2006).

At its informal consultations on 13 April, before the Council's review of the diamond sanctions called for in resolution 1731 (2006), the Committee heard a briefing from a representative of the Kimberley Process secretariat who led the Kimberley Process Certification Scheme mission to Liberia from 6 to 9 March. The Committee also discussed, with the Panel of Experts, the Panel's informal update on the diamond sector in Liberia. On 18 April, as part of the Council's review, the Chairman made a statement to the Council summarizing the developments in the diamond sector in Liberia.

At its informal consultations on 3 May, the Committee heard a briefing from the Special Representative of Interpol to the United Nations, on possible future cooperation with Interpol pursuant to resolution 1699 (2006).

At its informal consultations on 18 May, the Committee held a discussion with the Permanent Representative of Liberia to the United Nations, who wished to brief the Committee on some issues related to the travel ban and assets freeze components of the sanctions.

At its informal consultations on 6 June, the Committee heard a briefing by the Panel of Experts, the mandate of which was due to expire on 20 June, on its report submitted pursuant to resolution 1731 (2006) (S/2007/340). On 13 June, the Chairman made a statement to the Council summarizing the observations and recommendations of the Panel of Experts.

On 12 June, the Committee adopted guidelines for the conduct of its work, which served to consolidate and update the previously adopted ad hoc Committee procedures, particularly in the light of the adoption of resolution 1730 (2006) on de-listing. The guidelines are posted on the Committee's web page.

By its resolution 1760 (2007), the Security Council requested the Secretary-General to establish, for a period of six months, a Panel of Experts consisting of up to three members (down from five in the previous Panel) with the range of expertise necessary to fulfil the Panel's mandate as described in that resolution. On 23 July 2007, the Secretary-General appointed three persons to serve on the Panel (see S/2007/454).

Chapter 12

Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 1533 (2004) concerning the Democratic Republic of the Congo

The Committee established pursuant to resolution 1533 (2004) concerning the Democratic Republic of the Congo was mandated by the Security Council to oversee and assess the implementation of the arms embargo imposed by paragraph 20 of resolution 1493 (2003) on all foreign and Congolese armed groups and militias operating in the territory of North and South Kivu and of Ituri, and on groups not parties to the Global and All-Inclusive Agreement. The embargo was renewed by resolutions 1552 (2004) and 1596 (2005); by resolution 1596 (2005) it was also expanded to include any recipient in the Democratic Republic of the Congo, with the exception of units of the national army and police, provided that the conditions set in paragraphs 2 and 4 of the resolution were met. By paragraphs 13 and 15 of resolution 1596 (2005), the Council decided to impose a travel ban and assets freeze against individuals, as designated by the Committee, acting in violation of the arms embargo.

By resolution 1616 (2005) the Council further renewed the arms embargo until 31 July 2006 and re-established the Group of Experts on the Democratic Republic of the Congo until 31 January 2006. By resolution 1649 (2005), the Council extended the scope of the travel restrictions and assets freeze, with effect from 15 January 2006, to political and military leaders of foreign armed groups or Congolese militias receiving support from abroad impeding the disarmament of their combatants. By resolution 1654 (2006), the Council requested the Secretary-General to re-establish the Group of Experts for a period expiring on 31 July 2006. By resolution 1698 (2006) the Council further renewed the arms embargo until 31 July 2007 and asked the Secretary-General to re-establish the Group of Experts until that date. The Council further expanded the scope of targeted sanctions to include political and military leaders recruiting or using children in armed conflict in violation of applicable international law, and individuals committing serious violations of international law involving the targeting of children in situations of armed conflict. By its resolution 1768 (2007) the Council extended the sanctions regime until 10 August 2007.

Pursuant to its election as Vice-Chairman of the Committee in 2006, Japan assumed the functions of Acting Chairman from 29 July to 25 October 2006.
