I. Introduction

The present document, which is an addendum to the annotated preliminary list of items to be included in the provisional agenda of the sixty-ninth regular session of the General Assembly (A/69/100), is being issued in accordance with paragraph 17 (c) of annex II to Assembly resolution 2837 (XXVI) of 17 December 1971. The annotated draft agenda has been prepared on the basis of the provisional agenda of the sixty-ninth session (A/69/150, issued on 18 July 2014) and contains information relating to items 5, 10, 12, 19 (a), 38, 39, 63, 119, 120, 126 to 148, 150 to 153 and 155 to 166.

5. Election of the officers of the Main Committees

The General Assembly has six Main Committees. At its forty-seventh session, in paragraph 1 of its resolution 47/233 of 17 August 1993, the Assembly decided to amend rule 98 of the rules of procedure of the Assembly as follows:

“1. Decides that the Main Committees of the General Assembly shall be as follows:

- (a) Disarmament and International Security Committee (First Committee);
- (b) Special Political and Decolonization Committee (Fourth Committee);

At its fifty-second session, the General Assembly decided to amend the first sentence of rule 103 of the rules of procedure to read: “Each Main Committee shall elect a Chair, three Vice-Chairs and a Rapporteur” (resolution 52/163, para. 1).

Rule 103 states that the elections shall be held by secret ballot unless the Committee decides otherwise in an election where only one candidate is standing. Since in the great majority of cases only one candidate is nominated, most officers of Main Committees are elected by acclamation.

In addition, rule 103 provides that the nomination of each candidate shall be limited to one speaker, after which the Committee shall immediately proceed to the election.

Rule 99 (a) stipulates that all the Main Committees shall, at least three months before the opening of the session, elect a Chair and that elections of the other officers provided for in rule 103 shall be held at the latest by the end of the first week of the session. In accordance with resolution 58/126 of 19 December 2003, the full Bureaux of the Main Committees shall also be elected three months in advance of the next session.

- (c) One representative from an Eastern European State; for the sixty-ninth to seventy-third sessions, as well as the guidelines on election of Chairs and Rapporteurs of the Main Committees contained in the annex to the resolution; requested the Ad Hoc Working Group to prepare long-term arrangements concerning the election of Chairs and Rapporteurs of the Main Committees of the Assembly with the aim of establishing a predictable, transparent and fair mechanism, in consultation with regional groups, and to submit them to the Assembly not later than the seventy-second session and, in this regard, invited Member States to present proposals and begin giving early attention to conclude a future arrangement which would come into effect as of the seventy-fourth session of the Assembly with the annex to the resolution containing an option to be considered in this context (resolution 68/307).

At its fifty-eighth session, in 2003, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General to prepare, on a trial basis, for submission to the Assembly at its fifty-ninth session, a strategic framework to replace the four-year medium-term plan (resolution 58/269).

At its sixty-seventh session, the General Assembly considered the report of the Committee for Programme and Coordination on its fifty-second session and endorsed the conclusions and recommendations of the Committee on the proposed strategic framework for the period 2014-2015, as contained in chapter II, section B, of the report, and decided not to take a decision on the content of part one: plan outline of the proposed strategic framework for the period 2014-2015 (resolution 67/236).

At the same session, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General to prepare the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2014-2015 on the basis of the priorities and the strategic framework as adopted in the resolution (resolution 67/236).

At its sixty-eighth session, the General Assembly endorsed the conclusions and recommendations of the Committee for Programme and Coordination on evaluation on the annual overview report of the United Nations System Chief Executives Board for Coordination for 2012, on United Nations system support for the New Partnership for Africa's Development and on the reports of the Joint Inspection Unit (resolution 68/20).

133. Improving the financial situation of the United Nations

At its thirtieth session, in 1975, the General Assembly decided to include in the provisional agenda of its thirty-first session an item entitled "Financial emergency of the United Nations" (resolution 3538 (XXX)). The Assembly considered this question at its thirty-first to thirty-ninth sessions (resolutions 31/191, 32/104, 33/430, 35/113, 36/116 A and B, 37/13, 38/228 A and B and 39/239 A and B, and decision 34/435).

An item entitled "Current financial crisis of the United Nations" was included in the agenda of the fortieth session at the request of the Secretary-General (A/40/247). The Assembly considered this item at its fortieth and forty-second to forty-fifth sessions (resolutions 42/212, 43/215, 44/195 A and B and 45/236 A and B, and decisions 40/471, 40/472 and 42/460).

At its forty-seventh session, the General Assembly decided to consider in future the items entitled "Current financial crisis of the United Nations" and "Financial emergency of the United Nations” under one item entitled “Improving the financial situation of the United Nations”; and also decided to consider the financial situation of the organization as and when required (resolution 47/215).

The General Assembly has included the item in the agenda since its forty-eighth session (resolution 48/220 and decisions 49/474, 50/496, 51/462, 52/496, 53/494, 54/495, 55/493, 56/482, 57/598, 58/575, 59/569, 60/566, 61/566).

134. Pattern of conferences

A resolution entitled “Pattern of conferences” was adopted by the General Assembly at its twelfth session, in 1957, under the agenda item entitled “Budget estimates for the financial year 1958” (resolution 1202 (XII)). The item was considered by the Assembly at its seventeenth, eighteenth and twentieth to sixty-sixth sessions (resolutions 1851 (XVII), 1987 (XVIII), 2116 (XX), 2239 (XXI), 2361 (XXII), 2478 (XXIII), 2609 (XXIV), 2693 (XXV), 2834 (XXVI) and 2960 (XXVII) and decision of 11 December 1973; and resolutions 3351 (XXIX), 3491 (XXX), 31/140, 32/71, 33/55, 34/50, 35/10, 36/117, 37/14, 38/32, 39/68, 40/243, 41/177, 42/207, 43/222, 44/196, 45/238, 46/190, 47/202, 48/222, 49/221, 50/206, 51/211, 52/214, 53/208, 54/248, 55/222, 56/242, 57/283, 58/250, 59/265, 60/236, 61/236, 62/225, 63/248, 63/284, 64/230, 65/245 and 66/233).

At its twenty-ninth session, in 1974, the General Assembly established the Committee on Conferences, composed of 22 Member States (resolution 3351 (XXIX)).

At its forty-third session, the General Assembly decided to retain the Committee on Conferences as a permanent subsidiary organ composed of 21 members to be appointed by the President of the Assembly, after consultations with the chairs of the regional groups, for a period of three years (resolution 43/222 B) (see also item 114 (f)).

At its sixty-eighth session, the General Assembly invited Member States to include in new legislative mandates adequate information on the modalities for the organization of conferences or meetings and requested the Secretary-General to propose, at its sixty-ninth session, a comprehensive review of conference servicing, highlighting any duplication or redundancy, with a view to identifying innovative ideas, potential synergies and other cost-saving measures, without compromising the quality of the services (resolution 68/251).

At the same session, the General Assembly welcomed the proximity rule as an efficient approach, where feasible, to servicing meetings away from duty stations, and in this regard requested the Secretary-General to strengthen his efforts to realize further savings by rigorously applying the proximity rule to applicable meetings without jeopardizing the quality of services and to report thereon to the Committee on Conferences at its substantive session in 2014. The Assembly noted with appreciation the efforts of the Secretary-General in the context of the integrated global management initiative to establish and implement in the four main duty stations common performance indicators and single information technology systems (such as gData, gMeets, gDoc and gText), and requested the Secretary-General to report thereon at its sixty-ninth session (resolution 68/251).

Also at the sixty-eighth session, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General to report at its sixty-ninth session on concrete measures taken by author departments and the Department for General Assembly and Conference Management to improve the predictability of document delivery and ensure accountability for the meeting of deadlines in order to ensure the timely issuance of documentation (resolution 68/251).

At the same session, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General to make further concerted efforts to promote outreach programmes, such as traineeships and internships, and to introduce innovative methods to increase awareness of the programmes, including through partnerships with Member States, relevant international organizations and language institutions in all regions, in particular to close the wide gap in Africa and Latin America, and to report thereon at its sixty-ninth session (resolution 68/251).

Also at that session, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General to refrain from making any change of a substantive nature to agreed texts of both draft and adopted resolutions and to report thereon to the General Assembly at its sixty-ninth session, including on measures to enhance the quality, efficiency and cost-effectiveness of editing services within existing resources (resolution 68/251).

135. Scale of assessments for the apportionment of the expenses of the United Nations

The regular budget of the United Nations is apportioned among its Member States in accordance with the scale of assessments approved by the General Assembly on the recommendation of the Committee on Contributions (see item 114 (b)). The scale of assessments has also been used to apportion the costs of the capital master plan. The scale, as modified by the provisions of resolutions 55/235 and 55/236 and other resolutions concerning the financing of peacekeeping operations, has also been used to apportion the cost of peacekeeping operations among Member States. The assessment rates used for the regular budget and peacekeeping operations are also used for apportioning the costs of the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda, the International Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia and the International Residual Mechanism for Criminal Tribunals.

At its fifty-fourth session, in 1999, the General Assembly decided that requests for exemption under Article 19 of the Charter must be submitted by Member States to the President of the Assembly at least two weeks before the session of the Committee on Contributions, so as to ensure a complete review of the requests (resolution 54/237 C).

At its fifty-seventh session, the General Assembly endorsed the conclusions and recommendations of the Committee on Contributions concerning multi-year payment plans, as contained in paragraphs 17 to 23 of its report (A/57/11). Among those recommendations were that the Secretary-General should be requested to provide information on the submission of multi-year payment plans to the Assembly through the Committee and to submit an annual report to the Assembly through the Committee on the status of Member States' payment plans as at 31 December each year (resolution 57/4 B).

At its sixty-seventh session, the General Assembly adopted a scale of assessments for the period 2013 to 2015, based on the recommendations of the Committee on Contributions and using the same methodology applied to the preparation of the scale of assessments for the previous four scale periods. The Assembly recognized that the current methodology could be enhanced, bearing in mind the principle of capacity to pay. The Assembly also recognized the need to study the methodology in depth and in an effective and expeditious manner, taking into account the views expressed by Member States, and requested the Committee on Contributions to review and make recommendations on the elements of the methodology of the scale of assessments in order to reflect the capacity of Member States to pay, and to report thereon to the Assembly by the main part of its seventieth session (resolution 67/238).

At its sixty-eighth session, the General Assembly decided that, in accordance with financial regulation 3.9 of the Financial Regulations and Rules of the United Nations, the State of Palestine, which was not a member of the United Nations but which participated in certain of its activities, would be called upon to contribute towards the expenses of the Organization for 2012, 2013, 2014 and 2015 on the basis of a notional assessment rate of 0.005 per cent, which represented the basis for the calculation of the flat annual fees to be charged to the State of Palestine in accordance with resolution 44/197 B of 21 December 1989, and that the State of Palestine would contribute one twelfth of this rate for each full month as a non-member observer State in 2012 (decision 68/548).

136. Human resources management

The General Assembly first considered this item at its forty-ninth session (resolutions 49/222 A and B and decision 49/491).

The General Assembly then considered this item at fifty-first to fifty-fifth, fifty-seventh to sixty-third, sixty-fifth and sixty-sixth sessions (resolutions 51/226, 52/219, 53/221, 55/258, 57/305, 58/285, 59/266, 60/238, 61/244, 62/248, 63/250, 65/247 and 66/234 and decisions 50/454, 50/469, 54/460, 60/551 and 62/545).

At its fifty-sixth and sixty-fourth sessions, the General Assembly deferred consideration of this item until its subsequent session (decision 56/458 C and 64/548).

At its sixty-seventh session, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General to submit at its sixty-ninth session a progress report on the implementation of the ongoing human resources management reforms, including the implementation of the continuing appointments regime. Regretting the lack of proposals for a comprehensive review of the system of desirable ranges, the Assembly also requested the Secretary-General to present, no later than at the sixty-ninth session, proposals with a view to establishing a more effective tool for ensuring equitable geographical distribution in relation to the posts financed through the regular budget. Noting that the 120-day target for filling a post had still not been reached, the Assembly further requested the Secretary-General to investigate the reasons for delays at each stage of the staff selection and recruitment process and to report at its sixty-ninth session on the outcome of that work. Finally, the Assembly requested the Secretary-General to report on further steps to meet learning and development needs in a cost-effective manner, to promote e-learning and to conduct a comprehensive review of the method and format of the young professionals programme examination and report thereon with concrete proposals (resolution 67/255).

At its sixty-eighth session, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General to submit for consideration at its sixty-ninth session a comprehensive performance management proposal, including all necessary modalities and recommendations. It also requested the Secretary-General to report at its sixty-ninth session on progress in developing and implementing measures to accelerate the placement of successful candidates from the young professionals programme roster, efforts taken to mitigate and recoup any losses arising from relevant acts of misconduct of staff members, and demographic trends in the composition of the Secretariat (resolution 68/252).

At the same session, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General to report at its sixty-ninth session on an analysis of the link between the recruitment and selection recommendations of the job network boards and the future workforce planning agenda for the Organization, and to submit an update on progress and further proposals on a thorough reform of performance management. The Assembly also requested that the Secretary-General report on mobility with additional information, including current staff mobility statistics and actual costs related to moves, non-rotational positions, posts open to external candidates, vacancy rates, the terms of reference and operating guidelines of the job network boards and special constraints panel, and transitional measures to ensure the sustainable implementation of mobility for staff, among other items (resolution 68/265).

137. Joint Inspection Unit

At its twenty-first session, in 1966, the General Assembly established the Joint Inspection Unit for an initial period of four years (resolution 2150 (XXI)), and subsequently decided to continue the Unit until 31 December 1973 (resolution 2735 A (XXV)) and then for a further period of four years beyond that date (resolution 2924 B (XXVII)). At its thirty-first session, the Assembly approved the statute of the Unit as a subsidiary organ of the Assembly and of the legislative bodies of the specialized agencies that accepted the new statute (resolution 31/192). The membership of the Unit was increased from 8 to not more than 11 Inspectors, with effect from 1 January 1978.

The General Assembly considered this question at various sessions from its twenty-first to sixty-sixth sessions (resolutions 2150 (XXI), 2360 A (XXII), 2735 A (XXV), 2924 B (XXVII), 31/192, 32/199, 37/124, 38/229, 39/242, 40/259, 41/213, 42/218, 43/221, 44/184, 45/237, 48/221, 50/233, 54/16, 54/255, 55/230, 56/245, 57/284 A and B, 58/286, 59/267, 60/258, 61/238, 61/260, 62/226, 62/246, 63/272, 64/262, 65/270 and 66/259).

At its fiftieth session, in July 1996, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General, and invited the executive heads of organizations participating in the Unit, to take the necessary measures to ensure that the thematic reports of the Unit were listed under the appropriate substantive agenda items of the work programmes of the Assembly, other pertinent organs and bodies of the United Nations and the appropriate legislative organs of the other participating organizations (resolution 50/233).

At its fifty-fourth session, the General Assembly endorsed the follow-up system annexed to the Unit's report (A/52/34) and invited the Unit to include in its annual reports approved recommendations that had not been implemented (resolution 54/16).

At its fifty-fifth session, the General Assembly decided to consider the annual reports of the Unit on an annual basis (resolution 55/230).

At its fifty-ninth session, the General Assembly decided that the Unit should include in its annual reports information on implementation and the results achieved by organizations in respect of their follow-up to the recommendations of the Unit, as endorsed by their legislative bodies, and the arrangements put in place by participating organizations for reporting thereon (resolution 59/267).

At its sixty-first session the General Assembly requested that reports of the Unit include information on savings, acceptance rate of recommendations and implementation status by impact category (resolution 61/238, sect. I).

At its resumed sixty-first session, the General Assembly decided to consider jointly the annual report and programme of work of the Unit starting from the sixty-second session (resolution 61/260).

At its resumed sixty-second session, the General Assembly invited the Unit to report in the context of its annual reports on experience in the implementation of the follow-up system by the participating organizations (resolution 62/246).

At its resumed sixty-eighth session, the General Assembly reiterated its requests to the executive heads of the participating organizations to fully comply with the statutory procedures for consideration of the reports of the Unit and, in particular, to submit their comments, distribute reports in time for their consideration by legislative organs, provide information on the steps to be taken to implement those recommendations accepted by the legislative organs and the executive heads of participating organizations, make full use of the web-based system of the Unit and provide an in-depth analysis of how the recommendations were being implemented. The Assembly also reiterated its requests to the Secretary-General and the other executive heads of the participating organizations to fully assist the Unit with the timely provision of all information requested by it. Finally, The Assembly further reiterated its requests to the Unit to consider optimizing the number of projects in its programme of work through prioritization; issue its reports well in advance of meetings of the legislative organs of participating organizations. Finally, the Assembly reaffirmed that the Unit should be invited to be represented at meetings when its budget estimates were being discussed, in accordance with article 20 of the statute of the Unit (resolution 68/266).

138. United Nations common system

The General Assembly, by its resolution 3042 (XXVII), decided in principle to establish an international civil service commission for the regulation and coordination of the conditions of service of the United Nations common system. By its resolution 3357 (XXIX), the Assembly approved the statute of the International Civil Service Commission. The United Nations common system comprises 13 organizations that have accepted the Commission's statute and, together with the United Nations itself, participate in the United Nations common system of salaries and allowances. Other organizations have not formally accepted the statute but fully participate in the Commission's work or apply the common system of salaries, allowances and benefits. Under its statute, the Commission is required to submit an annual report to the Assembly, which is also to be transmitted to the governing organs of the other organizations of the common system, through their executive heads.

At its sixty-seventh session, the General Assembly requested the Commission to report at its sixty-eighth and sixty-ninth sessions on the progress, preliminary findings and administrative aspects of the comprehensive review of the compensation package for staff in the Professional and higher categories (resolution 67/257).

At its sixty-eighth session, the General Assembly deferred its decision on the recommendation of the Commission to raise the mandatory age of separation to 65 years without prejudice to its proposed time frame, and requested the Commission to undertake further analysis, in consultation with all relevant stakeholders, on the impact of the adoption of this recommendation on workforce and succession planning frameworks and all relevant human resources management policies, including performance management and appraisal, rejuvenation, gender balance and equitable geographic representation, across the United Nations common system and to report thereon at its sixty-ninth session. The Assembly recalled that the five-year average of the net remuneration margin should be maintained around the desirable midpoint of 115, and requested the Commission to submit to the Assembly, no later than at the main part of its sixty-ninth session, recommendations on the range of actions and time schedules that would bring the margin back to its desirable midpoint. The Assembly also requested the Commission to review and submit at its sixty-ninth session proposals on synchronizing the post adjustment cycles at headquarters duty stations (resolution 68/253).

139. United Nations pension system

The United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund, the Regulations for which were adopted initially by the General Assembly at its third session, in 1948 (resolution 248 (III)), is administered by the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Board, currently consisting of 33 members, one third of whom are elected by the Assembly and the corresponding legislative bodies of the other member organizations, one third by the executive heads of those organizations and one third by the participants.

The Fund comprises the United Nations and 22 other member organizations. As at 31 December 2013, the total number of active participants was 120,294 and there were 69,980 periodic benefits in award.

At its forty-sixth session, in 1991, the General Assembly decided to consider this item on a biennial basis, in even-numbered years (resolution 46/220).

At its sixty-seventh session, the General Assembly took note of the report of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Board for 2012, in particular the actions taken by the Board as set out in chapter II.B of the report (resolution 67/240).

The Pension Board held its sixty-first session at the headquarters of the Food And Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, in Rome, from 10 to 18 July 2014. It recommended to the General Assembly approval of: (a) an amendment to Article 4 of the Regulations of the Fund to make a provision for the promulgation of financial rules in the future that would govern the financial management of the Fund; (b) an addition to article 14(b) to clarify the mandate of the Board of Auditors vis-à-vis the Fund and to establish the terms of reference for the Fund's annual audits; (c) the approval of technical changes in the Fund's Regulations in accordance with past decisions and amendments adopted by the Pension Board and approved by the General Assembly; and (d) an addition to the table in paragraph 7 of section E of the pension adjustment system to reflect the 10 per cent adjustment to small-pension threshold amounts for separations on or after 1 April 2016. The Board also asked the Assembly to give its approval to three new transfer agreements between the Fund and the European Organization for the Exploitation of Meteorological Satellites, the European Union Satellite Centre and the European Union Institute for Security Studies, as set out in annex XIV to the report of the Board. It also recommended that the following assessments be discontinued, considering the comments of the Committee of Actuaries that these assessments were consistent with the Consulting Actuary's initial estimates and were subsumed in the overall cost of the two-track feature, which would continue to be monitored in conjunction with each actuarial valuation: (a) assessment of the costs of the April 1992 modification of the cost-of-living differential factors, as applicable to Professional and higher categories; (b) assessment of actual savings from a reduction of the "120 per cent cap" provision to 110 per cent, effective for separations on 1 July 1995 or later; and (c) assessment of the costs/savings of the minimum guarantee at 80 per cent of the United States dollar track amount.

140. Administrative and budgetary coordination of the United Nations with the specialized agencies and the International Atomic Energy Agency

Article 17, paragraph 3, of the Charter of the United Nations provides that the General Assembly shall examine the administrative budgets of the specialized agencies referred to in Article 57 with a view to making recommendations to the agencies concerned. General Assembly resolution 14 (I) provides that one of the functions of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions is to examine on behalf of the Assembly the administrative budgets of the specialized agencies and proposals for financial arrangements with such agencies. This provision is repeated in rule 157 of the rules of procedure of the Assembly. At its forty-seventh session, the Assembly requested the Secretary-General to submit the next statistical report by the Administrative Committee on Coordination to the Assembly at its forty-ninth session and thereafter every second year, and to add to the material covered therein information on assessed and voluntary contributions paid by Member States and non-Member States in each of the two prior calendar years (decision 47/449).

The General Assembly considered this item biennially from its forty-ninth to sixty-fifth sessions (decisions 49/465, 51/453, 53/459, 55/472, 57/557, 57/558, 59/548, 61/548, 63/547 and 65/541).

At its resumed sixty-seventh session, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General, in his capacity as Chair of the United Nations System Chief Executives Board for Coordination, to coordinate the annual compilation of analysis relating to the financial situation of organizations participating in the common system, including a focus on the budgetary implications of adjustments to all elements of staff costs, both for the most recently completed calendar year and, on the basis of projections, for the subsequent calendar year, and to submit the related report to the General Assembly at its sixty-ninth session (decision 67/553 B).

141. Report on the activities of the Office of Internal Oversight Services

The Office of Internal Oversight Services (OIOS) was established in 1994 by the General Assembly in its resolution 48/218 B. The Assembly decided to include in the provisional agenda of its fiftieth session an item entitled “Report of the Secretary-General on the activities of the Office of Internal Oversight Services”.

The General Assembly continued its consideration of the item at its fiftieth and fifty-fourth to fifty-seventh sessions (resolutions 50/239, 54/244, 55/259, 56/246 and 57/287 A-C).

At its fifty-ninth session, the General Assembly, under the item entitled “Review of the implementation of Assembly resolutions 48/218 B and 54/244”, requested the Secretary-General to ensure that annual and semi-annual reports submitted by OIOS to the Assembly contained the titles and brief summaries of all other reports of the Office issued during the year and that original versions of the reports of the Office not submitted to the Assembly were, upon request, made available to any Member State; and further decided that reports of the Office should be submitted directly to the Assembly as submitted by the Office and that the comments of the Secretary-General might be submitted in a separate report (resolution 59/272).

The General Assembly considered the item at its sixtieth session (resolutions 60/255, sect. I, and 60/257 and decision 60/551 A).

At its sixtieth session, the General Assembly, under the agenda item entitled “Report of the Secretary-General on the activities of the Office of Internal Oversight Services”, modified the title of the agenda item to read “Report on the activities of the Office of Internal Oversight Services” in accordance with paragraph 3 of resolution 59/272 (resolution 60/259).

The General Assembly considered the item at its sixty-first to sixty-sixth sessions (resolutions 61/275, 61/279, 62/87, 62/225, 62/232, 62/236, 62/247, 63/248, 63/265, 64/232, 65/250 and 66/236).

At its sixty-fourth session, under the item entitled “Review of the implementation of General Assembly resolutions 48/218 B, 54/244 and 59/272“, the Assembly endorsed the observations, comments and recommendations on the effectiveness, efficiency and impact of OIOS contained in the annex to the annual report of the Independent Audit Advisory Committee (A/64/288) and requested the Secretary-General to ensure the full implementation of paragraphs 20 (a) to (c), 20 (e), 27, 29, 33, 35 and 39 of the annex and to take no action on paragraphs 19, 20 (d), 21, 22, 24, 42 and 43 of the annex. The Assembly also decided to revert to the issues and recommendations contained in paragraphs 19, 20 (d), 21, 22, 24, 42 and 43 of the annex no later than at the main part of its sixty-sixth session (resolution 64/263).

At its sixty-seventh session, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General to entrust the Office with publishing audit reports on the website of the Office, on an experimental basis, by no later than 1 July 2013, until 31 December 2014, and decided that a final decision on the continuation of the experiment should be made in the context of the review of the mandate of the Office to be conducted during the sixty-ninth session of the Assembly. The Assembly also requested the Secretary-General to take all measures necessary to ensure that the credibility of the Organization and its staff was protected (resolution 67/258).

At its sixty-eighth session, the General Assembly reaffirmed the independence and separate and distinct roles of the internal and external oversight mechanisms, encouraged United Nations internal and external oversight bodies to further enhance the level of their cooperation with one another and encouraged the Office to further enhance its analysis of general trends and strategic challenges regarding internal oversight in the United Nations and to include an update on all critical recommendations, taking into account the risk category, the target date for implementation and the office to be held accountable for such implementation. The Assembly noted the external quality reviews conducted in the different divisions of the Office, and looked forward to receiving updates on the implementation of the recommendations of those reviews in the context of future annual reports. It requested the Secretary-General to continue to ensure the full implementation of the accepted recommendations of the Office, including those relating to cost avoidance, recovery of overpayments, efficiency gains and other improvements, in a prompt and timely manner, and to provide detailed justifications in cases in which recommendations of the Office were not accepted. Furthermore, the Assembly recalled paragraph 68 of the report of the Independent Audit Advisory Committee on its activities for the period from 1 August 2012 to 31 July 2013 (A/68/273) regarding the proposal to transfer all investigations to the Office in the long term, and in this regard requested the Secretary-General to report thereon to the Assembly by no later than the main part of its sixty-ninth session (resolution 68/21) (also relates to item 130).

143. Administration of justice at the United Nations

The General Assembly considered the item at its fifty-fifth to fifty-ninth and sixty-first to sixty-seventh sessions (resolutions 55/258, 57/307, 59/283, 62/228, 63/253, 64/119, 64/233, 65/251, 66/237 and 67/237 and decisions 56/458 C, 58/576, 61/503 A, 63/531, 64/527, 64/553 and 65/213).

At its sixty-second session, the General Assembly established: (a) a two-tier formal system of administration of justice, comprising a first instance United Nations Dispute Tribunal and an appellate instance United Nations Appeals Tribunal; (b) the Office of Administration of Justice, comprising the Office of the Executive Director and the Office of Staff Legal Assistance and the Registries for the United Nations Dispute Tribunal and the United Nations Appeals Tribunal; (c) a single integrated and decentralized Office of the Ombudsman for the United Nations Secretariat, funds and programmes with branches in several duty stations and a new mediation division; (d) the Internal Justice Council; and (e) the Management Evaluation Unit in the Office of the Under-Secretary-General for Management (resolution 62/228).

At its sixty-third session, the General Assembly adopted the statutes of the United Nations Dispute Tribunal and the United Nations Appeals Tribunal and decided that those Tribunals would be operational as of 1 July 2009 and that all persons who had access to the Office of the Ombudsman under the previous system would also have access to the new informal system (resolution 63/253).

Consideration of the item in the Fifth Committee

At its sixty-eighth session, the General Assembly requested the Secretary-General to submit to the Assembly for consideration at its sixty-ninth session a revised proposal for conducting an interim independent assessment of the system of administration of justice, to be carried out in a cost-efficient manner by independent experts, including experts familiar with internal labour dispute mechanisms, and decided that the assessment should examine the system of administration of justice in all its aspects, with particular attention to the formal system and its relation with the informal system, including an analysis of whether the aims and objectives of the system set out in resolution 61/261 were being achieved in an efficient and cost-effective manner. The Assembly stressed the importance of good management practice and requested the Secretary-General to report at the main part of its sixty-ninth session on efforts made to promote a positive and transparent work environment in order to address the underlying factors that gave rise to disputes in the workplace (resolution 68/254, sect. I).

At the same session, with regard to the informal system, the Assembly requested the Secretary-General to recommend to it at its sixty-ninth session additional innovative measures to encourage recourse to informal resolution of dispute and to report to it at the main part of its sixty-ninth session on progress made on the implementation of the recommendations to address systemic and cross-cutting issues contained in the report of the Secretary-General on the activities of the Office of the United Nations Ombudsman and Mediation Services. It also requested the Office to report on the financial and administrative implications resulting from settlements reached through informal dispute resolution and reiterated its request to the Secretary-General to report on the revised terms of reference for the Office and ensure that the terms of reference and guidelines for the Office were promulgated as soon as possible. The Assembly further requested the Office to set out clearly in future reports information on the number and nature of cases from non-staff personnel, as well as data on the distribution of workload among conflict resolution, systemic issues and conflict competence (resolution 68/254, sect. II).

Also at the same session, with regard to the formal system, the General Assembly recognized the ongoing positive contribution of the Office of Staff Legal Assistance to the system of administration of justice and decided that the funding of that Office should be supplemented by a voluntary payroll deduction not exceeding 0.05 per cent of a staff member's monthly net base salary and that this funding mechanism should be implemented on an experimental basis from 1 January 2014 to 31 December 2015. It requested the Secretary-General to report on the implementation of the mechanism and to track, on a monthly basis, the opt-out rate and the amount of revenue generated under the supplementary funding mechanism and authorized him to enter into commitments for the period from 1 January 2014 to 31 December 2015, from that revenue, in an amount not exceeding that revenue, to finance any additional resources for the Office of Staff Legal Assistance during the experimental phase of the mechanism. The Assembly also requested the Secretary-General to continue to track the data on the number of cases received by the Management Evaluation Unit and the Dispute Tribunal in order to identify any emerging trends and to include his observations on those statistics in future reports; to propose an amendment to the statute of the Appeals Tribunal, taking into account the recommendation of the Internal Justice Council relating to qualifications of Appeals Tribunal judges; and to examine the immunities of the judges of the two Tribunals and present to it at its sixty-ninth session recommendations that would not result in a change in the rank or conditions of service of the judges. It invited the Sixth Committee to consider those recommendations, without prejudice to the role of the Fifth Committee. The Assembly further requested the Secretary-General to continue to include information on disputes involving non-staff personnel in the context of both management evaluation and informal mediation in his respective reports and reiterated its request that he provide information on existing measures to institutionalize good management practice that aim to avoid or mitigate disputes involving the different categories of non-staff personnel. It requested that the Secretary-General present at its sixty-ninth session the code of conduct for external legal representatives, including appropriate sanctions for breaches thereof as safeguards against frivolous applications, and proposals with reference to the accountability of all individuals where violations of the Organization's rules and procedures have led to financial loss (resolution 68/254, sects. III and IV).

At its sixty-eighth session, the General Assembly requested the Internal Justice Council to report on the impact of the request contained in paragraph 33 of resolution 67/241, taking into account the views of all relevant stakeholders. It stressed that the Internal Justice Council could help to ensure independence, professionalism and accountability in the system of administration of justice, and requested the Secretary-General to entrust the Council with including the views of both the Dispute Tribunal and the Appeals Tribunal in its annual reports (resolution 68/254, sects. III and IV).

At the same session, the General Assembly invited the Sixth Committee to consider the legal aspects of the report to be submitted by the Secretary-General, without prejudice to the role of the Fifth Committee as the Main Committee entrusted with responsibilities for administrative and budgetary matters (resolution 68/254, sect. IV).
