Letter dated 7 November 1951 addressed to the Chairman of the Conciliation Commission by the Representative of Lebanon

Sir,

I have the honour to acknowledge receipt of Your Excellency's letter of 31 October 1951 concerning the replies to be made to the Conciliation Commission's proposals.

As has already been stated, in particular in the note addressed to the Commission by the Arab delegations on 19 September 1951, my delegation is ready to continue its collaboration with the Commission in the task it has undertaken. My delegation is therefore at the Commission's disposal to discuss the proposals.

Please accept, Sir, the assurances of my high consideration.
