Letter dated 10 October 2013 from the Permanent Representative of Costa Rica to the United Nations addressed to the Secretary-General

I have the honour to refer to the High-level Conference on the theme “Challenges for sustainable development and international cooperation in middle-income countries: the role of Networks for Prosperity”, held in San José from 12 to 14 June 2013 under the auspices of the Government of Costa Rica and the United Nations Industrial Development Organization.

In this connection, I have the pleasure to bring to the attention of the members of the Second Committee the outcome document of the Conference, known as the “San José Declaration”.¹

¹ Circulated as a document of the fifteenth session of the General Conference of the United Nations Industrial Development Organization (GC.15/3, annex I, decision IDB.41/Dec.4, annex).

I should be grateful if you would have this letter circulated as a document of the General Assembly under agenda items 17, 18, 19, 21 (a), (c) and (d), 23 (a) and 24 (b).
