DRAFT INTERNATIONAL DECLARATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS

Text of articles 27 and 28 of the draft
Declaration as adopted by the Committee

Article 27

1. Everyone has duties to the community in which alone the free and full development of his personality is possible.
2. In the exercise of his rights and freedoms, everyone shall be subject only to such limitations as are prescribed by law solely for the purpose of securing due recognition and respect for the rights and freedoms of others and the just requirements of morality, public order and the general welfare in a democratic society.
3. These rights and freedoms can in no case be exercised contrary to the purposes and principles of the United Nations.

Article 28

Nothing in this Declaration shall imply the recognition of the right of any State, group or person to engage in any activity or to perform any act aimed at the destruction of any of the rights and freedoms prescribed herein.
