Organizational and procedural matters

Statement by the President

PRST 22/... Mainstreaming human rights into the post-2015 development agenda

The Human Rights Council,

Acknowledging that peace and security, development and human rights are the pillars of the United Nations system and the foundations for collective security and well-being, and recognizing that development, peace and security and human rights are interlinked and mutually reinforcing,

Reaffirming that all human rights are universal, indivisible, interrelated, interdependent and mutually reinforcing, and that all human rights must be treated in a fair and equal manner, on the same footing and with the same emphasis,

Stresses the need to integrate a human rights perspective into the post-2015 development agenda and the importance of the contribution of human rights mechanisms in this regard.
