Twenty-third session

Agenda item 10

Technical assistance and capacity-building

Gabon (on behalf of the Group of African States): draft resolution

23/...Technical assistance and capacity-building for South Sudan in the field of human rights

The Human Rights Council,

Guided by the purposes and principles of the Charter of the United Nations,

Guided also by the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights and relevant human rights treaties to which South Sudan is party,

Emphasizing that States have the primary responsibility for the promotion and protection of human rights,

Recalling Human Rights Council resolutions 18/17 of 29 September 2011 and 21/28 of 28 September 2012 on technical assistance and capacity-building for South Sudan,

Recognizing the challenges of institution- and State-building facing South Sudan, including the administration of justice and the rule of law, the protection of the rights of women and the enjoyment of civil, political, social and economic rights, and commending the steps being taken to address those challenges,

Welcoming the commitments made by the Government of South Sudan to strengthen national mechanisms for the promotion and protection of human rights, and calling upon the Government to implement those commitments,

Expressing concern at the continuation of inter-communal fighting, and calling upon the Government to raise awareness and enforce appropriate legal frameworks in the country,

Welcoming the steps taken by the Government of South Sudan in the protection and promotion of human rights, in particular to build the capacity of the Human Rights Commission, and calling upon the Government to take steps to ensure the independence of the South Sudan Human Rights Commission, in accordance with the Paris Principles,

Welcoming also the Government's support for the United Nations Plan of Action on the Safety of Journalists and the Issue of Impunity,

1. Calls upon the Government of South Sudan to implement legally binding international and regional human rights instruments to which it is party;
2. Takes note of the report of the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights on technical assistance and capacity-building for South Sudan;¹
3. Requests the Government to take steps to tackle impunity and improve the justice system, including improvement of the training of government officials to foster a culture of accountability;
4. Requests Member States, relevant United Nations agencies and stakeholders to support, as a matter of urgency, the national efforts of the Government of South Sudan on technical assistance and capacity-building to include training and workshops in human rights education to overcome challenges in the areas of security and to promote respect for human rights;
5. Requests the Government to take steps to further strengthen the independence of the South Sudan Human Rights Commission, enabling it to contribute to promotion and protection of the human rights of the people of South Sudan;
6. Requests the High Commissioner to report on the situation of human rights in South Sudan, to work with the Government of South Sudan to provide technical assistance, and to identify additional areas of assistance to strengthen the capacity of South Sudan to fulfil its human rights obligations and commitments;
7. Also requests the High Commissioner to submit an interim report to the Human Rights Council at its twenty-sixth session, and a final report at its twenty-eighth session, on progress in technical assistance and capacity-building in the field of human rights;
8. Decides to remain seized of this matter.
