* State not a member of the Human Rights Council.

Alarmed that hundreds of thousands of human beings of all ages around the world continue to have their human rights, in particular their right to life and security of person, negatively affected by the misuse, intentional or unintentional, of firearms, which has direct links to violence, including violence against women and children, and domestic violence,

Noting with concern that cases of civilian firearms-related violence cause death, non-fatal physical injuries and psychological trauma, and may lead to severe disability and an overall decline in a sense of public safety,

Recognizing that the costs generated by civilian firearms-related violence in terms of, inter alia, medical treatment, mental health services and criminal justice might undermine the capabilities of States to use their resources to further enhance the promotion and protection of human rights and fundamental freedoms,

Recognizing also that national regulation of civilian acquisition, possession and use of firearms includes appropriate measures to avoid illicit practices, including diversion of firearms,

Recognizing further the importance of systematic measuring, monitoring and reporting of civilian firearms related-violence for the enjoyment of human rights,

Acknowledging that an effective national regulation of civilian acquisition, possession and use of firearms may contribute positively to diminishing the number of victims of the misuse of firearms, and may enhance the protection of all human rights, namely civil, political, economic, social and cultural rights,

Acknowledging also the efforts made by different States at various levels, including at the regional and subregional levels, to ensure that the civilian acquisition, possession and use of firearms in their respective societies are effectively regulated,

1. Reiterates its deep concern at the fact that hundreds of thousands of human beings of all ages around the world have lost their lives or suffered injuries and psychological harm by the misuse of firearms by civilians, thus having their human rights, in particular their right to life and security of person, negatively affected;

2. Recognizes that civilian firearms-related violence and insecurity pose direct risks to the right to life, security of person and physical integrity, and also affect other civil and political, as well as economic, social and cultural rights, including the rights to health, to education, to an adequate standard of living and social security and to the right to participate in public, political and cultural life;

3. Calls once more upon all States to do their utmost to take appropriate legislative, administrative and other measures, consistent with international law, in particular human rights law, and their constitutional frameworks, in order to ensure that the civilian acquisition, possession and use of firearms are effectively regulated with the aim of enhancing the protection of the human rights of all;

4. Calls upon States to ensure that regulations on the civilian acquisition, possession and use of firearms include appropriate measures to avoid illicit practices, including diversion of firearms;

5. Also calls upon all States to take effective measures with the aim of implementing the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development, in particular Sustainable Development Goal 16, to promote peaceful and inclusive societies;

6. Welcomes the report of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights on human rights and the regulation of civilian acquisition, possession and use of firearms, and the different ways in which firearms have been effectively regulated;<sup>1</sup>

7. Requests the High Commissioner to prepare a report on the impact of the civilian acquisition, possession and use of firearms on civil, political, economic, social and cultural rights, with a view to contributing to a fuller understanding of that impact by States and other relevant stakeholders, and to the strengthening or developing of effective national regulation and to other possible measures taken by States, and to present the report to the Human Rights Council at its forty-second session;

8. Invites all relevant special procedures, commissions of inquiry and human rights treaty bodies, as well as the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights, to continue to bear in mind the present resolution within the framework of their respective mandates;

9. Requests the Secretary-General to bring the present resolution to the attention of all Member States;

10. Decides to remain seized of this issue.
