Position of the State of Qatar on the recommendations resulting from the review of its third national report to the universal periodic review mechanism

1. The State of Qatar reaffirms that it is fully committed to continuous action to protect and promote human rights and reiterates its permanent support for the contractual and non-contractual United Nations human rights mechanisms, including the universal periodic review mechanism, which provides an opportunity for self-analysis, and for a review of the current situation and best practices in the promotion and protection of human rights.

2. The State of Qatar carefully studied the recommendations submitted to the State during the review of its third periodic report to the Universal Periodic Review Working Group, namely 270 recommendations, and appropriate decisions were taken following consultations with the competent authorities.

4. The State of Qatar has taken note of 92 recommendations on account of their incompatibility with the Islamic sharia, the Constitution or domestic legislation, on grounds related to sovereignty, or because they require further study or are based on unsubstantiated allegations.
