Information circular*

To: Members of the staff

From: The Assistant Secretary-General for Human Resources Management

Subject: Review of staff claims for dependency benefits for 2016

1. The entitlement to dependency benefits is established in staff rule 3.6 and implemented for 2016 under administrative instruction ST/AI/2011/5, entitled “Dependency status and dependency benefits”. The purpose of the present circular is to inform staff members who were in receipt of dependency benefits in 2016 and who have not been subject to the 2016 dependency review¹ of the manner in which the review of their 2016 dependency benefits will be conducted, as well as the timelines for the exercise.

2. For ease of reference, annex I contains details on the types of dependency benefits, annex II contains contact information, and annex III contains details on the documentation required for the continuation of benefits.

I. Review of dependency benefits using the Umoja annual declaration form and timeline for the review

3. The 2016 review of dependency benefits will be conducted in Umoja using the annual declaration form, which will be available to staff on 15 January 2018.

4. The 2016 Umoja declaration form contains the information on personal status and the recognized dependants of each staff member as at 31 December 2016. Staff members are requested to review the information carefully. If the data are correct, they must certify the accuracy of the information contained in the form and supply relevant additional information, including the answer to the question regarding the amount of dependency benefit in the form of a government grant received for each child, if applicable. If the data are incorrect, they will be given the opportunity to correct the data before submitting the certification. Depending on the benefit received, supporting documentation may also be required (see sect. II and annex III for details).

* The present circular will expire on 31 December 2018.

¹ Staff members from the United Nations Office at Geneva, the secretariat of the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change, the International Trade Centre, the International Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia and any other entities that have completed the 2016 review of dependency benefits are not required to repeat the review and comply with the instructions and deadline contained in the present circular.

5. Staff members in receipt of dependency benefits for 2016 will receive, by email from the Office of Human Resources Management, instructions on how to access their annual declaration form in Umoja on the day on which the review begins.

6. Upon receipt of the instructions, staff members who have a dependant recognized by the United Nations shall review their dependency data for 2016 in the Umoja employee self-service module and electronically submit the certification and supporting documentation as soon as possible, but no later than 16 March 2018.

II. Supporting documentation

7. In order to confirm continued eligibility to receive certain dependency benefits, supporting documentation may be required.

8. Documentation not required. No documentation is required for the continuation of dependency benefits for the following dependants:

(a) An unemployed spouse; or

(b) A dependent child under the age of 18 residing with the staff member and not receiving dependency benefit in the form of a government grant.

9. Documentation required. To verify a staff member's entitlement to dependency benefits, and to establish the staff member's continued entitlement to such dependency benefits, documentation in support of the entitlement is required from the staff member for any dependants not mentioned under paragraph 8 above. See annex III to the present circular for a summary of the documentation required in support of a staff member's entitlement to dependency benefits.

10. Obligation to retain original documentation. Staff members must retain all required original documentation in support of an entitlement to dependency benefits for a period of five years and must be ready to provide that documentation to the Office of Human Resources Management or the Office of Internal Oversight Services upon request, within 30 days, for monitoring purposes (see annex III). Failure to do so will result in the immediate recovery of moneys and the discontinuation of benefits and could result in disciplinary action.

11. Staff members are required to submit the necessary documentation in support of an entitlement to dependency benefits using the annual declaration form. Partial documentation is not acceptable and may result in the immediate recovery of moneys and the discontinuation of benefits and could result in disciplinary action.

12. When evidence of support payments is necessary, the following will be considered as acceptable proof of payment: cancelled (i.e. paid) cheques, money order receipts, wire transfer receipts and original records of bank transactions, including printouts of online bank transfer receipts. Cash transactions are not considered to be acceptable proof of support. Payments or transfers made to another party or person will not be accepted, except for cases where transfers are made to a legal guardian.

13. The submission of forged documents, the making of a false certification of the information contained in the annual declaration form or a misrepresentation of facts relating to a claim for dependency benefits may lead to the initiation of a disciplinary process and the imposition of disciplinary measures.

III. Recoveries and overpayments

14. Dependency benefits will be discontinued and overpayment recovered in accordance with section 3 of administrative instruction ST/AI/2009/1 when a staff member does not submit the annual declaration form and any requisite documentation by the deadline of 16 March 2018. Before the recovery of any overpayment, staff members will be advised in writing of the decision to recover the overpayment and of the reasons therefor. Recovery will be made through deductions of 20 per cent of the staff member's net monthly salary (excluding United Nations Federal Credit Union deductions) until such time as the full amount is recovered. In instances where the duration of the staff member's contract does not allow for a deduction at as low a rate as 20 per cent, the overpayment will be deducted at a monthly rate that is sufficient to recover the full amount by the expiration date of the contract.

15. Staff members are reminded that, in addition to discontinuation of dependency benefits, non-compliance with the submission deadline may also result in a determination that the claimed individuals are no longer dependants, which could have an impact on the continuation of other benefits, including the G-4 visa, education grant, education grant travel and home leave travel. It is therefore imperative that staff members complete the annual declaration form by the deadline of 16 March 2018.

IV. Adding dependants retroactively

16. In accordance with staff rule 3.17, staff members are reminded that, if they have not been receiving an allowance, grant or other payment to which they are entitled, they shall not receive retroactively such allowance, grant or payment unless they have made a written claim within one year following the date on which they would have been entitled to the initial payment. In this regard, staff members wishing to add dependants may do so by submitting the required original supporting documentation to their respective human resources partners and submitting an electronic request through the Umoja employee self-service module. For more details on the required supporting documentation for request or continuation of the benefit, see annex III.

Secondary dependants

9. The conditions for the recognition of a 2016 dependency benefit on account of a secondary dependant of the staff member are set out in staff rule 3.6 (a) (v) and administrative instruction ST/AI/2011/5, section 5. When a secondary dependant is recognized, a benefit will be paid at the rate determined by the General Assembly for staff in the Professional and higher categories and in the Field Service category.
