Conseil des droits de l'homme

Quarante-deuxième session

9-27 septembre 2019

Point 1 de l'ordre du jour

Questions d'organisation et de procédure

Élection des membres du Comité consultatif du Conseil des droits de l'homme*

Note du Secrétaire général

1. Conformément à sa résolution 5/1, le Conseil des droits de l'homme doit élire son Comité consultatif, composé de 18 experts siégeant à titre individuel et dont la candidature est proposée par les États Membres de l'Organisation des Nations Unies à l'issue de consultations avec les institutions nationales des droits de l'homme et les organisations de la société civile, au scrutin secret, sur la liste des candidats dont les noms auront été présentés conformément aux conditions arrêtées.
2. La répartition géographique des membres est la suivante :
 - a) États d'Afrique : 5 ;
 - b) États d'Asie et du Pacifique : 5 ;
 - c) États d'Europe orientale : 2 ;
 - d) États d'Amérique latine et des Caraïbes : 3 ;
 - e) États d'Europe occidentale et autres États : 3.
3. À sa sixième session, le Conseil a adopté la décision 6/102 sur le suivi de sa résolution 5/1, dans laquelle sont énoncés les critères techniques et objectifs de présentation des candidatures. Ces critères sont les suivants :
 - a) Compétence et expérience reconnues dans le domaine des droits de l'homme ;
 - b) Haute moralité ;
 - c) Indépendance et impartialité.

* L'annexe au présent document est distribuée telle qu'elle a été reçue, dans la langue de l'original seulement.

4. Les États sont invités à appliquer les directives suivantes concernant les critères techniques et objectifs pour la présentation de leurs candidats :

a) Compétence et expérience :

i) Études universitaires dans le domaine des droits de l'homme ou dans des domaines connexes et/ou expérience directe ou indirecte du rôle de responsable ou d'organisateur dans le domaine des droits de l'homme aux niveaux national, régional ou international ;

ii) Expérience appréciable (cinq années au moins) et contributions personnelles dans le domaine des droits de l'homme ;

iii) Connaissance du système des Nations Unies et des mandats et politiques institutionnels ayant trait aux activités dans ce domaine, ainsi que des instruments, normes et disciplines relatifs aux droits de l'homme ; une bonne connaissance des différents systèmes juridiques et des différentes civilisations serait souhaitable ;

iv) Maîtrise d'au moins une des langues officielles de l'ONU ;

v) Temps à consacrer aux travaux du Comité consultatif, pour concourir à son efficacité, tant en assistant à ses sessions qu'en menant à bien les activités prescrites entre les sessions ;

b) Haute moralité ;

c) Indépendance et impartialité : les personnes ayant de hautes responsabilités dans un gouvernement ou dans toute autre organisation ou entité qui pourraient donner lieu à un conflit d'intérêts avec les responsabilités inhérentes au mandat seront écartées ; les membres élus au Comité consultatif siégeront à titre individuel ;

d) Autres considérations : le principe du non-cumul des mandats dans le domaine des droits de l'homme doit être respecté.

5. Lorsqu'il élira les membres du Comité consultatif, le Conseil devrait accorder l'attention voulue à l'équilibre entre les sexes et à une représentation appropriée des différentes civilisations et des différents systèmes juridiques.

6. À sa septième session, le Conseil des droits de l'homme a élu pour la première fois les 18 membres du Comité consultatif. Quatre membres ont été élus pour un mandat d'un an, 7 pour un mandat de deux ans et 7 autres pour un mandat de trois ans.

7. À sa quarante-deuxième session, conformément à son programme de travail annuel, le Conseil des droits de l'homme procédera à des élections afin de pourvoir les sept sièges vacants du Comité consultatif. Parmi ces 7 sièges, 2 reviennent aux États d'Afrique, 2 aux États d'Asie et du Pacifique, 1 aux États d'Europe orientale, 1 aux États d'Amérique latine et des Caraïbes et 1 aux États d'Europe occidentale et autres États.

8. Conformément au paragraphe 71 de la résolution 5/1 du Conseil des droits de l'homme, la liste des candidats doit être close deux mois avant la date de l'élection et le secrétariat doit communiquer cette liste et les informations pertinentes aux États Membres et les rendre publiques au moins un mois avant l'élection.

9. Le 15 mai 2019, le secrétariat du Conseil des droits de l'homme a adressé une note verbale aux coordonnateurs régionaux concernés pour les encourager à présenter des candidats, et les a informés que la date limite de soumission des candidatures était le 26 juillet 2019¹.

10. Suite à cela, le secrétariat a reçu sept candidatures pour l'élection au Comité consultatif, de la part des gouvernements de l'Algérie, de la Chine, de l'Égypte, de l'Espagne, de la Fédération de Russie, de l'Iran (République islamique d') et du Japon.

11. Les candidatures reçues sont présentées ci-après ; les curriculum vitae des candidats figurent en annexe.
