2020 年 5 月 13 日阿塞拜疆常驻联合国代表给秘书长的信

2020 年 3 月 31 日和 4 月 14 日，亚美尼亚共和国在阿塞拜疆共和国被占领的纳戈尔诺-卡拉巴赫地区举行了非法“选举”。所谓的“选举”是在完全非法的环境中举行的，非法的原因是对阿塞拜疆领土实行持续军事占领和族裔清洗，并且明显违反阿塞拜疆共和国宪法和立法以及国际法规范和原则。国际社会再次以压倒性多数重申了其一贯原则立场，即集体不承认阿塞拜疆领土被占领造成的局势，拒绝伪“选举”并宣布其无效，因此这些“选举”不具有任何作用。在这方面，继我 2020 年 4 月 15 日的信(A/74/805-S/2020/301)之后，谨提请你注意载有国际社会对非法“选举”所持立场的最新汇编文件(见附件)。*

请将本函作为大会议程项目 32、37、68、70、75 和 83 下的文件和安全理事会文件分发给荷。

Position of the international community with regard to the illegitimate
“elections” staged by Armenia in the occupied territories of Azerbaijan

COOPERATION COUNCIL OF TURKIC SPEAKING STATES

Statement by the Cooperation Council of Turkic Speaking States<sup>1</sup>

Istanbul, 31.03.2020

The Cooperation Council of Turkic Speaking States condemns the so-called “presidential and parliamentary elections” in the occupied Nagorno-Karabakh region of the Republic of Azerbaijan, which constitute a clear violation of the norms and principles of international law, including Helsinki Final Act of 1975, and the related UN Security Council Resolutions.

Holding the so-called elections in the occupied territories undermines the efforts within the OSCE Minsk Process to find a peaceful settlement for the Nagorno-Karabakh conflict. We call on the OSCE Minsk Group and the international community not to recognize these illegitimate elections.

The Member States of the Turkic Council reaffirm their commitments to the norms and principles of international law and reiterate the importance of the early settlement of the Armenia-Azerbaijan Nagorno-Karabakh conflict, on the basis of sovereignty, territorial integrity and inviolability of internationally recognized borders of the Republic of Azerbaijan.

COUNCIL OF EUROPE

Statement by the Directorate of Communications of the Council of Europe<sup>2</sup>

Strasbourg, 20.04.2020

The Council of Europe has on numerous occasions reiterated its full commitment to the respect of principle of territorial integrity and sovereignty of all its member states, including Azerbaijan, as outlined in relevant decisions and documents of the Committee of Ministers and the Parliamentary Assembly.

It is the principled and well-known position of the Council of Europe that any elections held in contradiction or outside of the constitutional order of a member state have no legal effects and should not be recognised/considered as such. The same holds true in relation to the recent so-called elections held in Nagorno-Karabakh.

The Council of Europe fully supports the efforts of the OSCE Minsk Group Co-chairs for the peaceful settlement of the conflict.

EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT

Statement by the Chair of the Delegation of the European Parliament to the EU–Armenia Parliamentary Partnership Committee, the EU–Azerbaijan Parliamentary Cooperation Committee and the EU–Georgia Parliamentary Association Committee, MEP Marina Kaljurand on the so-called elections in Nagorno-Karabakh<sup>3</sup>

Brussels, 31.03.2020

Today, ‘presidential and parliamentary elections’ have been held in Nagorno-Karabakh. I wish to reiterate, in line with previous statements from the European Union, that we do not recognise the constitutional and legal framework of these so-called elections and their outcome cannot prejudice the determination of the future status of Nagorno-Karabakh. Moreover, organising these ‘elections’ does not help to create conditions conducive to reconciliation.

The European Union continues to firmly support the OSCE Minsk Group and its efforts to find a peaceful solution to the Nagorno-Karabakh conflict. I call on the sides to step up their commitment to the negotiation process and to the strict observance of the ceasefire, exercising the greatest possible restraint and avoiding any provocations.

EUROPEAN UNION (EU)

This event cannot prejudice the determination of the future status of Nagorno-Karabakh or the outcome of the ongoing negotiation process.

The European Union remains committed in its support to established formats for peaceful resolution of disputes. In the context of the Nagorno-Karabakh conflict settlement, the EU continues to support the efforts and proposals of the Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe Minsk Group Co-Chairs toward the peaceful resolution of the Nagorno-Karabakh conflict, including through the EU Special Representative for the South Caucasus.

In the statement issued by the Spokesperson for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy on 31 March 2020, the EU reiterated that it does not recognise the constitutional and legal framework within which the so-called 'presidential and parliamentary elections' were held in Nagorno-Karabakh on that day. The so-called Presidential and Parliamentary elections to be held on 31 March 2020 in Armenian occupied Nagorno-Karabakh region of Azerbaijan, is a manifestation of the efforts to unilaterally legitimize the current situation in Nagorno-Karabakh, which is contrary to international law. This step is a flagrant violation of international law, including the UN Security Council Resolutions and the OSCE principles.

At a stage when there are talks within the OSCE Minsk Process to find a peaceful settlement for the Nagorno-Karabakh conflict, holding the so-called elections in the occupied territories undermines the efforts towards a peaceful and lasting resolution. We call on the international community, including the OSCE Minsk Group, not to recognise these elections.

Turkey does not recognise these illegitimate elections, which will constitute yet another violation of the sovereignty and territorial integrity of Azerbaijan. As a member of the OSCE Minsk Group, Turkey will continue to support the efforts for finding a just and lasting solution to the Nagorno-Karabakh conflict.

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Ukraine strongly condemns the so-called "presidential and parliamentary elections", held on March 31 in the territory of Nagorno-Karabakh, the Republic of Azerbaijan.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

Statement by the U.S. Department of State<sup>42</sup>

Washington, D.C., 06.04.2020

The United States has taken note of the so-called "general elections" held in Nagorno-Karabakh on March 31. In the context of a comprehensive settlement of the conflict, the United States, as a co-chair country of the OSCE Minsk Group, recognizes the role of the population of Nagorno-Karabakh in deciding its future. The United States does not, however, recognize Nagorno-Karabakh as an independent and sovereign state – no does any other country. Accordingly, it does not accept the results of these so-called "elections" as affecting the legal status of Nagorno-Karabakh, or prejudging the final status of Nagorno-Karabakh or the outcome of the ongoing negotiations to bring a lasting and peaceful settlement to the Nagorno-Karabakh conflict. The United States remains strongly committed to helping the sides achieve a just and lasting peaceful settlement to the conflict and will remain fully engaged in the efforts of the OSCE Minsk Group to achieve this goal.
